

LUTHERAN DISASTER RESPONSE
U.S. WILDFIRES

NOVEMBER 2019

ELCA.org/disaster

In 2018, multiple fires raged in California, devastating communities and almost wiping out the city of Paradise. Now, one year after the Camp Fire – the most deadly and destructive fire in California history – thousands of people remain displaced, many with no plan to return.

bedding, clothing, housing security deposits, daily life necessities and temporary supplies.

Long-term support for communities impacted by the California wildfires includes connecting survivors with disaster case managers who can help them formulate an individual recovery plan, and then with existing resources. We also provide emotional and spiritual care, access to safe, secure and functional housing, and financial assistance for other needs. Your gifts are still needed to support people whose lives have been impacted by these devastating fires. Please give today.

Thanks to your generosity, Lutheran Disaster Response has been able to help communities impacted by these fires with crucial support – from emergency relief supplies to emotional and spiritual care.

Lutheran Disaster Response has provided wildfire survivors with immediate needs such as food,
