Vice President Peña welcomed the members of the Conference of Bishops and the synodical vice presidents in attendance for the first plenary session of the meeting. He stated that the Church Council would enter into a closed session at the conclusion of the second plenary session. He also made several announcements regarding logistics of the 2011 Churchwide Assembly.

REPORTS OF THE OFFICERS
PRESIDING BISHOP MARK S. HANSON
(Agenda I.B.1)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on the Rev. Mark S. Hanson, presiding bishop of the ELCA, who reported:

“I begin today with that refrain that we hear in the Pauline letters: ‘I thank my God for you.’ There is a way the Churchwide Assemblies mark time for us, particularly the marking of the time since 2009. I want to thank God for you, particularly you in synodical leadership—bishops and vice presidents—for the way that you have accompanied congregations, rostered leaders, and members in their discernment about the implications of our 2009 Churchwide Assembly decisions, for their life, for their ministries, for our witness in the world. You have done that with great attentiveness to the Gospel, great care for relationships, grounded always in a commitment to who we are as a confessional, evangelical, ecumenical church—the ELCA—and you have done that faithfully and consistently. So, hear our gratitude.

“I have a deep prayer that this Churchwide Assembly will be like I experienced your synod assemblies and my colleagues in the churchwide organization experienced them this spring. Every time we came back from a weekend, well, we were jazzed. I guess that is a difficult image to imagine of some of us, but we just came back, and over coffee and in the halls, we began to say, ‘Wow, the Spirit was moving at this assembly.’ We heard it in the preaching; we witnessed it in the worship; we sensed it in the mission focus; we were so caught up in the new synodical authorized worshiping communities that are being formed out of those who want to remain in the ELCA. It is my prayer, and you will hear a little later more specifically, that that sense of the Spirit’s presence, moving us, will be part of this assembly.

“A lot of attention has gone, in the past two years, to those who have sought to define us for us. At the same time, I think we as a church body have consistently, prayerfully, thoughtfully been engaged in a process of saying, ‘This is who we discern that God has called us to be as a part of God’s kingdom called the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.’ And our identity is inseparable from the work to which God calls us and the Spirit gives us. You will hear in a little while that this assembly really is a celebration of that shared identity and vocation. It is much more liberating for me to lead a church that is defining itself rather than reacting to those who seek to define us for us. I believe that has been the process of these two years, and that will be the work of this assembly. I think, when we leave this assembly Friday, we will be thanking God for one another but also thanking God for the work of the Spirit in us and through us.

“This spring and summer has also been a time of transition in leadership. A little later in our agenda this morning you will meet some of those elected leaders that some of you on Church Council have been a part of electing. The board of trustees of the Board of Pensions has been involved and also MIF [the Mission Investment Fund of the ELCA]. I am delighted to introduce them to you later. We will also have time to recognize those who have left positions of leadership in the course of this day and this evening.

“The summer has also been a busy time of various groups in this church getting together. Women of the ELCA had a great triennial gathering in Spokane [Washington]. It also had that great sense of being connected not only to women all over the world but to God’s work through women in the world, bringing peace and proclaiming the good news of Jesus. The next week, Lutheran Men in Mission gathered in Denver [Colorado], and there was that same sense of longing to have full engagement of men in the worshipping life of congregations, the leadership of synods and the churchwide organization. We have had several ‘glocal’ events, previously known as Global Mission Events. You will sense, in the mission encounter on Tuesday, we are really bringing together local and global mission experientially, because they are increasingly inseparable for us not only organizationally but how we live God’s mission in the world. Those have been great renewing events.

“So, I look forward to giving you a little opening to the Churchwide Assembly in a little bit, but I want to thank colleagues in the churchwide organization for the way that we have now positioned this new design for the sake of mission, and we are well into living in that new design. I thank each of you for your shared leadership and continue to pray for this assembly that it may honor God’s gift to us in Christ and the Spirit’s work.”

Vice President Peña thanked Presiding Bishop Hanson for his report.

SECRETARY DAVID D. SWARTLING
(Agenda I.B.2)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña asked Mr. David D. Swartling, secretary of the ELCA, to provide an update.

Secretary Swartling noted that specifics about the Churchwide Assembly would be provided later in this meeting. He drew attention to the assembly’s theme, Freed in Christ to Serve, and related it to the work of this church’s assembled leadership. The secretary recalled serving as parliamentarian for the 2005 Churchwide Assembly, which was also held at the Orlando World Center Marriott, and he introduced Mr. John Sleasman, who was serving as parliamentarian for the 2011 Churchwide Assembly.

Vice President Peña thanked Secretary Swartling for his comments.

TREASURER CHRISTINA JACKSON-SKELTON
(Agenda I.B.3; Exhibit F)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Ms. Christina Jackson-Skelton, treasurer of the ELCA, who asked those present to turn to the five-month financial report for the period ending June 30, 2011, which was in Exhibit F of the meeting’s materials. She expressed confidence in the income projections and spending plans for the current fiscal year.
Treasurer Jackson-Skelton reviewed the financial report, which she said she would also present to the 2011 Churchwide Assembly. She discussed mission-support plans, adjustments, and actual income. The treasurer also assessed other sources of income for the churchwide organization.

Vice President Peña thanked the officers for their reports, and those present responded with applause.

Churchwide Assembly Orientation and Preview
(Agenda I.C)

Background:

The Conference of Bishops and synodical vice presidents joined the Church Council for an overview of Churchwide Assembly business and procedures by Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson and Secretary David D. Swartling. The Program booklet and Order of Business of the Churchwide Assembly served as resources for the discussion.

Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson
(Agenda I.C.1)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson, who expanded on the theme of the 2011 Churchwide Assembly and his earlier comments about this assembly focusing on the identity of the ELCA. He outlined many of the non-legislative elements of the gathering. He also summarized some of the issues the assembly would discuss in legislative sessions.

Assembly-Related Matters
(Agenda I.C.2)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña asked Secretary David D. Swartling to present other assembly-related items.

Secretary Swartling provided detailed information about the schedule, agenda, logistics, and organization of the Churchwide Assembly. He made several points about parliamentary procedure and the rules of the assembly.

Vice President Peña asked those present whether they had questions for either Secretary Swartling or Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson.

One person expressed gratitude for the pilot paperless project in which a number of synods will use iPads to access documents at the assembly.

The Rev. Bruce H. Burnside, bishop of the South-Central Synod of Wisconsin, asked for the topics, times, and locations for the hearings of the Churchwide Assembly.

Secretary Swartling drew attention to that information on page 8 of the assembly’s Program.

Vice President Peña thanked Presiding Bishop Hanson and Secretary Swartling for the assembly orientation and preview.

Overview of Proposed Bylaw Amendments
(Agenda I.D; Exhibit D)

At the request of Vice President Carlos E. Peña, Secretary David D. Swartling provided an overview of proposed amendments to the bylaws of 8.31. and 8.32. that would allow an ELCA seminary to be within an ELCA college or university. The proposed revisions are provided below under agenda item II.D.1. and in Exhibit D of the meeting’s materials.

Secretary Swartling noted that conversations between Lenoir-Rhyne University (LRU), Hickory, N.C., and Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary (LTSS), Columbia, S.C., necessitated proposing that the 2011 Churchwide Assembly amend the bylaws. He introduced the Rev. Jonathan P. Strandjord, director for educational partnerships, and the Rev. Mark N. Wilhelm, associate executive director for educational partnerships of the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit, and he asked the chair that they be permitted to address the gathering.
Pr. Wilhelm described this church’s Study of Theological Education, adopted by the 1995 Churchwide Assembly, and its groundwork for a network of theological education that could adapt to a variety of scenarios. Informal talks between the presidents of LRU and LTSS had evolved into initiation of a feasibility study of the seminary’s becoming a graduate school of the university. The boards of both institutions approved implementing the findings of the study by the summer of 2012, he reported, if such barriers as the related bylaws of the ELCA could be overcome. Current bylaws require seminaries of this church to be separately incorporated.

Pr. Strandjord drew the gathering’s attention to provisions 8.31. and 8.32. and their intent that seminaries of this church be accountable to this church and that this church “sponsor, support, and provide for oversight of” its seminaries. He said the proposed bylaw revisions maintain that interrelationship whether the seminary is separately incorporated or not.

Secretary Swartling announced that the Church Council would act on the proposed bylaw amendments during the second plenary session of the meeting and that the proposal had been reviewed by the council’s Legal and Constitutional Review Committee.

Vice President Peña asked that the proposal be discussed during the second plenary session.

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, bishop of the Northeastern Ohio Synod, observed that the interrelationships of several colleges and universities of the ELCA with this church were waning. She expressed caution that a seminary within such a university may experience a similar move away from the ELCA.

Pr. Strandjord suggested that the proposed bylaw amendments require an interrelationship with this church that would draw the seminary’s university closer to the ELCA.

Vice President Peña asked that the proposal be discussed further during the second plenary session.

NOMINATIONS, APPOINTMENTS AND ELECTIONS

(Agenda I.E)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña commented on the transition in leadership that Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson had mentioned in his report. The chair invited the presiding bishop to make related introductions.

Presiding Bishop Hanson noted that Ms. Christina Jackson-Skelton continued as treasurer through the end of August 2011. He introduced the Rev. Linda O. Norman as treasurer-elect of the ELCA and described her background.

Pr. Norman expressed her gratitude for the leaders of this church.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

(Agenda I.E.1)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Mr. John G. Kapanke, president of the Board of Pensions.

Mr. Kapanke announced that the Rev. Jeffrey D. Thiemann would become president and chief executive officer of the Board of Pensions on October 1, 2011. Mr. Kapanke presented Pr. Thiemann’s background.

Pr. Thiemann said he looked forward to continuing promotion of the physical and emotional health of this church’s leaders.

MISSION INVESTMENT FUND

(Agenda I.E.2)

Vice President Carlos E. Peña asked Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson to continue the introductions.

Presiding Bishop Hanson noted that Treasurer Christina Jackson-Skelton had served as president of the Mission Investment Fund of the ELCA (MIF) and that she also would be leaving that position to become executive director of the Mission Advancement unit.

The presiding bishop introduced Ms. Eva M. Roby as president-elect of the MIF and outlined her background.

Ms. Roby expressed her interest in talking individually at some time with each person in attendance.
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP

Presiding Bishop Mark S. Hanson mentioned that Ms. Myrna J. Sheie planned to retire on August 31, 2011, as executive for governance and institutional relations in the Office of the Presiding Bishop.

The presiding bishop introduced as Ms. Sheie’s successor, Ms. Jodi L. Slattery, who had served as program director for grassroots advocacy and communication in the ELCA Washington, D.C., office.

Ms. Slattery expressed gratitude for her opportunity to serve this church and for Ms. Sheie’s example of leadership.

Presiding Bishop Hanson announced that Ms. Kathryn Lohre had accepted the position of director for ecumenical and inter-religious relations of the ELCA, effective October 2011. Ms. Lohre also will be installed in November 2011 as president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

Vice President Peña congratulated those who had been elected or appointed to new positions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Secretary David D. Swartling to make some announcements.

Secretary Swartling gave instructions regarding lunch and a photo of the Church Council members to be taken before Plenary Session II. He also described the locations for the afternoon sessions.

RECESS

The August 14, 2011, meeting of the Church Council recessed at 12:06 P.M. EDT.
Vice President Carlos E. Peña called the second plenary session of the August 14, 2011, meeting to order at 1:31 P.M. EDT in the Key West Ballroom of the of the Orlando World Center Marriott at Orlando, Florida.

Dwelling in the Word
(Agenda II.B)
Vice President Carlos E. Peña asked Mr. Mark S. Helmke to share his reflections on “dwelling in the Word.” Mr. Helmke recalled the death of his brother while touring Europe together and relying on his pocket Bible to summon the words of Romans 8: “For I am convinced that neither death, nor life . . . will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Revisions to ELCA Governing Documents
Churchwide Assembly Recommendations: Governing Documents
(Agenda II.D.1; Exhibit D)
Background:
The Church Council has the responsibility for submitting recommendations for action by the 2011 Churchwide Assembly. According to provision 22.21. of the ELCA constitution:

Bylaws not in conflict with this constitution may be adopted or amended at any regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly when presented in writing by the Church Council or by at least 15 members of the assembly. An amendment proposed by members of the assembly shall immediately be submitted to the Committee of Reference and Counsel for its recommendation. In no event shall an amendment be placed before the assembly for action sooner than the day following its presentation to the assembly. A two-thirds vote of the members present and voting shall be necessary for adoption.

Proposed bylaws had been recommended to the Church Council by its Legal and Constitutional Review Committee to facilitate a merger between Lenoir-Rhyne University (LRU), Hickory, N.C., and Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary (LTSS), Columbia, S.C.

Background information from the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit:
Over the past several years the ELCA’s seminaries have been working with each other and with other partners to organize their educational and administrative work in ways that advance a strong, wide-reaching, and sustainable theological education network that meets the leadership needs of a church in mission. In this work, ELCA colleges and universities have emerged as particularly important partners. In conversations over the past several months, LTSS and LRU have come to the conviction, in consultation with synod bishops, the ELCA seminary presidents, and churchwide leaders, that the two schools can best serve the ELCA’s work of theological education by moving toward merger, with LTSS becoming part of LRU.

In their current form, ELCA bylaws relating to seminaries require them to be separately incorporated. During the past several months, the Office of the Secretary has worked with the leadership of LTSS, LRU, and staff of the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit to enable a seminary to be part of an ELCA college or university. The proposed revisions were crafted to allow these seminaries within colleges or universities to have the same close connections with the rest of this church that separately incorporated seminaries enjoy.

New proposed bylaw 8.31.01. would authorize a seminary of this church to be an unincorporated “school, department, or unit of a college or university of this church.” Such an unincorporated seminary would have an advisory council or governing board distinct from the board of directors of the college or university (8.31.04.), as well as a chief administrative officer instead of a president (8.31.06.). As with incorporated seminaries, changes to governing documents of unincorporated seminaries affiliated with a college or university would require approval by the ELCA Church Council (8.31.02.), and such seminaries would remain subject to ELCA constitutional provision 8.31. with respect to sponsorship, support, and oversight. New proposed bylaw 8.32.06. would require a college or university of this church that includes a seminary to comply with provision 8.31. and its associated bylaws. Finally, some language in bylaws relating to separately incorporated seminaries has been proposed to better reflect current standard practices in higher education.

The Conference of Bishops, presidents of seminaries, and presidents of colleges and universities have reviewed the proposed bylaws.

Church Council Action:

Vice President Carlos E. Peña reminded the Church Council of the discussion on this topic that had begun during the first plenary session of this meeting. He called on Secretary David D. Swartling to provide further background information.

Secretary Swartling noted that the Rev. Jonathan P. Strandjord and the Rev. Mark N. Wilhelm were available to answer any additional questions. The secretary described the review process that the proposed amendments had gone through, mindful of the precedent it may set for theological education in this church.

The Rev. Philip R. Wold asked whether there are other examples of two seminary board members elected “by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number.”

Pr. Strandjord replied that it was the current practice for seminary boards.

Pr. Wilhelm also responded that the proposed board structure would carry over from the current policy.

Ms. Rebecca Jo Brakke raised a series of questions about the logistics and possible fundraising coordination of LRU and LTSS.

Pr. Strandjord remarked that many of the fundraising efforts of the seminary had already been contracted through the university.

Pr. Wilhelm added that, as a graduate school of the university, the university would assume responsibility for many of the seminary’s donor and alumni operations.

Ms. Sandra Schlesinger asked whether other church bodies were doing anything similar.

Pr. Wilhelm replied that other Christian denominations in the United States have seminaries that are graduate schools within universities. He added that ELCA seminaries have the distinction of being more closely related to their church. He mentioned as well that, if the ELCA amends its bylaws, the board of LRU will need to amend the university’s bylaws to conform to them.

Ms. Susan W. McArver asked whether colleges would agree to this relationship while many are loosening their ties with this church.

Pr. Wilhelm indicated that, compared with other church bodies, the ELCA’s colleges and universities are more closely related to their church. He added that the proposed opportunity to incorporate a seminary into the college or university would likely strengthen the relationship between that college or university and this church.

The Rev. Jeffrey “Jeff” B. Sorenson asked whether the proposed bylaw amendments would make it possible for a college or university of the ELCA to develop a school of theology with another church body.

Pr. Strandjord responded that it would be possible; however, the decision would not be made unilaterally by the college or university; the Church Council would have to agree.

Secretary Swartling pointed out that seminaries are required to be participants in the Board of Pensions plans while the colleges and universities are not. Retirement and benefit negotiations are involved in the merger.

The Rev. Steven P. Loy envisioned theological education consolidating into a small number of institutions across the United States in the next 50 years.

Pr. Wilhelm commented on the relationships of seminaries and universities. He added that the broad variety of structures for seminaries did not lend themselves to consolidation.

The Rev. Heather S. Lubold asked what it would mean for a seminary to become unincorporated.

Mr. Phillip H. Harris, general counsel of the ELCA, replied that an unincorporated seminary could not own property and would no longer completely govern itself. The seminary could not be sued, and the university would bear the consequences of the seminary’s decisions. He suggested thinking of an incorporated seminary as a person and an unincorporated seminary as a member of a family.

Pr. Lubold asked whether there was any risk in the university dissolving the seminary.

Pr. Strandjord responded that dissolution would mean taking the assets of the seminary and reassigning them. The assets of LTSS are restricted for the purpose of providing Lutheran theological education. He added that the greatest asset of LTSS is its array of relationships as a Lutheran seminary.

The Rev. Keith A. Hunsinger asked whether the seminary would become “unincorporated” or “no longer separately incorporated.”

Mr. Harris replied that “no longer separately incorporated” implied that the seminary would be incorporated in some other way.

Mr. David A. Ullrich, associate general counsel of the ELCA, noted that this church’s regions are unincorporated. They function independently, but their budgets and staffing are part of the churchwide organization.

Pr. Hunsinger mentioned that LTSS would have corporate protections under LRU.

Pr. Loy asked whether LRU had plans to liquidate the property of LTSS in Columbia, S.C.

Pr. Wilhelm responded that LRU would be the sole surviving entity of the agreement, the capital assesses of LTSS are part of the negotiations, and it was conceivable that the real estate in Columbia could be liquidated. He added that it was LRU’s immediate intention to develop graduate programs in addition to the seminary on the Columbia campus.

Mr. Mark W. Myers asked whether control of the seminary curriculum would be at risk.

Pr. Strandjord replied that the curriculum would be protected in much the same way as it is at separately incorporated seminaries of the ELCA.

Pr. Wilhelm said the seminary faculty takes leadership in protecting the curriculum.

The Rev. Kathryn A. Tiede asked whether Ms. McArver, who is on the faculty of LTSS as a professor of Church history and educational ministry, had any thoughts on the matter of the seminary’s becoming part of LRU.

Ms. McArver replied that the seminary faculty was considering the advantages and disadvantages of becoming a graduate school of LRU.

Mr. Harris reminded the council that it was not being asked to approve the merger of a seminary and university; it was making such a merger possible if the two institutions agree to merge.

Secretary Swartling made the following motion on behalf of the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee.

Moved:
Seconded:
To recommend the following for adoption by the 2011 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America:

To adopt the following amendments to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America:

8.30.  Relationship with Institutions and Agencies

8.31.  Seminaries. This church shall sponsor, support, and provide for oversight of seminaries for the preparation of persons for the ordained and other ministries and for continuing study on the part of ordained ministers and laypersons.

8.31.01.  Each seminary shall be a seminary of this church, shall be separately incorporated, and or, if unincorporated, shall be a school, department or unit of a college or university of this church. Whether separately incorporated or not, seminaries of this church shall be governed by its board of directors consistent with policies established by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization. Seminaries may be organized into groupings, known as clusters, for the purposes of cooperation, interaction and support.*
Amendments to the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary and each seminary cluster shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval. Amendments to the governing documents of a college or university of this church that affect the authority or integrity of an unincorporated seminary of this church associated with that college or university shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval.

The board of directors of each separately incorporated seminary shall be nominated and elected to terms as specified in the governing documents of the respective seminaries, and shall consist of 20 to 30 members, as follows:

a. At least one-fifth nominated, in consultation with the seminaries, by the appropriate churchwide unit and elected by the Church Council;
b. Two members elected by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number; and
c. The remaining members elected by the supporting synods, in consultation with the seminaries, with the number to be elected by each synod set forth in the governing documents of the seminary.

Elections shall be so arranged that the terms of all directors of any given seminary elected in any year shall commence simultaneously.

Each unincorporated seminary shall have an advisory council or governing board distinct from the board of directors of the college or university of which the seminary is a school, department or unit. The seminary advisory council or governing board shall relate to the Church Council through the appropriate churchwide unit. The members of the unincorporated seminary’s advisory council or governing board shall be elected as specified in the governing documents of the related college or university, and shall consist of 12 to 30 members, as follows:

a. At least one-fifth nominated by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board;
b. Two members nominated by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number;
c. One member, who shall serve as chair of the advisory council or governing board and as a voting member of the board of directors of the college or university, nominated by the Church Council, upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board; and
d. The remaining members to be from the supporting synods, nominated by the seminary’s advisory council or governing board in consultation with the supporting synods.

In accordance with the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary, the board of directors shall elect the president of the seminary in consultation with the presiding bishop of this church and the appropriate churchwide unit of the churchwide organization as designated by the Church Council, elect and retain faculty and administrative officers, and approve educational policies and programs for persons preparing for public ministry. The board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the granting of degrees, holding title to and managing all seminary property and assets, receiving gifts and bequests, establishing salaries for faculty and administrative officers, providing for the financial resources and fiscal contracts required to operate the seminary, appointment of tenured faculty, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

8.31.0406. Each unincorporated seminary shall have a chief administrative officer, such as an academic dean, seminary provost, or vice president, who is on the roster of ordained ministers of this church. In the appointment or election of the chief administrative officer of the seminary, the college or university shall consult with the seminary advisory council or governing board, the presiding bishop of this church, and the appropriate churchwide unit. The college or university board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the appointment of tenured faculty, in consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

8.31.07. The seminaries shall receive churchwide and synodical financial support. The amount of such support shall be determined through a consultation process involving seminaries, synods, and the appropriate churchwide unit of the churchwide organization as designated by the Church Council. ¶8.31.05. To implement financial support by this church, synods shall be assigned to specific seminaries in such manner as to attain equitable distribution of synods. Normally, all synods in a given region will be assigned to one seminary. Churchwide funds shall be distributed according to a formula developed by the appropriate churchwide unit and approved by the Church Council. ¶8.31.06. Seminaries shall provide for their remaining financial requirements through tuition, fees, endowment income, and fund-raising programs. Fund-raising in the congregations of supporting synods, however, shall be conducted only upon approval of the synods.

8.31.0708. Aid to students preparing for the ministries of this church shall be administered by the seminaries under guidelines developed by the appropriate churchwide units in consultation with the presidents of the seminaries and adopted by the Church Council.

8.32. Colleges and Universities. This church shall express its responsibility for higher education through its colleges and universities, the appropriate churchwide unit as determined by the Church Council, and its synods. While variation is possible in college or university relationships across this church, this church recognizes the desirability of some degree of uniformity of relationship for colleges and universities within the same region.

8.32.01. The relationship of this church to its colleges and universities shall be guided by policies fostering educational institutions dedicated to the Lutheran tradition wherein such institutions are an essential part of God’s mission in the world; faithful to the will of God as institutions providing quality instruction in religion and a lively ministry of worship, outreach, and service; diligent in their preparation of leaders committed to truth, excellence, and ethical values; and pledged to the well-being of students in the development of mind, body, and spirit.

8.32.02. Colleges and universities of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may relate to this church in various ways, including relationship with the Churchwide Assembly, a synodical assembly, or a corporation whose voting members are, or have been elected by, synodical assemblies, other organizational units (conferences, clusters, etc.), or congregations. Subject to approval by the appropriate synods, a college or university may be owned by a not-for-profit corporation (1) that has voting members, at least 90 percent of whom shall consist of members of the Churchwide Assembly, and (2) that shall hold the meeting of such a corporation in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly for the purpose of electing or ratifying members of the governing board and approving amendments to the governing documents. At least 60 percent of the members of the governing boards of the corporations that meet in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly shall be members of this church.

8.32.03. Primary responsibility for recruiting members for its board belongs to each college or university of this church. This responsibility is best exercised when appropriate structures of this church are substantially involved. The college or university and the appropriate synods shall determine how many of the college or university board members are to be elected or ratified by the approved form of relationship as provided in 8.32.02.

8.32.04. The responsibility for initiating changes in constitutional documents rests with each college or university of this church. Each college or university will reach agreement with the appropriate structures of this church as identified in 8.32.02. regarding changes in constitutional documents. This church’s participation may range from prior consultation to final approval.

8.32.05. Representation of members of this church on college or university boards, limitation of terms for board members, whether or not college or university presidents shall be members of this church, and representation of bishops of synods on college or university boards shall be determined by each institution and the appropriate synods.

8.32.06. In addition to and consistent with the above provision 8.32. and bylaws 8.32.01. through 8.32.05., colleges and universities of this church where a school, department or unit of that institution is a seminary of this church must comply with all requirements, policies, procedures and standards specified in provision 8.31. and bylaws 8.31.01. through 8.31.08.

Secretary Swartling said that constitutional amendments were being recommended to the Churchwide Assembly in three categories and these proposed amendments would be included in the en bloc consideration of general amendments to the constitution.

Pr. Sorenson observed that Lutheran theological education in the United States is benefitting by the presence of non-Lutherans and non-Christians on the same campus.

Pr. Tiede cited an article by the Rev. Marcus J. Miller, president of LTSS, in which he espoused the seminary being in a more populated context to advance the seminary’s mission of reaching more people with the Gospel.

Pr. Rachel L. Connelly asked whether the bylaw amendments would make it possible for the seminary of a full-communion partner church body to be incorporated into an ELCA institution.

Pr. Wilhelm replied that this bylaw change does not address two seminaries seeking institutional merger.

Pr. Strandjord responded that church-to-church agreements would have to be made first, but such mergers may be possible in the future.

There being no further discussion, Vice President Peña called for the vote.
VOTED:
CC11.08.48

To recommend the following for adoption by the 2011 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America:

To adopt the following amendments to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America:

8.30. Relationship with Institutions and Agencies

8.31. Seminaries. This church shall sponsor, support, and provide for oversight of seminaries for the preparation of persons for the ordained and other ministries and for continuing study on the part of ordained ministers and laypersons.

8.31.01. Each seminary shall be a seminary of this church; shall be separately incorporated; and or, if unincorporated, shall be a school, department or unit of a college or university of this church. Whether separately incorporated or not, seminaries of this church shall be governed by its board of directors consistent with policies established by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization. Seminaries may be organized into groupings, known as clusters, for the purposes of cooperation, interaction and support.

8.31.02. Amendments to the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary and each seminary cluster shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval. Amendments to the governing documents of a college or university of this church that affect the authority or integrity of an unincorporated seminary of this church associated with that college or university shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval.

8.31.0203. The board of directors of each separately incorporated seminary shall be nominated and elected to terms as specified in the governing documents of the respective seminaries, and shall consist of 20 to 30 members, as follows:
   a. At least one-fifth nominated, in consultation with the seminaries, by the appropriate churchwide unit and elected by the Church Council;
   b. Two members elected by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number; and
   c. The remaining members elected by the supporting synods, in consultation with the seminaries, with the number to be elected by each synod set forth in the governing documents of the seminary.

Elections shall be so arranged that the terms of all directors of any given seminary elected in any year shall commence simultaneously.
8.31.0304. Each unincorporated seminary shall have an advisory council or governing board distinct from the board of directors of the college or university of which the seminary is a school, department or unit. The seminary advisory council or governing board shall relate to the Church Council through the appropriate churchwide unit. The members of the unincorporated seminary’s advisory council or governing board shall be elected as specified in the governing documents of the related college or university, and shall consist of 12 to 30 members, as follows:

a. At least one-fifth nominated by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board;

b. Two members nominated by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number;

c. One member, who shall serve as chair of the advisory council or governing board and as a voting member of the board of directors of the college or university, nominated by the Church Council, upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board; and

d. The remaining members to be from the supporting synods, nominated by the seminary’s advisory council or governing board in consultation with the supporting synods.

8.31.05. In accordance with the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary, the board of directors shall elect the president of the seminary in consultation with the presiding bishop of this church and the appropriate churchwide unit of the churchwide organization as designated by the Church Council, elect and retain faculty and administrative officers, and approve educational policies and programs for persons preparing for public ministry. The board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the granting of degrees, holding title to and managing all seminary property and assets, receiving gifts and bequests, establishing salaries for faculty and administrative officers, providing for the financial resources and fiscal contracts required to operate the seminary, appointment of tenured faculty, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

8.31.0406. Each unincorporated seminary shall have a chief administrative officer, such as an academic dean, seminary provost, or vice president, who is on the roster of ordained ministers of this church. In the appointment or election of the chief administrative officer of the seminary, the college or university shall consult with the seminary advisory council or governing board, the presiding bishop of this church, and the appropriate churchwide unit. The college or university board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the appointment of tenured faculty, in consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

8.31.07. The seminaries shall receive churchwide and synodical financial support. The amount of such support shall be determined through a consultation process involving seminaries, synods, and the appropriate churchwide unit of the churchwide organization as designated by the Church Council. ¶8.31.05: To implement financial support by this church, synods shall be assigned to specific seminaries in such manner as to attain equitable distribution of synods. Normally, all synods in a given region will be assigned to one seminary. Churchwide funds shall be distributed according to a formula developed by the appropriate churchwide unit and approved by the Church Council. ¶8.31.06. Seminaries shall provide for their remaining financial requirements through tuition, fees, endowment income, and fund-raising programs. Fund-raising in the congregations of supporting synods, however, shall be conducted only upon approval of the synods.

8.31.0708. Aid to students preparing for the ministries of this church shall be administered by the seminaries under guidelines developed by the appropriate churchwide units in consultation with the presidents of the seminaries and adopted by the Church Council.

8.32. Colleges and Universities. This church shall express its responsibility for higher education through its colleges and universities, the appropriate churchwide unit as determined by the Church Council, and its synods. While variation is possible in college or university relationships across this church, this church recognizes the desirability of some degree of uniformity of relationship for colleges and universities within the same region.

8.32.01. The relationship of this church to its colleges and universities shall be guided by policies fostering educational institutions dedicated to the Lutheran tradition wherein such institutions are an essential part of God’s mission in the world; faithful to the will of God as institutions providing quality instruction in religion and a lively ministry of worship, outreach, and service; diligent in their preparation of leaders committed to truth, excellence, and ethical values; and pledged to the well-being of students in the development of mind, body, and spirit.

8.32.02. Colleges and universities of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may relate to this church in various ways, including relationship with the Churchwide Assembly, a synodical assembly, or a corporation whose voting members are, or have been elected by, synodical assemblies, other organizational units (conferences, clusters, etc.), or congregations. Subject to approval by the appropriate synods, a college or university may be owned by a not-for-profit corporation (1) that has voting members, at least 90 percent of whom shall consist of members of the Churchwide Assembly, and (2) that shall hold the meeting of such a corporation in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly for the purpose of electing or ratifying members of the governing board and approving amendments to the governing documents. At least 60 percent of the members of the governing boards of the corporations that meet in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly shall be members of this church.

8.32.03. Primary responsibility for recruiting members for its board belongs to each college or university of this church. This responsibility is best exercised when appropriate structures of this church are substantially involved. The college or university and the appropriate synods shall determine how many of the college or university board members are to be elected or ratified by the approved form of relationship as provided in 8.32.02.

8.32.04. The responsibility for initiating changes in constitutional documents rests with each college or university of this church. Each college or university will reach agreement with the appropriate structures of this church as identified in 8.32.02. regarding changes in constitutional documents. This church’s participation may range from prior consultation to final approval.

8.32.05. Representation of members of this church on college or university boards, limitation of terms for board members, whether or not college or university presidents shall be members of this church, and representation of bishops of synods on college or university boards shall be determined by each institution and the appropriate synods.

8.32.06. In addition to and consistent with the above provision 8.32. and bylaws 8.32.01. through 8.32.05., colleges and universities of this church where a school, department or unit of that institution is a seminary of this church must comply with all requirements, policies, procedures and standards specified in provision 8.31. and bylaws 8.31.01. through 8.31.08.

Vice President Peña declared that the motion had been approved.
Secretary Swartling thanked Pr. Strandjord and Pr. Wilhelm for providing the council with background information.

Church Council Information:
Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Secretary David D. Swartling, who explained that the Church Council had approved a recommendation to the Churchwide Assembly in November 2010 to amend the ELCA constitutions. It had also asked that editorial revisions to the recommendation be reported to the council. The secretary reported the revisions listed above, noting that the withdrawn changes may be considered substantive revisions. The recommendation to eliminate coalitions and special interest groups received feedback prompting reconsideration of the proposal. He suggested the council may recommend elimination of special interest groups to the 2013 Churchwide Assembly after further review.
INTRODUCTION OF NEW COUNCIL MEMBER

Vice President Carlos E. Peña noted that the Church Council had elected [CC11.04.19] the Rev. Yvonne I. Marshall to complete an unexpired term on the council and that she had attended conference call meetings of the Church Council, but this was the first meeting of the council that she had physically attended. He introduced Pr. Marshall.

Pr. Marshall described her background.

SYNOD MISSION-SUPPORT PLANS

REVISIONS TO 2011 SYNOD MISSION-SUPPORT PLANS
(Agenda II.E.1; Exhibit F)

Background:

The Church Council has responsibility for reviewing and taking action on synod mission-support plans as an interdependent partner with congregations and synods in implementing and strengthening the financial support for the work of this church (ELCA Constitution, 8.15. and 10.71.). Since the Budget and Finance Committee, which usually makes recommendations to the Church Council for action on synod mission-support plans, had not met prior to this council meeting, the Office of the Presiding Bishop and the Office of the Treasurer recommended the following actions on revisions to 2011 synod mission-support plans and on 2012 synod mission-support plans.

Exhibit F, Part 2 showed the actual mission support received from each synod for 2010 with plans and any revisions for the 2011 and 2012 fiscal years.

Since the April 2011 Church Council meeting, revisions for 2011 mission-support plans had been received from 17 synods. Two synods had increased their percentage share and five synods had decreased their percentage share. The other 10 synods remained at their previous percentage sharing plans.

Council Council Action:

Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Secretary David D. Swartling, who made the following motion.

Moved; Seconded:

To acknowledge with sadness that circumstances in the following synods have led to decisions to seek a decrease in the percentage of sharing of 2011 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries; to encourage each synod to continue to work to grow mission support in the synod; and to request that each synod develop a plan, in consultation with the churchwide organization, to restore or surpass the previous level of mission-support sharing:

Metropolitan Chicago; Greater Milwaukee; Southeast Michigan; Southern Ohio; and Caribbean synods;

To acknowledge with thanksgiving the decision of the following synods to increase the percentage of sharing of 2011 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries:

Arkansas-Oklahoma and Upper Susquehanna synods;

To acknowledge with thanksgiving the decision of the following synods to maintain the percentage of sharing of 2011 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries but estimating an adjustment in the estimated amount to be shared:

Northwest Washington; Southwestern Washington; Pacifica; Northeastern Minnesota; Southwestern Minnesota; Nebraska; Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast; Central/Southern Illinois; South-Central Synod of Wisconsin; New England; and Southeastern Pennsylvania synods; and

To thank the bishops and synod leaders of every synod as they strive to be faithful to shared commitments within the ELCA, and to direct synod and churchwide staff, including the directors for evangelical mission, to deepen their partnership in efforts to strengthen financial support for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

There being no discussion, Vice President Peña called for the vote.

Vice President Peña declared that the motion had been approved.

2012 SYNOD MISSION-SUPPORT PLANS
(Agenda II.E.2)
Background:
Notification of mission-support plans for 2012 had not been received from four synods. Since the April 2011 Church Council meeting, notification of original plans or revisions to previously submitted plans had been received from 34 synods.

Church Council Action:
Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Secretary David D. Swartling, who made the following motion.

Moved;
Seconded:

To acknowledge with sadness that circumstances in the following synods have led to decisions to seek a decrease from prior levels in the percentage of sharing of 2012 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries; to encourage each synod to continue to work to grow mission support in the synod; and to request that each synod develop a plan, in consultation with the churchwide organization, to restore or surpass the previous level of mission-support sharing: Metropolitan Chicago; Southeast Michigan; and West Virginia-Western Maryland synods;
To acknowledge with thanksgiving the decision of the following synods to increase the percentage of sharing of 2012 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries: Alaska; Eastern Washington-Idaho; Sierra-Pacific; Arkansas-Oklahoma; Western Iowa; Southern Ohio; Delaware-Maryland; Virginia; Florida-Bahamas; and Caribbean synods;

To acknowledge with thanksgiving the decision of the following synods to maintain the percentage of sharing of 2012 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries: Northwest Washington; Southwest California; Pacifica; Grand Canyon; Eastern North Dakota; Northwestern Minnesota; Southwestern Minnesota; Minneapolis Area; Saint Paul Area; Central/Southern Illinois; Southeastern Iowa; Greater Milwaukee; South-Central Synod of Wisconsin; North/West Lower Michigan; Indiana-Kentucky; Northeastern Pennsylvania; Southeastern Pennsylvania; Slovak Zion; Northwestern Pennsylvania; Allegheny; and Upper Susquehanna synods;

To thank the bishops and synod leaders of every synod as they strive to be faithful to shared commitments within the ELCA, and to direct synod and churchwide staff, including the directors for evangelical mission, to deepen their partnership in efforts to strengthen financial support for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; and

To request that the following synods submit their 2012 mission-support plans: Western North Dakota; Northwestern Ohio; Northeastern Ohio; and Metropolitan New York synods.

Vice President Peña invited the Rev. A. Craig Settlage, director for mission support, to address the council.

Pr. Settlage noted that the previous action had acknowledged a decrease in mission support from some synods in 2011. He reported that mission-support plans for 2012 were more encouraging. Since the April 2011 meeting of the Church Council, three synods had indicated their need to decrease their mission-support percentage, 10 synods had increased their mission-support percentage, and 22 had maintain their mission support at their 2012 percentage.

Treasurer Christina Jackson-Skelton noted that changes to mission-support plans are usually reported to the Church Council at its spring meeting. The economic situation had made it difficult for synods to plan their budgets and mission support prior to that meeting, she said, and four synods had not yet reported their plans.

The Rev. Jeffrey “Jeff” B. Sorenson pointed out that the motion included “to direct synod and churchwide staff,” and he asked whether the Church Council had the authority to direct synod staff.

Secretary Swartling replied that directors for evangelical mission are both synod and churchwide staff.

Treasurer Jackson-Skelton responded that the wording had been recommended by the liaison bishops to the council.

The Rev. Amsalu T. Geleta asked how synods respond to the council’s request for their plans.

Pr. Settlage replied that the council’s action was part of a continuing conversation with the synods.

There being no further discussion, Vice President Peña called for the vote.

VOTED:
CC11.08.50 To acknowledge with sadness that circumstances in the following synods have led to decisions to seek a decrease from prior levels in the percentage of sharing of 2012 mission-support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries; to encourage each synod to continue to work to grow mission support in the synod; and to request that each synod develop a plan, in consultation with the churchwide organization, to restore or surpass the previous level of mission-support sharing: Metropolitan Chicago; Southeast Michigan; and West Virginia-Western Maryland synods;

Vice President Peña declared that the motion had been approved.

ELCA Risk Management, Inc. and Educational and Institutional Insurance Administrators, Inc.

(Agenda II.H.4; Exhibit B, Appendix 1)

Background:

Since 1988, the churchwide organization has provided risk management and insurance services to ELCA colleges, universities, and seminaries through ELCA Risk Management, Inc. (ELCARM), an Illinois not-for-profit corporation created specifically to provide these services to ELCA institutions of higher education. At present, 22 of 26 ELCA colleges and universities and all eight ELCA seminaries use ELCARM for these services. To make the services available, ELCARM has worked in concert with Education and Institutional Insurance Administrators, Inc. (EIJA), which is a risk management corporation of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church.

EIJA was formed for the purpose of providing similar insurance and risk management services to Methodist institutions of higher education. EIJA staff is composed of skilled insurance professionals and support staff, all of whom are full-time employees working solely on insurance affairs of ELCARM and three other consortia of denominational educational institutions, one related to the United Methodist Churches (UMC), one related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) (PCUSA), and one related to the American Baptist Churches (ABC). Each denomination has worked with EIJA through its own separate corporation, similar to ELCARM, representing affiliated colleges, universities, and seminaries; these are referred to as the consortia. Collectively, these four consortia represent 138 church-related institutions of higher education, whose aggregate property, casualty, auto, general liability, and worker’s compensation insurance premiums are the equivalent of the insurance premiums paid by a Fortune 200 corporation.

Under the existing corporate structure for ELCARM, the Church Council appointed five directors to the board of ELCARM, and the member institutions elected four directors to the board. This ELCARM board met July 19–21, 2011, in Chicago, Illinois, separately and in joint session with the directors of the UMC, PCUSA, and ABC consortia, to consider approving a plan to merge the consortia corporations, with EIJA as the surviving company. The proposal to merge was prompted primarily by a desire to relieve EIJA staff, participating church bodies, and member institutions of the administrative costs and inefficiencies attendant to managing multiple related consortia. The plan of merger was approved unanimously by ELCARM and by the other consortia.

The plan of merger now will be submitted to the membership of ELCARM and the other consortia for adoption. The members are the participating educational institutions in each consortia, and they have final authority to approve the merger. All member institutions of ELCARM automatically will become members of the new EIJA when the merger becomes effective. The new EIJA will continue the existing risk management and insurance services currently provided to ELCA institutions under ELCARM. After approval by the members, it is anticipated that the merger will become effective October 1, 2011.

Under the proposed merger, each denomination’s participation in the new EIJA will be represented through a lead director. Together with lead directors of the other participating church bodies, the ELCA lead director will nominate and confirm the election of other directors for the board of the merged EIJA from the member institutions. The board of directors of the merged EIJA will have 22 or 23 members with the ELCA holding four seats, including that of the lead director. Only the UMC, which has the most member institutions, will have more directors than the ELCA. The ELCA lead director must be appointed by the Church Council, and the ELCARM board has unanimously endorsed the Rev. Mark N. Wilhelm, associate executive director for educational partnerships, Congregational and Synodical Mission.

Exhibit B, Appendix 1, describes the merger and reorganization in greater detail.

VOTED:

CC11.08.55 To appoint the Rev. Mark N. Wilhelm as lead director for the ELCA on the Board of Directors of Educational and Institutional Insurance Administrators, Inc., effective upon the merger of ELCA Risk Management, Inc., with and into Educational and Institutional Insurance Administrators, Inc.

SOCIAL MINISTRY ORGANIZATIONS

WHEREAS, Our Calling in Education “calls the ELCA in light of our faith to engage, deliberate, and act with respect to four contexts: home and congregation, public education, this church’s educational institutions, and public colleges and universities. Our calling in relationship to the fourth context in education is to support public higher education to serve the common good and rejoice in the faithful presence of campus ministry in public colleges and universities” (emphasis added); and

WHEREAS, the ELCA has announced a 38 percent reduction in support (from fiscal year 2011 to fiscal year 2012) for campus ministries and encouraged greater involvement and support from synods, congregations, and individuals; and

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF INDEPENDENT LUTHERAN ORGANIZATION
(Agenda II.H.12)

Background:

Bylaw 14.21.16. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America states:

The Church Council shall establish the criteria and policies for the relationship between this church and independent, cooperative, and related Lutheran organizations. The policies adopted by the Church Council shall be administered by the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization. The determination of which organization shall relate to a specific unit of the churchwide organization shall be made by the Church Council.

At its April 2006 meeting, the Church Council voted [CC06.04.27] to approve a revised “Policy on Relationships of Churchwide Units with Independent Lutheran Organizations.” The revision was made necessary by changes in structure, governance, and the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

In accordance with the revised policy, the Rev. Stephen P. Bouman, executive director of the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit, in consultation with the Office of the Treasurer, recommended that the Wartburg Foundation be acknowledged as an independent Lutheran organization in relationship to the ELCA through the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit.

VOTED:

CC11.08.63 To acknowledge, in accordance with bylaw 14.21.16. of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the “Policy on Relationships of Churchwide Units with Independent Lutheran Organizations,” the Wartburg Foundation, which will relate to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America through the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit.
FEEDBACK FROM THE CLASS OF 2011
(Agenda II.I)

Background:
At its final meeting of the biennium, the Church Council invites its retiring members to reflect on their experiences as members of the council. In April 2011, members provided verbal reflections; at this meeting, a report on responses to a series of questions posed by the Board Development Committee in consultation with Mr. Kenneth W. Inskeep, executive for research and evaluation, was anticipated.

The Church Council Class of 2011: Pr. David P. Anderson, Mr. Baron Blanchard, Mr. Helmke, Pr. Steven P. Loy, Pr. Heather S. Lubold, Ms. Ann F. Niedringhaus, Ms. Lynette M. Reitz, Ms. Sandra Schlesinger, Pr. Jeffrey “Jeff” B. Sorenson, and Mr. David Truland. The class will be honored during the final plenary session of the 2011 Churchwide Assembly.

Church Council Discussion:
Vice President Carlos E. Peña called on Ms. Lynette M. Reitz and Mr. Mark S. Helmke to introduce the topic.
Ms. Reitz said the Board Development Committee surveyed the 11 council members whose terms ended in 2011 to learn the strengths of the Church Council procedures and where improvement may be possible.
Mr. Helmke reported that the first part of the survey was a scaled response from “highly effective” through “not very effective” on seven topics. He drew the council’s attention to the survey results, which were provided in writing by Mr. Kenneth W. Inskeep. Mr. Helmke stated that the findings were very similar to the findings of a survey of the Class of 2009.
Ms. Reitz pointed out the strengths and challenges listed in the results.
Mr. Helmke noted the survey results of a specific question about the leadership role of the Church Council in the ELCA.
Ms. Susan W. McArver asked what would be done with the suggestions listed in the survey results.
Ms. Reitz replied that the Board Development Committee will use the suggestions to develop recommendations for the council to consider.
Mr. William B. Horne II asked whether the survey results regarding summer retreats meant that such settings help Church Council members who do not communicate as well in large group settings.
Ms. Reitz responded that Mr. Inskeep had collated survey data and did not weigh the responses, but she understood the statement was intended as Mr. Horne had indicated.
The Rev. Jeffrey “Jeff” B. Sorenson recalled Mr. Helmke’s statement that the findings on strengths and challenges were very similar to the findings of a survey of the Class of 2009, and he suggested that they should have changed.
Ms. Reitz replied that the issues had changed, but the comments of the council members were similar.
Ms. Ann F. Niedringhaus commented that it seemed that the similar comments dealt with process.
Mr. Helmke recommended that Mr. Inskeep process the survey results for the Church Council at a later meeting.
Vice President Peña thanked Mr. Helmke and Ms. Reitz for leading the discussion.
