

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

Get ready to serve!
“God’s work. Our hands.” Sunday
Sunday, Sept. 7, 2014

On Sunday, Sept. 7, 2014, the nearly 10,000 congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) are invited to put their faith into action by serving their communities in ways that share the love of God with all of God’s people.

Whether it’s volunteering at a homeless shelter, cleaning up a public park, writing letters to military personnel serving overseas or supporting those congregations who fight for peace and justice in their communities every day, we are a church that boldly does God’s work of restoring and reconciling communities.

“God’s work. Our hands.’ Sunday reminds us that we are church together for the sake of the world. Our lives have been changed by our relationship with God through Jesus Christ, and it’s that encounter with Jesus that frees us to make a difference.”

– ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton

To help increase the visual impact of the day of service, ELCA members will be wearing bright-yellow “God’s work. Our hands.” T-shirts.

To help guide your planning, visit www.ELCA.org/dayofservice to download resources, register your congregation and order T-shirts, which can be personalized with your congregation’s name.

You work hard to help make your community a better place. Now let’s do this work together!

Consider organizing a day of service today!

Your congregation can get started by:

- Listening to the needs of your community
- Finding opportunities to serve
- Inviting people to serve with you
- Partnering with local organizations and congregations

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

Get ready to serve!
“God’s work. Our hands.” Sunday
Sunday, Sept. 7, 2014

On Sunday, Sept. 7, 2014, the nearly 10,000 congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) are invited to put their faith into action by serving their communities in ways that share the love of God with all of God’s people.

Whether it’s volunteering at a homeless shelter, cleaning up a public park, writing letters to military personnel serving overseas or supporting those congregations who fight for peace and justice in their communities every day, we are a church that boldly does God’s work of restoring and reconciling communities.

“God’s work. Our hands.’ Sunday reminds us that we are church together for the sake of the world. Our lives have been changed by our relationship with God through Jesus Christ, and it’s that encounter with Jesus that frees us to make a difference.”

– ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton

To help increase the visual impact of the day of service, ELCA members will be wearing bright-yellow “God’s work. Our hands.” T-shirts.

To help guide your planning, visit www.ELCA.org/dayofservice to download resources, register your congregation and order T-shirts, which can be personalized with your congregation’s name.

You work hard to help make your community a better place. Now let’s do this work together!

Consider organizing a day of service today!

Your congregation can get started by:

- Listening to the needs of your community
- Finding opportunities to serve
- Inviting people to serve with you
- Partnering with local organizations and congregations