Pastoral Care Files

Description of Records	Care of Records	Final Disposition
When the rostered minister, or other authorized staff member, provides pastoral care to the parishioners, such as marriage counseling or personal spiritual direction, the rostered minister may create a file containing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Date and time of consultation • Persons present • Observation notes • Tests, such as personality inventories • Correspondence 	The rostered minister, or other authorized staff member, must use good judgment in establishing the nature of each relationship and in creating documentation of it. The principle of confessional confidences, which applies to all ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church, is specified by ELCA churchwide constitutional provision (7.45.) [iv]. These files must be kept locked and in strictest confidence as they involve a relationship at the highest level of trust and are usually subject to the clergy and penitent privilege. The parishioner person should sign a release if any information is to leave the file at any time. In all states, suspected cases of child abuse are required to be reported to the authorities. Whether such reporting requirements apply to rostered ministers may vary. Consult an attorney in your state for guidance on such matters	An understanding of the nature of a particular pastoral care relationship will determine the appropriate disposition of its records.

Correspondence
Description of Records	Care of Records	Final Disposition
The rostered minister and staff may have correspondence of various types: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ex-officio as chief executive officer of the congregation • Correspondence to and from officers of the congregation and the bishop of the synod • Personal 	E-mail is especially vulnerable to loss. E-mail that represents the policies, program, and ongoing life of the congregation should be printed out.	Place only letters that describe the program and ongoing life of the congregation in the congregation's archives.

If you are preserving these records electronically, you need to preserve them in a readable, non-proprietary format and you must regularly backup the files for preservation purposes. If printing out photographs for archival preservation, use quality photographic paper. The congregation website is a constantly changing program delivery platform. Because the website may contain unique information about the life of congregation and its community, some effort should be made to preserve this record. The membership directory must be password protected.	Place in the congregation's archives. You may wish to see if an archival site is collecting snapshots of your congregation website. http://www.archive.org If you find no archiving service, print out snapshots of unique congregation website material to be preserved in the congregation's archives.

Sermons
Description of Records	Care of Records	Final Disposition
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sermons 	The rostered minister and congregation should agree in writing as to who owns the intellectual property.	The rostered minister and congregation may, in agreement, choose to place manuscripts of the rostered minister's sermons commemorating special occasions in the archives of the congregation.
Resource Materials
Description of Records	Care of Records	Final Disposition
Resource material from the synod or the churchwide organization for the support of the activity of the congregation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hymnals Worship materials Curriculum Program materials 	For congregations, such materials seldom have permanent value. Files should be culled annually. These materials are collected in the ELCA Archives and synod or regional archives.	Samples of hymnals and parish education materials may be important for recording the history of the congregation. Discard other resource materials when they have been superseded by newer materials.

[i] "The pastor of this congregation shall keep accurate parochial records of all baptisms, confirmations, marriages, burials, communicants, members received, members dismissed, or members excluded from this congregation; [and] shall submit a summary of such statistics annually to the synod." (*C9.12.a.and b.) in the Model Constitution for Congregations).

[ii] A representative of the synod bishop is required to verify that these records exist and are in good order at the time of a pastoral transition. (S14. 21; S14. 23 in the Constitution for Synods)

[iii] "The Congregation Council shall ascertain that the financial affairs of this congregation are being conducted efficiently, giving particular attention to the prompt payment of all obligations and to the regular forwarding of mission support monies to the synod treasurer. The Congregation Council shall be responsible for this congregation's investments and its total insurance program." (C12.05.e. and f.) in the Model Constitution for Congregations.

[iv] "In keeping with the historic discipline and practice of the Lutheran Church and to be true to a sacred trust inherent in the nature of the pastoral office, no minister of Word and Sacrament of this church shall divulge any confidential disclosure received in the course of the care of souls or otherwise in a professional capacity, nor testify concerning conduct observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament while working in a pastoral capacity, except with the express permission of the person who has given confidential information to the minister of Word and Sacrament or who was observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament, or if the person intends great harm to self or others" (churchwide constitutional provision 7.45. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America).
