GOLD graduated from The Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia in 1907, and was sent by the Home Missions Board of the General Council to be Lutheran student pastor and the first pastor of Luther Memorial Church at Madison, Wis., where he served until 1916. During World War I Gold served at the request of Dr. John R. Moit as YMCA secretary in a prisoner of war camp in Wales. During 1916-17, he was executive secretary of the General Lutheran Committee to arrange and implement plans for the 400th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation. The committee's work paved the way for a merger of three synods and the organization of the United Lutheran Church in America (ULCA). In 1936 he published "The Beginnings of Work Among Lutheran Students" in The Lutheran Church Quarterly. Gold continued in congregational, ecumenical, and denominational ministry until 1950. # EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA 2007 UNIT SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent. Each part, while fully the church, recognizes that it is not the whole church, and therefore lives in a partnership relationship with the others (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 8, provision 11).

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall have a churchwide organization that shall function interdependently with the congregations and synods of this church. The churchwide organization shall serve on behalf of and in support of this church's members, congregations, and synods in proclaiming the Gospel, reaching out in witness and service both globally and throughout the territory of this church, nurturing the members of this church in the daily life of faith, and manifesting the unity of this church with the whole Church of Jesus Christ (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 11, provision 11). This unit is responsible for the mission of the ELCA outside the United States and includes ministries that enable this church to deepen and extend its global, ecumenical, and interreligious relationships. The unit accompanies companion churches and inter-Lutheran and ecumenical partners to make Christ known through proclamation and service in other countries, facilitates dialogue with people of other faiths, and engages in common efforts to build just and peaceful communities. It develops and recommends policy relating to international relationships and activities and develops programs on behalf of the ELCA. It assists ELCA congregations, synods, other churchwide units, and agencies and institutions to receive the gifts of companion churches. The Global Mission unit cooperates with global partners in promoting justice and enables the perspective of companions to enhance and deepen the ELCA's public witness. Global Mission serves as the primary channel through which churches in other countries engage in mission with and to the ELCA.

The Church in Society unit leads this church in stepping forward as a public church that witnesses boldly to God's love for all that God has created.

This unit studies social issues, prepares social statements for this church's consideration and action, and promotes moral deliberation. Congregations receive assistance in developing programs and strategies that help people in poverty, in caring for creation, and in developing their communities. This program unit is responsible for domestic refugee concerns and, accordingly, relates to Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service.

The Church in Society unit coordinates the ELCA World Hunger Program. It administers ELCA Domestic Disaster Response and, in cooperation with The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, Lutheran Disaster Response.

The unit is responsible for this church's ministry of service through some 280 affiliated social ministry organizations. It grants and maintains church affiliation with these organizations and through Lutheran Services in America develops a comprehensive delivery system among social ministry organizations, congregations, and community organizations.

The unit for Church in Society carries out this church's advocacy with national and international governmental bodies and with institutions in the private sector, and coordinates its advocacy with state governments.

Addressing sexism and advocating for full participation and equal opportunity in church and society for women is the assignment of Justice for Women, an initiative of this unit.

As people of God, we are claimed, gathered, and sent to make Christ known in every corner of the world to help develop strong ministries and leaders. This unit leads, coordinates, educates, and holds accountable churchwide efforts and programs with synods, regions, and agencies and institutions as they identify, develop, and strengthen the multicultural dimensions of their work. This unit has the responsibility to coordinate the churchwide implementation of ethnic-specific strategies and has the authority to coordinate, review, and monitor all churchwide programs to maintain and enhance the ELCA's central commitment to become an antiracist, multicultural church. Fundamental to the work of this unit is a church that upholds a zero tolerance of racism to achieve justice and equality for all people.

It manages the ELCA's presence on the World Wide Web (www.elca.org) and provides administrative counsel for The Lutheran magazine. The unit coordinates marketing for the ELCA and provides communication evangelism resources for congregations (www.elca.org/elcaads). It produces the Grace Matters radio program, video and television productions, as well as programming for national television networks. It also provides for non-English translation of interpretation and resource materials, provides media education, produces events, maintains relationships with communication offices of other church bodies and ecumenical agencies, and manages the Davey and Goliath property.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
Telephone: 773/380-2553

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Synodical Relations section. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call/appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Vocation and Education program unit as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and rostered laypersons. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Ecumenical and Inter-Religious Relations section in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of September 22, 2006

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections in this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Congregation e-mail address changes may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at conginfo@elca.org. Links to congregation Web sites can be found on the ELCA Web site, www.elca.org. Information about linking a congregation's Web site to the ELCA Web site is also available at www.elca.org.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through September 22, 2006. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 314-318.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through September 22, 2006.

The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 2005. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 2005 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The names in the Rostered Staff column are those of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses rostered by the ELCA or one of its full communion partners.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Mission Support, World Hunger Appeal, Disaster Response, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, Mission Founders, specific mission support (designated gifts), Vision for Mission offering, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.

FULL COMMUNION COOPERATION

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has established relationships of full communion with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Reformed Church in America, the United Church of Christ, the Moravian Church in America, and The Episcopal Church. Full communion agreements provide for the existence of federated congregations, union congregations, and the interchangeability of clergy.

Federated congregations are congregations that are formed and maintained "with the approval of both the synod in which the congregation is located and the comparable ecclesiastical entity of one or more church bodies with which a relationship of full communion has been established" (churchwide bylaw 9.91.01.). Union congregations are "formed by two separate congregations that shall continue to exist as separate but cooperating entities. The separate congregations in a union congregation shall be related to their respective church bodies that have established a relationship of full communion. . ." (churchwide bylaw 9.91.02). Clergy from another church body with which this church has established a relationship of full communion serve under authorization from the appropriate synodical bishop.

ROSTER OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

As of September 8, 2006

Following is an alphabetical listing of ordained ministers on the roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of September 8, 2006. All changes of address and corrections should be reported to the office of the synod in which the person is listed on the roster. The synod office, in turn, is to report these changes to the Rev. Lowell G. Almen, secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Changes in e-mail addresses may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at conginfo@elca.org.

Ordained ministers who have retired are identified with (RT) following name. Ordained ministers whose deaths were reported to the Office of the Secretary through September 8, 2006, and other removals, are listed on pages 578-580. Those persons are not included on this roster. An asterisk (*) following a name identifies persons under suspension.
