Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

Friends in Christ,

'Tis the spring of souls today: Christ has burst his prison,
and from three days' sleep in death as a sun has risen.
All the winter of our sins, long and dark, is flying from the Light to whom we give laud and praise undying.

Alleluia! now we cry to our Lord immortal,
who triumphant burst the bars of the tomb's dark portal;
Alleluia! with the Son God the Father praising;
Alleluia! yet again to the Spirit raising.

ELW 363

text: John of Damascus, c. 696-c. 754;
tr. John Mason Neale, 1818-1866, alt.

Once again the church around the world has participated in the liturgies of the Three Days, when we mark, honor and celebrate the saving power of Jesus passing over from death to life. In many places, celebratory "alleluias" have returned after being set aside during the Lenten season. For most of us in North America, the weather is turning warmer. New life is blooming all around us.

For those who plan and lead worship, this may be a time to take a breath after a busy few weeks. Now that we are in the 50 days of Easter celebration, this may be a time to take stock and evaluate. Don't forget to look back at the liturgies of the last weeks and take note of things that work well and things that may need tweaking in the future. You will be helped to make those notes now while the memories are fresh rather than try to recall next winter what changes may need to be made. If you are looking to evaluate big-picture items, you may consider taking time before things calm down for the summer to utilize the free resource "Worship Care: A guide for reflection and connection." Through guided reflection, this resource helps get at the question "How's worship going?"

Whether you take this season to reflect back, take stock or plan ahead, may your 50-day celebration be spirit filled as we remember the one who died, is risen and will come again.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.
Christ is risen, indeed. Alleluia!

In peace,
Deacon John E. Weit
Program Director for Music

Frequently asked questions

The Worship staff regularly receives similar inquiries from across the church on the same worship-related topics.

During the season of Easter, many congregations light the Paschal Candle during all worship services. At other times of the year, it is lit for baptisms and funerals. Learn more:

How do we use a Paschal Candle?

Answers provided in the ELCA Worship FAQ are not the final word. They are useful guides that may be considered with pastoral sensitivity to their local context. Remember that these guides can be reproduced for a worship committee or congregation, provided that the web address is cited on the copies.

If you would like additional information or do not find the question that you are seeking an answer to, we invite you to contact the Worship staff at worship@elca.org.

Connecting with ELCA Worship

The ELCA Worship Blog and Facebook page are your places to connect with what's going on in worship across our church.

The Facebook page shares prayers, events, updates, blog posts and "liturgy grams," short infographics on the definitions and practices of things we see in worship every week.

The Worship Blog is regularly updated with more in-depth information and stories. Follow it for updates from the worship office and pictures, resources, reflections and happenings from pastors, musicians and worshipers across the church.

We'd love to include your voice too! If you have a story of how worship is meaningful and engaging in your context or want to share something your congregation has particularly loved, send it to worship@elca.org with the subject "For the blog." Don't forget to identify your congregation and include a related picture.
