Next time you're in New York City, think about staying with at our HOUSE, an 84-room Lutheran hotel at Union Square in Manhattan. We serve all travelers, seafarers and non-seafarers alike, individuals and groups, and we offer low room rates, newly decorated guestrooms, hospitality and friendly service.

Moreover, our HOUSE serves as a refuge for domestic violence victims and other travelers in crisis. The patronage of our guests underwrites a significant portion of our overall mission budget. The balance of our mission revenues comes from private contributions from congregations and individuals. We seek and accept no government funding. We hire no professional fundraisers. Again, in 2003, over 80% of every dollar donated was expended on mission and less than 20% was expended on general administration, fundraising and communications.

Please visit our HOUSE, enjoy our hospitality and support our vital mission. Remember, we have special clergy discounts!

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA 2005 UNIT SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent. Each part, while fully the church, recognizes that it is not the whole church, and therefore lives in a partnership relationship with the others (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 8, provision 11).

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall have a churchwide organization that shall function interdependently with the congregations and synods of this church. The churchwide organization shall serve on behalf of and in support of this church's members, congregations, and synods in proclaiming the Gospel, reaching out in witness and service both globally and throughout the territory of this church, nurturing the members of this church in the daily life of faith, and manifesting the unity of this church with the whole Church of Jesus Christ (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 11, provision 11). The November 2004 Church Council meeting will be approving a 2005 spending authorization that will be reflective of both revised income estimates and alignment with "Faithful Yet Changing: The Plan for Mission in the ELCA."

The Division for Congregational Ministries, working in partnership with congregations, synods, regions, and other units of the churchwide organization, provides support for congregations as they carry out their ministry to be faithful, welcoming, and generous. It also provides a financial support program for this church. To fulfill these responsibilities, the division (a) develops integrated programs and resources and provides services, in cooperation with other churchwide units, in support of congregations in such major areas as worship, education, evangelism, stewardship, congregational social ministry, congregational planning, and lay leadership; and (b) develops and delivers programs to enable members and congregations to respond financially in support of this church's ministry in congregations, synods, agencies, institutions, and the churchwide organization.

The Division for Congregational Ministries also relates to three churchwide organizations: Lutheran Youth Organization, Lutheran Men in Mission, and ELCA Outdoor Ministries.

The Department for Communication develops an overall communication strategy for this church—both internally and to the public. It coordinates Lutherlink, the ELCA's intranet for church leaders, and the ELCA's presence on the World Wide Web (www.elca.org). It also gathers and disseminates news about this church and its members, places guests and features in public media, and responds to inquiries about this church through its Resource Information Service.

The department provides public relations counsel and support to the churchwide organization and, on behalf of all churchwide units, provides interpretation services and produces Seeds for the Parish and the Action Packet for congregational leaders. It coordinates marketing of the ELCA through the ELCA Identity Project (www.elca.org/elcaads). The department also conducts a radio and television ministry on behalf of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, provides for non-English translations of interpretation materials, provides media education, maintains relationships with communication offices of other church bodies and ecumenical agencies, and is working to bring the Davey and Goliath children's program back to television (www.daveyandgoliath.org).

The Lutheran is the periodical of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Circulation is 420,000, reaching about one-half of the households of ELCA members. Published 12 times each year, the magazine tells the story of the church, its people, and the world of religion through sections titled "People and Faith," "Congregations and Community," and "Church and World." Each issue also includes "Currents," a section offering perspectives on issues in the news, and an in-depth treatment of a topic suitable for group study. News supplements are included for most synods. The Churchwide Assembly elects the editor for a four-year term, and an 11-member advisory committee, elected by the Church Council, has responsibility for the magazine.

In addition, working in partnership with congregations, synods, and ministries of this church, the Foundation identifies prospective major and deferred-gift donors and helps individuals and congregations invest in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and its ministries.

The Foundation provides support for the Fund for Leaders in Mission, a churchwide initiative to identify and prepare future leaders for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The Fund, when fully endowed, will support full tuition for every qualified student at an ELCA seminary who has a commitment to ordained or rostered lay ministry within the church.

The Foundation administers the ELCA Endowment Fund Pooled Trust. The Pooled Trust provides a professionally managed investment pool available to all ministries with a Mission Endowment Fund. The minimum investment is $25,000.

The Mission Investment Fund of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's primary mission is to provide loans to mission congregations for purchases of land and construction of initial church buildings. All ELCA congregations are eligible to apply to the Fund for loans for renovation, expansion, or relocation projects. In conjunction with the Division for Outreach, the Fund prepares a capital budget for financing the construction of new churches. The Fund's Church Building Consultants offer consultative services to mission congregations, congregations considering construction projects, and congregations relocating with synodical approval. The Fund offers for sale to members, synods, congregations, and ELCA-related institutions a variety of investment instruments to increase the financial resources that are available for loans. The Fund is separately incorporated and the Treasurer of the ELCA serves as president and executive director of the Fund.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
Telephone: 773/380-2553

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Department for Synodical Relations. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call/appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Division for Ministry as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and associates in ministry. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Department for Ecumenical Affairs in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of September 10, 2004

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections in this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Congregation e-mail address changes may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at conginfo@elca.org. Links to congregation Web sites can be found on the ELCA Web site, www.elca.org. Information about linking a congregation's Web site to the ELCA Web site is also available at www.elca.org.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through September 10, 2004. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 308-312.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through September 10, 2004.

The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 2003. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 2003 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The names in the Called Staff column are those of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses called by the congregations.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Mission Support, World Hunger Appeal, Disaster Response, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, Mission Founders, specific mission support (designated gifts), Vision for Mission offering, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.

FULL COMMUNION COOPERATION

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has established relationships of full communion with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Reformed Church in America, the United Church of Christ, the Moravian Church in America, and The Episcopal Church. Full communion agreements provide for the existence of federated congregations, union congregations, and the interchangeability of clergy.

Federated congregations are congregations that are formed and maintained "with the approval of both the synod in which the congregation is located and the comparable ecclesiastical entity of one or more church bodies with which a relationship of full communion has been established" (churchwide bylaw 9.91.01.). Union congregations are "formed by two separate congregations that shall continue to exist as separate but cooperating entities. The separate congregations in a union congregation shall be related to their respective church bodies that have established a relationship of full communion. . ." (churchwide bylaw 9.91.02). Clergy from another church body with which this church has established a relationship of full communion serve under authorization from the appropriate synodical bishop.
