Children, Youth, and Family Director

Faith Lutheran Church
17701 W 16th Ave, Golden, CO 80401

This passionate person will lead Faith in envisioning and living into a comprehensive ministry with children, youth, and families, cradle to high school graduation. All work is done with a deep understanding of what it means to live missionally and a love of empowering others of all ages to discover their gifts and use them to further God's love in the world. This person will joyfully see themselves as a connector and empower-er of the Faith congregation in ministry to and with children, youth, and families – not the doer of it all – but the one who owns the overreaching vision and the one who empowers others. While there is a special emphasis on families with children in preschool-5th grade (our focused vision group) the Children, Youth, and Family Director understands the need for quality ministry to and with children/youth/families of all ages. (Expires 8/2023)
