

Future Directions

Propelled by a commitment to Lutheran traditions and to being a community of faith that is always forming and being renewed, ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, the Church Council and the Conference of Bishops initiated Called Forward Together in Christ in late 2015. The process sought to engage the ELCA in conversation about future directions so that the Church Council could reach decisions that help this church journey faithfully and effectively together in the years ahead. This conversation informed the development of ELCA Future Directions 2025.

The five goals

ELCA Future Directions 2025 goals and priority areas are for the ELCA as a whole church: congregations, synods and churchwide organization. These are based on a shared trust and hope that the future is in God's hands. And they express what this church has collectively said is important in its future:

1. A thriving church spreading the gospel and deepening faith for all.
2. A church equipping people for their baptismal vocations in the world and this church.
3. An inviting and welcoming church that reflects and embraces the diversity of our communities and the gifts and opportunities that diversity brings.
4. A visible church deeply committed to working ecumenically and with other people of faith for justice, peace and reconciliation in communities and around the world.
5. A well-governed, connected and sustainable church.

Within these goals, emphasis areas of congregational vitality and leadership for this church have been identified. We invite you to learn more and see how you and your congregation can be a part of implementing these important goals. Together, our congregations, synods and churchwide organization look to the future of this church.

Learn more at: ELCA.org/future.

Future Directions

Propelled by a commitment to Lutheran traditions and to being a community of faith that is always forming and being renewed, ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, the Church Council and the Conference of Bishops initiated Called Forward Together in Christ in late 2015. The process sought to engage the ELCA in conversation about future directions so that the Church Council could reach decisions that help this church journey faithfully and effectively together in the years ahead. This conversation informed the development of ELCA Future Directions 2025.

The five goals

ELCA Future Directions 2025 goals and priority areas are for the ELCA as a whole church: congregations, synods and churchwide organization. These are based on a shared trust and hope that the future is in God's hands. And they express what this church has collectively said is important in its future:

1. A thriving church spreading the gospel and deepening faith for all.
2. A church equipping people for their baptismal vocations in the world and this church.
3. An inviting and welcoming church that reflects and embraces the diversity of our communities and the gifts and opportunities that diversity brings.
4. A visible church deeply committed to working ecumenically and with other people of faith for justice, peace and reconciliation in communities and around the world.
5. A well-governed, connected and sustainable church.

Within these goals, emphasis areas of congregational vitality and leadership for this church have been identified. We invite you to learn more and see how you and your congregation can be a part of implementing these important goals. Together, our congregations, synods and churchwide organization look to the future of this church.

Learn more at: ELCA.org/future.