

AHLAN WA-SAHLAN!

Welcome to the ELCJHL educational ministries. We appreciate your interest and hope this guide makes it easy for you to visit our programs.

This brochure provides detailed descriptions of how to get from the Old City in Jerusalem to each of the ELCJHL schools/educational programs. It provides bus and walking directions in order to minimize costs for those traveling on a small budget or for those interested in experiencing local public transportation; however, taking a taxi is also an option at any point in the journey. If you decide to take a taxi, important Arabic phrases to know for communicating with taxi drivers are:

Lutheran church: “kin-EE-say Luther-EE-a”

Lutheran school: “mah-DRAH-say Luther-EE-a”

If you plan to visit multiple schools/programs in the Bethlehem region, it would probably be wise just to hire a taxi to take you from place to place throughout the day. Khaled Abu Dai-yeh is a reliable taxi driver who is familiar with ELCJHL ministries. His number is 052-227-9706.

If you are simply going to one school/program, you will easily be able to find a taxi once you get into Bethlehem. Always make sure to agree on the fare before you leave!

The ELCJHL Schools and Educational Programs are working to educate the next generation of Palestinian citizens and leaders in a spirit of creativity and tolerance. We pursue this goal by offering our students the highest quality educational opportunities in the region in a safe, open, and stimulating environment.

SCHOOLS SOUTH OF JERUSALEM:

Traveling to all three schools in the south begins at the blue bus station near Damascus Gate.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN SCHOOL, BEIT SAHOUR

► Take Bus 21 from the bus station all the way to the end of the route, which is a large intersection in Bethlehem known as “Bab-iskak.” Approximate cost: 6 shekels

► Once at Bab-iskak, ask the taxi driver to take you to the Lutheran School in Beit Sahour (In Arabic: “Madrassay Lutherea fi Beit Sahour”). During the day the price should be 15 shekels and not more than 20.

If the driver does not know where the school is, ask to go to “Souk al-Shab.” You can walk there with these directions:

► Souk al-Shab is a crossroads with the bus station on one corner (if you are entering from the Bethlehem direction, it is on your right hand side). Walk up the street to the right toward the bus station. The road splits about 200 feet up from the crossroads of Souk al-Shab, so take the farthest left street. Follow this road and stay on the main street as it veers up and sharply to the right. After this, keep following the road as it curves around a mosque to your left. Directly around the mosque is another V in the road. Continue straight along the rightmost road for about two minutes. You will see the Greek Orthodox Church in front of you. The green gate directly across the street and to the right is the entrance to the Lutheran School. The whole walk should take about five to seven minutes.

The ELCJHL schools educate approximately 2,500 students between the ages of 3 and 18. The schools have always enrolled both boys and girls, Muslims and Christians. Of our students, approximately 55 percent are boys and 45 percent are girls. Although Palestinian Christians constitute less than 2% of the population in Palestine, 60 percent of the students in the Lutheran schools are Christian and 40 percent are Muslim.
