Introduction

The sixteenth Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America gathered under the theme “Embody the Word” at the Greater Columbus Convention Center in Columbus, Ohio. The theme was particularly significant for people who had been living in relative isolation from one another after more than two years of COVID-19 pandemic restrictions had prevented public gatherings. Congregations and synod assemblies had been forced to move online out of concern for the neighbor, finding new understandings of what it means to gather as God’s people, finding new ways to live out an embodied gospel when it was not always possible to be physically present with others.

We are called daily to find new and creative ways to live out the Good News, to embody the Living Word. The work of this church goes on in spite of everything happening around us, and so the assembly gathered as the body of Christ to hear reports from officers and units, elect a vice president and other leaders for the churchwide organization and separately incorporated ministries, adopt a budget, act on resolutions and memorials, and approve amendments to the governing documents of this church.

The following are the official minutes of the sixteenth meeting of the Churchwide Assembly. They are organized in a comprehensive manner. Approved actions are included in their entirety in the minutes at the point of presentation, along with some of the discussion of the issues. Relevant exhibits are appended to provide ready reference in a single document.

Final actions of the assembly are indicated by the letters “CA” followed by the year of the assembly; thus “CA22.” Then follows the notation of the day of the assembly on which the action occurred, and the number of the action taken sequentially during the assembly. Thus, CA22.04.12. signifies that the twelfth action of the assembly occurred on the fourth day of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly.

References to actions of various ELCA governing bodies also are cited using a singular designation code. For example, CC22.04.20. refers to an action taken by the Church Council (CC) at its April (4th month) meeting in 2022 (22) which represented the twentieth action (20) of that governing body in the calendar year. Similarly, the designations “EC” and “CB” refer respectively to the Executive Committee of the Church Council and the Conference of Bishops.

Citations of sections of the Constitutions, Bylaws and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America are codified variously as “ELCA 3.04.” (a churchwide constitutional provision), “ELCA 7.31.01. (a churchwide bylaw), “S14.18.” (Constitution for Synods) and “C10.02.” (Model Constitution for Congregations). A dagger (†) preceding the letter “S” or an asterisk (*) before “C” indicates that the provision is required rather than only recommended. Continuing resolutions are designated by a letter and the year in which they were adopted; thus, a continuing resolution adopted in 2022 is, for example, “14.41.B22.”

Various amendments to the governing documents of this church were adopted by the 2019 Churchwide Assembly. As a convenience to readers and for historical documentation, the full text of the 2019 edition of the Constitution, Bylaws and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is provided at the end of these minutes. The current edition is available online on the ELCA website.
I wish to thank all of those who made the 2022 Churchwide Assembly a success. Those who served on the assembly committees are listed in Exhibit A: Members of the Churchwide Assembly. Special thanks to the Churchwide Assembly planning committee, named on p. 277. The staff of the Office of the Secretary did their usual outstanding job of coordinating logistics, organizing documentation, supporting the legislative work of the assembly, and overseeing the election processes. Many of the staff of the churchwide organization were involved in preparing for and supporting the work of the assembly. It is impossible to express adequate thanks for all the work that was done in assisting the Churchwide Assembly to “embody the Word.”

Video, photo, and audio highlights of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly are available online. The ELCA website also includes the “Legislative Updates” that provided voting members with daily summaries of assembly actions.

Consistent with the commitment of this church to be faithful stewards of God’s creation, these minutes are posted on the ELCA website. Print copies will be stored in the ELCA Archives.

The Spirit of God empowers us to live out our vocation to embody the Word as the living, breathing body of Christ. Thanks be to God.

Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary
Eastertide 2023
Sixteenth Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Minutes

August 9–12, 2022
Columbus, Ohio
Plenary Session One
Tuesday, Aug. 9, 2022
8:30 a.m.—11:30 a.m.

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) convened Tuesday, August 9, 2022, in Hall A of the Greater Columbus Convention Center, Columbus, Ohio. The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), called the assembly to order at 8:34 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time (all times in this report are Eastern Daylight Time unless otherwise indicated).

Welcome and Order for the Opening of the Assembly
Reference: Worship and Song

Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton opened the sixteenth Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA by welcoming all those present and thanking them for their attendance. She led the assembly in observance of a moment of silence to acknowledge that the assembly was meeting on the ancestral lands of the Shawnee, Miami, and Kaskaskia peoples.

Presiding Bishop Eaton led the assembly in singing “O Holy Spirit, Root of Life,” then led the Order for Opening of the Assembly. She noted that the assembly was meeting under the theme of “Embody the Word,” and considered the double meaning attached to each of these terms. “Embody” speaks both to the incarnation of Christ and to the life of this church as it continues to emerge from a pandemic. “Word” refers both to Jesus Christ and to scripture. In 1522, Martin Luther’s translation of the New Testament helped make the Word accessible to people and revolutionized the Christian movement. Five hundred years later, the call to make Jesus accessible to people still exists today and into the future.

Recognition of the 35th Anniversary of the Constituting Convention and Opening Remarks

While looking forward, this church also looks back 35 years to the Constituting Convention of the ELCA, also held in the Greater Columbus Convention Center. Thirty-five years later, this church has welcomed many exciting opportunities and yet recognizes the challenges this church faces as the ELCA works toward becoming a more gender-inclusive church, promoting just and equitable involvement of people with disabilities, and becoming authentically multicultural and multi-ethnic. The presiding bishop noted that later in the day the assembly would gather in a non-legislative session to offer a public apology to Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina and to publicly reaffirm this church’s commitment to anti-racism.

The presiding bishop remarked that this was the first large gathering in which some assembly members had engaged since the beginning of the pandemic and reviewed health protocols to be followed during the assembly. She expressed gratitude to the 800 voting members assembled from this church’s 65 synods as well as advisory members, resource persons, ecumenical and inter-religious guests, and other visitors, thanking them for their commitment to the ELCA. The presiding bishop outlined opportunities for prayer and worship that would be integrated throughout the time of the assembly. During the weeks leading up to the assembly this entire church was invited to attend a series of online Bible study sessions focused on the theme of embodiment found in Luke 24, which would culminate on Wednesday, Aug. 10, with a theological presentation from the Rev. Anthony Bateza. Plenary sessions would begin and end with prayer, and those present would gather for prayer periodically throughout the assembly, particularly before major votes. Space dedicated to personal prayer would be set aside in the convention center, and members of the ELCA Spiritual Renewal Team would be available for individual prayer at various times. The Evangelical Lutheran Parish Nurse Association would provide respite areas for rest, meditation, and silent prayer. In addition, daily worship gatherings would center the assembly’s life and work throughout the week.

As part of this church’s ongoing commitment to learning from Indigenous leadership, the assembly also had set aside space for displays centered on Indigenous history, culture, and stories, hosted by the American Indian and Alaska Native Lutheran Association. On Wednesday, Aug. 10, the assembly was invited to wear red to bring awareness of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. That same day, there would be a presentation on the “Declaration of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to American Indian and Alaska Native People” adopted by the Church Council in September 2021, as well as a greeting from Ms. Fawn R. Sharp, president of the National Congress of American Indians.

The assembly was celebrating the 35th anniversary of the ELCA. On April 30, 1987, the American Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Church in America, and the Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches united to form the ELCA. A video about the beginning of the ELCA was shown. The presiding bishop paused to recognize past officers of the ELCA, thanking them for their faithful leadership and passion for the gospel.

The presiding bishop then welcomed to the podium the Rev. Suzanne D. Dillahunt, bishop of the Southern Ohio Synod, to bring greetings on behalf of the host synod.

Greeting from the Southern Ohio Synod

Bishop Dillahunt opened by expressing the excitement of the members of the Southern Ohio Synod to welcome the Churchwide Assembly to Columbus where the story of the ELCA began 35 years before, and reflected on how, since that event, members of the ELCA have continued to learn how to “Embody the Word” within communities, neighborhoods, congregations, synods, country, and world.

In Southern Ohio, embodying the Word begins with honoring the Indigenous peoples who have called this portion of the state home, including the Shawnee, Leni Lenape, Ottawa, Miami, Wyandotte, and the Seneca-Cayuga. The story of the synod is also the story of metropolitan areas and suburbs, farmland, smaller cities, and river towns, reaching into eastern Kentucky. The synod straddles the transition from Appalachia to the Midwest, including within its borders opportunity and injustice held in tension.

The synod is made up of 181 congregations, four campus ministries, two ELCA universities, and a seminary, and houses three Cultivate Ministries which are Holy Innovations experiments in mission. Sharing the Good News of Jesus also happens through four ethnic-specific ministries, and the synod partners with three social service agencies, the synod’s Authentic Diversity, Inclusion, and Justice Team, and ecumenical siblings to put words into action, continuing the work of antiracism, accessing immigration resources, and providing resources for recovery from opioid addiction.

The bishop concluded by calling attention to gifts on voting members’ tables provided as a sign of welcome from the Southern Ohio Synod and sharing a story from the synod. When the ELCA offered COVID-19 grants, the Southern Ohio Synod used them to offer technology grants to small and medium congregations that did not have equipment for streaming worship. One congregation in the synod received a grant, which prompted members of the congregation to give to the initiative. This congregation shared its abundance with the synod so that others could benefit as well, living out the mission and vision of the synod. Finally, she once again thanked the assembly for joining with the synod as part of a bigger story embodying the Word of God’s love in Jesus.

Introduction of Local Chairs
Presiding Bishop Eaton returned to the stage and, after thanking Bishop Dillahunt and the Columbus community for the warm welcome, introduced the local arrangements committee. She thanked Mr. Timothy Skamfer and Mr. Joshua Brodbeck for their hard work organizing volunteers in the Columbus area and throughout Region Six to facilitate the work of the assembly. She also recognized members of the Evangelical Lutheran Parish Nurse Association who graciously were offering their time conducting rapid COVID testing and being present for prayer. They carried on a long tradition of Lutheran involvement in promoting a culture of health, healing, and wholeness.

Organization of the Assembly
Roll of Voting Members and Report of the Credentials Committee
Presiding Bishop Eaton invited Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, to present the report of the Credentials Committee and the roll of voting members, advisory members, and other members of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. Presiding Bishop Eaton also noted that the Church Council had allocated up to 902 voting members for the assembly, including all members of the Church Council.

Secretary Rothmeyer announced that an updated Roll of Assembly Members had been distributed and instructed members on where to locate the document. She noted that the roll would be updated any time a synod bishop certified an absence and presented an alternate for seating as a voting member. In accordance with the “Rules of Organization and Procedure,” certain people are designated as resource members of the assembly with voice but not vote in plenary sessions. The rules also authorize the presiding bishop or the Church Council to identify other persons who may serve as resource members of the assembly. The secretary concluded by announcing that, as of 8:07 a.m., 800 voting members were registered for the assembly.

The presiding bishop declared that a quorum was present and, there being no objection, ordered the Roll of Assembly Members to be included in the official minutes of the assembly.

Introduction of the Parliamentarian Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced the parliamentarian for the assembly, Mr. Maurice S. Henderson, a Professional Registered Parliamentarian, and reviewed Mr. Henderson’s credentials.

Introduction to Electronic Voting Presiding Bishop Eaton led the assembly through several practice votes to familiarize members with the voting devices. She reminded voting members of the assembly that proxy voting is prohibited by the governing documents of the ELCA. The presiding bishop concluded the introductory remarks by leading the assembly in singing “Commonwealth Is God’s Commandment.”

Consideration of the “Rules of Organization and Procedure”

Presiding Bishop Eaton instructed voting members on where to find the “Rules of Organization and Procedure” in the Churchwide Assembly Guide electronic app. She highlighted certain rules, with particular attention to deadlines that allow for an orderly disposition of the business of the assembly.

The presiding bishop outlined rules governing questions of personal privilege. She noted that some requests of personal privilege require completion of a “Voting Member Request” form and instructed voting members on how to access and submit such forms. She next outlined rules that would govern addressing the assembly. During plenary sessions, any member who would like to speak to an issue would be invited to proceed to one of several microphones throughout the hall and wait to be recognized. To establish the order of speakers, microphones were marked with red or green signs. Those marked with green signs were for speaking in favor of a motion and those marked with a red sign were for speaking in opposition. Voting members wishing to offer a motion or amendment, ask a question, or speak for some other purpose were instructed to proceed to any microphone and hold up the white paper they had been provided. The presiding bishop clarified that the white paper could only be used to make motions that were in order and that the white paper did not automatically take priority over other speakers. The white paper could also be used to interrupt debate for legitimate reasons including raising a point of order, making a parliamentary inquiry, or calling for the orders of the day. Voting members intending to make a motion were instructed to make the motion before speaking in its support; if the motion were seconded, the maker of the motion would then be invited to speak in support of it.

As part of the “Caring for Creation” commitment of the ELCA, Presiding Bishop Eaton explained that provision had been made for motions, resolutions, amendments, nominations, notices, and other documents to be submitted electronically using the Churchwide Assembly Guide. She explained the process for submission of electronic forms and noted that voting members had the option of submitting paper forms if they preferred. She also noted the deadline of 10:15 a.m. on Wednesday, August 10, for submission of any non-germane resolution considered “new business” to the assembly. Amendments offered while a motion was on the floor must be submitted in writing immediately to ensure accuracy in wording.

Presiding Bishop Eaton next addressed memorials. These are resolutions from synod assemblies calling on the Churchwide Assembly to take a particular course of action. The Memorials Committee had recommended that many of the resolutions be voted on en bloc (as a group) in the interest of time. Memorials were arranged in categories by topic. In addition to the categories of memorials that the committee recommended be considered separately, voting members of the assembly were allowed to identify additional memorials that they would like to consider separately. Voting members were also allowed to offer an amendment to any recommendation of the Memorials Committee or to offer a substitute motion for any recommendation of the Memorials Committee. The presiding bishop noted the deadline of 11:45 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 9, 2022, for submission of amendments or substitutions to the recommendations of the Memorials Committee. Finally, the presiding bishop reviewed the rules that govern consideration of responses to memorials on the floor of the assembly.

The chair outlined the rules relating to floor nominations for the various boards, committees, and the Church Council on which the assembly would vote. She also reviewed the rules related to changes to the governing documents of the ELCA. Amendments to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA recommended by the Church Council would be voted on en bloc, with the exception of those removed for separate consideration by members of the assembly. She detailed the process by which voting members could request separate consideration or amendment to proposed changes to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA. The rules governing the election of officers and the use of the ecclesiastical ballot were reviewed, particularly as they related to the election of the vice president. The presiding bishop noted that any eligible lay member of this church may be nominated for vice president on the first ballot. She concluded the overview by calling attention to a synopsis of Robert’s Rules of Order and helpful charts regarding motions provided among assembly materials.

The chair then turned to the detailed procedures for adopting the “Rules of Organization and Procedure” that govern the assembly. The rules were presented to the assembly as a whole, but any voting member had the right to request a separate vote on any individual rule. After any rules that voting members wanted to discuss individually were identified, the remaining rules would be voted on as a whole. The assembly would then consider any rules that members identified for discussion or amendment along with any proposed new rules.

The presiding bishop reviewed the provisions of Robert’s Rules of Order governing amendment and adoption of rules, and then called upon Secretary Rothmeyer to present the motion for adoption of the “Rules of Organization and Procedure.” Secretary Rothmeyer, on behalf of the Church Council, made the following motion, which did not require a second because it came from the Church Council:

Moved; [Seconded]:
To adopt the “Rules of Organization and Procedure” for the 2022 Churchwide Assembly (exclusive of quoted and highlighted provisions and bylaws that are already in force).

A voting member asked for clarification of the rule governing time allowed to speakers on the assembly floor.

There being no further discussion, the chair called on the Rev. Joanne E. Engquist, Church Council member and member of the Prayer Team, to lead the assembly in prayer before discussion of the motion.

Presiding Bishop Eaton invited voting members to identify rules they wished to discuss separately or for which they wished to offer an amendment. Members were also invited to identify any new rules they wished to propose. There being none, the chair called for the vote.

Assembly Voting Members

Each synod shall elect one voting member of the Churchwide Assembly for every 6,000 baptized members in the synod. In addition, each synod shall elect one voting member for every 50 congregations in the synod. The synod bishop, who is ex officio a member of the Churchwide Assembly, shall be included in the number of voting members so determined. Unless otherwise determined by the synod, the synod vice president shall serve as an ex officio member of the Churchwide Assembly and be included in the number of the synod’s voting members. The voting members elected by each synod shall comply with the principles of organization, commitment to inclusiveness, and interdependence as specified in Chapter 5 of this Constitution. In addition, each synod shall elect one additional voting member who is a youth or young adult at the time of the election and one additional voting member who is a person of color or a person whose primary language is other than English …. The secretary shall notify each synod of the number of assembly members it is to elect (ELCA 12.41.11.).

The officers of the churchwide organization, the members of the Church Council, and the bishops of the synods shall serve as ex officio members of the Churchwide Assembly. Unless otherwise determined by a synod, the synod vice presidents shall also serve as ex officio members of the Churchwide Assembly. Ex officio members shall have voice and vote. (ELCA 12.41.16.).
The total number of voting members at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly is 902.

Eligibility to Serve as Voting Member

Each voting member of the Churchwide Assembly shall be a voting member of a congregation of this church… [and] shall cease to be a member of the assembly if no longer a voting member of a congregation of this church within the synod from which elected (ELCA 12.41.13.).

Certification of Voting Members

The secretary of each synod shall submit to the secretary of this church at least nine months before each regular Churchwide Assembly a certified list of the voting members elected by the Synod Assembly (ELCA 12.41.12.).

Seating of Alternate Voting Members

If a voting member elected by the Synod Assembly is unable to serve, the name of an eligible person chosen by the Synod Council shall be submitted by the secretary of the synod to the secretary of this church. If a vacancy occurs or exists within 30 days or less of the convening of the Churchwide Assembly or during the meeting of the Churchwide Assembly, the synod bishop may submit the name of an eligible person to the secretary of this church. The individual whose name is submitted to the secretary of this church shall be registered and seated by the Credentials Committee as a voting member from the synod (ELCA 12.41.12.).

Inclusive Representation

Except as otherwise provided in this constitution and bylaws, the appropriate office or unit of the churchwide organization, through the Church Council, shall establish processes that will ensure that at least 60 percent of the members of its assemblies… be laypersons; that at least 45 percent of the lay members of these assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be women and at least 45 percent shall be men, and that, where possible, the representation of ministers of Word and Sacrament shall include both women and men. Each synod shall establish processes that will enable it to reach a minimum goal that 10 percent of the membership of its assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English (ELCA 5.01.e, f.).

It is the goal of this church that at least 10 percent of the voting members of the Churchwide Assembly, Church Council, and churchwide boards and committees be youth and young adults. The Church Council shall establish a plan for implementing this goal. For purposes of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA, the term “youth” means a voting member of a congregation who has not reached the age of 18 at the time of election or appointment for service. The term “young adult” means a voting member of a congregation between the ages of 18 and 30 at the time of election or appointment for service (ELCA 5.01.F19.).

The term, “persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English,” shall be understood to mean African American, African Descent, Black, Arab and Middle Eastern, Asian and Pacific Islander, Latino, American Indian, and Alaska Native people. This definition, however, shall not be understood as limiting this church’s commitment to inclusive participation in its life and work (ELCA 5.01.C21.).
For purposes of the representational principles set forth in 5.01.e. and f., the percentage of laypersons that is not allocated to women or men may be allocated to persons who identify as gender non-binary, gender fluid, women, men, or other genders (ELCA 5.01.H21.).

Additional Voting Members Provided

The Church Council may allocate up to 10 additional voting members among synods, but no single synod may be allocated more than two additional voting members (ELCA 12.41.11.).

Additional voting members have been allocated by the Church Council as follows:

Advisory Members

Executive directors of units of the churchwide organization, the executive for administration, and other persons from the churchwide organization designated by the presiding bishop shall serve as advisory members of the Churchwide Assembly. The Church Council also may designate other persons as advisory members of the Churchwide Assembly. Advisory members shall have voice but not vote (ELCA 12.41.17.).

Each congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may register with the secretary of this church one congregation observer for the Churchwide Assembly prior to May 31 in the year of a Churchwide Assembly…. PART THREE: QUORUM AND PROCEDURE

Quorum

At least one-half of all persons elected as voting members must be present at a meeting to constitute a quorum for the legal conduct of business. If such a quorum is not present, those voting members present may adjourn the meeting to another time and place, provided that only those persons eligible to vote at the original meeting may vote at the adjourned meeting (ELCA 12.31.07.).

Absence of Members

Members shall not absent themselves from any session of the assembly without valid excuse, under penalty of forfeiture of the meal allowance for the day of absence and proportionate reimbursement of travel expenses.

Parliamentary Procedure

The Churchwide Assembly shall use parliamentary procedures in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, latest edition, unless otherwise ordered by the assembly (ELCA 12.31.09.).
Note: The 12th edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, is, therefore, the governing parliamentary law of this church, except as otherwise provided.

No motion shall be out of order because of conflict with federal, state, or local constitutions or laws.

Proxy and Absentee Voting Precluded

Obtaining the Floor

In plenary sessions of the Churchwide Assembly, the voting members, including the ex officio members, have prior right to obtain the floor, unless the chair determines that it is in the best interests of the assembly to call upon an advisory member, a resource member, or another individual with voice.

Questions of Personal Privilege

Questions of personal privilege that are not urgent and do not relate to the assembly as a whole are out of order. (Questions of privilege that relate to the assembly as a whole include such concerns as problems with acoustics, voting devices, lighting, and emergencies.) Other requests for time in plenary for questions of personal privilege (e.g., personal announcements, comments on matters not on the agenda, reflections on the meaning of votes after they are taken) must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary’s assistant. The chair may allow such matters to be addressed at a later time.

Speeches

Unless otherwise determined by a majority vote of the assembly, all speeches during discussion shall be limited to two minutes. A signal shall be given one minute before the speaker’s time ends. A second signal shall be given one minute later, and the speaker shall then sit down.

After four people have spoken in a row on the same side of the motion before the assembly and no one is in line to speak on the other side, the previous question will be automatically called.

Alternating Speeches

Insofar as is possible during discussion, a speaker on one side of the question shall be followed by a speaker on the other side.

To facilitate alternating speeches, assembly members awaiting recognition at the floor microphones shall approach the appropriate microphone (marked green for those in favor of the pending matter on the floor; marked red for those opposed to the pending matter on the floor).

Purpose and Use of “White Paper”

A white paper, provided in the registration packet of voting members, is to be used to identify a member who wishes to offer an amendment to the pending matter or some other motion that would be in order. Except when authorized to interrupt a speaker by Robert’s Rules of Order, voting members seeking to bring a motion shall line up at any microphone and await recognition by the chair.
Motion to Rescind or Amend Something Previously Adopted at This Assembly

A two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting shall be required to rescind or to amend something previously adopted during this Churchwide Assembly. This rule does not apply to constitutional or bylaw amendments previously adopted by this assembly. (See PART FIFTEEN: Amendments to Governing Documents below.)

Suspending or Revising the Rules

After the adoption of the “Rules of Organization and Procedure” and any amendments thereto offered prior to the adoption of the Rules, any further amendment to, revision in, or suspension of the Rules shall always require for adoption a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

Moving the Previous Question

A member who has spoken on the pending question(s) may not move the previous question(s).

A motion to end debate by moving the previous question shall apply only to the immediately preceding motion. A motion to end debate on all matters on the floor or more than the immediately pending question is not in order.

Applause

Departing from Agenda

With the consent of a majority of the voting members, the chair shall have the authority to call items of business before the assembly in whatever order the chair considers most expedient for the conduct of the assembly’s business.

A motion to alter the agenda shall require for adoption a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting.

Unfinished Business

Upon adjournment of the Churchwide Assembly, all remaining unfinished items of business shall be referred to the Church Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for disposition.

Audit of Credentials Report

At the request of the chair of the Credentials Committee or of the assembly, the chair may order an audit of the report of the Credentials Committee. When so ordered, the Credentials Committee will provide the bishop of each synod with a list of the registered voting members from such synod. Each bishop (or other voting member duly appointed by the bishop) shall then make appropriate corrections on such list and certify the accuracy of the list with such corrections as may be indicated. Each bishop (or other voting member duly appointed by the bishop) shall promptly return the certified list to the chair of the Credentials Committee.

PART FOUR: COMMITTEES OF THE ASSEMBLY

Mandated Committees

The Churchwide Assembly shall have a Reference and Counsel Committee, a Memorials Committee, and a Nominating Committee (ELCA 12.51.).
Reference and Counsel Committee
A Reference and Counsel Committee, appointed by the Church Council, shall review all proposed changes or additions to the constitution and bylaws and other items submitted that are not germane to items contained in the stated agenda of the assembly (ELCA 12.51.01.).

Memorials Committee
A Memorials Committee, appointed by the Church Council, shall review memorials from synod assemblies and make appropriate recommendations for assembly action (ELCA 12.51.02.).

Nominating Committee
A Nominating Committee, elected by the Churchwide Assembly, shall nominate at least one person for each position for which an election will be held by the Churchwide Assembly in accordance with Chapter 19 of this constitution (ELCA 12.51.03.).

The Church Council shall place in nomination the names of two persons for each position [on the Nominating Committee] (ELCA 19.11.01.).

Elections Committee
The Elections Committee shall oversee the conduct of elections in accordance with election procedures approved by the Churchwide Assembly. (See PART THIRTEEN: Election Procedures below.)

In the election for presiding bishop, vice president, or secretary, the Elections Committee shall report the results of any balloting by announcing the number of votes received by each nominee and the names of those nominees qualified to remain on the next ballot or the name of the nominee who is elected.

The Elections Committee shall report the results of balloting in other elections by announcing the name of the person elected or by announcing the names of nominees qualified to remain on the ballot. Vote totals shall be reported to the secretary of this church and recorded in the minutes of the assembly. Based on the report of the Elections Committee, the chair shall declare elected those who received the required number of votes.

A report showing the results of a ballot shall be distributed to the voting members concurrently with, or as soon as possible after, the announced report of the Elections Committee.

Credentials Committee
The Credentials Committee shall oversee the registration of voting members and shall report periodically to the Churchwide Assembly the number of voting members registered.

Churchwide Assembly Planning Committee
The Churchwide Assembly Planning Committee shall assist officers of this church in planning the agenda, program, worship, and arrangements at the Churchwide Assembly.

Other Committees
The Churchwide Assembly may authorize such other committees as it deems necessary (ELCA 12.51.).
Such committees as may be necessary to facilitate the planning for and operation of the assembly may be established by the secretary in consultation with the presiding bishop (ELCA 12.31.05.).

Ad Hoc Committees
Such committees as may be necessary to facilitate the organization and consideration of business before the assembly may be established by the presiding bishop in consultation with the secretary.

Additional Appointments
Additional officials or committees (e.g., sergeants-at-arms, parliamentarians, tellers, pages, etc.) of the Churchwide Assembly shall be appointed by the presiding bishop.

PART FIVE: VOTING PROCEDURES

Voting by Electronic Device
Voting generally shall occur through use of a wireless electronic device at each voting member’s seat.

A voting device will be placed in front of every voting member. The device should remain there throughout the assembly when not being used for voting. The device must not be removed from the table. A voting device must not be used by anyone except the voting member to whom it has been assigned.

Synod bishops (or their designees) will check at the end of every plenary session to ensure that all voting devices are in place.

Voting members must be seated at the table that contains their assigned voting device in order to cast a vote.

Voting by electronic device shall be in accordance with instructions from the chair or the Elections Committee. The chair will announce when voting is to commence.

Once the voting period has begun and voting members have registered their vote, confirmation will appear on the device’s screen. If this message is not received, the synod bishop or a member of the Elections Committee should be notified immediately.

At any time prior to the announcement that the voting period has ended, voting members may change their minds and register a different vote. A second vote will cancel the first vote. Confirmation of the second vote will be sent.

Periodically during the assembly, a test vote will be taken to ensure that all devices are in working order.

If a voting device is inoperable or lost, or if a voting member for any reason cannot use the voting device, please see the secretary’s assistant (seated next to the podium) or a member of the Elections Committee (stationed around the plenary hall).

Various Other Methods of Voting
As directed by the chair, voting also may take place by voice, by show of hands, by standing, or by written ballot.

Any member who because of physical limitation cannot raise a hand or stand to vote should contact the Elections Committee for assistance.

Each voting member’s registration packet contains a paper ballot to be used if the chair so directs. If a paper ballot is called for by the chair, it should not be folded. The ballot will be collected at the voting member’s table in accordance with instructions from the Elections Committee or from the chair.
Division of the House

When a division of the house is ordered, the vote shall be by electronic device, by standing vote, or by written ballot as directed by the chair. No division of the house is in order when a vote has been taken by electronic device, by a counted standing vote, or by written ballot.

PART SIX: RELATION OF ASSEMBLY TO CHURCH COUNCIL AND CHURCHWIDE UNITS

Relationship to Church Council

The Church Council shall exercise interim legislative authority and shall serve as the board of directors of the churchwide organization (ELCA 14.11.).

“Interim legislative authority” is defined to mean that between meetings of the churchwide assemblies, the Church Council may exercise the authority of the Churchwide Assembly, including dealing with all matters which are necessary in pursuit of the purposes and functions of this church, so long as:

a. the actions of the Church Council do not conflict with the actions of and policies established by the Churchwide Assembly; provided, however, that nothing in this constitution and bylaws precludes the Church Council from establishing policies concerning areas where the Churchwide Assembly has not acted; and

b. the Church Council is not precluded by the Articles of Incorporation or this constitution and bylaws from taking action on the matter (ELCA 14.13.).

Responsibilities of Church Council

The Church Council shall act on the policies proposed by churchwide units, when requested by the presiding bishop or the churchwide unit. The Church Council shall ensure that the actions of the Churchwide Assembly are implemented by the applicable unit or office (ELCA 14.21.01.).

The Church Council shall review all recommendations from churchwide units for possible consideration by the Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 14.21.03.).

The Church Council, upon recommendation of the presiding bishop, shall submit budget proposals for approval by the Churchwide Assembly and authorize expenditures within the parameters of approved budgets (ELCA 14.21.05.).

The Church Council shall arrange the process for all elections as specified in this constitution and bylaws for churchwide units to assure conformity with established criteria (ELCA 14.21.22.).

The Church Council shall report its actions to the Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 14.21.07.).

Status of Church Council Recommendations

The recommendation of the Church Council with respect to any proposal by a churchwide unit or any other matter shall be treated as a motion made and seconded, unless the Church Council shall otherwise determine.

Relationship to Churchwide Units

Each unit shall report to the Churchwide Assembly and will report to the Church Council in the interim. The policies, procedures, and operation of each unit shall be reviewed by the Church Council in order to assure conformity with the constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions and with Churchwide Assembly actions (ELCA 16.12.; see also 17.20.05., 17.20.A21.e., 17.30.03., 17.40.02. and 17.50.03.).

Relationship to the Board of Pensions (also known as Portico Benefit Services)

The Churchwide Assembly shall:

a. approve the documents governing the Pension and Other Benefits Program that have been referred by the Church Council; and

b. refer any amendments to the Pension and Other Benefits Program initiated by the Churchwide Assembly to the Board of Pensions for recommendation before final action by the Church Council, assuring that no amendment shall abridge the rights of sponsored members in the ELCA Retirement Plan (ELCA 17.20.01.).

The Church Council shall refer, as it deems appropriate, proposed amendments to the Pension and Other Benefits Program to the Churchwide Assembly for final action (ELCA 17.20.02.d.).

The Board of Pensions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America—also known as Portico Benefit Services—shall … manage and operate the Pension and Other Benefits Program for this church and plans for other non-profit organizations having a formal affiliation with a church or a religious organization, and invest the assets according to fiduciary standards set forth in the plans and trusts (ELCA 17.20.A21.a.).

The Board of Pensions shall … report to the Churchwide Assembly through the Church Council, with the Church Council making comments on all board actions needing approval of the Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 17.20.A21.f.).

PART SEVEN: RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AND NOTICES

Submission of Resolutions and Motions

Substantive resolutions or motions, or amendments to either, must be presented electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant before the established deadline or, if applicable, in writing immediately after being moved. A form is provided for this purpose in the Churchwide Assembly Guide, and paper forms are available from the secretary’s assistant. Other forms also are available in the Churchwide Assembly Guide and from the secretary’s assistant. The method for electronically submitting resolutions and motions is described below. Questions about the process of submitting resolutions may be submitted to the parliamentarian or the secretary.

Nature of Resolutions and Motions

➤ Germane Resolutions and Motions: A germane resolution or motion is one closely related to or having bearing on the matter before the assembly. A resolution or motion that is germane to the matter before the assembly may be offered when in order by any voting member from the floor by going to a microphone and being recognized by the chair. Nothing in this provision is intended to modify established deadlines. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.)

➤ Non-Germane Resolutions and Motions: Any resolution or motion not germane to the matter before the Churchwide Assembly or on the assembly agenda must be submitted to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant electronically or on a paper form prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.) Each resolution or motion must be supported by one other voting member. At least 24 hours must elapse before such resolution may be considered in plenary session. The secretary shall refer such resolution to the Reference and Counsel Committee, which may:

(a) Recommend approval;
(b) Recommend referral to a unit or office of this church;
(c) Recommend a substitute motion to the assembly; or
(d) Recommend that the assembly decline the proposed resolution.

➤ Same or Similar Subjects: The Reference and Counsel Committee may group together in a single recommendation resolutions or motions on the same or similar subjects. A resolution or motion on the same subject as a recommendation already on the agenda of the assembly, such as a memorial, will not be submitted to the assembly for separate action by the Reference and Counsel Committee. The chair of the committee will inform the voting member of the committee’s decision.

➤ Beyond Deadline for Submission: Any resolution or motion not germane to the matter before the Churchwide Assembly or on the assembly agenda that a voting member submits because of circumstances that develop during the assembly and that cannot be submitted to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline (see PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below) must be submitted to the secretary or the secretary’s assistant electronically or on a paper form and be supported by one other voting member. The secretary shall refer such resolutions or motions to the Reference and Counsel Committee, which may:

(a) Decline to refer the resolution or motion to the assembly;
(b) Recommend approval;
(c) Recommend referral to a unit or office of this church;
(d) Recommend a substitute motion to the assembly; or
(e) Recommend that the assembly decline the proposed resolution or motion.

Consideration of a resolution or motion submitted beyond the deadline will require the assembly to suspend the rules prior to presentation of the matter to voting members by the Reference and Counsel Committee.

➤ On Societal Issues: In its recommendation, the Reference and Counsel Committee, following consultation with the Office of the Presiding Bishop, shall inform the Churchwide Assembly when a resolution or motion requires action on a societal issue for which this church does not have an established social policy. Should such resolution or motion be adopted by the Churchwide Assembly, the matter shall be referred to the Office of the Presiding Bishop, which shall bring to the next regular meeting of the Church Council a plan for appropriate implementation.

➤ Budget Expectations: Resolutions with budget expectations should follow the process referenced in Part Fourteen.

Substitute Motions

When a substitute motion is made, secondary amendments may be offered first to the original motion. After all secondary amendments to the original motion have been disposed of, secondary amendments to the substitute motion may be offered. When all amendments to the substitute motion have been disposed of, the vote shall be taken on whether the substitute motion is to be substituted as the original motion or be rejected.
Electronic Submission

Whenever authorized by these rules, resolutions, motions, amendments, nominations, or notices may be submitted electronically through the Churchwide Assembly Guide by completing the applicable form located in the “Forms” tab, identifying the supporting voting member(s), as required, and transmitting it to the secretary’s assistant by pressing the “Done” button at the end of the form. An email response will be sent acknowledging receipt. If an electronic submission is improper or if additional information is necessary, the voting member will receive follow-up notification by email.

PART EIGHT: MEMORIALS FROM SYNOD ASSEMBLIES

Definition of Memorials

Memorials are proposals for action involving broad policy issues submitted by synod assemblies to the churchwide organization. Memorials from synod assemblies are reviewed by the Memorials Committee, which makes appropriate recommendations for assembly action. The committee’s review of the memorial shall include information about the financial and personnel implications if adopted. The committee may consult with the Budget and Finance Committee of the Church Council in preparing its recommendations.

Status of Committee’s Recommendations

When the Memorials Committee has recommended the passage of a memorial considered by the committee, the committee’s recommendation and text of the memorial recommended for passage shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Memorials Committee has recommended the adoption of a substitute recommendation for the memorial on a subject, the committee’s recommendation shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Memorials Committee has recommended referral of a memorial, the committee’s recommendation shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Memorials Committee has recommended that the assembly decline a memorial without the committee making any other recommendation related to the same or closely related subject, the memorial, if then moved by a voting member from the synod originating the memorial and seconded, shall be the main motion, and the committee’s recommendation shall be received as information.

En Bloc Resolution in Response to Certain Memorials

The responses to the synod memorials, as recommended by the Memorials Committee in a report distributed to assembly members prior to, or at, the first business session of the assembly, may be approved by en bloc resolutions when so proposed by the Memorials Committee.

Voting members who desire the assembly to discuss a synod memorial or the Memorials Committee’s response that is proposed for en bloc consideration may request that it be removed from the proposed en bloc resolution, provided the member’s request is supported by 10 other voting members. Such request shall be made in accordance with the following paragraph. The assembly then will consider and vote separately on the proposed response of the Memorials Committee. After removals, the en bloc resolution shall be voted upon without amendments or debate.

1 Adoption of several motions by a single assembly resolution; sometimes known as a consent calendar or an omnibus bill or resolution.
➤Separate Consideration: To call for such separate consideration, a voting member must submit notification electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline (see PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below) on the memorials form. The form is available in the ELCA Churchwide Assembly Guide, and paper forms are available from the secretary’s assistant.

Substitute Proposal

With respect to any recommendation made by the Memorials Committee in a report distributed to the assembly members prior to or at the first business session of the assembly, a voting member of the assembly may offer a substitute motion to the committee’s recommendation only if such member has given notice electronically or on a paper form by the established deadline, provided the request is supported by 10 other voting members. For such notice, a voting member who desires to offer a substitute to the recommendation of the Memorials Committee must complete the memorials form and submit it to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline and provided the request is supported by 10 other voting members. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.) In addition, the text of the proposed substitute shall be submitted on a Motion Form electronically or on a paper form to the secretary or the secretary’s assistant.

Consultation with at least one of the co-chairs of the Memorials Committee is required when a substitute will be moved and is recommended when any other amendment will be proposed to the response recommended by the Memorials Committee.

Recommendation on Same Matter

A voting member’s resolution or motion dealing with the same or similar matter as a subject being reported by the Memorials Committee cannot be considered prior to the Memorials Committee’s recommendation and motion with respect to that matter. This rule does not apply to a resolution or motion that proposes an amendment to a constitutional provision, bylaw, or continuing resolution.

PART NINE: RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE REFERENCE AND COUNSEL COMMITTEE

Status of Committee’s Recommendations

When the Reference and Counsel Committee has recommended the approval of a resolution or motion considered by the committee, the committee’s recommendation and text of the resolution or motion recommended for passage shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Reference and Counsel Committee has recommended the adoption of a substitute recommendation for the resolution(s) or motion(s) on a subject, the committee’s recommendation shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Reference and Counsel Committee has recommended referral of a resolution(s) or motion(s), the committee’s recommendation shall be the main motion before the assembly.

When the Reference and Counsel Committee has recommended that the assembly decline a proposed resolution or motion without the committee making any other recommendation related to the same or a closely related subject, the voting member’s resolution or motion, if then moved by that voting member and seconded, shall be the main motion and the committee’s recommendation shall be received as information.
PART TEN: VOTES ON AND AMENDMENTS TO SOCIAL STATEMENTS AND RELATED ACTIONS

Definition of Social Statements

Social statements are major documents addressing significant social issues. They meet the criteria of and are prepared in accordance with “Policies and Procedures of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for Addressing Social Concerns,” adopted by the Churchwide Assembly in 1997 and amended by the Church Council most recently in 2018.

Deadline for Submission

Any amendment to a social statement, or to recommendations or resolutions concerning a social statement, must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below).

Voting members who submit amendments may be requested to meet with the staff of the unit that developed the statement.

If in the opinion of the chair of the assembly the amendments to a social statement, or to recommendations or resolutions concerning a social statement, are either too voluminous or too complex for the assembly to consider expeditiously, all amendments may be referred by the chair to either the Reference and Counsel Committee or to an ad hoc committee appointed by the chair for its recommendations for the consideration of the statement or recommendations or resolutions and the proposed amendments by the assembly.

If a voting member wishes to offer a substantive amendment that was not submitted prior to the deadline, the assembly, by a majority vote, may consent to the consideration of such an amendment.

Vote to Adopt Social Statements

A two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting in the Churchwide Assembly shall be required for adoption of a social statement.

A social statement of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be developed pursuant to a policy approved by the Church Council, following consultation with the Conference of Bishops. The text of a proposed social statement shall be reviewed by the Conference of Bishops and approved and recommended to the assembly by the Church Council. A proposed social statement shall require for adoption a vote of two-thirds of those voting members present and voting in a Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 12.12.01.).

Vote to Amend or Repeal

Any matter for which adoption by a vote of two-thirds of those voting in a prior Churchwide Assembly was required by the constitution or bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall require a two-thirds vote to be amended or repealed by a subsequent Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 12.12.).

Reconsideration of Social Statement

In accordance with the “Policies and Procedures of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for Addressing Social Concerns,” Churchwide Assemblies may reconsider previously adopted social statements. Such reconsideration may involve either a revision or removal of the statement. This may be done in two ways:
1. A Churchwide Assembly, by a two-thirds vote, may call for the reconsideration of a social statement at the next assembly. Subsequent to such a vote, the social statement shall be referred to the Office of the Presiding Bishop for re-study. The proposed change and the reasons for it shall be made available to this church with an official notice of such proposed action to be sent to the synods by the secretary of this church at least three months prior to the Churchwide Assembly at which it will be considered. A two-thirds vote of the assembly shall be required to revise or remove the social statement.

2. The Church Council, by a two-thirds vote of its voting members, may ask the Churchwide Assembly to reconsider a social statement. Such Church Council action must be taken no later than at the Church Council meeting in the autumn prior to the assembly. The proposed change and the reasons for it shall then be made available to this church with an official notice of such proposed action to be sent to the synods by the secretary of this church at least three months prior to the Churchwide Assembly. A two-thirds vote of the assembly shall be required to reconsider the statement and also to revise or remove it. Both actions may occur at the same assembly.

Vote to Adopt Certain Recommendations or Resolutions from a Social Statement Task Force Requiring Amendment of Constitutional Provisions or Bylaws

A two-thirds vote of the voting members of the Churchwide Assembly present and voting shall be required to adopt recommendations or resolutions originating from or relating to the subject of a social statement task force report or amendments or substitute motions related to such recommendations or resolutions that require amendment of a constitution or bylaw provision for implementation.

PART ELEVEN: VOTES ON PROPOSALS FOR CHURCH-TO-CHURCH AGREEMENTS

This church may establish official church-to-church relationships and agreements. Establishment of such official relationships and agreements shall require a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting in a Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 8.61.).

Each church body votes on a relationship of full communion using the same resolution. Amendments to a resolution establishing full communion, therefore, are not in order.

PART TWELVE: NOMINATIONS

Nominations Desk

Nominations from the floor at the Churchwide Assembly shall be made at the Nominations Desk, which shall be maintained under the supervision of the secretary of this church (ELCA 19.11.A21.a.).

A nomination from the floor shall be made by using the form provided by the secretary of this church. Nomination forms may be obtained from the Nominations Desk at times prescribed in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure (ELCA 19.11.A21.b.).

Nominations may be submitted electronically prior to the established deadline (see PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below) or on a paper form to the Nominations Desk at the times described below.
Information and additional forms may be obtained from the Nominations Desk on Monday, Aug. 8 from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, Aug. 9 from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The deadline for floor nominations is 11:45 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 9.

Congregational Membership

Each nominee for an elected position in the churchwide organization and each nominee for a position on the board of a separately incorporated ministry elected by the Churchwide Assembly shall be a voting member of a congregation of this church, unless otherwise specified in the constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of this church (ELCA 19.04.).

Term Limit

Elections shall be for one six-year term, without consecutive reelection, with approximately one-half of the members of the Church Council and of each board or committee elected each triennium, unless otherwise specified in this church’s constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions (ELCA 19.03.).

Nominations Form

The required form to be used in making nominations from the floor shall include the nominee’s name, address, phone number, lay or rostered status, white or person of color or primary language other than English status, congregational membership, synod membership, and affirmation of willingness to serve, if elected; the name, address, and synod membership of the voting member who is making the nomination; and such other information as the secretary of this church shall require (ELCA 19.11.A21.c.).

The nomination form for the common ballot is also available in the Churchwide Assembly Guide, and paper forms are available at the Nominations Desk at the times described above.

For purposes of nomination procedures, “synod membership” means:

1) In the case of a layperson who is not on the roster of this church, the synod that includes the congregation in which such person holds membership; and

2) In the case of a rostered minister, the synod on whose roster such person’s name is maintained (ELCA 19.11.A21.d.).

Making Floor Nominations

Floor nominations for the Church Council, the Nominating Committee, or other committee or board to be elected by the Churchwide Assembly require, in addition to the nominator, the documented support of at least 20 other voting members (ELCA 19.11.B21.a.).

A nomination from the floor for any position (other than presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary) shall be made by filing the completed nomination form with the Nominations Desk at times prescribed in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure (ELCA 19.11.B21.b.).

Floor nominations for the board of trustees of each of the separately incorporated ministries identified in Chapter 17 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America require, in addition to the nominator, the written support of at least 20 other voting members.
Nominations from the floor for any position (other than presiding bishop, vice president, secretary) shall be made by filing the completed prescribed form electronically before the established deadline (see PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below) or on a paper form with the Nominations Desk. The Nominations Desk is open on Monday, Aug. 8 from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, Aug. 9 from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The deadline for floor nominations is 11:45 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 9.

Nominations will be considered made in the order in which filed at the Nominations Desk (ELCA 19.11.B21.c.).

For Boards and Committees: Restrictions on Nominations

Except as otherwise provided, the Nominating Committee shall nominate two persons for each council, board, or committee position, according to the process described in continuing resolutions, for which an election will be held by the Churchwide Assembly. In the case of re-election, if authorized, or for nominees from church bodies with which this church is in a relationship of full communion, only one person need be nominated. Nominations from the floor, where permitted in the nomination process, shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Nominating Committee and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Nominating Committee shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor (ELCA 19.11.02.).

The Church Council shall endeavor to ensure that every synod has at least one person serving on the Church Council or churchwide boards, committees, task forces, or other groups. Among those persons elected by the assembly, excluding the officers, no more than two persons from any one synod shall serve on the Church Council or any one board, committee, task force, or other group (ELCA 19.11.05.).

Nominations from the floor for positions on boards or committees shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Nominating Committee and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly (ELCA 19.11.C21.a.).

See Section VIII—Report of the Nominating Committee—of the Pre-Assembly Report for details on restrictions.

A former full-time or part-time employee shall not be eligible for a minimum of six years subsequent to such employment, for nomination or election to the board of the separately incorporated ministry or committee related to the churchwide unit in which the employee served (ELCA 19.06.A13.).

So long as the number of incumbent members from a given synod serving on a board or committee with terms not expiring plus the number of positions on the same board or committee to which individuals from the same synod already have been nominated (whether by the Nominating Committee or from the floor) total less than the maximum number of two individuals from the same synod who may serve on that board or committee, an individual from the same synod may be nominated for another position on that board or committee, provided other criteria and restrictions are met. Individuals from the same synod may be nominated for a position on a board or committee to which individuals from the same synod already have been nominated, provided other criteria and restrictions are met (ELCA 19.11.C21.b.).

PLENARY SESSION ONE • 31
For Church Council: Restrictions on Nominations

The members of the Church Council, except the chair of the Conference of Bishops and the treasurer of this church, shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly. In preparation for the Churchwide Assembly, the Church Council shall determine how this church’s commitment to inclusive representation will affect the next election to the Church Council. For 32 of the council members, the Nominating Committee shall invite each eligible synod to submit suggested nominees and shall then nominate persons who fulfill the categories assigned by the Church Council. With respect to the other nominees, the Church Council shall review its size and composition and take into consideration the experience and expertise of existing members and synod nominees as well as the needs of the council in seeking to fulfill its duties and responsibilities. Based upon this analysis, the Church Council shall instruct the Nominating Committee to provide nominations in specific categories for the remaining positions up to 13. Excluding the churchwide officers and the chair of the Conference of Bishops, there shall not be more than two members of the Church Council from a synod. The Church Council shall have at least two members from each region. The terms of office of persons elected to regular terms on the Church Council by the Churchwide Assembly shall begin at the conclusion of the Churchwide Assembly at which such persons were elected (ELCA 19.02.).

Except as otherwise provided, the Nominating Committee shall nominate two persons for each council, board, or committee position, according to the process described in continuing resolutions, for which an election will be held by the Churchwide Assembly. In the case of re-election, if authorized, or for nominees from church bodies with which this church is in a relationship of full communion, only one person need be nominated. Nominations from the floor, where permitted in the nomination process, shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Nominating Committee and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Nominating Committee shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor (ELCA 19.11.02.).

Nominations for positions on the Church Council shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Church Council and Nominating Committee and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly (ELCA 19.11.D21.).

On behalf of the Nominating Committee, the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America—in the year preceding each regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly—shall solicit from eligible synods on a rotating basis the names of two persons in specified categories, in keeping with the representation principles of this church, for possible election to the Church Council. Upon their selection as nominees by the assemblies of the respective synods, the names of the two persons shall be presented to the Nominating Committee for submission to the Churchwide Assembly. In the event that any nominee withdraws or is disqualified from possible service, the Nominating Committee shall request that the nominee’s synod provide a replacement name. In the event that the vacancy occurs subsequent to the preparation of the report of the Nominating Committee to the Churchwide Assembly, a floor nomination shall be provided from the same synod as the original nominee. Except as provided herein, no floor nominations for positions on the Church Council shall be permitted at the Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 19.02.A21.).
See Section VIII—Report of the Nominating Committee—of the Pre-Assembly Report for details on restrictions.

For Nominating Committee: Restrictions on Nominations

The Church Council shall place in nomination the names of two persons for each position. The committee shall consist of at least one member but no more than three members from any region. Nominations from the floor shall also be permitted, but each floor nomination shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Church Council and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Church Council shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor (ELCA 19.11.01.).

Nominations from the floor for positions on the Nominating Committee shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Church Council and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly (ELCA 19.11.E21.a.).

So long as the number of incumbent members from a given region serving on the Nominating Committee with terms not expiring plus the number of Nominating Committee positions to which individuals from the same region have already been nominated (whether by the Church Council or from the floor) total less than the maximum number of three individuals from the same region who may serve on the Nominating Committee, an individual from the same region may be nominated for another Nominating Committee position, provided other criteria and restrictions are met. Provided other criteria and restrictions are met, individuals may be nominated for a Nominating Committee position for which someone from the same region has already been nominated (ELCA 19.11.E21.b.).

PART THIRTEEN: ELECTION PROCEDURES

Election Procedures Utilizing the Common Ballot

The common ballot is used in those elections when the ecclesiastical or nominating ballot is not used (ELCA 19.11.F21.a.).

In each case in which there are floor nominations, there shall be a preliminary ballot that shall include the names of the nominees presented by the Nominating Committee or the Church Council, and the person or persons nominated from the floor, where permitted. The names of the two persons receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on the final ballot (ELCA 19.11.04.).

Unless an electronic or computerized voting system is being utilized, the exact number of ballot forms equal to the number of voting members from each synod will be given to the bishop of each synod. When instructed by the chair, the bishops, or their designees, will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each of the voting members from their synods. The vice president of this church will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each member of the Church Council serving as an ex officio voting member of the assembly. The Elections Committee will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each officer of this church (ELCA 19.11.F21.b.).

Upon recommendation of the chair and with the consent of the assembly, the second common ballot may be conducted by electronic device. If the second common ballot is not conducted by electronic means, the distribution of ballot forms for the second common ballot will be in the same manner as the first common ballot (ELCA 19.11.F21.c.).
Any discrepancy between the number of ballots given to a synod bishop and the number of voting members (including the synod bishop) from such synod must be reported by the synod bishop to the Elections Committee (ELCA 19.11.F21.d.).

Each ticket for which an election is held will be considered a separate ballot (ELCA 19.11.F21.e.).

A voting member may vote for only one nominee on each ticket (ELCA 19.11.F21.f.). Failure to vote for a nominee for every ticket does not invalidate a ballot for the tickets for which a nominee is marked (ELCA 19.11.F21.g.).

Ballots must be marked in accordance with the instructions presented in plenary session (ELCA 19.11.F21.h.).

If a paper common ballot is utilized, ballot forms should not be folded (ELCA 19.11.F21.i.).

Completed paper ballots must be deposited at the designated Ballot Stations at certain exits of the hall in which plenary sessions are held (ELCA 19.11.F21.j.).

If a paper ballot is damaged so that it cannot be scanned, a replacement ballot may be obtained at the Ballot Station upon surrender of the damaged ballot (ELCA 19.11.F21.k.).

Unless otherwise ordered by the assembly, polls for the first common ballot close at the time designated in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure (ELCA 19.11.F21.l.).

On each ticket for which balloting is conducted by electronic device, the polls will remain open for a reasonable time, as determined by the chair, to permit members to record their votes (ELCA 19.11.F21.m.).

Unless the second ballot is conducted electronically, polls for the second common ballot close at the time designated in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure or as otherwise ordered by the assembly (ELCA 19.11.F21.n.).

On the second ballot, whether by paper ballot or electronically, the first position on each ticket shall be given to the nominee who received the greatest number of votes on the first ballot. If two nominees are tied for the highest vote, the first position on the ticket shall be determined by draw by the chair of the Elections Committee (ELCA 19.11.F21.o.).

Majority Required for Election

In all elections by the Churchwide Assembly, other than for the presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary, a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot shall be necessary for election. If an election does not occur on the first ballot, the names of the two persons receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on the second ballot. On the second ballot, a majority of the legal votes cast shall be necessary for election (ELCA 19.05.02.).

Breaking Ties

On the first common ballot, the blank ballots of the treasurer and vice president shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee to be presented to the treasurer for vote only in those elections where a tie would otherwise exist, and to be presented to the vice president for vote only in those elections to break a tie remaining after the ballot of the treasurer has been counted (ELCA 19.11.G21.b.).
On the second common ballot, the marked ballot of the treasurer shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee and shall be counted only where necessary to break a tie that would otherwise exist (ELCA 19.11.G21.c.).

PART FOURTEEN: BUDGET PROPOSALS

Budget Procedures

The presiding bishop shall … provide for the preparation of the budget for the churchwide organization (ELCA 13.21.f.).

At the direction of the presiding bishop, the executive for administration shall …
develop the budget for the churchwide organization and report to the Church Council and the Churchwide Assembly through the Budget and Finance Committee of the Church Council with regard to the preparation of the budget (ELCA 15.12.A20.d.).

A Budget and Finance Committee shall be composed of members of the Church Council elected by the council. The treasurer of this church shall serve as an ex officio member of the committee. This committee shall have staff services provided by the Office of the Presiding Bishop and the Office of the Treasurer. The committee shall prepare and present a comprehensive budget to the Church Council for its consideration and presentation to the Churchwide Assembly. The committee shall relate to the work of the Office of the Treasurer (ELCA 14.41.A15.).

The Church Council, upon recommendation of the presiding bishop, shall submit budget proposals for approval by the Churchwide Assembly and authorize expenditures within the parameters of approved budgets (ELCA 14.21.05.).

The Churchwide Assembly shall … adopt a budget for the churchwide organization (ELCA 12.21.e.).

Each synod shall remit to the churchwide organization a percentage or amount of all donor-unrestricted receipts contributed to it by the congregations of the synod. The actual percentage or amount shall be determined through individual consultations with each synod. Consultations may recognize and include receipts other than unrestricted receipts in establishing and reporting the synod’s remittance to the churchwide organization (ELCA 10.71.).

Proposed amendments to the budget must be submitted to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant electronically or on a paper form prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.) Each amendment must be supported by one other voting member. The secretary shall refer such proposed amendments to the Budget and Finance Committee. During the consideration of the budget by the assembly, the Budget and Finance Committee shall report on the implication of each proposed amendment.

Any amendment to the budget that increases a current program proposal of, or adds a current program proposal to, a churchwide unit must include a corresponding decrease in some other current program proposal of the same or another churchwide unit(s) and/or increase in revenues. Any amendment to the budget that proposes an increase in revenues shall require an affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of those present and voting.

The assembly may refer to the Church Council for final action any amendment to the budget that has been presented in accordance with these Rules of Organization and Procedure. Such referral shall not preclude the assembly from acting on other budget amendments or from adopting the budget.
Appropriations

When a motion calling for an appropriation comes before the Churchwide Assembly from any source other than the Church Council or a memorial from a synod, it shall be referred at once to the Reference and Counsel Committee. The Reference and Counsel Committee shall refer the proposed appropriation to the Budget and Finance Committee of the Church Council. The Budget and Finance Committee may consult with the churchwide unit(s) affected by the proposed appropriation. The Budget and Finance Committee may conclude that it cannot evaluate adequately the proposed appropriation prior to assembly adjournment and may request that the Church Council be designated to receive the evaluation later and to determine whether or not the proposed appropriation shall be authorized. The findings of the Budget and Finance Committee shall be forwarded to the Reference and Counsel Committee, which shall then make its recommendation to the Churchwide Assembly. If the report of the Reference and Counsel Committee is negative, a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting shall be required for adoption.

A proposed appropriation that originates with a synod through a memorial will be handled in the same way as in this preceding rule, except that reference shall be to the Memorials Committee rather than to the Reference and Counsel Committee.

New Studies or Research Proposals

Each proposal by a voting member for a study or research project shall be made as a main motion and shall be referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee. The Reference and Counsel Committee shall refer the proposal to the Office of the Secretary, which, in consultation with the churchwide unit to which the proposal is directed, will seek to determine the purpose, relationship to existing studies and research projects or current programs, potential value, overall costs including staff requirements, and availability of budget and staff. The Office of the Secretary may conclude that it cannot evaluate adequately the proposal prior to assembly adjournment and request that the Church Council be designated to receive the evaluation at a later time and determine whether or not the study or research project should be initiated. The findings of the Office of the Secretary shall be submitted to the Reference and Counsel Committee, which may make its recommendation to the assembly. If the recommendation calls for a new appropriation, the matter also shall be referred at once to the Budget and Finance Committee for consideration and report to the Reference and Counsel Committee. If the report of the Reference and Counsel Committee is negative, a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting shall be required for adoption.

A proposal that originates with a synod through a memorial shall be handled the same way, except that reference shall be to the Memorials Committee, rather than to the Reference and Counsel Committee.

Process for Initiation or Reconsideration of Social Statements

The process for initiating the preparation of a social statement or commencing a revision or removal of a social statement adopted at a prior Churchwide Assembly shall be governed by the document, “Policies and Procedures for Addressing Social Concerns,” which was adopted by the 1997 Churchwide Assembly (CA97.05.21) and revised by the Church Council in 2006 (CC06.11.51), 2011 (CC11.04.28), and 2018 (CC18.11.25o).
PART FIFTEEN: AMENDMENTS TO GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

Constitutional Amendments

This constitution may be amended only through either of the following procedures:

a. The Church Council may propose an amendment, with an official notice to be sent to the synods at least six months prior to the next regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly. The adoption of such an amendment shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the next regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly present and voting.

b. An amendment may be proposed by 25 or more members of the Churchwide Assembly. The proposed amendment shall be referred to the Committee of Reference and Counsel for its recommendation, following which it shall come before the assembly. If such an amendment is approved by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting, such an amendment shall become effective only if adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at the next regular Churchwide Assembly (ELCA 22.11.).

A constitutional amendment may be proposed only by a main motion. A proposed constitutional amendment must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.)

Bylaw Amendments

Bylaws not in conflict with this constitution may be adopted or amended at any regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly when presented in writing by the Church Council or by at least 15 members of the assembly. An amendment proposed by members of the assembly shall immediately be submitted to the Committee of Reference and Counsel for its recommendation. In no event shall an amendment be placed before the assembly for action sooner than the day following its presentation to the assembly. A two-thirds vote of the members present and voting shall be necessary for adoption (ELCA 22.21.).

A bylaw amendment may be proposed only by a main motion. A proposed bylaw amendment must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.) The secretary first shall report to the assembly any bylaw amendments so submitted and the amendments then shall be referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee.

Any floor amendment that is to be offered to a bylaw amendment proposed by the Church Council must be submitted in accordance with the requirement for bylaw amendments that are proposed by voting members.

Continuing Resolutions

Continuing resolutions not in conflict with the constitution or bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Churchwide Assembly or by a two-thirds vote of the Church Council. Such continuing resolutions become effective immediately upon adoption. Matters related to the administrative functions of the churchwide organization shall be set forth in the continuing resolutions (ELCA 22.31.).
Should the conference, committee, or board in question disagree with the action of the Church Council in amending a continuing resolution, it may appeal the decision to the Churchwide Assembly. (See ELCA 10.81.03., 17.20.07., 17.40.04. and 17.50.07.)

A continuing resolution amendment may be proposed only by a main motion.

A proposed continuing resolution amendment must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.)

Amendments to the Constitution for Synods

The Constitution for Synods contains mandatory provisions that incorporate and record therein provisions of the constitution and bylaws of this church. Amendments shall be made in accordance with the required provisions in Chapter 18 of the Constitution for Synods. Non-mandatory provisions shall not be inconsistent with the constitution and bylaws of this church (ELCA 10.13.).

An amendment to the Constitution for Synods may be proposed only by a main motion.

A proposed amendment to the Constitution for Synods must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.)

Amendments to the Model Constitution for Congregations

A Model Constitution for Congregations shall be provided by this church. Amendments to the Model Constitution for Congregations shall be made in the same manner as prescribed in Chapter 22 for amendments of the bylaws of this church (ELCA 9.53.02.).

An amendment to the Model Constitution for Congregations may be proposed only by a main motion.

A proposed amendment to the Model Constitution for Congregations must be submitted electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline. (See PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below.)

En Bloc Resolution for Amendments to Governing Documents

Amendments to the constitutions, bylaws and continuing resolutions as recommended by the Church Council in a report distributed to assembly members prior to, or at, the first business session of the assembly, may be approved by en bloc resolutions when so proposed by the Church Council.

Voting members who desire the assembly to discuss a particular amendment that is included in the en bloc resolutions may request that the particular amendment be removed from the proposed en bloc resolutions, provided the member’s request is supported by 10 other voting members. Such request shall be made in accordance with the following paragraph. The assembly then will consider and vote separately on the particular proposed amendment. After removals, the en bloc resolutions shall be voted upon without amendments or debate.

To call for such separate consideration, a voting member, with the support of 10 other voting members, must submit notification electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or the secretary’s assistant prior to the established deadline (see PART EIGHTEEN: Deadlines below) on the form titled Amendments to Governing Documents.
Notice shall be given by the secretary of this church to the assembly of which constitutional provisions or bylaw proposals have been removed from the en bloc resolutions by specific voting members.

Vote to Adopt Certain Recommendations from Reports

A two-thirds vote of the voting members of the Churchwide Assembly present and voting shall be required to adopt recommendations from any report that requires amendment of a constitutional provision or bylaw of this church for implementation.

Reconsideration or Rescission Prohibited

After the adoption by the assembly of a constitutional or bylaw amendment, a motion for reconsideration or a motion to rescind or amend such action is not in order.

PART SIXTEEN: ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS

Election Procedures

Set forth hereafter are the procedures for the elections of the presiding bishop, the vice president, and the secretary, whether or not there will be an election at this assembly for any of these positions. Elections are required because of completion of the specified term for a position or when a vacancy otherwise occurs.

Background Checks and Screening

Background checks and screening shall be required and completed for persons nominated as churchwide officers prior to their election, if possible, or as soon as practical after their election. The specific procedures and timing of background checks and screening shall be determined by the Church Council (ELCA 19.01.B09.).

The Protocol for Churchwide Officer Background Checks and Screening and the forms which the nominees need to complete, including a Biographical Information Form, a Disclosure Form, and a Background Check Disclosure and Release Information Form, are available.

Restrictions on Nominations for Officers

The officers shall be the presiding bishop, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Each officer shall be a voting member of a congregation of this church (ELCA 13.11.). The presiding bishop shall be a minister of Word and Sacrament of this church (ELCA 13.21.).

The presiding bishop shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly to a six-year term and serve until a successor takes office (ELCA 13.22.).

The presiding bishop shall be a full-time, salaried position (ELCA 13.22.02.).

The vice president shall be a layperson (ELCA 13.31.).

The vice president shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly to a six-year term and serve until a successor takes office (ELCA 13.32.).

The vice president may perform such other tasks for the benefit of this church as the Church Council directs, and may be compensated as the Church Council determines (ELCA 13.32.02.).

The secretary shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly to a six-year term and serve until a successor takes office (ELCA 13.42.).

The secretary shall be a full-time, salaried position (ELCA 13.42.02.).

The secretary may be either a rostered minister or a lay person.
Ecclesiastical Ballot Defined

An “ecclesiastical ballot” for the election of officers (other than treasurer) of the churchwide organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is an election process:

a. in which on the first ballot the name of any eligible individual may be submitted for nomination by a voting member of the assembly;
b. through which the possibility of election to office exists on any ballot by achievement of the required number of votes cast by voting members of the assembly applicable to a particular ballot;
c. that precludes spoken floor nominations but allows nomination of persons not in attendance at the meeting;
d. in which those casting ballots have primary responsibility to nominate persons willing to serve if elected;
e. in which the first ballot is the nominating ballot if no election occurs on the first ballot;
f. in which the first ballot defines the total slate of nominees for possible election on a subsequent ballot, with no additional nominations;
g. in which each synod bishop will seek to inform nominees from that synod that they have been nominated and that they may withdraw if they do not seek election;
h. that allows, after the reporting of the first ballot, the persons nominated to withdraw their names prior to the casting of the second ballot;
i. in which any name appearing on the second ballot may not be subsequently withdrawn;
j. that does not preclude an assembly’s adoption of rules that permit, at a defined point in the election process and for a defined period of time, speeches to the assembly by nominees or their representatives and/or a question-and-answer forum in which the nominees or their representatives participate; and
k. in which the number of names that appear on any ballot subsequent to the second ballot shall be determined in accordance with provisions of the governing documents. (ELCA 19.01.C19.).

Election Procedures Utilizing the Ecclesiastical Ballot

For each election by ecclesiastical or nominating ballot, the exact number of appropriate ballot sets equal to the number of voting members from each synod will be given to the bishop of each synod. Unless an electronic or computerized voting system is being utilized, the bishops, or their designees, will be responsible for distributing the ballot sets to each of the voting members from their synods. The Elections Committee will be responsible for distributing the ballot sets to each officer and member of the Church Council serving as an ex officio voting member of the assembly (ELCA 19.01.D21.a.).

The chair will announce what type of voting system is to be used for the election. If ordered by the chair to use paper ballots, one of the numbered ballots from the appropriate ballot set is to be used on each ballot. The chair will announce the number of the ballot from the appropriate ballot set that is to be used for each ballot. Failure to use the correct numbered ballot will result in an illegal ballot (ELCA 19.01.D21.b.).
On the first two ballots for each office being selected by ecclesiastical or nominating ballot, both the first and last names of a nominee should be used. Members should endeavor to use correct spelling and should provide, on the first ballot, any additional accurate information identifying the nominee, such as title, position, synod, congregation, or residence (ELCA 19.01.D21.c.).

On the third and subsequent ballots conducted by written ballot, only the last name of the nominee need be used, provided there is no other nominee with the same or similar name (ELCA 19.01.D21.d.).

A member may vote for only one nominee on each ballot (ELCA 19.01.D21.e.).

Ballots should not be marked prior to the time the chair advises the voting members to do so (ELCA 19.01.D21.f.).

Written ballots shall not be folded (ELCA 19.01.D21.g.).

Written ballots will be collected from the voting members in accordance with instructions from the Elections Committee or from the chair (ELCA 19.01.D21.h.).

When the results of the first ballot are presented, the chair will announce when and how persons nominated may withdraw their names prior to the casting of the second ballot (ELCA 19.01.D21.i.).

When voting by electronic device, the first position on each ballot shall be given to the nominee who received the greatest number of votes on the immediately preceding ballot, with the remaining positions assigned to the other nominees in descending order of the number of votes received on the immediately preceding ballot. If two or more nominees were tied with the same vote on the immediately preceding ballot, their respective positions shall be determined by draw by the chair of the Elections Committee (ELCA 19.01.D21.j.).

On each ticket for which balloting is conducted by electronic device, the polls will remain open for a reasonable time, as determined by the chair, to permit voting members to record their votes. (ELCA 19.01.D21.k.).

Election of the Presiding Bishop

The presiding bishop shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly by ecclesiastical ballot. Three-fourths of the votes cast shall be necessary for election on the first ballot. If no one is elected, the first ballot shall be considered the nominating ballot. Three-fourths of the votes cast on the second ballot shall be necessary for election. The third ballot shall be limited to the seven persons (plus ties) who received the greatest number of votes on the second ballot, and two-thirds of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. The fourth ballot shall be limited to the three persons (plus ties) who receive the greatest number of votes on the third ballot, and 60 percent of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. On subsequent ballots, a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. These ballots shall be limited to the two persons (plus ties) who receive the greatest number of votes on the previous ballot (ELCA 19.01.02.).

Those wishing to withdraw and not let their names go to the second ballot may do so in paper form to the Nominations/Elections desk in the registration area, electronically via email (nominations@elca.org), or by phone in the hearing of two members of the elections committee.

If there is no election on the second ballot, the seven persons (plus ties) who received the greatest number of votes on the second ballot shall complete the Biographical Information Form, Disclosure Form, and Background Check Disclosure and Release Information Form approved by the Executive Committee of the Church Council. Nominees shall receive instructions on how to complete these forms.

Prior to the third ballot for presiding bishop, biographical data will be distributed for the seven nominees (plus ties).

All nominees will be present for the following forums or be permitted to address the assembly by remote communication.

Prior to the third ballot for presiding bishop, the seven nominees (plus ties) will be invited to address the assembly, with each speech limited to four minutes. If any such person is not present at the assembly and is unable to address the assembly by remote communication, the bishop of the synod of such person’s roster shall, in consultation with such person, if possible, designate an alternate to speak on behalf of such person.

Prior to the fourth ballot for presiding bishop, the three nominees (plus ties) are invited to respond to questions submitted. Voting members may submit questions electronically or on a paper form to the secretary of this church or to the secretary’s assistant. From the questions submitted, the Executive Committee of the Church Council, excluding the presiding bishop and nominees, shall select a sample of questions and determine the process to be followed. The question-and-answer period shall be moderated by an individual appointed by the Executive Committee of the Church Council. Each of the nominees shall be asked questions in rotating order, and each response shall be no longer than two minutes.

Election of the Vice President

In a year when the vice president or secretary shall be elected, those who will serve as voting members of the upcoming Churchwide Assembly shall be invited to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president or secretary. Names shall be submitted to the Office of the Secretary at least four months prior to the assembly. The Office of the Secretary shall contact those persons identified and request biographical information. At least 60 days prior to the Churchwide Assembly, the biographical information received from those persons open to consideration shall be distributed to the voting members (ELCA 19.01.A21).

The vice president shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly by ecclesiastical ballot. The election shall proceed without oral nominations. If the first ballot for vice president does not result in an election, it shall be considered a nominating ballot. On the first ballot, three-fourths of the votes cast shall be required for election. Thereafter only such votes as are cast for persons who received votes on the first or nominating ballot shall be valid. On the second ballot, three-fourths of the votes cast shall be required for election. On the third ballot, the voting shall be limited to the seven persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the second ballot and two-thirds of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. On the fourth ballot, voting shall be limited to the three persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the previous ballot and 60 percent of the votes cast shall elect. On subsequent ballots, voting shall be limited to the two persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the previous ballot and a majority of votes cast shall elect (ELCA 19.01.03.).

Names identified and posted on the assembly website or through the Churchwide Assembly Guide prior to the assembly shall be removed from the site and the application following the adoption of these rules. The biographical information shall be provided for the top seven nominees plus ties after the second ballot.
Those wishing to withdraw and not let their names go to the second ballot may do so in paper form to the Nominations/Elections desk in the registration area, electronically via email (nominations@elca.org), or by phone in the hearing of two members of the elections committee. The deadline for withdrawing is Tuesday, Aug. 9 at 7:00 p.m.

If there is no election on the second ballot, the seven persons (plus ties) who received the greatest number of votes on the second ballot shall complete the Biographical Information Form, Disclosure Form, and Background Check Disclosure and Release Information Form approved by the Executive Committee of the Church Council. Nominees shall receive instructions on how to complete these forms.

Prior to the third ballot for vice president, biographical data will be distributed for the seven nominees (plus ties).

Prior to the third ballot for vice president, the seven nominees (plus ties) will be invited to address the assembly, with each speech limited to four minutes. If any such person is not present at the assembly and is unable to address the assembly by remote communication, the bishop of the synod of such person’s congregation membership shall, in consultation with such person, if possible, designate an alternate to speak on behalf of such person.

Prior to the fourth ballot for vice president, each of the three nominees (plus ties) will be asked in rotating order to respond to three questions determined by the Executive Committee of the Church Council, excluding the vice president and nominees. Each nominee’s response to each question shall be limited to two minutes.

Election of the Secretary

In a year when the vice president or secretary shall be elected, those who will serve as voting members of the upcoming Churchwide Assembly shall be invited to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president or secretary. Names shall be submitted to the Office of the Secretary at least four months prior to the assembly. The Office of the Secretary shall contact those persons identified and request biographical information. At least 60 days prior to the Churchwide Assembly, the biographical information received from those persons open to consideration shall be distributed to the voting members. (ELCA 19.01.A21.)

The secretary shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly by ecclesiastical ballot. The election shall proceed without oral nominations. If the first ballot for secretary does not result in an election, it shall be considered a nominating ballot. On the first ballot, three-fourths of the votes cast shall be required for election. Thereafter only such votes as are cast for persons who received votes on the first or nominating ballot shall be valid. On the second ballot, three-fourths of the votes cast shall be required for election. On the third ballot, the voting shall be limited to the seven persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the second ballot and two-thirds of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. On the fourth ballot, voting shall be limited to the three persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the previous ballot and 60 percent of the votes cast shall elect. On subsequent ballots, voting shall be limited to the two persons (plus ties) receiving the greatest number of votes on the previous ballot and a majority of the votes cast shall elect (ELCA 19.01.04.).

Names identified and posted on the assembly website or through the Churchwide Assembly Guide prior to the assembly, shall be removed from the site and the application following the adoption of these rules. The biographical information shall be provided for the top seven nominees plus ties after the second ballot.

Those wishing to withdraw and not let their names go to the second ballot may do so in paper form to the Nominations/Elections desk in the registration area, electronically via email (nominations@elca.org), or by phone in the hearing of two members of the elections committee. If there is no election on the second ballot, the seven persons (plus ties) who received the greatest number of votes on the second ballot shall complete the Biographical Information Form, Disclosure Form, and Background Check Disclosure and Release Information Form approved by the Executive Committee of the Church Council. Nominees shall receive instructions on how to complete these forms.

Prior to the third ballot for secretary, biographical data will be distributed for the seven nominees (plus ties).

Prior to the third ballot for secretary, the seven nominees (plus ties) will be invited to address the assembly, with each speech limited to four minutes. If any such person is not present at the assembly and is unable to address the assembly by remote communication, the bishop of the synod of such person’s congregation membership shall, in consultation with such person, if possible, designate an alternate to speak on behalf of such person.

Prior to the fourth ballot for secretary, each of the three nominees (plus ties) will be asked in rotating order to respond to three questions determined by the Executive Committee of the Church Council, excluding the secretary and nominees. Each nominee’s response to each question shall be limited to two minutes.

On the final ballot for the election of presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary of this church, when only two names appear on the ballot, a majority of the legal votes cast is necessary for election.

Breaking Ties

On the ballot for the election of the presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary, when only two names appear, the marked ballot of the treasurer shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee and shall be counted only where necessary to break a tie that would otherwise exist (ELCA 19.11.G21.a.).

PART SEVENTEEN: STATUS OF REPORTS

At least 20 days prior to an assembly the secretary shall prepare and distribute to each congregation and to the voting members-elect a pre-assembly report. Distribution to congregations may be accomplished by posting the report on the website of this church (ELCA 12.31.03.).

Reports of the Presiding Bishop and Secretary of This Church

Following presentation, the presiding bishop’s report and the secretary’s report shall be referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee.

Status of Reports

All reports published in the Pre-Assembly Report shall be treated as having been received by the assembly without formal vote.
Distribution of Materials

Materials may be distributed on the floor of the assembly only with the written consent of the secretary of this church. In cases where the secretary does not consent, appeal may be made to the Reference and Counsel Committee. That committee’s decision shall be final.

Committees of the Assembly

The “Rules of Organization and Procedure” having been adopted, Presiding Bishop Eaton outlined the committees authorized to assist the assembly:

To approve the Order of Business as amended as the agenda of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, in keeping with the provisions of the “Rules of Organization and Procedure” for calling items of business before the assembly.

The presiding bishop declared that the motion had passed.

Recess

The assembly recessed at 10:40 a.m. and reconvened at 10:51 a.m.

Greeting from Federal Chaplains

Presiding Bishop Eaton called the assembly back to order at 10:51 a.m. and introduced United States Air Force Chaplain Captain Martine Joseph, who greeted the assembly on behalf of the more than 180 federal chaplains and 500 rostered ministers who serve as chaplains in other settings. Capt. Joseph thanked ELCA leadership for unwavering support of embodiment of the Word through the ministry of chaplaincy.

In Memoriam: Vice President William B. “Bill” Horne

Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced a video memorializing Mr. William B. “Bill” Horne II, vice president of the ELCA, who died Aug. 14, 2021. In introducing the video memorial, the presiding bishop summarized Mr. Horne’s valuable and varied service to the ELCA. Following the video, Presiding Bishop Eaton read from a resolution adopted by the Church Council in remembrance of and thanksgiving for Vice President Horne.

The ELCA Church Council gives thanks to God for the life and faithful service of William “Bill” Burt Horne II. The council expresses its appreciation for his wise, fair, and strong leadership as vice president of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and his collaborative spirit, steadfast commitment, and genuine compassion for the congregations and communities throughout the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

She then led the assembly in singing “If We Live, We Live to the Lord.”

First Ballot for Vice President

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section I, Rules of Organization and Procedure, and Section V: Election of the Vice President

The chair introduced the first ballot for vice president, reminding voting members to be sure they were registered so they would be able to vote. She provided an explanation of the process by which names are placed in nomination for vice president, reminding voting members that any layperson who is a voting member of an ELCA congregation may be nominated for vice president by submitting the person’s name on the first ballot. Rostered ministers are not eligible for election. The presiding bishop summarized the responsibilities of the vice president, particularly that of serving as chair of the Church Council. The vice president’s term is six years.
The presiding bishop summarized the balloting process and emphasized that only voting members seated on the floor of the assembly would be able to vote. Once the initial ballot was complete, nominations for vice president would be closed. People who were nominated but wished to withdraw their names from consideration would have the opportunity to do so before the second ballot.

After explaining various additional elements of the balloting process, Presiding Bishop Eaton called on Ms. Aja C. Favors, associate general counsel, to deliver the report of the Credentials Committee. Ms. Favors reported that, as of 10:45 a.m., there were 804 voting members registered. Sixty percent were laypersons and forty percent were rostered ministers. Twenty percent were persons of color or persons whose primary language is other than English; fifteen percent were youth or young adults.

Following a hymn and prayer, the balloting for vice president proceeded. After the end of the voting, the presiding bishop reminded the assembly of various deadlines and stated that the results of the balloting for vice president would be announced at the next plenary session, but that nominees would be notified as soon as possible so they would have time to discern. Nominees could withdraw any time before 7:00 p.m. on Aug. 9.

Report of the Nominating Committee
Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section VIII, Nominating Committee Report

Presiding Bishop Eaton invited Mr. Louis J. Moehlman, chair of the Nominating Committee, to present that committee’s report. Mr. Moehlman summarized the process used by the committee to ensure that the slate of nominees before the Churchwide Assembly was composed of faithful, conscientious leaders inspired for service in this church. He emphasized the need to comply with the representational principles in Chapter 5 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA as well as with requirements spelled out in Chapter 19 and expressed gratitude to all ELCA members who agreed to stand for nomination.

Mr. Moehlman noted that names of nominees for Church Council positions were submitted by synods and selected by Synod Assemblies, with those synods eligible to nominate for Church Council positions being designated on a rotating basis. Nominations for youth at-large positions on the Church Council were submitted by synods and the Nominating Committee. He also instructed assembly members where biographical information for nominees could be found.

The Nominating Committee also provided slates of nominees for the Committee on Appeals and the Committee on Discipline. The Church Council had acted on nominees to serve on the Nominating Committee.

Nominations for the boards of the separately incorporated ministries were presented in accordance with Chapters 17 and 19 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA. Floor nominations for these positions must match the specific categories and criteria specified in the Report of the Nominating Committee.

Mr. Moehlman referred voting members to the appropriate parts of the ‘‘Rules of Organization and Procedure’’ for information and rules related to nominations and highlighted key provisions. He outlined the process by which floor nominations could be submitted and noted the information that must be provided for each floor nominee. He announced that the deadline for floor nominations was 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, August 9, and that the deadline for persons nominated from the floor to submit biographical information was 1:00 p.m. the same day.
Mr. Moehlman thanked members of the Nominating Committee for their work and Secretary Rothmeyer and the Office of the Secretary staff for facilitating the work of the committee. He concluded by noting that identifying and nominating leaders for this church is an ongoing process and invited voting members to look for potential leaders when they return home and invite people to submit nominations for future consideration.

Announcements

Presiding Bishop Eaton called on Secretary Rothmeyer to provide announcements related to the business of the assembly.

Hymn and Prayer

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA reconvened in Hall A of the Greater Columbus Convention Center, Columbus, Ohio, at 1:32 p.m. The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), called the assembly to order.

En Bloc Action on Social Policy Resolutions

Presiding Bishop Eaton provided an overview of ELCA policy related to archiving of social policy resolutions. She noted that nine social policies had been proposed for archiving and that none were removed from en bloc. She invited Secretary Rothmeyer to read the action on behalf of the Church Council.

Elections: Initial Report of the First Ballot for Vice President
Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section I, Rules of Organization and procedure; Section V, Election of the Vice President; Section X, Report of the Elections Committee

The presiding bishop called on Mr. Thomas A. Cunniff, general counsel for the ELCA and chair of the Elections Committee, for the presentation of the results of the first ballot for vice president. She explained that the full results of the first ballot could be found in the Churchwide Assembly Guide under “Section X – Report of the Elections Committee.” Mr. Cunniff reported that there were 686 ballots cast, of which four were illegal ballots. Of the 682 legal ballots, none of the nominees received the 512 votes (75% of ballots cast) necessary for election. He announced that the person who received the most votes was Ms. Tracey Beasley with 135 votes.
The presiding bishop declared that there was no election on the first ballot. She reminded voting members of the timing for the second ballot for vice president and that those nominated could remove their names from consideration only before the next ballot. She briefly reviewed the process for withdrawal from consideration and reminded the assembly that the deadline for withdrawal was 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 9.

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section VII, Report of the Memorials Committee; Supplemental Report of the Memorials Committee

Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced Ms. Cheryl T. Chatman and Mr. Joseph T. Nolte, co-chairs of the Memorials Committee. Ms. Chatman, on behalf of the Memorials Committee, thanked the synods that sent memorials to the Churchwide Assembly. The 78 memorials submitted by synods, asking this church to take action on a variety of issues, are one of the means by which the interdependent expressions of this church communicate with one another and beyond this church.

Mr. Nolte explained that the Memorials Committee was appointed by the Church Council and was composed of diverse members from across this church in accord with the representational principles of the ELCA. The committee is given the responsibility to review memorials from synod assemblies and to make recommendations for Churchwide Assembly action. The purpose of the Memorials Committee is to assist the assembly as it responds to a large body of work and to facilitate the assembly’s engagement in these important conversations.

Ms. Chatman clarified that part of this process involved grouping together memorials that address the same topic or related concerns. In some cases, a number of synods acted on model memorials that used identical wording. Within some categories, however, memorials represented a broad range of opinions and recommended actions. Mr. Nolte expressed gratitude on behalf of the Memorials Committee to the churchwide units and resource persons who assisted the committee by providing background information and references to previous actions taken by the Churchwide Assembly.

Upon review of memorials received within each category and consideration of the background information related to each, the committee had a number of options. The committee could vote to: affirm or decline to recommend the action proposed by the synod(s); recommend referral to the Church Council, a churchwide unit, or another entity for further study; or reaffirm existing policy adopted by the Church Council or a previous Churchwide Assembly.

Ms. Chatman explained that the Memorials Committee considered the potential financial impact of its recommendations and the capacity of staff, the Church Council, and the Conference of Bishops to take on increased responsibilities.

Voting members had until 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9, to request that responses of the Memorials Committee proposed for en bloc approval be removed from en bloc, substituted, or amended. The responses to memorials removed from en bloc for separate consideration and substitute responses to memorials that the committee recommended for adoption were provided to assembly members in the “Supplemental Report of the Memorials Committee” found in the Churchwide Assembly Guide app.

Ms. Chatman announced that, in addition to the three memorial responses withheld from en bloc by the Memorials Committee, several other memorial responses were removed from en bloc by voting members of the assembly. The following memorials were removed from en bloc:

- Category A4: Greenhouse Gas Reduction
• Category A5: Fortifying Urban Ministries
• Category A6: Advance Salary Equity
• Category A7: Black Migrant Strategy
• Category A8: Land Back
• Category B4: Restructure the Governance of the ELCA
• Category B5: Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Accessibility (DEIA) ELCA Governance Audit
• Category B8: Separation Agreements
• Category B9: Mission Development Process
• Category B11: Specialized Ministries and On-Leave-from-Call Status
• Category C3: “Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust” Revision

Ms. Chatman offered a motion on behalf of the Memorials Committee.

Moved; [Seconded]: To approve en bloc, with the exception of those memorials considered separately, the responses to 2019, 2021, and 2022 synod memorials printed in the Report of the Memorials Committee.

Presiding Bishop Eaton announced that she had just received notification that Category A14: Roe v. Wade had also been removed from en bloc.

The presiding bishop noted that, because the motion came from a committee of the assembly, it did not require a second. Because the motions were presented en bloc, they were not open to debate. The presiding bishop called for the vote.

1. Metropolitan Washington, D.C., Synod (8G) [2021]

WHEREAS, social teaching of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) holds that all residents of the United States have a responsibility to make government function well—not to abandon our democracy but to engage it in a spirit of robust civic duty. For Lutherans, this responsibility is lived out as a calling from God, expressed in the discipleship described in our baptismal promises. It is based on our understanding of how God governs human society; and

WHEREAS, ELCA teaching about the nature of government and public service names “consent of the governed” as a primary guide for assessing the performance of government. U.S. Lutherans have learned that their neighbors are best served by a government in which supreme earthly power is held publicly by the people (a democracy), and they are governed by representatives chosen in fair elections in which each person is assured of their vote (a republic); and

WHEREAS, this church acknowledges a “shameful history in which so many, such as African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinx Peoples, Native Peoples, and women, have been denied the right to vote, and so were governed without consent. Even today many people cannot vote on matters that affect them directly.” Each case is complex and varied, but examples include Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA is committed to “work to further democratic processes throughout the territory of this church and the world, and to redress the persisting social and economic inequalities that prevent many from participating effectively in those processes;” and

WHEREAS, the ELCA is committed to supporting “legislation, ordinances, and resolutions that guarantee to all persons equally... civil rights, including full protection of the law and redress under the law of discriminatory practices; and to all citizens, the right to vote;” and

WHEREAS, in 1846 Congress retroceded parts of the District of Columbia to Virginia to maintain the local slave trade; and in the Compromise of 1850 abolished slave trading in the District of Columbia, while the trade continued in both Maryland and Virginia; and by 1860 the number of free Blacks outnumbered enslaved Blacks three to one; and in 1862, Congress and the president enacted the D.C. Emancipation Act which abolished slavery in the District, compensated loyal Unionists, and encouraged freed Blacks to immigrate to Africa or other places outside the United States; and

WHEREAS, Congress and the president took away local government control from D.C. residents when African American men won the right to vote after the Civil War and limited “Home Rule” was granted in 1973 after decades of African American human rights struggle; and

WHEREAS, the residents of the District of Columbia pay federal taxes and serve in the military and on federal juries, yet are unable to control their own local government budget, their own local laws, and have no voting representation in Congress; and

WHEREAS, in 2016 the residents of the District of Columbia voted overwhelmingly to support a referendum calling for D.C. Statehood (244,134 yes votes; 40,779 no votes); therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. Synod Assembly memorialize the 2022 ELCA Churchwide Assembly in Columbus, Ohio, to fully support the United States Congress and the president of the United States in granting statehood for the District of Columbia, including proportional voting representation in both legislative houses; and

RESOLVED, that the ELCA Presiding Bishop and the synod bishops of this church publicly support statehood for the District of Columbia and advocate for the full democratic rights of the citizens of the District of Columbia; and

RESOLVED, that the ELCA pledge to listen to and support calls from ELCA members and their neighbors in Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Alaska Native and American Indian nations for self-determination; and

RESOLVED, that appropriate churchwide staff identify and publicize resources for members, congregations, and synods of this church to advocate for D.C. statehood and full democratic rights for all in the United States of America.

WHEREAS, the 1999 Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) social statement Economic Life: Sufficient, Sustainable Livelihood for All acknowledges that, “While a market economy assumes people will act to maximize their own interests, we acknowledge that what is in our interest must be placed in the context of what is good for the neighbor;” and

WHEREAS, this statement calls for “shifts throughout the world from military expenditures to purposes that serve the needs of low-income people;” and

WHEREAS, the ELCA has historically divested during periods of great social and care of creation needs, including the movement to end apartheid in South Africa and consideration of fossil fuel investments; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA has utilized its investment power through Portico Benefit Services, who are the managers of retirement funds and the ELCA Foundation’s Fund A, to influence company policies by enforcing its voice and vote in the stock market and world markets; and

WHEREAS, the world is at risk of engaging in global warfare instigated by the invasion by Russia into sovereign Ukraine, and worldwide markets are divesting of Russian assets; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Lower Susquehanna Synod memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA to request that, no later than December 31, 2022, all ELCA financial institutions including Portico Benefit Services, the ELCA Foundation, ELCA Credit Union, and the Mission Investment Fund divest of all real estate, hedge funds, infrastructure, and equity based in Russia.

WHEREAS, Martin Luther himself called for a boycott of the Fuggers, a merchant banking company; and

WHEREAS, Boycott, Divest, Sanctions [BDS] does not call for the end of Israel but rather seeks for Israel to comply with international law and respect human rights; and

WHEREAS, over 100 measures have been introduced in state and local legislatures and in the U.S. Congress to punish BDS supporters, including those who merely refuse to pledge never to boycott Israel; and

WHEREAS, whatever one’s stance on specific boycotts, in view of the ongoing assault on the right to boycott, this resolution is rooted in defense of the First Amendment right to speak and to act nonviolently for the sake of the common good in accordance with one’s convictions; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Metropolitan Chicago Synod Assembly memorializes the ELCA Churchwide Assembly to oppose legislation penalizing or criminalizing support for nonviolent boycotts, divestment and/or sanctions on behalf of Palestinian human rights by requesting the Presiding Bishop call on the President of the United States and Congress to oppose the same and call upon synods, congregations, and members to oppose or overturn legislation penalizing or criminalizing support for nonviolent boycotts, divestment, and/or sanctions at their state and local jurisdictional levels.

This is a troubling trend being fueled by loneliness and isolation. We are also seeing alarming numbers of children reporting thoughts of suicide and self-harm. We already knew that not enough was being done to support people living with mental illness, but the State of Mental Health in America report confirms the trend that mental health in the U.S. continues to get worse;” and

WHEREAS, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) elects a presiding bishop to serve a six-year term; and

WHEREAS, the responsibilities of the presiding bishop are extensive, as outlined in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in 13.21.; and

WHEREAS, these responsibilities are of singular importance in guiding the work of the ELCA as a vital and growing communion of faith with impact on the lives of many in this country and around the globe; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA require the first ballot in the election of the presiding bishop to be an ecclesiastical ballot, but allow for a pre-assembly identification process for the election of officers including the vice president and secretary (19.01.A21.); and

WHEREAS, the next election of a presiding bishop is scheduled for the 2025 Churchwide Assembly; and

WHEREAS, many synods, including the Saint Paul Area Synod, have developed pre-assembly identification processes for nominees to the Office of Synod Bishop that allows persons to agree to stand for election, to complete a background check and other screening prior to the synod assembly, and to share an overview of gifts, experiences, and vision with voting members prior to the synod assembly at which the election will occur; and

WHEREAS, the Saint Paul Area Synod has found that a pre-assembly identification process provides meaningful additional time for candidates and voting members to prayerfully discern the needs of the synod and how each candidates’ gifts, experiences, and vision would advance the ministry of the synod, all of which helps voting members cast a better informed first ballot; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Church Council be directed to create an advisory committee of both lay and rostered minister members to design such a pre-assembly identification process that includes several members of the Church Council, several bishops, and representatives of full communion partners that elect their presiding bishop or presiding officer through a different process of pre-identification, reporting the structure of that pre-assembly identification process to all synods by November 2023.

2. Allegheny Synod (8C) [2022]

WHEREAS, many synods have found that a pre-assembly identification process provides meaningful additional time for candidates and voting members to prayerfully discern the needs of the synod and how each candidates’ gifts, experiences, and vision would advance the ministry of the synod, all of which helps voting members cast a better informed first ballot; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Allegheny Synod in assembly memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA to direct the ELCA Church Council (Church Council) to establish a structured process for the pre-assembly identification of nominees for the Office of Presiding Bishop in a way that allows identified candidates to complete a background check and appropriate screening and become publicly known prior to the Churchwide Assembly; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Church Council be directed to create an advisory committee of both lay and rostered minister members to design such a pre-assembly identification process that includes several members of the Church Council, several bishops, and representatives of full communion partners that elect their presiding bishop or presiding officer through a different process of pre-identification, reporting the structure of that pre-assembly identification process to all synods by November 2023.

WHEREAS, Martin Luther said, “And we have, in the first place, the clear text in the very words of Christ: ‘Do this in remembrance of me.’ These are bidding and commanding words by which all who would be Christians are enjoined to partake of this Sacrament.    WHEREAS, a synod bishop’s investigation of misconduct under 20.22.04 is distinct and very different from the process of discipline when charges have been made; and

   RESOLVED, that the Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod memorializes the 2022 ELCA Churchwide Assembly to direct the Church Council to direct the Committee on Appeals to establish a fair, transparent, and uniform process for the investigation of misconduct of officers, rostered ministers (including bishops), congregations, and members of congregations, across the synods of the ELCA with effort to ensure that any

   • updating the urgent facts related to the compromising of the media of earthly life and decimation of species;
   • naming the persistent sin of anthropocentrism in the church, fostering a more creaturely self-awareness, and extolling a posture that reflects greater humility and theological awe;
   • affirming a role for humans as residents or tenants of an earthly home that God pronounced good and promises to make new;
   • extolling Luther’s potent language of divine immersion in creation and familiarizing ELCA members with Luther’s imagery of a God who moves all things while resting and of a risen Christ who inhabits the tiniest tree leaf; and

RESOLVED, that the West Virginia-Western Maryland Synod in assembly memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Church in America to direct the Church Council to establish a Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church that, working in consultation with the Conference of Bishops and the Church Council, shall reconsider the statements of purpose for each of the expressions of this church, the principles of organization, and all matters pertaining thereunto, presenting its findings to the 2025 Churchwide Assembly in preparation for a reconstituting convention to be called under the rules for a special meeting of the churchwide assembly.

A voting member had submitted a substitute motion to replace the response proposed by the committee to this memorial. Ms. Chatman moved the substitute motion on behalf of the committee:

Moved;

To receive with gratitude the memorials from the Northern Texas-Northern Louisiana Synod, Metropolitan Chicago Synod, Northeastern Ohio Synod, Northwestern Pennsylvania Synod, Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod, Allegheny Synod, Lower Susquehanna Synod, Delaware-Maryland Synod, Metropolitan Washington, D.C., Synod, and West Virginia-Western Maryland Synod concerning the restructure of the ELCA’s governance; and
To direct the Church Council to establish a Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church comprised of leaders of diverse representation from all three expressions that, working in consultation with the Conference of Bishops and the Church Council, shall reconsider the statements of purpose for each of the expressions of this church, the principles of its organizational structure, and all matters pertaining thereunto, being particularly attentive to our shared commitment to dismantle racism, and will present its findings and recommendations to the 2025 Churchwide Assembly in preparation for a reconstituting convention to be called under the rules for a special meeting of the Churchwide Assembly.

Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that the motion did not need a second because it came from a committee, then invited discussion. Several voting members spoke in support of the substitute motion and one voting member spoke in opposition to the substitute motion and in support of the original motion.

A voting member raised a point of order seeking clarification of whether the motion committed this church to calling a reconstituting convention, or if it allowed for the 2025 Churchwide Assembly to determine whether such a reconstituting convention would be necessary. Following consultation with the parliamentarian, Mr. Nolte explained that the substitute motion before the assembly would commit this church both to establish a commission and to hold a reconstituting convention.

Ms. Maren Hulden [Minneapolis Area Synod] moved to amend the substitute motion by inserting the word “possible” before “reconstituting convention” to clarify that the 2025 Churchwide Assembly would have discretion to determine whether a reconstituting convention would be called.

Moved; Seconded: To amend by insertion:

To receive with gratitude the memorials from the Northern Texas-Northern Louisiana Synod, Metropolitan Chicago Synod, Northeastern Ohio Synod, Northwestern Pennsylvania Synod, Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod, Allegheny Synod, Lower Susquehanna Synod, Delaware-Maryland Synod, Metropolitan Washington, D.C., Synod, and West Virginia-Western Marylan Synod concerning the restructure of the ELCA’s governance; and

Two voting members spoke in support of the amendment.

The presiding bishop declared that the motion had passed, and several assembly members spoke in support of the amended substitute motion. After four consecutive voting members had spoken in support of the amended substitute motion and none had spoken against, Presiding Bishop Eaton invited any voting member desiring to speak in opposition to the motion to address the assembly. 1. Greater Milwaukee Synod (5J) 2022

   WHEREAS, ELCA social statements set policy for the ELCA and guide its advocacy and work as a publicly engaged church as members participate in God’s work in the world; and

   WHEREAS, the social statement Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust, adopted by two-thirds majority vote at Churchwide Assembly in 2009, now serves as the primary and comprehensive teaching and policy document of the ELCA on sexuality; and

   WHEREAS, the social statement states: “One reason Lutherans have engaged so deeply in education and research is that we believe God works through such means to guide us in reading Scripture and in understanding how we will live in a world of continuing complexity and change” (p. 10); and

   WHEREAS, it further states: “Within the last decades, this church has begun to understand and experience in new ways the need of same-gender-oriented individuals to seek relationships of lifelong companionship and commitment as well as public accountability and legal support for those commitments” (p. 18); and

   WHEREAS, it further states: “[T]his church must work toward greater understanding of sexual orientation and gender identity. It must seek that which is positive and life-giving while protecting from all that is harmful and destructive… This church commits itself to continued attention to and discernment about changing family configurations and the ways they serve to shelter and protect relationships of mutual trust” (pp. 23–24); and

   WHEREAS, it further states: “In ways that are still not fully understood, we develop strong gender identities at a very early age. While there is still much to be learned about the biological complexity of human beings, we have come to understand that this complexity suggests a variety of sexual orientations and gender identities” (p. 28); and

   WHEREAS, in the years since 2009 society has much greater awareness of the spectrum of sexual orientation and gender identity and expression; therefore, be it

   RESOLVED that the Greater Milwaukee Synod memorializes the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America at its 2022 Churchwide Assembly to authorize a review of the social statement Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust, revising it to reflect current church understanding, church policy, civil law, and public acceptance of marriage of same-gender and gender non-conforming couples.

To receive with gratitude the memorials on “Review and Revision of LGBTQIA+ References in the ELCA Social Statement Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust” from the Greater Milwaukee Synod, Southeastern Synod, and Florida-Bahamas Synod;

To authorize a social statement reconsideration to revise Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust (2009) so that its wording reflects current church understanding, church policy, civil law, and public acceptance of marriage of same-gender and gender non-conforming couples in accordance with “Policies and Procedures of the ELCA for Addressing Social Concerns” (2018). While references would be reviewed throughout the whole statement, the following sections are designated for reconsideration as described here:

- “Marriage: shelter and context for trust” p.15. This would not reconsider the idea of marriage as shelter and context for trust but would consider the import that marriage legally is now a covenant between two individuals;

- “Lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships” p.18 ff.
  Revision here would not change this church’s current understanding that recognizes four identified positions of bound conscience within its life, p.19, but would review wording about “publicly accountable, lifelong monogamous same-sex relationships” in light of public acceptance of marriage of same-gender and gender-non-conforming couples;

• “Loving families: ground and source for social trust” p.21 ff. Review here would consider references to diversity of family configurations; and

To authorize the Office of the Presiding Bishop and Church Council to approve the parameters and expense budget of this process and identify the revenue source(s) to provide for this revision to be considered as early as the 2025 Churchwide Assembly.

Presiding Bishop Eaton invited discussion of the motion. There being none, she called for the vote.

1. Delaware-Maryland Synod (8F) [2022]

WHEREAS, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) is committed to diversity and has communicated a focus on “new, young, and diverse people” as communicated through the “Future Church” design; and

WHEREAS, the majority of ELCA Mission Developments founded in the last five years have been focused on “new, young, and diverse people,” serving young adults, people of color, LGBTQ+ people, and immigrants; and

WHEREAS, Mission Developments, because they are not organized as congregations of the ELCA and have few of the legal rights and independent agency organized congregations enjoy; and

WHEREAS, Mission Developments rely on their synods to issue the calls of Mission Developers and have the ability to terminate those calls; and

WHEREAS, Mission Developments are often dependent on the synod and the churchwide organization of the ELCA for initial and sustaining funding; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA to direct the Church Council to adopt the following policies for all synods receiving funding from the ELCA churchwide organization:

“The synod body that conducts decision making regarding funding for Mission Developments shall invite the Mission Developer and 1–2 active participants of the Mission Development to attend a meeting of that synod body no more than three months prior to budget decisions being made (or make other mutually-agreeable arrangements for substantive conversation) for the purpose of presenting the work of the Mission Development over the last year and engaging in a collaborative conversation regarding needs for prayer, support, and financial resources;” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA to direct the Church Council to adopt the following policies for all synods receiving funding from the ELCA churchwide organization:

In the event that 1) a Mission Developer is removed from their call; or 2) The funding for a Mission Development is cut by more than one-third, the Mission Development’s active participants (defined as those who have attended worship in the last quarter and have made a donation of record in the last year) may call for an independent review of the decision, by a committee comprised of seven members:

a) two leaders from the mission development (defined as those who have attended worship in the last quarter, have made a donation of record in the last year, and have served as a leader in some capacity in the Mission Development). These leaders will be selected by the Mission Developments’ active participants.

b) two members of the Synod’s Consultation Committee;

c) these four members will select three rostered ministers or lay leaders from other congregations who, as much as possible, reflect the demographic of the mission development to promote the cultural competency of the committee; and be it further

RESOLVED, that three or more members of the independent review committee shall present their findings during the meeting of the Synod Council following the completion of the independent committee’s review; and be it further RESOLVED, that Mission Development congregants must be informed of their right to call for an independent review at the time 1) the Mission Developer’s call is dissolved, or 2) funding is cut by one-third or greater.

No substitute motion had been submitted for the response recommended by the committee. On behalf of the committee, Mr. Nolte moved to adopt the original response proposed by the committee.

Mr. Cunniff reminded the assembly that 682 legal ballots had been cast, four illegal ballots had been cast, and 512 votes had been required for election. He also announced that paper copies of the list of nominees were being made available to voting members.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked Mr. Cunniff and invited assembly members to sing “Here on Jesus Christ I Will Stand.” Following the song, the presiding bishop thanked Deacon John Weit for leading the singing and invited Ms. Lori S. Fedyk, treasurer of the ELCA to provide the Report of the Treasurer.
Treasurer Fedyk began by inviting members of the assembly to share with their congregations expressions of sincere gratitude for members’ steadfastness and generosity over the past three years that had allowed staff of the churchwide organization to continue their work. She then shared the sources of unrestricted revenue for the churchwide organization. Referring to the graph shown below, Ms. Fedyk noted that Mission Support represented the largest component of the revenue stream. She explained how Mission Support funds are derived from congregation offerings. Based on 2021 offerings, approximately 5.5% of every dollar shared with congregations or worshiping communities was passed along to the synods, which in turn passed along to the churchwide organization about 2.5 cents of every dollar received from congregations. This 2.5% of congregational offerings totaled over $40.6 million in 2021. The next largest area of support, also noted in the graph below, was direct giving, revenue that is stewarded by the Development team in response to appeals, major gift work, congregational generosity, and designated gifts from synods.

Ms. Fedyk presented an overview of unrestricted revenues and expenses from 2019–2021, summarized in the graph below. For the triennium, total revenues were 103% of budget expectations, while expenditures were 93% of budget expectations. The result was that revenues for the period exceeded expenses by $11.1 million. The lower expenditures were due to open positions, reduced travel, and operational efficiencies, not reductions in programmatic work. The favorable variances were reinvested into future spending by contributing the money to designated funds that support innovation, future budgets, the ELCA Youth Gathering, and more.
The treasurer also shared a summary of churchwide organization expenses for the 2021 fiscal year, summarized in the graph below. She noted that more than 80% of expenses were used to support the people who do the work of the churchwide organization and to provide financial support and grants to synods, congregations, new starts, seminaries, international companions, and more.

Ms. Fedyk introduced Mr. Daniel Kirschbaum, program director for young adult ministries, who shared information about Abide, a digital small-group ministry. Mr. Kirschbaum noted that Abide had become a connection point for more than 1,000 young adults in more than 200 small groups formed at campus ministries and outdoor ministry sites, joined by many others who had been introduced to the group online. These connections were especially important early in the pandemic, and they continue into the present. Ms. Fedyk introduced Ms. Rahel Williams, mission funding director. During her six years serving on the Global Mission Funding team, Ms. Williams has had firsthand experience of how the generosity of ELCA members and congregations has impacted the lives of countless people at home and abroad through the work of the 240 ELCA missionaries serving in 40 countries. She shared the story of two of the longest-serving missionaries in the ELCA, Dr. Mark and Linda Jacobson and described the many ways the Jacobsons served communities in Tanzania and South Sudan, particularly in the field of health care. Ms. Williams invited assembly members to look for ways that they can serve as missionaries in their own communities.

Ms. Fedyk turned to discussion of ELCA World Hunger. Total revenue for ELCA World Hunger exceeded $70 million from 2019–2021 (see graph below). Of this, gifts from individuals, congregations, and synods accounted for $59.2 million. In 2020, ELCA World Hunger received a $2 million bequest, the largest single bequest in the 47-year history of the fund. In 2021, World Hunger received a record $20.762 million in direct gifts, and $24.2 million revenue in 2020. This generosity allowed ELCA World Hunger to support a wide array of initiatives in 66 countries, including food security, health and housing, education, and human rights. From 2019 through 2021, approximately $34.5 million was raised and $35.1 million was distributed to support responses to disasters in 47 countries and 17 states and territories, including more than $10 million raised to support relief of those impacted by the crisis in Eastern Europe.

Ms. Fedyk introduced the Rev. Louise N. Johnson, executive for administration, who presented the 2023–2025 budget proposal. Pastor Johnson explained that the ELCA has set a goal to share the story of Jesus and the ELCA by engaging with 1 million new, young, and diverse people as we grow the church together. This initiative stems from the calling to make disciples of all nations, to “activate each of us so that more people know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love,” the new statement of purpose of the ELCA. Accomplishing what God is calling this church to do will require working together and learning new ways of being church.
The goal of reaching 1 million new, young, and diverse people will require thinking differently about the budget and a commitment to innovation. For this reason, the proposed budget commits 30% of the time, energy, and resources of this church to reaching new people. 20% of the budget will be dedicated to repurposing and reimagining existing ministries, and 10% will be dedicated to new ministries. 70% of the proposed budget will continue to support the traditional core work of this church as we know it today. The shift in funding begins in 2023 in the budget proposal.

Treasurer Fedyk returned to the podium to provide details of the 2023–2025 budget proposal. She outlined a break-even budget in which revenues equaled expenses each year. The proposed budget would raise innovation spending to 30% of budget by the end of the triennium. The breakdown of innovation funding compared to core funding over the next three years is provided in the chart below.

Total projected revenue over the next three years is summarized in the chart below. Mission Support was projected to decrease based on historical trends. Fundraising gifts were projected to increase by 4% to 11% each year based on post-campaign performance and future plans. Rent was projected to decrease due to one tenant of the Lutheran Center having provided a notice to vacate beginning in 2023. The intent is to close the budget gaps of 7% and 9% in 2024 and 2025 through additional sources of revenue and reduced expenses. Ms. Fedyk noted that some donors have already expressed interest in supporting innovation.
Ms. Fedyk next presented the proposed budget for World Hunger. Continuing generous support allows the ELCA to provide hunger aid to 67 countries and 43 states and territories. 2021 was a record year for direct giving to World Hunger, allowing more programmatic work in 2022, which accounts for the higher numbers in the 2022 budget. Budgeted revenues for 2023 were projected to be over $22 million as shown in the chart below.

Ms. Fedyk concluded her report by inviting Pastor Johnson to share a closing story that provided an example of what engaging new, young, and diverse people looks like. Pastor Johnson concluded by reminding the assembly that we are called to be the church wherever we are for a world that is longing to hear, to know, and to be healed.
Greeting from the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL)

Presiding Bishop Eaton invited clarifying questions from the assembly, and, there being none, thanked Ms. Fedyk, Ms. Williams, Mr. Kirschbaum, and Pastor Johnson for their presentation. The presiding bishop then announced that the Rev. Ibrahim Azar, bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL), had intended to address the assembly in person. Unfortunately, his flight had been cancelled, so he recorded a video greeting that was shared with the assembly.

Bishop Azar brought greetings from the ELCJHL and expressed regret for his inability to attend the assembly in person. He noted that the ELCJHL is a member church of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF), and is the local expression of the global Lutheran communion in Palestine, Israel, and Jordan. In fact, the ELCJHL is the only LWF member church in the entirety of the Middle East and North Africa. Members of the church are Palestinian Christians who have lived in the Holy Land since the time of Jesus.

Bishop Azar described the many challenges facing Palestinian Christians today, and spoke of the ELCJHL’s special identity and calling to be disciples of Jesus in the land where Jesus was born, lived, and was resurrected.

The ELCJHL has only six congregations, but nevertheless does big things. The church has four schools that teach students in kindergarten through high school, and the ELCJHL helps to support Dar Al-Kalima Lutheran University in Jerusalem. The ELCJHL also has an Environmental Education Center and a diaconal ministry serving the entire area. The church is engaged in dialogues with Muslim and Jewish neighbors and works with the LWF to support Augusta Victoria Hospital in East Jerusalem, a vocational training center, and an affordable housing project in Jerusalem. The ELCJHL has a gender justice ministry and, in January 2023, will ordain the first female Palestinian Lutheran pastor, Sally Azar, the bishop’s daughter. God is calling the ELCJHL to turn to the world, to work with peace, for peace, for justice for all Palestinians and Israelis, and to love their neighbors as themselves. In this work, the global Lutheran family is a great source of support and prayer, and the ELCA is one of the strongest and most faithful partners of the ELCJHL. The ELCA stands and walks with the ELCJHL, advocating for true peace and justice for all Palestinian people. Bishop Azar thanked the members of the ELCA and thanked God for the ELCA. He invited assembly members to “come and see” not only the ancient church buildings, but also the living church in the Holy Land, to see the hope and joy that God brings to people in difficult situations, and the love and hospitality of the Palestinian people. He concluded by asking God’s blessing on the ELCA and asked for prayers. Although the two churches are far apart geographically, the ELCJHL needs the ELCA and needs its prayers.

Announcements

Before inviting Secretary Rothmeyer to share announcements, Presiding Bishop Eaton reminded the assembly that immediately following the plenary session members were asked to remain in the hall to receive guests from Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina, Stockton, Calif., to receive a public apology from this church and an expression of commitment to be an anti-racist church. Secretary Rothmeyer provided various announcements regarding upcoming events and pending deadlines.

Prayer

The plenary session closed with a prayer.

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA reconvened in Hall A of the Greater Columbus Convention Center, Columbus, Ohio, on Wednesday, Aug. 10, 2022, at 8:32 a.m. The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop of the ELCA, called the assembly to order and summarized the business of the session.

Before moving to the first item of business, Presiding Bishop Eaton, in accordance with provision 22.21. of the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA, announced that certain amendments to the governing documents would be considered by the assembly for action on Thursday, Aug. 11. The presiding bishop invited Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, to report to the assembly any proposed amendments removed from en bloc for separate consideration and any proposed amendments submitted by voting members by the established deadline. Secretary Rothmeyer announced that voting members had requested separate consideration of the following proposed amendments: 5.01.e.; 5.01.f.; 7.31.03.g.; 8.22.01.; 15.21.03.; and S6.04. She then announced that new amendments to the following provisions and bylaws had been submitted: †S7.21.01.; †S11.04.; and †S15.31.

Elections: Second Ballot for Vice President
Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section I, Rules of Organization and procedure; Section V, Election of the Vice President; Section X, Report of the Elections Committee

Presiding Bishop Eaton announced the second ballot for vice president, reminded assembly members of the rules for voting, and invited Mr. Thomas A. Cunniff, general counsel for the ELCA and chair of the Elections Committee, to the stage. Mr. Cunniff reported that there were 56 nominees named on the first ballot for vice president. Of these, 25 had withdrawn their names from consideration by the deadline, leaving 31 nominees on the second ballot. Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that any nominee receiving 75% of the votes on the second ballot would be elected. The presiding bishop asked Ms. Aja M. Favors, associate general counsel for the ELCA, for a report from the Credentials Committee. Ms. Favors reported that, as of 8:32 a.m., there were 822 voting members. Following a hymn and prayer, the presiding bishop invited voting members to cast their ballots.

After voting closed, Presiding Bishop Eaton invited Mr. Carlos E. Peña, interim vice president of the ELCA, to present his report. Mr. Peña opened his address with prayer and noted that it was bittersweet to be serving in the role of vice president because of the death of Mr. William B. Horne II. Mr. Peña reminded the assembly of the core responsibilities of the Church Council between churchwide assemblies: exercising interim legislative authority and serving as the board of directors of the churchwide organization. Mr. Peña directed attention to the Recommendations of the Church Council document, which included recommendation of adoption of amendments to the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA along with a rationale for each proposed amendment. Mr. Peña highlighted a proposed amendment to allow for advisory members of the Church Council. Mr. Peña noted that his written report also included updates on various matters that had come before the council this triennium, including the approval of a special appeal in response to COVID-19 in an effort to support congregations, synods, and affiliated ministries negatively impacted by the pandemic. The council had also affirmed a redesign of the churchwide organization. Mr. Peña closed by thanking members of the Church Council, the officers and churchwide staff, and all members of the ELCA for their witness to the gospel and love for this church.

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section II, Report of the Presiding Bishop; Section III, Reports of the Churchwide Organization

Presiding Bishop Eaton turned the chair of the assembly over to Vice President Peña, who then invited her to deliver the report of the presiding bishop and of the churchwide organization. Presiding Bishop Eaton acknowledged the many challenges faced during the previous two and a half years of the pandemic and thanked pastors, deacons, bishops, and lay leaders for their hard work meeting the needs of congregations during a difficult time.

In response to the many challenges faced by congregations and synods as the pandemic began, the churchwide organization began a COVID-19 appeal, quickly assembling a team to determine criteria to be used in assessing applications for grants from the resulting fund as well as another team to assess applications for support submitted by congregations through their bishops. The initial goal was to receive $500,000 to fund grants. As of early August, the appeal had raised more than $1.5 million. These grants went to a variety of ministries: hunger ministries, online worship, web access for children attending school online, and support for outdoor ministries.

During the triennium, planning for Future Church, the redesign of the churchwide organization, was ongoing. As part of the redesign, the churchwide organization created an Innovation Home Area and started a program called The Collaborative that was building a foundation for innovative work across this church. The bishop introduced Ms. Kimberly Jackson, director of leadership development and one of the co-conveners of The Collaborative, along with the Rev. Louise N. Johnson, executive for administration, and Ms. Alex Baird, senior manager for communications and marketing. Ms. Jackson noted that this church’s enormous task of engaging one million new, younger, and more diverse people must be accomplished one project at a time. As a part of the Future Church design, The Collaborative provides ELCA participants with experiential learning, enhanced engagement, and leadership opportunities addressing critical challenges facing all three expressions of this church. An example of The Collaborative’s work was the Originating Ownership project, led by Deacon Shannon E. Johnson, which set out to create an app-based tool that supported relationship building among new and existing members of a congregation. Another project was the Digital Ministry Grant Program, led by Mr. Nick Kiger, director for Mission Support, which helped congregations and worshiping communities start, expand, or enhance their digital ministries to engage new audiences. Ms. Jackson encouraged the assembly to propose projects, engage surveys and other outreach, and to nominate colleagues (or themselves) to help lead The Collaborative in 2023.
The presiding bishop introduced Ms. Rebecca Payne, program manager for the Congregations Lead Initiative, a new program generously funded by a Lilly grant. Ms. Payne introduced the Congregations Lead Initiative, a two-year program which gathers a cohort of 44 congregations from across the ELCA to use their collective genius to discover ministry innovations. The ultimate goal was to ensure that the programs offered by churches matched the needs and desires of the neighbors they sought to engage. Ms. Payne provided examples of ways congregations had used the techniques of the Congregations Lead Initiative to engage their communities and invited the assembly to explore the resources used by the Congregations Lead cohort available for free at ELCA.org/CongregationsLead.

The presiding bishop noted that innovation also involves transformation. In 2016, the Churchwide Assembly had committed to becoming a more authentically diverse church, and at the 2019 Churchwide Assembly, voting members had adopted a strategy for authentic diversity embodied in the document “How Strategic and Authentic Is Our Diversity: A Call for Confession, Reflection, and Healing Action.” She introduced the Rev. Nicolette Marie Peñaranda, program director for African Descent Ministries, to share some of the things being done to give life to the recommendations adopted by the assembly in 2019. Pastor Peñaranda thanked leaders who had prepared the way for the success of African Descent Ministries. One strategy adopted by the ministries was to support new-start African descent congregations, communities having particular needs that often were not met by this church’s existing structures. African Descent Ministries was also planning to begin providing congregations with additional financial resources over the course of five years to provide leaders with more support as they undertake the challenging work of mission development. This church believed that its seminaries had prepared mission developers for their work, but the question was: What could this church do to accompany them in that work? Another exciting initiative of African Descent Ministries was the launch of a series entitled “Talks at the Desk.” This four-part series, available at ELCA.org/TalksattheDesk, provides a format in which Lutherans of African descent share their often untold stories.

Presiding Bishop Eaton ended her report by saying that the ELCA needs to change in order to access the cultural vernacular, which is no longer the same as what had been done in the ELCA for the past 35 years. Leadership needs to speak with diverse voices; it cannot simply be the voices of people of European descent determining what this church becomes. People of widely varied backgrounds have been a part of the ELCA since the beginning, gifts sent by God to help lead this church to reach more people so they may know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love. When COVID hit, the world thought that the Church had closed, but in fact the Church had never closed. This is God’s Church, and it is God’s will that the Church, in whatever varied forms it takes, will continue to be a place in which grace is experienced and God’s love is made known to all.

Vice President Peña noted that, under the rules of the assembly, the bishop’s report was received and referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee without further action by the assembly, and returned the chair to Presiding Bishop Eaton.

The chair announced that there was no election on the second ballot and asked the top seven nominees to gather at the end of the plenary session to receive instructions for the next steps in the election process. She reminded the assembly that, prior to the third ballot for vice president, voting members would receive biographical information for each of the seven nominees included on that ballot. The assembly also would have an opportunity to hear a four-minute speech from each nominee during the fourth plenary session.

First Common Ballot

Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced the first common ballot and reminded voting members that the common ballot would elect new ELCA Church Council members as well as members of various boards and committees. The presiding bishop directed the assembly to the lists of nominees and their biographical information in the Churchwide Assembly Guide. She invited Mr. Cunniff to share additional information about the election process.

During a brief delay due to technical difficulties with the voting system, the assembly viewed a video focused on Humble Walk Lutheran Church, a congregation in St. Paul, Minn., experimenting with new ways of being church. Before the pandemic, roughly 35 people gathered each week for worship. When the ministry of Humble Walk moved online, they found there were 1500 people engaging the worship service throughout the week. The assembly also viewed a video on ways the ELCA Fund for Leaders helps promote diversity among the rostered leadership of the ELCA.

Presentation of “A Declaration of the ELCA to American Indian and Alaska Native People”

Presiding Bishop Eaton led the assembly in honoring the late Rev. Marlene Whiterabbit Helgemo of the Ho-Chunk tribe who in 1987 became the first Native American woman ordained in the American Lutheran Church. Pastor Helgemo served as co-chair of the Repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery Task Force. She died July 22, 2022, just two weeks before the assembly.

The presiding bishop invited the assembly to turn to consideration of “A Declaration of the ELCA to American Indian and Alaska Native People” that was adopted by the Church Council in 2021. The declaration was presented as part of the implementation and response to the 2016 Churchwide Assembly’s directive “To repudiate explicitly and clearly the European-derived doctrine of discovery as an example of the ‘improper mixing of the power of the church and the power of the sword’ and to acknowledge and repent from the evils of colonialism in the Americas, which continue to harm tribal governments and individual tribal members.”

The presiding bishop welcomed members of the Repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery Task Force to the stage. The 2016 Churchwide Assembly overwhelmingly passed a resolution repudiating the doctrine of discovery, a doctrine based on a fifteenth-century papal bull that served as a foundation for colonialism and racism around the globe. More specifically, it served as the basis for the oppression and dehumanization of the Indigenous peoples of the Americas. The Rev. Jessica R. Crist, a member of the task force, discussed the mission and makeup of the task force. The task force included Indigenous and non-Indigenous members, rostered and lay members, educators, and activists. Members of the task force committed not only to implement the promises made at the 2016 Churchwide Assembly but also to find new ways to seek justice and heighten awareness of Indigenous voices and issues in this church and in American society. One of the first responsibilities of the task force was to develop “A Declaration of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to American Indian and Alaska Native People,” confessing ways this church had misunderstood Indigenous peoples and contributed to their subjugation. The declaration begins with a confession in three parts. The first part addresses American Indians and Alaska Natives within the ELCA, the second part addresses American Indians and Alaska Natives beyond the ELCA, and the third part addresses non-Indigenous members of the ELCA. Following this introductory confession, the declaration provides a series of pledges to each of the groups named in the confession.

Pastor Crist invited Ms. Loni Taylor, member of the Chippewa Cree Nation and member of the Church Council, and the Rev. Manuel J. Retamoza, member of the Cherokee Nation and vice president of the American Indian and Alaska Native Association, to share examples of ways this church had been living out the declaration. Ms. Taylor shared how her congregation, Our Saviour’s Lutheran on the Rocky Boys Reservation in Montana, was the host site for a Cree language immersion program helping to ensure the survival of this Native language. Edina Community Lutheran Church in Minnesota, after studying the doctrine of discovery and the work of the task force, established a group of ten people working to further educate the congregation, prepare to advocate on Native issues, and consider reparations from the congregation. The Northeastern Minnesota Synod was working with Lutheran Social Services on issues of missing and murdered Indigenous people. Indigenous leaders from this church partnered with Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary to develop a seminary curriculum specifically for Indigenous ministries.

Pastor Retamoza offered additional examples of responses to the declaration in ELCA congregations. The Rev. Amy E. Reumann, senior director, Witnessing in Society, worked with ecumenical colleagues to advocate in Congress for bills including the Truth and Healing Commission on Indian Boarding School Policies in the United States Act, expanding protections for Native women in the Violence Against Women Act, and addressing housing and homelessness on reservations. Before her death, taskforce member Marlene Whiterabbit Helgemo led the work of reconnecting this church with the National Congress of American Indians.

The Rev. Richard A. Magnus concluded by noting that these were only some of the things on which the task force had been working. He challenged members of this church.
to read the declaration and consider how their congregations could engage in this truth and justice work as well.

Following Pastor Magnus’ remarks, Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced Mr. Vance Blackfox, member of the Cherokee Nation and director of Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations, a new position intended to help this church learn how to live in right relationship with its tribal siblings and better understand its work with the 574 federally recognized tribal nations within the borders of the United States. Mr. Blackfox expressed gratitude for the opportunity to lead the Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations team and also to work with the Repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery Task Force. He noted that his office, the task force, and other ministries such as the American Indian and Alaska Native Lutheran Association, represent a new way of working with Indigenous people and nations. His goal was not only to build relationships with sovereign nations across Turtle Island (the Algonquian and Iroquoian name for the North American continent) but also to help this church understand what it means to live in right relationship with those sovereign nations. In part, building these relationships means focusing liturgies and attention on what is involved in telling the truth and healing. Mr. Blackfox cited several ways in which ELCA members are working to promote justice and truth-telling in relation to Indigenous peoples. As an example, more than 2,000 ELCA members wrote to congress to support truth-telling in relation to the history of Indian boarding schools in this country.

This church is engaging questions of equity, including a gift from World Hunger which helps fund the work some synods have been doing in support of murdered and missing Indigenous women. Fifteen ELCA synods are partnering to recruit researchers interested in exploring how Lutheran church bodies were involved in the atrocities committed at Indian boarding schools.

In the 1960s and 1970s, Lutherans were known as advocates for, and journeys with, Indigenous peoples, and Mr. Blackfox stated that he would be posting a documentary telling this story soon. The bar had been set for today’s church, providing an important example of how to properly engage in this work with Indigenous neighbors to ensure justice. A key part of this relationship building was strengthening this church’s relationship with the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI). This church was once in a closer relationship with the NCAI; a Lutheran theologian was elected executive director of NCAI and grew the organization from 19 members to nearly 200. Mr. Blackfox encouraged this church to continue to “do the right thing,” in part by building relations with the NCAI, with the National Boarding School Healing Coalition, with the National Indian Education Association, and many other organizations. This church could be a leader among Christian communities seeking justice for and with Indigenous peoples.

Presiding Bishop Eaton reminded assembly members of upcoming deadlines. She noted that in its action related to the declaration, the Church Council had called on this church to find ways to share the statement broadly. The presiding bishop invited the assembly to visit the American Indian/Alaska Native Community Learning Space in the convention center to learn more about the history of this land, its first inhabitants, and their interactions with European settlers. Presiding Bishop Eaton welcomed to the stage Ms. Fawn R. Sharp, member of the Quinault Indian Nation and president of the NCAI. Ms. Sharp was also vice president of the Quinault Indian Nation in Taholah, Wash., and served as the 23rd president of the NCAI, the oldest, largest, and most representative American Indian and Alaska Native tribal government organization in the United States.

President Sharp shared how honored she felt to spend this time with the assembly. In looking at the long history of partnership between Indigenous communities and this church, she commented that one could see the fights and the successes along the journey that this church has shared with Indigenous communities. Indigenous people in this country and around the world face many challenges. To reach that perfect day of walking daily on a path of righteousness, a person must surrender to the almighty Creator. When a person could use the gifts that each person had been given and respond to the calling each person had received, they can do extraordinary things. That was the history of the relationship between Indigenous communities and this church. President Sharp reiterated how honored she felt to stand before the assembly on behalf of 574 tribal nations from all across this land as a part of that long tradition of struggling for justice.

Indigenous communities face multigenerational oppression but also have multigenerational strength and resiliency. President Sharp noted that the ancestors long foretold a day of reckoning when the ways of this world would not be consistent with Indigenous values, and that at this point there would come a moment of truth, healing, and reconciliation. She stated that those predictions were for this generation; the people of this generation were the people the ancestors had foreseen when they reserved so much of what was valued by treaties, sacred documents with the United States. President Sharp said that she saw this moment of truth, reconciliation, and healing as a sacred moment. Although there was much conflict, division, and hatred in the world, people had the ability to look to the past for a clear vision of a brighter, more prosperous, more unified future—a just future. Reaching this goal would require people of good will to find each other and to join forces. For this reason, President Sharp said, she was honored to address the assembly to look to a future in which this church and Indigenous communities could join to overcome challenges that seemed insurmountable.

President Sharp shared some information to provide insight into the depth of the struggle and the pain of Indigenous communities. Since 1945, within this lifetime, 158 Indigenous communities around the world have suffered crimes of genocide. More than 12 million Indigenous people were murdered during that same time and 40 million displaced from their ancestral homelands. There were no open investigations into these murders and displacements, nor were they widely discussed in the media, but they were realities with which Indigenous people lived every day. These challenges were impossible for isolated individuals or groups to solve, but when groups come together, they can rise above the conflicts that plague this planet and answer the Creator’s call for justice and service.

On behalf of 100 million Indigenous people around the world, President Sharp thanked the assembly and said that she looked forward to many more years of partnership, accomplishing things that seemed impossible by relying on God’s grace and mercy.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked President Sharp for honoring the assembly with her address and expressed gratitude for those who have come before us in the predecessor bodies of the ELCA who worked to make Lutherans leaders in working with Indigenous peoples. President Sharp was presented with a star quilt as a commemorative gift.

Presiding Bishop Eaton invited Mr. Cunniff to provide instructions regarding the First Common Ballot. Mr. Cunniff announced that balloting would remain open until 1:45 p.m. on Aug. 10, 2022.
Announcements

Presiding Bishop Eaton emphasized the importance of submitting the Common Ballot by 1:45 p.m. and invited Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, to share announcements regarding upcoming events and pending deadlines.

Prayer

The plenary session closed with prayer.

Adjournment

The third plenary session of the sixteenth Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA adjourned at 10:27 a.m.
The 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA reconvened in Hall A of the Greater Columbus Convention Center, Columbus, Ohio, at 2:00 p.m. The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), called the assembly to order.

Theological Presentation: The Rev. Anthony Bateza

Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced the Rev. Anthony M. Bateza, associate professor of religion and chair of the Race, Gender, and Sexuality Studies department at St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn. She noted that his presentation was the culmination of a series of Bible studies focused on Luke 24 held online prior to the Churchwide Assembly and led by the Rev. Jay Alanis, Ms. Sally Azar, Ms. Man-Hei Yip, and Ms. Denise Rector.

Pastor Bateza’s presentation was based on the theme of the assembly, “Embody the Word.” He focused on what it means for Christians to be people who embody trust by looking at the challenges Martin Luther sought to address 500 years ago. These challenges included, first, a misguided fear of a judgmental God who waited for human beings to take the first step in the process of salvation. Second, there was a pervasive lack of trust in church officials because far too many church leaders were motivated primarily by greed. This led to the third challenge of finding ways for church leaders to win people’s trust.

Part of Luther’s response to these challenges centered on his translation of the New Testament into the German vernacular, making it more accessible to average German Christians. This was central to Luther’s reforming activity because it was in the New Testament that he found a God who was eager to show grace rather than to condemn. This same fear of God arising from misunderstanding, Pastor Bateza noted, is reflected in Luke 24:36-38. In this passage, the disciples initially responded with fear when Jesus appeared in their midst because they thought he was something other than what he truly was, just as misunderstandings about God gave rise to fear among the Christians of Luther’s day. It was a similar lack of trust in God that was at the root of the untrustworthiness of many church leaders in Luther’s day. The first step in becoming worthy of trust, Luther recognized, is to trust God oneself, but such trust is not something that can be commanded, but rather must be earned. In Luke 24, Jesus not only told the disciples to be unafraid but also provided proof of his resurrection, showing his strength by revealing his vulnerability in the form of his wounds. Similarly, ELCA members could gain the trust of others not by trumpeting claims of strength but by acknowledging shortcomings and vulnerabilities while joining others in doing God’s work.

People generally come to trust others because of competence and commitment, and these can be shown by engaging with others to pursue shared goals. Luther strove to convince others of his own competence and commitment, in part by engaging others in his work of translating the New Testament. Similarly, after encouraging the disciples in Luke 24, Jesus gave them authority and responsibility to proclaim the gospel. Too often, members of this church have failed to show trust in others, Pastor Bateza commented, even when trusting would be appropriate, undermining cooperation as well as their own perceived trustworthiness. Members of this church could find the wisdom to display proper trust in others by trusting in the embodied Word of God, which is best done when there is acknowledgment that it is done imperfectly. Despite failures, God remains committed to the Church. Thus, this assembly and all of the expressions of this church limp along, from one imperfect action to another, struggling to embody God, and trusting that God’s Spirit will continue to find ways to work through this church.

Addresses by Nominees for Vice President

Presiding Bishop Eaton summarized the remaining work of the session, beginning with speeches by the seven nominees for the office of vice president. Each nominee was given four minutes to address the assembly, with the order of presentation determined by random drawing.

Mr. John E. Auger [Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod] began by acknowledging that God is doing a new thing in this church. Much has changed in the world in the last 35 years, and this church needs to respond appropriately, he said. The core message of God’s love in Christ remains unchanged, but the ways that message is expressed need to develop. The role of the vice president in such a church is to provide faithful, strong, bold, collaborative, and compassionate leadership to the national church through these challenging times. Perhaps this is this church’s Pentecost moment, he suggested, an invitation to set out on a new path laid before us by a loving God. Remaining unchanged is not an option. Either this church charts a path in the future following the lead of God’s Spirit, or it would allow the culture to determine the path taken. There is no easy way forward, but there is a better way.

Mr. Clarance M. Smith, Minnetonka, Minn., noted that the ELCA finds itself in turmoil and that often members of this church are themselves the cause of difficulties, even with the best of intentions. In every instance, he commented, the woes that this church faces arise from governance failures, failures to have the systems, strategies, or authority structures in place to deal with turmoil. This was, no doubt, the reason so many clamor for reform of the governing structures of this church. There was, however, hope, and he stated that this church has taken steps to address governance failures. Mr. Smith highlighted aspects of his professional background focused on risk assessment within the banking industry, assessing governance structures, people, and systems and helping organizations realize their best purposes. He applied these skills during his six years on the Church Council from 2013 to 2019, and he put these skills to use as the chair of the Audit Committee for Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services. He noted that his ethnic identity was a foundation for his commitment to anti-racism.

Noting that experiences make people who they are, Ms. Carla J. Borchardt [South Dakota Synod] began by sharing experiences that have shaped her life, faith, belief, and actions. She recounted her experiences growing up at church as a Lutheran pastor’s child whose parents modeled following the Great Commandment and the injunction to do justice from Micah 6:8, injunctions that served as guideposts for her life. She brought a rural perspective, living in South Dakota, a setting in which one knows one’s neighbors and people come together in times of need to help one another. Her understanding of the role of the congregation was shaped by her experiences in music ministry as well as various church and synod leadership positions. Mission trips had broadened her perspectives and enriched her understanding of accompaniment. She also had experience working closely with people of widely varying ethnic backgrounds, economic circumstances, and religious perspectives.
Mr. Paul G. Archer [Southeast Michigan Synod] highlighted key elements of his biography, including service on the Church Council, noting how much he had learned from serving with Vice Presidents Peña and Horne. His current role as vice president of the Southeast Michigan Synod had deepened his understanding of how to effectively serve as chair of a council, setting a tone in which all voices are heard and all are treated with civility and respect. His confidence in standing for the office of vice president derived from the many people with whom he had served who saw in him the passion and skills necessary to take on the role of vice president of this church.

Ms. Tracey A. Beasley [Church Council member, Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod] invited assembly members to go on a journey with her to her childhood, when she heard children playing in her new neighborhood and followed the noise to a Lutheran congregation in which she had been welcomed and learned that, although life can be difficult and scary, Jesus loved her and life would get better. Soon she was asked to serve as a youth member on the congregation council, and the rest was history. Upon joining the Lutheran church, she began to hear God calling her more deeply into leadership. Her church family helped her to discover gifts as an accountant, an administrator, and a leader. Her spiritual gifts are centered on being a connector, a bridge-builder, and a peacemaker in anxious systems. Her life in the ELCA showed the power of welcome. She expressed her belief that God had called her to be a leader for such a time as this in the ELCA, and she highlighted her experience in all three expressions of this church, including three terms as vice president of her synod and service on the Church Council.

Mr. Roberto C. Lara Aranda [Metropolitan New York Synod] noted that he was a former ballet dancer from Mexico City and a recent graduate of Columbia University with a master’s degree in strategic communications. He first encountered the ELCA as an immigrant to the United States with an uncertain relationship to the Church. Lutheranism embraced him and taught him that he, as a queer Latino person, could have a healthy and loving relationship with God, and that God wanted to have such a relationship with him. This church’s public embrace of the queer and immigrant communities brought him into this church. At the time of the assembly he was serving as the president of the Latino Ministries Association of the ELCA and as an assistant to the bishop in the Metropolitan New York Synod. This had been a difficult year for the Latino community in the ELCA, as this assembly had heard, but members of the Latino community in the ELCA remained committed to the mission of this church. Leaders of this church needed to listen to hard truths, he stated, remembering that this church is called to embody God’s love for all people.

Mr. Imran Siddiqui [Southeastern Synod] began by noting that, in contrast to many of the voting members of the assembly, he was not raised Lutheran. He was raised in the Muslim tradition and in college had rejected his faith to embrace atheism. Ten years later, he found himself in a Pentecostal church, was blindsided by the realization that Christ had been calling him, and finally decided to listen. He was invited by friends to worship at a Lutheran congregation where he fell in love with liturgy and the centrality of God’s love. He had been a member of this church for ten years, and and had just been reelected as vice president of the Southeastern Synod. He noted that American society is deeply divided, with people showing a tendency to demonize those who disagreed with them. When he joined the Southeastern Synod Council, he was surprised to learn that the council operated by consensus. He wondered how this could work, he said, but soon learned that it worked because council members truly listened to each other and were willing to speak freely. Listening provided room for God’s Spirit to work. He expressed his belief that this church could model this behavior for the world, together communicating God’s love for all people and concern for creation.

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section II, Report of the Secretary

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked the nominees for sharing their visions for this church and invited the assembly to show its appreciation with applause. The presiding bishop then invited Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, to present her report. Secretary Rothmeyer noted that, for Office of the Secretary staff, with backgrounds in publishing, law, rhetoric, theology, communication, Family Systems Theory, history, and research, words matter, but in the call to serve this church, the Word matters even more. The same is true of the governing documents of this church, which contain many words, all informed by the Word, as affirmed in chapter 2 of this church’s constitution, “Confession of Faith.”

As such, the constitutions of this church are living documents, and every three years, the Churchwide Assembly has the opportunity to breathe new life into them by considering amendments and taking other actions such as the establishment of a Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church. Since the last Churchwide Assembly, the Office of the Secretary had collected suggested changes to the constitution and worked with the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee of the Church Council to review those suggestions in preparation for bringing them before this assembly. The secretary provided a brief “Constitution 101” so voting members would be familiar with the steps necessary to amend the constitutions of this church.

The secretary highlighted some of the other work of the office from her report. She expressed gratitude to the many congregations that had submitted annual congregation reports during the extraordinary past few years, noting the challenges of estimating online worship attendance and encouraging congregations to “simply do their best” to provide information appropriate to their situations. She offered the following high-level observations regarding congregation statistics for the years 2019–2021: The number of organized congregations declined about 1% each year; the number of baptized members declined between 3% and 4% each year; the number of baptized members received decreased substantially from 2019 to 2020, followed by an increase between 2020 and 2021; the number of baptized members removed decreased each year; the number of baptized members confirmed fell from 2019 to 2020 and rose between 2020 and 2021, with an overall increase such that more members were confirmed in 2021 than had been confirmed in 2019; the number of active participants declined each of these years, with the decline being steepest from 2019 to 2020. Overall, these numbers showed the impact of the pandemic, with emerging signs for hope and stability. Through a collaboration between the Office of the Secretary and the Information Technology team of the churchwide organization, a new, more easily comprehensible version of the congregational trend report is now available online. The site also offers enhanced information about accessibility options for those seeking a congregation that could meet their needs or the needs of family and friends.

The secretary called attention to the responsibility of the assembly to elect a vice president and outlined the election process. She then paid tribute to Mr. William B. Horne II, the late vice president of this church. She observed that he was highly respected not only in the ELCA but also in the military, his community, his synod, his local congregation, and by family and friends. The secretary expressed this church’s deep gratitude to Interim Vice President Peña, who graciously stepped into the role, having served as vice president from 2003 to 2016. The secretary also recognized her predecessors in the role of secretary of this church: the Rev. Lowell G. Almen; Mr. David D. Swartling; and the Rev. Wm Chris Boerger. Secretary Rothmeyer concluded by inviting the assembly to join her in expressing thanks to the Office of the Secretary staff for their service to the assembly and this church.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked Secretary Rothmeyer for her report, noting that under the rules adopted by this assembly the secretary’s report was received and referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee without further action.

College Corporation Meetings
Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section “Other”, 2022 College Corporation Meetings

The presiding bishop expressed this church’s deep appreciation for the faculty, staff, and students of the 26 institutions of higher education associated with the ELCA, pointing out that students sent to these schools return to serve as leaders in this church and the world. She also expressed thanks to the many bishops, pastors, deacons, and lay leaders who serve on the governing boards of ELCA-affiliated colleges and universities.

The presiding bishop welcomed to the stage Ms. Susan Traverso, president of Thiel College and president of the Network of ELCA Colleges and Universities (NECU), a collaborative undertaking between the Christian Community and Leadership unit of the churchwide organization and the colleges and universities of this church.

President Traverso expressed thanks to Presiding Bishop Eaton and brought greetings to the assembly on behalf of her colleagues in NECU and the thousands of faculty members, administrators, and staff serving ELCA-affiliated institutions of higher education that educate more than 50,000 students annually. NECU enables member institutions to more thoughtfully and intentionally tend to their shared identity and to champion Lutheran higher education. Since the last Churchwide Assembly, the leadership of NECU had approved a mission statement and a strategic plan for 2022 to 2025 with three goals: to deepen the understanding of the rich diversity of Lutheran identity at NECU institutions; to enhance Lutheran distinctiveness through increased collaboration; and to strengthen NECU’s relationship with the ELCA, its congregations, and its synods.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked President Traverso and all the presidents of NECU institutions gathered at the assembly and meeting as the board of directors of the network for their commitment to Lutheran higher education and their work to strengthen this shared mission.

Presiding Bishop Eaton explained that one way this church maintains its relationship to its colleges and universities was outlined in ELCA bylaw 8.22.02., which specifies that an ELCA college or university can relate to this church through a corporation, with a majority of the corporation’s voting members being voting members of the Churchwide Assembly. Two colleges, Luther College and Wartburg College, have this governance relationship with the ELCA.

Presiding Bishop Eaton declared the Churchwide Assembly in recess at 3:35 p.m., and the assembly immediately reconvened as the college corporation meetings for Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa, and Luther College, Decorah, Iowa. Minutes for these meetings were kept by the institutions.

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly reconvened at 3:44 p.m. Before returning to the agenda for the assembly and following the singing of a hymn by the assembly, the presiding bishop invited to the stage the Rev. Javier Goitia, senior director for leadership, who introduced the leaders of the seven ELCA seminaries: the Rev. R. Guy Erwin, president of United Lutheran Seminary, Gettysburg, Pa. and Philadelphia, Pa.; the Rev. Kathryn A.
Kleinhans, dean of Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University, Columbus, Ohio; the Rev. Kristin Johnston Largen, president of Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa; the Rev. James R. Nieman, president of Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, Chicago, Ill.; the Rev. Raymond W. Pickett, rector of Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary of California Lutheran University, Berkeley, Calif.; the Rev. Mary Hinkle Shore, rector and dean of Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary of Lenoir-Rhyne University, Columbia, S.C.; and the Rev. Robin J. Steinke, president of Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minn.

In preparation for the third ballot for vice president, Presiding Bishop Eaton invited Ms. Aja M. Favors, associate general counsel for the ELCA, to provide the report of the Credentials Committee. Ms. Favors reported that, as of 3:12 p.m., there were 831 voting members. The presiding bishop opened the voting following a hymn and prayer. The assembly received a video presentation from ELCA World Hunger while the votes were tabulated.

Mr. Cunniff announced that there were 822 valid votes; 548 votes were needed to elect. No nominee received 548 votes. The top three nominees who would move on to the fourth ballot were: Mr. Imran Siddiqui, Mr. Roberto C. Lara Aranda, and Ms. Tracey A. Beasley. Category A8: Land Back

1. Northwest Washington Synod (1B) [2022]
RESOLVED, that the Northwest Washington Synod Assembly memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to encourage all individual ELCA members, as well as congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners, to “support creative programs resulting in reparations for stolen lands” in partnership with Indigenous peoples, including returning land (and any structures built on it) to Native tribes, and when direct return is not feasible or desirable by the tribes, to return the proceeds from the sale of the land to the ELCA Native American Ministry Fund or other local Native-led ministries or organizations.

2. Oregon Synod (1E) [2022]

WHEREAS, in 2016 the Churchwide Assembly repudiated the Doctrine of Discovery, “acknowledging and repenting from this church’s complicity in the evils of colonialism in the Americas, which continue to harm tribal governments and individual tribal members;” and

WHEREAS, such evils of colonialism include land theft and forced removal of Indigenous peoples from their ancestral homelands, silencing their stories and ancestral practices rooted in their sacred land; and

WHEREAS, in September 2021, the Church Council of the ELCA approved the “Declaration to American Indian and Alaska Native People,” which includes a commitment to “encourage and support wherever possible the buyback and return of tribal land and further commit to support creative programs resulting in reparations for stolen lands;” and

WHEREAS, every building owned by an ELCA congregation and organization, except those on reservations, is built on stolen tribal land which continues to rob each generation of sustenance, wealth, life ways, and the experience of familial relationships with the land itself, thus perpetuating historical inequity; and

WHEREAS, Indigenous peoples are calling for restoration, restitution, and reparation; and

WHEREAS, there is a growing reparations and “Land Back” movement in which families, churches, denominations, camps, universities, and other land-holding organizations are returning land or providing compensation for the use of land to Indigenous tribes and nations; and

WHEREAS, returning land to its original peoples is one significant and meaningful way for our church to demonstrate repentance, helping to move together toward collective healing and the restoration of Native sovereignty, opening the possibility for new life to come out of death; and

WHEREAS, there are a variety of ways that ELCA congregations, ministries, and associated organizations can participate in reparations and land return, including transferring land and closed ministry sites to tribal nations, or inviting tribal nations into conversations about land use when congregations are consolidated, etc.; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Oregon Synod Assembly memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Church in America to encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners to become educated about the Indigenous peoples who thrived, prior to European contact, on the land they currently inhabit; and to learn about, and learn from, the Indigenous peoples who currently live within at least 100 miles of that land; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Oregon Synod Assembly memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Church in America to encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners, to “support creative programs resulting in reparations for stolen lands” in partnership with Indigenous peoples, including returning land (and any structures built on it) to Native tribes, and when direct return is not feasible or desirable by the tribes, to return the proceeds from the sale of land to the Native American Ministry Fund or other local Native-led ministries or organizations.

3. Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod (8B) [2022]

WHEREAS, scripture teaches the Jubilee (Leviticus 25: 39–55), and Christ Jesus announced the year of the Lord’s favor (Luke 4: 18–19); and
WHEREAS, the confessions affirm that “I believe that God has created me together with all that exists. God has given me and still preserves my body and soul: eyes, ears, and all limbs and senses; reason and all mental faculties. In addition, God daily and abundantly provides shoes and clothing, food and drink, house and farm, spouse and children, fields, livestock, and all property—along with all the necessities and nourishment for this body and life” (Small Catechism); and
WHEREAS, this church repudiates the doctrine of discovery; and WHEREAS, this church strives to be anti-racist, and WHEREAS, we acknowledge land use whenever and wherever we gather as a synod; and RESOLVED, that in the Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod, ELCA congregations and agencies, when their facilities no longer support their reason for existence, consider giving the building(s) and land to the descendants of those peoples, races, or nations that first lived on that land; and be it further RESOLVED, that congregations and agencies, even in their prime, as well as in their sunset years, build relationships with congregations, faith communities, and agencies that trace their ancestry to indigenous populations and people who came to this land against their free will as slaves; and be it further RESOLVED, that the Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod memorializes the ELCA at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to consider doing likewise.

On behalf of the committee, Ms. Chatman moved the following:

Moved; [Seconded]:

To receive with gratitude the memorials from Northwest Washington Synod, Oregon Synod, and Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod concerning the Land Back movement;

To encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, campus ministries, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners to explore including land acknowledgements as part of their public gatherings;

To encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, campus ministries, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners to become educated about the Indigenous peoples who thrived, prior to European contact, on the land they currently inhabit;

To learn about, learn from, and be in deepening relationship with Indigenous people and tribal nations;

To encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, campus ministries, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners, to support creative programs of restorative justice in partnership with Indigenous people, including, but not limited to, whenever considering a transfer or sale of real property, including returning land (and any structures built on it) after satisfying any financial obligations, to the appropriate Native nations, and when direct return is not feasible or not desired by the Indigenous people, to return the proceeds from the sale of the land to the ELCA Native American Ministry Fund or other local Indigenous led ministries or organizations;

To call upon the appropriate home areas and offices of the churchwide organization to work collaboratively with the relevant local synods and their local Indigenous partners to determine what amount of funding would represent full funding of the more than 30 ELCA Indigenous congregations and service ministries and to immediately provide the remaining funding needed after synod and other local sources of funding have been applied, and to use this same approach to funding new sacramental and/or service ministries by, with or among Indigenous people; and

To call upon the appropriate home areas and offices of the churchwide organization to first engage with the relevant local synods and their local Indigenous partners whenever planning or considering work related to Indigenous people or ministries.

Several voting members spoke in support of the motion, and one voting member spoke in opposition. A voting member asked for clarification regarding the financial impact of the memorial on the budgets of the churchwide organization. Ms. Lori S. Fedyk, treasurer of the ELCA, addressed the question, noting that, because the motion was new, the total costs associated with it were unknown.

Mr. Edward Kim [La Crosse Area Synod] offered an amendment.

Greeting from The Lutheran World Federation

Presiding Bishop Eaton introduced guests to the assembly representing The Lutheran World Federation (LWF), a global communion of churches of which the ELCA is a member. LWF consists of 149 churches in the Lutheran tradition, representing more than 77 million Christians in 99 countries. As the North American regional vice president of the LWF from 2017 through the present, Presiding Bishop Eaton has seen firsthand this church’s witness through its global communion in many areas of ministry. Through the LWF, this church has helped member churches in eastern Europe to welcome refugees from the war in Ukraine. Recently, the LWF has elected the first woman and first central eastern European as its general secretary, the Rev. Anne Burghardt.

The presiding bishop introduced General Secretary Burghardt, who sent video greetings from the LWF and celebrated the gathering of the ELCA in Churchwide Assembly following the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. Noting that assembly members gathered under the theme of “Embody the Word,” the general secretary expressed hope that throughout the assembly voting members would be able to reflect on what this means in a fragmented world. The ELCA provides a context in which the reality of fulfillment in Jesus Christ can be lived through hope, justice, and peace. In September 2023, the LWF was scheduled to gather in Krakow, Poland, under the theme of “One Body, One Spirit, One Hope,” emphasizing unity in Christ. General Secretary Burghardt closed by thanking the ELCA for its contributions to the LWF and wishing for God’s blessing in carrying out the work of the assembly.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked General Secretary Burghardt and noted that, alongside the general secretary, the president of the LWF oversees the life and work of the communion. The LWF has been blessed to have as its president Archbishop Panti Filibus Musa of the Lutheran Church of Christ in Nigeria. President Musa was to have addressed the assembly in person, but was unable to secure a visa. The presiding bishop expressed gratitude for his willingness to send video greetings.

President Musa greeted the assembly on behalf of the LWF, noting that he had fond memories of time spent worshipping with ELCA congregations and studying at Luther Seminary in Saint Paul, Minn., experiences that shaped him as a theologian and church leader. He thanked assembly members for this church’s strong commitment to and support of the mission of the LWF, remarking on the appropriateness of the assembly theme of “Embody the Word” during this, the 500th anniversary year of Luther’s translation of the New Testament, which was driven by Luther’s understanding that it was essential for the church to engage Scripture. The theme also referred to the incarnation and served as a reminder that Christians are called to offer witness to Jesus in their particular cultural contexts, speaking for justice, peace, and reconciliation—all things that President Musa had seen from the ELCA over the years. Referencing the LWF Assembly in 2023, he noted that for more than 65 years the LWF has continued its work of supporting those in need, strengthening churches in mission, and promoting unity within the church. He concluded by encouraging assembly members to always look first at what unites rather than what divides and expressing his hope that the gathering would strengthen this church’s witness to the mercy of God in proclamation and in service to the world.

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked President Musa and turned to discussion of regional affiliations in the LWF. In recent years, the North American region has been building an intentional partnership with the Latin American and Caribbean region. This work is supported by the Rev. Sonia Skupch, regional secretary of the LWF, whom Presiding Bishop Eaton invited to address the assembly.

Pastor Skupch, in her role as regional secretary for Latin America, the Caribbean, and North America, brought greetings from Lutheran churches in her region. These are churches with which the ELCA is well connected through bonds of mutual accompaniment, mission, service, and commitment to building a more just world. Pastor Skupch noted that living in unity and diversity as a global Lutheran communion is both a gift and a task, and, on behalf of the LWF, she expressed thanks for the gifts this church has brought to the communion. She concluded by expressing her prayerful hope that the Holy Spirit would be with this church at all times so that the discussions and decisions of the assembly would reflect the love of Christ for this world that cries out for justice, peace, and reconciliation. Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked Pastor Skupch and noted that, as the Lutheran movement has continued to grow even more quickly in other parts of the world, this church has much to learn from and with the extended Lutheran family as the churches work together for a just, peaceful, and reconciled world.

Report of the Conference of Bishops

Vice President Peña invited to the stage the Rev. Tracie L. Bartholomew, bishop of the New Jersey Synod and chair of the Conference of Bishops, to deliver the report of the Conference of Bishops. Bishop Bartholomew began with a brief summary of the life of Saint Clare of Assisi, who, after hearing a sermon by Saint Francis of Assisi, devoted herself to the service of Christ through a life of joyful poverty. Bishop Bartholomew viewed this as an example of the single-minded devotion to Christ that the Conference of Bishops is called to embody, although, Bishop Bartholomew acknowledged, this ideal is not fully realized. The bishops remain “sinners within a church of sinners,” but despite these shortcomings, the Conference of Bishops is committed to doing the work that needs to be done for the ELCA to become the church that God needs in this world.

Bishop Bartholomew briefly outlined the meeting schedule of the conference, noting that the schedule has changed significantly since 2019. The two annual in-person meetings are now used largely for relationship building, with the business of the conference being conducted primarily during four annual online meetings. Because of the conference’s commitment to making this church an anti-racist church, time has been spent at every meeting doing personal work in support of anti-racism and evaluating and planning this work in the synods. Despite differing views on a variety of aspects of how to best live out the call to serve God in the world, the bishops share a commitment to loving Jesus and to striving to love the people Jesus loves. Differing understandings of the office of the bishop also permeate this church, Bishop Bartholomew said, with some believing bishops should (or do) have more authority than they actually do, while others maintain that the bishops of this church have too much authority. Living within these tensions makes it even more important for bishops to maintain relationships—with each other, with the congregations and rostered ministers they serve, with churchwide organization staff, and within their larger communities. These relationships allow bishops to embody the Word of God with authenticity so that the world might come to know Jesus Christ.

To encourage all ELCA members, congregations, synods, ministries, colleges, campus ministries, seminaries, camps, associated organizations, and partners, to support creative programs of restorative justice in partnership with Indigenous people, including, but not limited to, whenever considering a transfer or sale of real property, including returning land (and any structures built on it) after satisfying any financial obligations, to the appropriate Native nations, and when direct return is not feasible or not desired by the Indigenous people, to return the proceeds from the sale of the land to the ELCA Native American Ministry Fund or other local Indigenous led ministries or organizations;

To call upon the appropriate home areas and offices of the churchwide organization to work collaboratively with the relevant local synods and their local Indigenous partners to determine what amount of funding would represent full funding of the more than 30 ELCA Indigenous congregations and service ministries and to immediately provide the remaining funding needed after synod and other local sources of funding have been applied, and to use this same approach to funding new sacramental and/or service ministries by, with or among Indigenous people; and

To call upon the appropriate home areas and offices of the churchwide organization to first engage with the relevant local synods and their local Indigenous partners whenever planning or considering work related to Indigenous people or ministries.

Category B8: Separation Agreements

1. Southwest California Synod (2B) [2022]

   WHEREAS, the prophet Jeremiah writes, “This is what the Lord says: Administer justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim from the hand of the oppressor” (Jeremiah 22:3); and

   WHEREAS, the psalmist writes “It is zeal for your house that has consumed me; the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me” (Psalm 69: 9); and

   WHEREAS, the Gospel of John records, “But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone” (John 2:23-25); and

   WHEREAS, Martin Luther’s first of the 95 Thesis is “When our Lord and Master Jesus Christ said “Repent,” he intended that the entire life of believers should be repentance;” and

   WHEREAS, Luther writes, “Now properly speaking, true repentance is nothing else than to have contrition and sorrow, or terror about sin, and yet at the same time to believe in the gospel and absolution that sin is forgiven and grace is obtained through Christ. Such faith, in turn, comforts the heart and puts it at peace” (The Book of Concord, p. 44); and

   WHEREAS, the social statement Church in Society: A Lutheran Perspective (1991) recognizes that “This church must participate in social structures critically, for sin also is at work in the world. Social structures and processes combine life-giving and life-destroying dynamics in complex mixtures and in varying degrees. This church, therefore, must unite realism and vision, wisdom and courage, in its social responsibility. It needs constantly to discern when to support and when to confront society’s cultural patterns, values, and powers;” (p. 3); and

WHEREAS, some confidential agreements are necessary when employment ends to protect sensitive information; and

WHEREAS, the original purpose of Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDAs) was to protect intellectual property and personal data not protected elsewhere.

WHEREAS, NDAs almost always involve an imbalance of power dynamic (abuser/victim, employer/employee, etc.); and

WHEREAS, linking separation agreements and financial severance packages (often so that financial compensation is based on non-disclosure compliance) can hinder truth telling and institutional accountability; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Churchwide Personnel Policies (effective since January 2020) do not specifically outline employee rights during a non-disclosure agreement negotiation; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA churchwide organization does not currently provide independent legal counsel for employees facing involuntary termination; and

WHEREAS, employment agreements in the churchwide organization prohibit disparaging remarks; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA’s constitution states, “In keeping with the historic discipline and practice of the Lutheran church and to be true to a sacred trust inherent in the nature of the pastoral office, no minister of Word and Sacrament of this church shall divulge any confidential disclosure received in the course of the care of souls or otherwise in a professional capacity, nor testify concerning conduct observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament while working in a pastoral capacity, except with the express permission of the person who has given confidential information to the minister of Word and Sacrament or who was observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament, or if the person intends great harm to self or others” (CBCR 7.45.); and

WHEREAS, NDAs have been used by organizations associated with instances of spiritual, sexual, or other kinds of abuse; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA’s Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline do not provide guidance about NDAs; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Southwest California Synod, in Assembly, memorializes the 2022 ELCA Churchwide Assembly to separate the satisfaction of severance packages from considerations outlined in separation agreements (non-disparagement agreements, non-disclosure agreements, and others); and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Southwest California Synod, in assembly, memorializes the 2022 ELCA Churchwide Assembly to adopt provisions in guiding documents that provide independent legal counsel to individuals from congregation, synod, and churchwide staff being asked to sign Non-Disclosure Agreements.

2. Northwestern Ohio Synod (6D) [2022]

WHEREAS, being called to embody God’s beloved community, all expressions (congregations, synods, and churchwide organization) of the ELCA should utilize human resource practices that reflect ELCA core beliefs and current mission; and

WHEREAS, some current practices that include a financial settlement contingent on an NDA prevent even fair critique of the employer; and

WHEREAS, any concern that information received through pastoral care could be shared is protected in the document Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline, “Ministers of Word and Sacrament must comply with 7.45.7 of this church’s constitution and not disclose information protected by that provision unless expressly permitted by that provision. All rostered ministers must respect and protect other confidential information and not disclose it absent good cause. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, permission of those who shared the confidence, disclosure required by law, or disclosure necessary to prevent great harm” (p.7); therefore, be it

RESOLVED that the Northwestern Ohio Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to include in all constitutions (Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA, Constitution for Synods, and Model Constitution for Congregations) that the satisfaction of severance arrangements is to be separate from considerations outlined in an NDA (non-disparagement agreements, non-disclosure agreements) or any agreements that would prevent someone to speak freely about their previous employment situation; and be it further

RESOLVED that mutual consideration must be reflected in separation agreements through fair mediation.

3. Delaware-Maryland Synod (8F) [2022]

WHEREAS, to better align the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) with the values of God’s beloved community, the ELCA should turn away from secrecy in favor of a just and mutually respectful transparency; and

WHEREAS, the prophet Jeremiah writes, “The Lord proclaims: Do what is just and right; rescue the oppressed from the power of the oppressor;” and

WHEREAS, the Lord Jesus urges people to lives of honesty, transparency, and accountability: “Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No;’ anything more than this comes from the evil one;” and

WHEREAS, Martin Luther’s first of the 95 Theses is “When our Lord and Master Jesus Christ said “Repent,” he intended that the entire life of believers should be repentance;” and

WHEREAS, the ELCA social statement Church in Society: A Lutheran Perspective (1991) recognizes that “This church must participate in social structures critically, for sin also is at work in the world. This church, therefore, must unite realism and vision, wisdom and courage, in its social responsibility. It needs constantly to discern when to support and when to confront society’s cultural patterns, values, and powers;” and

WHEREAS, some confidential agreements are necessary when employment ends to protect sensitive information and vulnerable people; and

WHEREAS, non-disclosure agreements (NDAs) and similar restrictive agreements almost always involve an imbalance of power dynamic; and

WHEREAS, linking separation agreements and financial severance packages (often so that financial compensation is contingent on non-disclosure compliance) can hinder truth telling and institutional accountability; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Churchwide Personnel Policies (effective since January 2020) do not specifically outline employee rights related to non-disclosure agreements, separation agreements, and similar documents or situations; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline do not provide guidance about NDAs; and

WHEREAS, NDAs and similar agreements have been used by the organizations associated with many prominent faith leaders accused of spiritual, sexual, or other kinds of abuse, often as a way of protecting the reputation of those key leaders and the narrowly-defined self-interest of the organization; and

WHEREAS, many former staff members throughout the expressions and agencies of the ELCA have been pressured to sign separation agreements which include the requirement to remain silent; employment agreements in the churchwide organization prohibit disparaging remarks; and

WHEREAS, to better align the ELCA with the values of God’s beloved community, the ELCA must stop tying separation and employment agreements to requirements that prevent even fair critique of the ELCA and impede transparency; all ELCA human resource practices should reflect ELCA core beliefs and current mission; therefore, be it

RESOLVED that the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Church in America to direct the churchwide organization of the ELCA to separate the payment or other satisfaction of severance packages from requirements in separation agreements which restrict in any way the ability of staff members to speak freely about their experiences as part of the ELCA; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to urge synods, congregations, agencies, institutions, and other parts of the ELCA to similarly separate the payment or other satisfaction of severance packages from requirements in separation agreements which restrict in any way the ability of staff members to speak freely about their experiences as part of the Church and its institutions and expressions; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Delaware-Maryland Synod of the ELCA memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to adjust the personnel policies of the churchwide organization of the ELCA so that mutual consideration be reflected in separation agreements through fair mediation.

On behalf of the committee, Ms. Chatman introduced the following motion.

Moved; [Seconded]:

To receive with gratitude the memorials from the Delaware-Maryland Synod, Southwest California Synod, and Northwestern Ohio Synod concerning separation agreements;

To affirm the commitment of the churchwide organization of the ELCA to limit the use of non-disclosure provisions to the small minority of cases in which they are truly necessary to protect confidential and sensitive materials related to donors, personnel, legal, information technology, and similar categories;

To urge synods, congregations, agencies, institutions, and other parts of the ELCA to limit the use of non-disclosure agreements to the small minority of cases in which they are truly necessary and not to use such agreements as a matter of course or in the termination of calls of rostered ministers; and

To direct the Church Council to update the “Churchwide Organization Personnel Policies” to appropriately limit the use to non-disclosure agreements consistent with these memorials.

Ms. Emily K. Wagner [Delaware-Maryland Synod] offered an amendment to the motion.

Moved; Seconded:

To amend the proposed response by insertion as follows:

To receive with gratitude the memorials from the Delaware-Maryland Synod, Southwest California Synod, and Northwestern Ohio Synod concerning separation agreements;

To affirm the commitment of the churchwide organization of the ELCA to limit the use of non-disclosure provisions to the small minority of cases in which they are truly necessary to protect confidential and sensitive materials related to donors, personnel, legal, information technology, and similar categories;

To direct the churchwide office of the ELCA to not make payment of severance contingent upon an agreement which restricts in any way
the ability of staff members to speak about their experiences as part of the ELCA;

To direct the churchwide office of the ELCA, in the small minority of cases in which non-disclosure provisions are truly necessary to protect confidential and sensitive materials, to limit the tying of severance pay to non-disclosure provisions to no more than 5% of the total severance pay, in order to satisfy the legal requirements for consideration and integration;

To urge synods, congregations, agencies, institutions, and other parts of the ELCA to limit the use of non-disclosure agreements to the small minority of cases in which they are truly necessary and to not make payment of severance contingent upon an agreement which restricts in any way the ability of staff members to speak about their experiences as part of the church and its institutions and expressions and not to use such agreements as a matter of course or in the termination of calls of rostered ministers; and

To direct the Church Council to update the “Churchwide Organization Personnel Policies” to appropriately limit the use to non-disclosure agreements consistent with these memorials.

A voting member asked for clarification of the current use of non-disclosure agreements in separation agreements in this church. Vice President Peña invited Mr. Cunniff to address the question. Mr. Cunniff began by affirming his support for the original motion and highlighted concerns about the proposed amendment. For example, the proposed amendment would severely limit the ability of this church to protect confidential information such as Social Security numbers or to prevent former staff members who had access to sensitive information from disclosing such information. He concluded by expressing his concern that, as general counsel, he would find it very difficult to advise this church how to comply with the memorial as amended.

A voting member spoke in support of the amendment. Two voting members asked for clarification of the nature of non-disclosure agreements and the specific implications of the proposed motion and amendment, and the vice president invited Mr. Cunniff to address both questions. In response to the first question, Mr. Cunniff affirmed that non-disclosure agreements could be drafted narrowly and specifically, and noted that it was the goal of this church to do so when non-disclosure agreements are used. The second question concerned whether and how the proposal and the amendment would have impacted the situation in the Sierra Pacific Synod had they been in effect, and Mr. Cunniff said that it would have had no impact. The policy was binding only on the churchwide organization, not individual synods, and the situation in the Sierra Pacific Synod was not one in which a non-disclosure agreement would have been used. He emphasized that the churchwide organization only used non-disclosure agreements to protect privacy and data.

Two voting members spoke in opposition to the amendment, two voting members spoke in support of the amendment, and a voting member called the question.

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Bier [Northwest Synod of Wisconsin] offered an alternate response to the memorial.

Moved;
Seconded:

concerning specialized ministries and on-leave-from-call status;

To direct the Church Council to direct the appropriate churchwide unit to initiate a review process of the “Policies and Procedures for Management of the Rosters of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America” and the constitutional provisions and policies and procedures protocols for removal from the rosters, and communication protocols;

To direct the Church Council to ensure that this review process recently on leave from call for a variety of reasons (e.g., between calls, family, disability, study, etc.);

To urge bishops and synod councils to use sparingly any action by which a minister is removed from the roster for non-disciplinary reasons, unless the minister requests removal, until this review is complete, especially for those serving contract calls, as supply preachers, and in other ELCA ministries that don't qualify as a call; and
To require that appropriate unit of the churchwide organization prepare a report and recommendations for consideration by the fall 2024 meeting of the ELCA Church Council.

The vice president called for the orders of the day.

Vice Presidential Nominees Forum

Vice President Peña thanked the members of the Memorials Committee and all voting members for their prayerful deliberation regarding the memorials that were submitted to the assembly. He introduced the vice-presidential nominees forum, reminding assembly members that the participants in the forum would be the three candidates who received the highest vote totals on the third ballot for vice president. Vice President Peña invited Ms. Cherrish Holland and the Rev. Marcus A. Bigott, members of the Executive Committee of the Church Council, to the stage to serve as moderators of the forum.

Ms. Holland and Pastor Bigott invited assembly members to welcome the three nominees for vice president to the stage: Mr. Imran Siddiqui, Mr. Roberto Lara Aranda, and Ms. Tracey A. Beasley. Ms. Holland explained that each nominee would respond to three prompts that had been determined by the Executive Committee of the Church Council and given to the nominees in advance, and that the order of response was determined by random drawing. Nominees were allowed two minutes to respond to each prompt, and assembly members were asked to refrain from applauding until the end of the session, at which time all nominees would be thanked as a group.

Prompt 1: How would you, in your leadership role as vice president, prioritize and plan to implement the actions taken at this assembly?

Response 1: Ms. Beasley

Ms. Beasley stated that she would work closely with the Executive Committee of the Church Council and with churchwide organization staff to organize actions. Responsibilities would then be assigned to staff, establishing deadlines for reports to the Church Council for renewed discussion and action. In her role as vice president, Ms. Beasley said that she would work with the presiding bishop and staff to ensure that resources are available to support implementation of the actions. Because people have grown comfortable working remotely, she believes the Church Council and the churchwide organization could more effectively engage synods to foster buy-in. Each memorial passed in this, and any assembly, she said, helps this church to advance its mission and vision. She concluded by saying that all must work together interdependently to accomplish each action, avoiding “silos,” and God’s people must always be in the forefront when prioritizing the actions.

Response 2: Mr. Siddiqui

Mr. Siddiqui called attention to two memorials that he considers priorities on which he would encourage the Church Council to take action as soon as possible. The first is the Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church. This church has lifted up the words “constantly reforming,” he noted, yet he feels that primarily it had made small adjustments rather than truly living into this calling. He believed that this church has passed momentous constitutional amendments, but its structures remain unchanged, and he stated that it is time to move past the compromises of 35 years ago and move forward. He noted that this church has three expressions, each of which he considers to have very limited power and accountability in relation to the others, in some cases leading to “disastrous results.” Mr. Siddiqui expressed concern that if the Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church were not sufficiently prioritized, it would not complete its work prior to the 2025 Churchwide Assembly, frustrating the intent of this assembly. It was also crucial that the commission reflect where this assembly wanted this church to go rather than where it had been.

The second memorial on which Mr. Siddiqui would focus was the salary equity memorial. He stated that it is unconscionable for a church that declares all people to be equal before God to dramatically underpay members of minority communities, people with disabilities, and members of the LGBTQ+ community. How could this church claim to be welcoming, he asked, when pay discrepancies among pastors show that this is not the case? It is essential, he believes, that this church acknowledge the depth of these discrepancies and act immediately to correct them.

Response 3: Mr. Lara Aranda

Mr. Lara Aranda began by noting that, as a communications strategist, prioritizing and implementing plans is what he is called on to do every day. As vice president, he stated, he would ask: What are the values of the Church Council and the churchwide organization that inform this church’s decision-making processes? This church has said that it is committed to being antiracist and transparent, but how, he asked, does this church embody those values? Mr. Lara Aranda outlined three values that guide his decision-making process. First, if this church desires to be an antiracist church, decisions need to be made in the truth of God’s abundance rather than considering questions from the perspective of scarcity. Too often, he believes, this church has faced challenges with a focus on things that could not be done rather than finding paths to seeing all that could be done. A second value is representation, or the principle of “No decisions about us without us.” Part of any decision-making process, he said, is taking a minute to look around the table, ensuring that the right people are there and that the communities that would be most impacted are represented. Finally, he asserted, this church needs to be less conflict-averse, something he feels Lutherans may find difficult. Sometimes, he stated, this church needs to be willing to lean into “holy, necessary conflict,” because it could be possible to build trust through engaging and resolving conflict. Trust is what holds an organization together, he argued, and this church’s leaders ignore trust issues at the expense of this church’s success.

Some, perhaps, consider these to be “soft” skills, he said, but organizational research is clear: organizations can fall into despair without these values, particularly trust. Yet with them, and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, this church could see continuous improvement and sustainable, measurable, tangible results.

Prompt 2: Looking at collaboration and group processes, the vice president is elected by the Churchwide Assembly and serves this entire church. Share a time when you facilitated an organization’s work to accomplish its goals, accommodating and collaborating with varying perspectives and opinions.

Response 1: Mr. Siddiqui

Mr. Siddiqui reminded assembly members that the Southeastern Synod Council operates on the basis of consensus and provided an example illustrating what this means in practice. Council members in his synod are free to discuss their concerns about proposed resolutions or staff appointments, but this comes with the understanding that, once consensus is reached, every member of the council takes ownership of the decision and defends it as their own. This happens because everyone realizes that each member of the council is allowed to block consensus. Mr. Siddiqui noted that, for this reason, he is hesitant to discuss specific situations in which individual council members held differing opinions and how they were brought together. Discussions within the council are held in strict confidence, especially in light of the fact that council members may later vigorously defend decisions about which they once expressed concerns. When opposition is expressed to a proposed resolution, the response by other council members is always: What could be done to make the concerned member comfortable with the proposed resolution? Following conversation, the resolution is altered in whatever ways are necessary so that all members can accept the actions of the council and act as one. He recalled one resolution concerning which discussion lasted more than an hour and regarding which all reservations were heard before the decision was made. The bishop had even suggested postponing the decision, but council members decided to keep talking in order to reach consensus. It turned out that the final decision was the one recommended by Mr. Siddiqui as vice president of the council and by the synod bishop, but the discussion allowed all council members to voice their true thoughts.

Response 2: Mr. Lara Aranda

As an example, Mr. Lara Aranda pointed to the public apology this assembly had witnessed two days earlier. This event was possible, in part, because of Mr. Lara Aranda’s commitment to finding common ground between many passionate groups with different goals and diverse opinions. Of course, he, said, the apology was only the first step of a long and difficult process, but it required months of conversations, collaborations, and necessary confrontations. Several conversations had taken place involving a number of different and widely varied groups, including the people of Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina, the office of the presiding bishop, churchwide staff, and various Latino leadership organizations within this church. All had recommended Mr. Lara Aranda to the listening panel. Several of these conversations were not only highly emotional but also took place in very public forums. Movement toward reconciliation was not a linear process. The group found new obstacles every step of the way, but by being transparent and having their values clear, he affirmed, the parties were able to move forward together, guided by the Holy Spirit and for the benefit of our beloved church.

Response 3: Ms. Beasley

Ms. Beasley noted that, during her nine years as a synod vice president, there have been many opportunities for her to work with synod bishops, synod councils, conference deans, and congregational leadership to accomplish goals. As a specific example, she stated that she is currently working with a congregation under synod administration. Both the synod and the congregation have goals for renewing ministry in the area, and Ms. Beasley often serves as the “listening ear” for both the synod and the congregation, working to identify the best course of action. Her role in this situation, she said, is to listen, to evaluate, and to work toward developing consensus through prayer and brave, honest conversations. As a result of their collaboration, all involved have renewed commitments to the neighborhood and helped this ministry back on the pathway to being a vital and effective community for Jesus.
Prompt 3: The vice president shall serve as the chair of the Church Council and may perform other tasks for the benefit of this church. Describe for the assembly how you would handle the time and emotional demands of assuming the role of vice president.

Response 1: Mr. Siddiqui

Mr. Siddiqui began by noting that this was an excellent question, one with which he had been wrestling for the entire week. He had filled out the pre-identification form knowing that the job required a substantial time commitment without knowing the exact amount. He discussed the issue with his wife, knowing that they have a two-year old son, whom they had both committed to co-parenting equally. On the day before the assembly began, Mr. Siddiqui had called his wife, informed her that the time commitment involved would be more than they had expected, and expressed concern that it might cause him to spend too much time away from home. He said that, if he received the 30 or 40 votes he expected on the first ballot, he would withdraw his name from the nominee pool. His wife reminded him that they are a family that values lay leadership and encouraged him to not withdraw his name, allowing the Spirit do its work. After the first ballot, it was clear to them that he should remain on the ballot, and his wife texted to let him know that, if his election came to pass, they would “make it work.” On the previous night, he was talking to a bishop who reminded him that, while the vice president was required to attend several annual events in person, Zoom was a wonderful alternative for other events. If elected as vice president, Mr. Siddiqui intends to keep his family first, and if that choice caused the assembly to move in a different direction, he would understand and have no regrets.

Response 2: Mr. Lara Aranda

Mr. Lara Aranda emphasized that his family, both God-given and chosen, is an important support structure for him. Were it not for his now-partner, then-boyfriend, who thought that a “cool date activity would be taking a Roman Catholic boy to his first Lutheran liturgy,” an Easter Vigil service that lasted more than three hours, he would not be a part of this church. Mr. Lara Aranda said he thought of what a constant source of inspiration and resilience their son is to his partner and him. He and his partner are active in Amparo and the Sanctuary Movement, and they live into that in what he likes to call the “fourth expression of this church,” their home. They are the legal guardians of a migrant minor, and he does this work to build a better church and world for him.

Then there is his church family. Eventually, he became a member of Saint Peter’s Church in New York City, which confirmed and affirmed God’s love for him with words and actions. There are also the synod family and his colleagues at the churchwide organization, fellow ethnic association leaders, fellow listening panel members, Latino leaders, and the board and members of the Latino Association. He could not have gotten through the past nine months without their counsel and support. Finally, there are the members of the Churchwide Assembly, many of whom were already treating him like family in this process. He already had an invitation from Bruce, from North Dakota, whose wife, apparently, makes the best homemade mustard in the world. He is committed not only to serve the members of this church but also to serve with the members of this church. ELCA members are certainly church together, he concluded, but through the waters of baptism, are also family together.
Response 3: Ms. Beasley
Ms. Beasley noted that, as an ELCA member since her youth, she has extensive practice living a balanced life, first through school and ministry and now through work and ministry. Setting boundaries so that there is time for rest and play, worship and work, helps her to maintain this balance so that she finds joy in serving and centering the purpose. She practices Sabbath as a ritual for resetting her mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual health and wellness as a priority in her life. Despite the fact that she expends a lot of time and energy to participate in this church, she said, it is always important to her to practice self-care. She has learned not to take things personally, and this has helped her to maintain a clear and level focus while navigating difficult situations, particularly when facing conflict and differing options.

At the conclusion of the forum, Pastor Bigott invited the assembly to show appreciation for the nominees, and the assembly responded with sustained applause.

Announcements
Vice President Peña reminded assembly members that the fourth ballot for vice president would be taken at the beginning of the sixth plenary session. He called upon Secretary Rothmeyer to provide several additional announcements.

Prayer
The plenary session closed with a hymn and a prayer.

If any congregation of the parish should fail to approve the call, the other congregations of the parish shall have the right to terminate the parish agreement.

Consideration: Amendments to the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA Removed from EnBloc

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section V, Amendments to the Constitutions of the ELCA

The presiding bishop announced consideration of amendments removed from en bloc and outlined procedures for consideration of the amendments. Secretary Rothmeyer would read the proposed amendments, and the voting member who removed it from en bloc would be invited to make a comment or a change to the proposed amendment. A separate vote would be held for each proposed amendment. Secretary Rothmeyer moved adoption of the amendment to constitutional provision 5.01.-e. and -f.

Moved; [Seconded]:

To amend constitutional provision 5.01.-e. and -f. as follows:

5.01. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be one church. This church recognizes that all power and authority in the Church belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ, its head. Therefore, all actions of this church by congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization shall be carried out under his rule and authority in accordance with the following principles: […]

e. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution and bylaws, the appropriate office or unit of the churchwide organization, through the Church Council, shall establish processes that will ensure that at least 60 percent of the members of its assemblies, councils, committees, boards, and other organizational units shall be laypersons; that, as nearly as possible, at least 45 percent of the lay members of these assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be women and, as nearly as possible, at least 45 percent shall be men, and that, where possible, the representation of rostered ministers of Word and Sacrament shall include both men and women. At least 10 percent of the members of these assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English. Processes shall be developed that will assure that in selecting staff there will be a balance of women and men, persons of color and persons whose primary language is other than English, laypersons, and persons on the rosters of this church. This balance is to be evident in the selection of staff consistent with the inclusive policy of this church.

f. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution and bylaws, synods, through synod councils, shall establish processes that will ensure that at least 60 percent of the members of their assemblies, councils, committees, boards, and other organizational units shall be laypersons; that, as nearly as possible, at least 45 percent of the lay members of their assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be women and, as nearly as possible, at least 45 percent shall be men, and that, where possible, the representation of rostered ministers of Word and Sacrament shall include both women and men. Each synod shall establish processes that will enable it to reach a minimum goal that 10 percent of the membership of its assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English.

The Rev. Susan S. Salomone [Upstate New York Synod] rose to amend the proposed amendment by insertion of the words “and/or persons who identify as part of the LGBTQIA+ community” following the word “English.” The chair announced that such an amendment would have to have been submitted to the secretary’s assistant prior to the second plenary session. Pastor Salomone stated that she had submitted the proposal to the secretary’s assistant. Following consultation with Secretary Rothmeyer and Mr. Maurice S. Henderson, parliamentarian, the chair ruled that Pastor Salomone had removed the provision from en bloc but had not introduced an amendment. Any amendment to the proposal at this point would have been out of order.

8.22.01. The relationship of this church to its colleges and universities shall be guided by policies fostering educational institutions dedicated to the Lutheran tradition wherein such institutions are an essential part of God’s mission in the world; faithful to the will of God as institutions providing quality instruction in religion and a lively ministry of worship, outreach, and service; diligent in their preparation of leaders committed to truth, excellence, and ethical values; and pledged to the well-being of students in the development of mind, body, and spirit.
Two voting members spoke in opposition to the amendment, and one spoke in support. A voting member asked for clarification regarding the origin of the amendment. Presiding Bishop Eaton invited the Rev. Philip C. Hirsch, executive director for the Christian Community and Leadership home area, to address the question. Pastor Hirsch explained that the constitutional provision had been rewritten by the Rev. Mark Wilhelm, program director for the Network of ELCA Colleges and Universities (NECU). Pastor Wilhelm rewrote the provision primarily for stylistic reasons, he said, noting that the change was not substantive. Pastor Hirsch suggested that the proposed amendment did not change the relationship but simply expressed it using language more consistent with the way ELCA-affiliated colleges and universities understand the relationship.

Two voting members spoke in opposition to the amendment. A voting member called the question.

Report of the Reference and Counsel Committee (continued): Amendments to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA Proposed by Voting Members at the Assembly
Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section IX, Report of the Reference and Counsel Committee

The presiding bishop announced consideration of amendments to the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA that had been proposed by voting members prior to the deadline and referred to the Reference and Counsel Committee. The presiding bishop invited Mr. David M. Lenz, chair of the Reference and Counsel Committee, to the stage. Mr. Lenz noted that Ms. Tracey A. Beasley had been appointed as a co-chair of the Reference and Counsel Committee but had recused herself from that position because of her participation in the election process for vice president.

A voting member moved to amend the Order of Business to allow time for the remaining nominees for the office of vice president to address the assembly for up to five minutes each. The motion being non-debatable, the presiding bishop called for the vote.

Moved; Two-Thirds Vote Required
Seconded: Yes-398; No-386
Defeated: To amend the Order of Business to allow time for the nominees for the office of vice president to address the assembly for five minutes each.

The presiding bishop declared that the motion had failed. Mr. Lenz continued his report, stating that the committee had received three proposed amendments, all related to the Constitution for Synods, and all three called for the assembly to render existing provisions or bylaws non-required rather than required.

The Rev. Matthew L. Riegel, bishop of the West Virginia-Western Maryland Synod, had proposed an amendment to the Constitution for Synods †S7.21.01. The Reference and Counsel Committee had declined to move the proposed amendment. Bishop Riegel moved the amendment from the floor.

Moved; Two-Thirds Vote Required
Seconded: Yes-398; No-386
Defeated: To amend the Constitution for Synods †S7.21.01. by striking the dagger and therefore making the provision non-required:

†S7.21.01. Voting members shall begin serving with the opening of a regular Synod Assembly and shall continue serving until the opening of the next regular Synod Assembly.

Two voting members spoke in support of the amendment. Another voting member asked Mr. Lenz to clarify the Reference and Counsel Committee’s reasons for not supporting adoption of the amendment. Mr. Lenz explained that the committee recommended against the motion because not having such a provision would require that congregations reelect voting members for any special assembly, which could present logistical challenges. Bishop Riegel responded that the current language of the constitution allows for a voting member to a Synod Assembly elected by a congregation to continue in service, including at any specially-called Synod Assembly, until the next regular Synod Assembly unless a replacement has been elected by the congregation.

†S11.04. The Mutual Ministry Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Synod Council to provide support and counsel to the bishop.

The Reference and Council Committee recommended that the amendment be referred to the Conference of Bishops, Church Council, and Office of the Secretary for discussion to determine appropriate mutual ministry structures.

Motion K: Resolution on Possible Revision of Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section IX, Report of the Reference and Council Committee

Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked the members of the Reference and Counsel Committee for their work on the proposed constitutional amendments and invited Mr. Lenz to continue the report of the Reference and Counsel Committee. Mr. Lenz announced consideration of three non-germane resolutions brought by voting members. The first was related to this church’s social statement, Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust, calling for reconsideration of the four positions on “bound conscience” detailed in the social statement. The Reference and Counsel Committee recommended approval of the motion.

Motion K: Revision to Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust Social Statement

Submitted by: Mr. Michael Schulte [Southeastern Synod, 9D]

To authorize a possible revision of the social statement on Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust which reconsiders this church’s current concept of the four positions of bound conscience. This revision would focus on pages 19-21 (“lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships”) and any other references to the four positions of bound conscience.

Four voting members spoke in favor of the motion, while one voting member spoke in opposition. Another voting member asked for clarification regarding the consequences of passing the motion. The Rev. Roger A. Willer, director for theological ethics, reminded the assembly that the motion related to Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust passed earlier in this assembly had called for editorial revisions. He noted that the potential revisions arising from the current motion would be much more substantial. Approval of the proposal would probably require addition of a staff person to carry out the work. Two additional voting members spoke in support of the proposal, and a voting member called the question.

Response from the Vice President-Elect

Presiding Bishop Eaton announced that Mr. Imran Siddiqui had been elected vice president, and invited him to address the assembly. Mr. Siddiqui began by expressing his surprise at being elected and thanked his wife and others for their support in this and his other engagement in this church. He thanked his fellow nominees, and the assembly joined him in expressing gratitude with applause. Mr. Siddiqui called for appreciation of synod vice presidents and the important work they do on a volunteer basis. He noted that the top three nominees for vice president were people of color, but also noted that this did not mean that the work of this church to overcome racism was finished.

Greetings: Ecumenical and Inter-Religious Representatives Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section III, Report of the Office of the Presiding Bishop

Presiding Bishop Eaton reminded the assembly that for 35 years this church has affirmed the centrality of its partnerships with other Christians and with people of other religions and worldviews. The ELCA has articulated these commitments through a series of four ecumenical and inter-religious declarations: “A Declaration of Ecumenical Commitment,” adopted in 1991; “A Declaration of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to the Jewish Community,” adopted in 1994 and updated in 2021; “A Declaration of Inter-Religious Commitment,” adopted in 2019; and “A Declaration of the ELCA to the Muslim Community,” adopted in 2022. She noted that these declarations are significant only to the extent that they are lived out through real relationships. The presiding bishop stated that she was honored to be able to welcome to the stage guests who were at the heart of this church’s ecumenical relationships, representing partners in dialogue, full communion partnerships, and councils, coalitions, organizations, and initiatives through which this church works with members of other traditions. The presiding bishop gave thanks for these colleagues and for their commitment to journey with the ELCA in seeking Christian unity as well as justice and peace for all people.

The presiding bishop announced that, as the culmination of a fifteen-year process of dialogue, this church is in full communion partnership with the Anglican Church of Canada.
in addition to existing partnerships with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC) and The Episcopal Church (USA). These four churches are now part of Churches beyond Borders, a full-communion partnership among Lutherans, Episcopalians, and Anglicans spanning North America. These churches have developed an annual devotional series and have issued joint statements on important issues, including on Israel/Palestine and climate change. These experiences have laid the foundation for full communion partnership, and the partnership itself holds great promise as progress is made toward global relationships between Lutherans and Anglicans. The actions of the 2019 Churchwide Assembly allowed for this church to consider full communion partners of Lutheran World Federation member churches to be in full communion with the ELCA as well, and the “Memorandum of Mutual Recognition” among the four churches adopted by the Church Council in fall 2019 has the potential to serve as a model for other ecumenical agreements, especially as this church considers its relationship to churches that are full communion partners of churches with which the ELCA is in full communion.

In late 2020, undeterred by the pandemic, the churches launched a new identity as Churches beyond Borders and began engaging in intentional work together. The first focus was based on a significant phrase within the memorandum citing the experiences of Indigenous peoples, not divided by national boundaries established by colonial powers, as a basis for expanding shared life among the churches. For the past two years, these churches have focused on study, work, and public witness related to repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery and meaningfully addressing the legacies of slavery within the churches and society. The work to date has included a leadership consultation, joint public statements, and plans to share this model with other churches at the upcoming gathering of the World Council of Churches.

The presiding bishop introduced her counterparts in Churches beyond Borders, noting that the Rev. Susan Johnson, national bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, had wanted to be present but was prevented by illness. Presiding Bishop Eaton shared with the assembly video greetings from Archbishop Linda Nichols, primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, and Presiding Bishop Michael Curry of The Episcopal Church (USA).

Archbishop Nichols sent greetings from the Anglican Church of Canada and told the assembly that one of the joys she experienced upon becoming primate was the friendship between the churches of the Churches beyond Borders partnership. In these highly divisive times, the witness of full communion partnership and the desire to work together on common issues of justice, faith, and peace stands as a beacon of hope that something else is possible. With the new name, the partner churches declared that the Gospel of Christ is for all people and that unity in Christ lives despite national borders. The pandemic disrupted illusions about serious social issues and invited churches to reexamine what it means to be church when traditions are upended. The archbishop assured the assembly that her prayers and the prayers of her church were with them in the discernment needed to strengthen the witness of the ELCA and bring the light of Christ into the troubles of the world.

Presiding Bishop Curry expressed the joy he felt bringing greetings to the Churchwide Assembly on behalf of The Episcopal Church (USA). He expressed thanks to God for Presiding Bishop Eaton’s ministry and for the witness of this church in the world. Bishop Curry expressed that this partnership has been a blessing for all four churches, sometimes in quiet ways and sometimes in public ways, but always in ways that have mattered for the cause of God’s love, compassion, and justice, for the cause of Christ in this world. One of the possibilities has been a shared witness to the indignities, wrongs, and injustices perpetrated on Indigenous peoples in North America. All the churches of the partnership had participated in residential schools in Canada and the United States, and all are working together to tell the truth, learn from the truth, and use this learning to build a new future in which the hurts of the past can begin to be healed and a new future can be constructed. In addition, the four churches are engaged in other works: supporting children, reducing domestic violence, reducing gender-based violence, and advocating for the eradication of all forms of racism and bigotry. Presiding Bishop Curry concluded by asking God’s blessing on the assembly.

Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that one of the great joys of serving as presiding bishop has been experiencing firsthand the reconciliation that is unfolding between Lutherans and Catholics. She recalled a joint prayer service in 2016 that launched a year-long commemoration leading up to the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, noting that she had never imagined that she would see the pope and the leadership of the Lutheran World Federation processing side-by-side. She recalled the 2016 Churchwide Assembly, at which the assembly adopted the US Lutheran–Catholic document, “Declaration on the Way: Church, Ministry, and Eucharist” and Bishop Denis J. Madden, titular bishop of Baia and auxiliary bishop of Baltimore, addressed the assembly on the shared longing of both churches for visible unity. For almost 60 years, this dialogue has been continuing, most recently producing a statement that soon will be published by Fortress Press. Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked the Rev. Lowell G. Almen, former secretary of the ELCA, for his leadership as co-chair in this dialogue and announced that later in 2022 the two churches would launch a new round of dialogues focused on the role of the bishop in the church and world today. This twelfth round of dialogue will be co-chaired by the Rev. Patricia J. Lull, bishop of the Saint Paul Area Synod, and Bishop Madden. Presiding Bishop Eaton welcomed Bishop Madden to the stage.

Bishop Madden reminisced about his visits to past churchwide assemblies and expressed his confidence that soon the two churches would be able to share together at the Table of the Lord. He shared his hope that the intervening years had not taken from us the realization made so clear in 2016 that, in many ways, the churches are already in communion. Noting his Benedictine roots, Bishop Madden cited the words of St. Benedict, who instructed readers to listen carefully and attend to his words with the ears of their hearts. In the dialogues, these two churches have done just that—listened carefully to each other with the ears of their hearts—and are blessed by God to be able to recognize Christ in each other.

Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that this was the 25th anniversary of the first full communion partnership of this church. After years of dialogue, this church in 1997 entered into the Formula of Agreement with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) (PCUSA), the Reformed Church in America (RCA), and the United Church of Christ (UCC). At the heart of this agreement was a shared commitment to mutual affirmation and admonition, allowing these churches to live together with their differences without becoming divided, a counter-cultural witness to the world today. Although much has changed over the years, these churches have remained committed to walking together, learning from one another, and growing in partnership. The presiding bishop expressed great joy in introducing the Rev. Eddy Alemán, general secretary of the RCA, the Rev. J. Herbert Nelson, stated clerk of the PCUSA, and the Rev. Mark Pettis, ecumenical and interfaith relationships manager for the UCC.
Pastor Alemán greeted the assembly on behalf of the RCA, expressing gratitude for the Formula of Agreement on this, its 25th anniversary. Celebrating this milestone together, RCA leaders were grateful for the partnership that strengthens these churches and their witness to the world. The RCA is blessed by pastors from Formula of Agreement churches that serve in their congregations, and RCA pastors bless the PCUSA, UCC, and ELCA congregations in which they serve. He noted that this example of fellowship despite differences gives him hope in the midst of growing polarization among North American churches because, despite diverse witnesses, the four churches are held together by the one Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pastor Nelson stated that the work the churches do for Jesus Christ is about transforming the world. This can only be done when churches are one and seek to be one despite the forces that would pull them apart, including differences in understandings of how best to engage people in following Jesus. This is a reminder that the churches have a responsibility to draw from one another, to work with one another, and to learn from one another in this partnership of faith. He noted that these churches have continued to wrestle with questions of how to bring people to Christ, not only to save their lives but also because new people bring a depth of spirit to the lives of our churches. That is really what the gospel is about: Not separate persons and separate entities trying to figure out what to do in relation to the Kingdom of God, but people who stand in solidarity and offer themselves to the deepest depth of possibility in order to transform the world for the sake of Jesus Christ, that they may learn to love each other in all things.

Pastor Pettis greeted the assembly on behalf of the Rev. Jon Dor Hauer, general minister and president of the UCC. The UCC came together in 1957 around Jesus’ call to unity in the Gospel of John, and this ideal has continued to guide the UCC. The Formula of Agreement has been a vital expression of that commitment to unity in Christ, he said, a unity that does not mean uniformity. It has allowed the churches to maintain their distinctiveness as called by the Spirit while bringing them closer in common mission and ministry. Pastor Pettis expressed joy at being able to join as partners to acknowledge and celebrate this ongoing expression of a mutual commitment to unity in Christ and thanked the assembly for the chance to celebrate the churches’ common ministry in Christ.

Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that the National Council of the Churches of Christ (NCC) in the USA is a vital context for the ecumenical work of this church and stated that she is honored to serve as vice chair of the council with Bishop Teresa Jefferson Snorton of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, the chair of the council. As part of its Act to End Racism Initiative, the NCC organized a global commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the first arrival of West Africans at the site of their enslavement in 2019, and the NCC has continued to engage in anti-racism learning and activism. The NCC has served as a custodian of the Revised Standard Version (RSV) and New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) translations of the Bible. Last year, the NCC announced the launch of an updated edition of the NRSV that is not a new translation, but an updated version of the translation many ELCA churches use for worship and study. The presiding bishop introduced Bishop Vashti Murphy McKenzie, who was named as interim general secretary and president of the NCC earlier in the year. She was elected and consecrated as the 117th bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 2000, the first female elected to episcopal office in that church.

Bishop McKenzie greeted Presiding Bishop Eaton, pointing out that they share a common experience as the first women elected to lead their respective denominations. Bishop McKenzie noted that she had been able to sit among assembly members and hear the good work that the ELCA is doing around the world, and she gave thanks to God for the work of sharing in this harvest and preparing the next generation of faith leaders. The bishop thanked the ELCA for joining in the ecumenical work of the NCC, born when diverse Christian denominations decided to do something about what they saw happening in the world.

Since 1950, the NCC has served as a leading voice for Christ in a common commitment to advocate and represent God’s love and promise of unity. Bishop McKenzie thanked assembly members for joining in this witness, this shared agenda of peace, progress, and positive change. Because of cooperation with churches like the ELCA, the NCC has been able to shoulder the responsibility of doing something about injustices in both community and country. She exhorted the assembly to continue to show love for God and neighbor in real and tangible ways. The NCC has developed tools for local congregations, including a Christian approach to suicide prevention and its newest endeavor, a voter empowerment resource guide that is a church-based plan for action and a voter tool kit.

Bishop McKenzie closed by inviting assembly members to attend the 2022 Christian Unity gathering, the NCC’s annual event to worship, witness, and work on a variety of critical issues. The theme for 2022 was “The Challenge of Change: Serving a Never-Changing Christ in an Ever-Changing World.”

Presiding Bishop Eaton reminded assembly members that, in the early years of this church, the Church Council adopted “A Declaration of the ELCA to the Jewish Community,” repudiating Martin Luther’s anti-Judaic diatribes and seeking right relationship with Jewish neighbors. In 2021, the Church Council approved revisions to this declaration as an expression of this church’s continuing opposition to rising anti-Semitism.
To combat anti-Semitism, the Church Council last fall called for a time of study, reflection, and action, using the declaration and other resources available on the ELCA website, including the newest resource, “Preaching and Teaching with Love and Respect for the Jewish People,” developed by the ELCA Consultative Panel on Lutheran-Jewish Relations.

As this church works to oppose anti-Semitism, it also has been working with Jewish neighbors to oppose anti-Muslim bigotry. In 2010, this church became a founding member of the Shoulder to Shoulder Campaign: Standing with American Muslims, Upholding American Values. This multi-faith coalition has mobilized people of faith to be strategic partners in countering bias and discrimination against Muslims. Ms. Kathryn M. Lohre, executive for ecumenical and inter-religious relations and theological discernment, served as co-chair of this campaign along with Rabbi Esther L. Lederman, director of congregational innovation for the Union for Reformed Judaism, this church’s primary Jewish partner.

Rabbi Lederman offered greetings on behalf of the Union for Reformed Judaism, the largest and most diverse Jewish movement in North America, and related a story from the tradition of the Sassover Rebbe. The Rebbe taught that to love another person means to know what causes them pain. Rabbi Lederman continued by thanking this church for being true friends of the Jewish people, for acknowledging what causes the Jewish community pain, and for standing with our Jewish family to oppose the deadly anti-Semitism still present. She pointed to “A Declaration of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to the Jewish Community,” as an example of what it means to be truth-tellers: It is only when we confront the pain of the past and admit to our complicity that we can look to the future and build the world as it should be.
Rabbi Lederman stressed that Jews and Christians must also show true love for Muslim neighbors. She was proud that the ELCA and the Union for Reformed Judaism were founding members of the Shoulder to Shoulder Campaign to mobilize people of faith to counter anti-Muslim hate. Islamophobia and anti-Muslim hate lives in churches, temples, and in the United States Capitol. She urged the assembly to not underestimate the power leaders and people of faith have to change hearts, souls, minds, and behaviors, and to commit every day to the shared task of building a community that lives up to its ideals of religious freedom and pluralism. In conclusion, she shared a rabbinic teaching that has given her strength when it has felt as though the world is ablaze: “It is not up to you to finish the task, but neither are you free from contributing to it.”

Presiding Bishop Eaton noted that earlier in 2022 the Church Council adopted “A Declaration of the ELCA to the Muslim Community,” uplifting this church’s commitment to friendship and solidarity with its Muslim neighbors. The declaration affirms that the way of dialogue, in which difference is acknowledged and honored, enriches rather than diminishes self-understanding.

For many years, the ELCA has experienced great joy in coming to know Muslim neighbors who are part of the Islamic Society of North America (ISNA). The presiding bishop introduced the head of ISNA’s Office of Interfaith Alliances, Community Alliances, and Government Relations, Imam Saffet Catovic, who was appointed last year to serve in this bridge-building role.

Imam Catovic thanked Presiding Bishop Eaton and the Inter-Religious Outreach team of the ELCA for partnering with ISNA over the years. He conveyed blessings and warmest greetings from Dr. Said Muhammad Said, founding director of ISNA’s Washington, D.C., office for interfaith relations and community partnerships, and who has continued to work in the Shoulder to Shoulder campaign.

Imam Catovic noted that it takes vision to build bridges. When leaders have the strength and courage to build a bridge and cross it, they find that all are mutually enriched by the experience. The stranger of yesterday becomes the neighbor of today and the sibling of tomorrow. He saw the declaration as a milestone and an historic occasion of welcoming. ISNA looks forward to continuing to work together on projects aimed at the unfinished business of addressing racial injustice, ethnic chauvinism, and all forms of xenophobia, working to make this nation the most beloved community, recognized as such around the world because of its inclusiveness and commitment to justice.

Presiding Bishop Eaton concluded by lifting up two major developments, one ecumenical and the other interfaith. In 2020, this church resumed dialogue with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). This dialogue, co-chaired by the Rev. William O. Gafkjen, bishop of the Indiana-Kentucky Synod, and the Rev. Robert D. Cornwall, a Disciples of Christ pastor and theologian, is exploring opportunities and challenges for joint ministry emerging from local case studies. The presiding bishop acknowledged the Rev. Paul S. Tché, president of Christian Ministry and Interfaith Ministry for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), who was present at the assembly.

Also in 2020, the presiding bishop appointed an ad hoc committee to develop pastoral guidelines for ministry in a multi-religious world, as called for in “A Declaration of Inter-Religious Commitment,” adopted by the 2019 Churchwide Assembly. These guidelines were published in the summer of 2022, and the presiding bishop commended them for use. These guidelines allow flexibility, recognizing that effective inter-religious engagement involves authentic relationships coupled with contextual considerations. Presiding Bishop Eaton thanked the committee and its co-chairs, the Rev. Mark N. Swanson and the Rev.
Darrell H. Jodock, along with the thousands of people across this church who participated in a survey to inform this work. She also thanked this church’s partners, both ecumenical and inter-religious, who took part in the review process.

In closing, Presiding Bishop Eaton invited the assembly to join her in thanking the guests for joining the assembly in Columbus and for their commitment to journeying with this church.

Adjournment

The sixth plenary session of the sixteenth Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA adjourned at 5:18 p.m.
Plenary Session Seven
Friday, Aug. 12, 2022
10:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the ELCA reconvened in Hall A of the Greater Columbus Convention Center, Columbus, Ohio, at 10:31 a.m. Mr. Carlos E. Peña, interim vice president of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), called the assembly to order, and shared that he would be chairing this final session because the presiding bishop was ill.

Reference: 2022 Pre-Assembly Report, Section VII, Report of the Memorials Committee; Supplemental Report of the Memorials Committee

Vice President Peña reminded members that, in accordance with assembly rules, any unfinished items of business remaining at the close of the assembly would be referred to the Church Council for disposition. He invited Ms. Cheryl T. Chatman and Mr. Joseph T. Nolte, co-chairs of the Memorials Committee, to continue the report of the committee.

Category B11: Specialized Ministries and On-Leave-from-Call Status

On behalf the Memorials Committee, Mr. Nolte reminded voting members that the business before the assembly was the memorial, “Category B11: Specialized Ministries and On-Leave-from-Call Status,” which had been removed from en bloc. The Memorials Committee had moved the committee’s original response, and a substitute response from the Rev. Elizabeth A. Bier [Northwest Synod of Wisconsin] had also been moved and seconded.

Moved; Seconded: To replace the proposed response with an alternate response as follows:

To receive with gratitude the memorials from the Southwest California Synod, South Dakota Synod, Metropolitan Chicago Synod, Northern Illinois Synod, La Crosse Area Synod, Indiana-Kentucky Synod, Northwestern Ohio Synod, and Lower Susquehanna Synod concerning specialized ministries and on-leave-from-call status;

To direct the Church Council to direct the appropriate churchwide unit to initiate a review process of the “Manual of Policies and Procedures for Management of the Rosters of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America” and the constitutional provisions and policies and procedures as they relate to interim, transition, bridge, specialized, non-parish-based, and innovative calls, as well as on-leave-from-call status, protocols for removal from the rosters, and communication protocols;

To direct the Church Council to ensure that this review process include in its scope of inquiry, but not be limited to: the time limits given for on-leave-from-call, steps for requesting a roster status, and a process by which an action or lack of recommendation from a bishop may be appealed, including the possibility of an appeal in a synod other than the synod from which they were removed from the roster;

To require that those involved in the review process include a diverse group representing both the roster of Word and Sacrament and the roster of Word and Service who are or have recently been involved in specialized ministries (e.g., interim, transition, campus, outdoor, college or seminary faculty, chaplains, etc.), and those currently or recently on leave from call for a variety of reasons (e.g., between calls, family, disability, study, etc.);

To urge bishops and synod councils to use sparingly any action by which a minister is removed from the roster for non-disciplinary reasons, unless the minister requests removal, until this review is complete, especially for those serving contract calls, as supply preachers, and in other ELCA ministries that don't qualify as a call; and

To require that the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization prepare a report and recommendations for consideration by the fall 2024 meeting of the ELCA Church Council.

Vice President Peña explained that, according to the Rules of Organization and Procedure governing the assembly, when a secondary motion had been made, amendments could first be offered to the original motion. After amendments to the original motion had been disposed of, amendments to the substitute motion could then be offered. When all amendments to the substitute motion had been disposed of, a vote would be taken on whether the original motion, including any amendments, or the substitute motion, including any amendments, would be retained.

The Rev. Liesebet E. Gravley [Indiana-Kentucky Synod] offered an amendment to the original motion.

To ask that those involved in the review consult with rostered ministers who are or have recently been involved in specialized ministries (e.g., interim, transition, campus, outdoor, college or seminary faculty, chaplains, etc.), and those currently on leave from call for a variety of reasons (e.g., regular leave from call, family, disability, study, healing from abuse, etc.).
Vice President Peña declared that the motion had passed and invited further amendments to the original motion. There being none, the vice president invited amendments to the substitute motion. Mr. Gregory Shea [Oregon Synod] proposed an amendment to the substitute motion.

Category A4: Greenhouse Gas Reduction

1. Oregon Synod (1E) [2022]

WHEREAS, our faith commands us to love “your neighbors as yourselves” (see Luke 10:27); and

WHEREAS, “made in the image of God, we are called to care for the earth as God cares for the earth;” and

WHEREAS, “the global environment with its finite resources is a common concern of all peoples. The protection of Earth’s vitality, diversity, and beauty is a sacred trust”; and

WHEREAS, the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) reported that in order to avoid catastrophic consequences of climate change, global warming needs to be limited to 1.5 degrees Celsius; and

WHEREAS, the planet has already warmed 1.1 degree Celsius since pre-industrial times, causing record-smashing wildfires, hurricanes, heat waves, droughts, ocean acidification, and species loss; and

WHEREAS, climate change is already leading to the destruction and displacement of people’s homes, food sources, and well-being (leading to at least 30.7 million climate displaced persons in 2020 according to the Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre (IDMC)); and

WHEREAS, Indigenous, Black, People of Color, and communities impacted by poverty have contributed the least to climate change and are the most impacted by it; and

WHEREAS, the United States has contributed more greenhouse gas to the atmosphere historically than any other country; and

WHEREAS, to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by at least 50% by 2030 the United States will need a World War II sized mobilization that includes government investment, public-private partnerships, binding emission reduction targets, and possibly a carbon fee and dividend; and

WHEREAS, a just transition from a fossil-fuel based economy will lead to better health, family-sustaining jobs, clean air and water for communities historically left behind, and a safer, more sustainable future for children and future generations; therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, that the Oregon Synod memorializes the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to direct the churchwide organization continue to call upon the leadership of the United States of America to reduce its greenhouse gas emissions by at least 50% by 2030, generate 100% of its power from clean renewable sources by 2035, and achieve net zero emissions by 2050; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the churchwide organization will continue to equip and encourage congregations, synods, and associated ministries to advocate that the United States of America reduce its greenhouse gas emissions by at least 50% by 2030, generate 100% of its power from clean renewable sources by 2035, and achieve net zero emissions by 2050; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the churchwide organization encourage congregations and synods to advocate for a just transition away from greenhouse gasses where at least 40% of public funding goes towards projects that directly benefit Indigenous, Black, People of Color, and
RESOLVED, that the churchwide organization support these actions through continuing its investments in staff, education, tools, and resources that equip congregations and synods to accomplish this goal and leverage knowledge, skills and experience across the church; and be it further

RESOLVED, that congregants, rostered leaders, and bishops be encouraged to further educate themselves to the urgency of the climate emergency both locally and globally, as well as to the local and global opportunities a just transition will create; and be it further

RESOLVED, that rostered leaders and bishops be encouraged to lift up loving our neighbor in response to the climate emergency through their preaching at least once a month; and be it further

RESOLVED, that this synod and the churchwide organization will encourage and cooperate with Lutherans Restoring Creation and other faith-based and secular organizations that share the commitment to the protection and restoration of the natural world while doing justice for all.

2. Southwest California Synod (2B) [2022]

WHEREAS, in the 2016 ELCA social policy resolution, “Repudiating the Doctrine of Discovery.” (CA16.02.04) this denomination committed to “acknowledge and repent from this church’s complicity in the evils of colonialism in the Americas, which continue to harm tribal governments and individual tribal members,” and Indigenous communities are disproportionately impacted by pipelines, mines, waste incinerators, and other polluting industries that poison the air and water; and

WHEREAS, Indigenous, Black, People of Color and communities impacted by poverty have contributed the least to climate change and are the most impacted by it, and the United States has contributed more greenhouse gas to the atmosphere historically than any other country; and

WHEREAS, in the Earth Charter, adopted by the 2019 ELCA Churchwide Assembly, it states that “the global environment with its finite resources is a common concern of all peoples. The protection of Earth’s vitality, diversity, and beauty is a sacred trust;” and

WHEREAS, the planet has already warmed 1.1 degrees Celsius (2.1 degrees Fahrenheit) since preindustrial times, causing record-smashing wildfires, hurricanes, heat waves, droughts, ocean acidification, and species loss; and

WHEREAS, to have a realistic chance of not exceeding 1.5 degrees Celsius of warming the United States must reduce greenhouse gas emissions by at least 50% by 2030 and reach equitable net zero emissions by 2050, and the United States will need action similar to that of its mobilization during World War II that includes government investment, public-private partnerships, binding emission reduction targets, and possibly a carbon fee and dividend; and

Resolution of Appreciation for Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton

We, the members of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, give thanks to God for the leadership of our Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton.

We celebrate her dedication to inclusivity, inter-faith relationships, ecumenism, and anti-racism. Her witness of loving our neighbors inspires us to live the gospel in the same way.

We give thanks for her courage in leading us into opposition as we continue to work against racism, from the Declaration of the ELCA to People of African Descent, to Black Lives Matter, to the Apology to Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina, and to the many injustices suffered by those who are marginalized or oppressed. She, furthermore, led the churchwide organization, our synods, and our congregations through the multitude of challenges—theological, practical, logistical, legal, financial, and organizational—resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic beginning in 2020 and continuing to this day.

We congratulate her for expertly presiding over this, her third Churchwide Assembly, and for her eloquent and inspiring report to the assembly and for sharing with us her intellect, wit, faith, prophetic voice, and boundless grace and patience.

\end{quote}

The voting members of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America wish to express their gratitude and appreciation for your service as interim vice president following the untimely death of ELCA Vice President Bill Horne on August 14, 2021. Despite having served 19 years as a member of the Church Council, including 13 years as vice president, you willingly returned to complete the remaining term until your successor’s term begins. You embody the word, and we extend our thanks to you, Interim Vice President Carlos Peña.

We are church, we are church together! And through your tireless example of unwavering fortitude as a servant-leader, together we have and are becoming better equipped and positioned to effectuate change for the sake of the world. We do so in our efforts as judicious stewards, as advocates for social justice, in our care and protection of God’s creation, as we stand in solidarity with and respond to those in need and, most importantly, as we proclaim and share the gospel that is ours in Jesus Christ.

We profess that a good steward is one who gives of his or her time, talent, and treasures. To do so with humility, determination, and prayer-inspired guidance is indicative of what we have come to know and appreciate in you.
Thank you, Carlos; for you are indeed a “good and faithful servant.”

Report of the Presiding Bishop

Part One: Written Report

Our church and our world have experienced incredible changes during the past two-and-a-half years. It was a short seven months after the closing of the 2019 assembly that our lives were upended by the COVID-19 pandemic, and now, it feels as if we are living in another world. When we talk about the past few years, many of us speak in terms of “before the pandemic” or “since the pandemic began.” But there is no pre-pandemic or post-pandemic language when we speak about the church. We are still the church—that has remained constant. We are church, and we are church together.

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly meets under the theme, “Embody the Word.” There is double meaning in both words. “Embody” means both the incarnation of Jesus Christ who became human and then “embody” also signifies the life of the church as we emerge from the pandemic. “Word” means both: Jesus Christ and scripture. Luke 24:45 states, “Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures.” We embody the Word, both Jesus and the scripture, by speaking it and proclaiming it. In the ELCA, we have been speaking and proclaiming the gospel for 35 years, as well as decades before 1987 in our predecessor bodies.

Over the past few years, we have journeyed into new ways of being church together, both virtually and in person. People who had never set foot in our churches heard the gospel—many for the first time. I am grateful to God for the incredible creativity and resilience shown by congregations and for the dedication of pastors and deacons who embody the Word as they continue their work of sharing the gospel and caring for their communities.

Through the COVID-19 Appeal, ELCA members embodied the Word through immense generosity to bolster important ministries supported by our congregations. These funds helped congregations replenish food pantries and feeding ministries, deliver medication and daily necessities to at-risk populations, set up hand-sanitizing stations at churches and clinics, and establish pastoral care through telecommunications. Internationally, in partnership with our companion synods, ELCA members helped provide medical supplies and personal protection equipment for health clinics and community centers, financial assistance for those whose livelihoods were affected, and psychosocial support and pastoral care.

The pandemic also brought into sharp focus how communities of color are disproportionately impacted as a result of decades of economic, political, and environmental factors. In the days following the murder of George Floyd, our country awakened to a racial reckoning. Many of our congregations embarked on racial justice work in their communities. They embodied the Word as they engaged in racial justice trainings, deepened commitments to service in their neighborhoods, and established ministries to address racism.

The assembly offers an opportunity to look back and reflect. Building upon that reflection this church looks forward to new ways of sharing the gospel. Five hundred years ago, Martin Luther took hold of the new technology of the printing press and modernized communication by translating the Bible into German, the language of the people. Now, 500 years later, we need to find new ways to speak in the cultural vernacular. This doesn’t mean we water down or minimize the gospel. Rather we continue to share the good news, to make it rooted in tradition and radically relevant. We believe that the gospel changes lives. It is a word of grace and liberation.

Moving into the future, we all must work together to embody the Word to share this powerful witness of the gospel in the world, inviting more new, young, and diverse people to experience God’s grace in action. As church, we are striving to embody community, to embody justice, to embody love.

There will be important decisions made at this assembly. One of the most important is the election of a new vice president. Carlos Peña has been serving as interim vice president following the death of Bill Horne last August. Bill faithfully served as ELCA vice president for 5 years. He embodied the Lutheran understanding of vocation as a husband, father, and city manager of Clearwater, Fla.

So now, as church together, we consider the work before us during this assembly. Let us open our minds to Jesus and the Scriptures. Through the grace of God, let us Embody the Word.

God’s peace,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop

“Thank you, Vice President Peña.

“The last time we were together as the churchwide assembly was in August 2019. Little did we know that we were hurtling toward a global pandemic. Who knew? Some of us have not seen each other for three years, or, even back in our own communities, for two-and-a-half years. And who knew that even at this time we would still have to say, ‘You're on mute’?

“As interim Vice President Peña has already indicated, this was a very different time for all of us, and it required all kinds of ingenuity, skill, dedication, strength, perseverance, and stamina. I thank our bishops, pastors, and deacons for their hard work during this time. I have heard from pastors and deacons that this has been particularly draining, making sure that they could provide online services and worship as well as all of their regular duties, and trying to figure out how they could still be connected to their people. So, thank you, and could we have our pastors and deacons stand up to give them some thanks?

“Also, can the bishops please stand so we can thank them?

[Assembly participants responded with applause.]

“And thanks to all of the lay leaders in our congregations and across the ecology of this church who had to transition from being just on the [congregation] council to being ‘Jacks of all trades’ and learning about communication. So, thank you for your continued effort and support.

“I have been greatly impressed by the resilience and creativity of congregations and worshiping communities. Before the pandemic, we could call a congregation and get an answering machine, not even voicemail, which in some cases, at this point, might still have the times for the Easter services. But in just a few weeks, you transitioned to online, and it went from, maybe, an iPhone or a cell phone on a music stand to really some creative and effective ways of having worship together. That just happened in a couple of weeks. We have some congregations that still have dial-up, and some congregations that don't have access to internet at all, but you managed to find a way to give the gospel free course in the world and to make sure that the gospel could be heard. We know that people who had never set foot into one of our churches were listening to the gospel and becoming part of that community on a regular basis. That's remarkable. Sometimes people think Lutherans don't like change---we can change!

“We have been working to see how we can be more adaptable and nimble and respond more quickly, and one wonderful example of that, as the vice president mentioned, was the COVID-19 response. By March 20th, at least in Chicago, we were all shut down, and some of us had been calling synod bishops to see what the needs in their synods were. What was going on since everything was closed down? They cited Bible camps and technology issues, and asked what we will do about campus ministries, and our congregations have hunger ministries. What can we do to support these during this pandemic?

“And, so, we decided to have a COVID-19 appeal. We quickly put together a small group to say, ‘When we’re asking people to apply for these grants, what are the criteria?’ That got put together in a weekend; we also assembled a team to review the grants submitted to us from your synods by your bishops, and we had different levels of awards of grants. The granting team met for many cycles, and we thought, ‘Maybe, just maybe, we could receive $500,000 to start these grants.’ We have received, to date, over $1.5 million, and by the beginning of April 2020, the first grants went out.

[Assembly participants responded with applause.]

“These grants, as we heard yesterday from Bishop Dillahunt, went to a variety of ministries. They supported our hunger ministries, because hunger didn't get shut down during COVID. There was technology for live-streaming web access for school children in underserved areas. Our Bible camps were supported. I did an interview early in the pandemic with CNN. They were talking about places where churches did not embrace the CDC mandates for keeping each other safe, and they were sure that churches had just sort of stopped doing business. Finally, one of the interviewers said, ‘Has the church shut down? Is the church closed?’ I told her that the Church never closed. Worship, Bible study, checking in on members and neighbors, hunger ministries, serving communities, prayer groups, open air worship, that all became more visible in our communities, and we never shut down.

“A colleague told me an anecdote that he had heard. The devil said, ‘Aha! I've closed all of your churches!’ to which the person answered, ‘Ah, but we've opened a church in every home.’ We worked on the Future Church new design that was developed online in little squares. We worked on this for at least a year, and you've heard already some of the vision goals in mission. This is something that we must do as we are led and activated by the Holy Spirit as the whole church. You can't do it by yourself in your congregation, but we depend on you to take care of that part of the vineyard on behalf of all the rest of us. We also have many, many partners in ministry. We have camps and colleges and universities, seminars, and social ministry organizations, all of these people in this vast ecology, and we want to activate and use each of us. If you think about it, if we want to talk to young people and more diverse people, our college campuses are full of them. Why are we not seeing the college campuses completely as an extension or part of our effort?

“We know the staffs of our social ministry organizations are far more diverse than most of our other institutions, and they are also in contact with people. One in fifty Americans is touched by Lutheran Services in America each year. Why are we not engaging and letting them help and teach us?

[Assembly participants responded with applause.]

“We are going to hear in a little bit about three areas of activity in particular, but there are some very interesting things that have been happening. We have done some research with Generation Z, actual interviews. We have a number of these things which we are hoping to make more apparent to all of you, but first I want you to hear about some of the things that we have been doing at the churchwide organization. Not only did we create an innovation home area, but we started a program called ‘The Collaborative’ that is building a foundation for innovative work for all of us across this church that we might then share and spread out for all of us. Kimberly Jackson, director, leadership development, and co-convener of The Collaborative, is here to tell you more.

[Ms. Jackson addressed the assembly, followed by applause.]

“Thank you, Ms. Jackson, for sharing such an inspiration with us. It is amazing what we can do when we come together and push ourselves to be innovative in new ways, and you would have noticed that the timeframe for each project was very short, in church terms. That is just one example of how we are living into what it means to be a more innovative, agile organization. It is a lot of change, and oftentimes it requires us to let go of ‘the way we’ve always done it.’ In some cases, we know we have a lot to learn, and we also know that we have some things to share. Rebecca Payne is our program manager for the ‘Congregations Lead’ initiative. This new program is generously funded by a Lilly Grant and is one of the ways we are sharing what we know about innovation with congregations. I’ve asked Rebecca to join me on stage to share more about this exciting initiative.

“Thank you very much, Becca. I’m sure I speak for all of us when I say I’m very excited to hear more about what you are learning and sharing with one another as you continue this great work. When I think about innovation I also think about transformation. At the 2016 Churchwide Assembly we made an unprecedented commitment to becoming a more authentically diverse church, and, in 2019, at our assembly in Milwaukee, we almost unanimously adopted a strategy for authentic diversity which is in a document called ‘How Strategic and Authentic Is Our Diversity: A Call for Confession, Reflection, and Healing Action.’ There are important recommendations in the document, and I encourage everyone to visit eca.org/justice to find that document and many more resources. Today, I invite the Rev. Nicolette Marie Peñaranda, the program director for African Descent Ministry Strategies, to join me to share a few exciting things that she has been working on that have brought life to some of these recommendations.

“Thank you, Pastor Peñaranda. As you can see, the Church never closed. If God still has a use for an Evangelical Lutheran Church in America witness to the gospel, we cannot be stopped. However, if God has decided that we have completed our work, there is no program that will save us. So, this is done entirely, we believe, in response to guidance from the Holy Spirit to give the gospel free course in the world and to tell the old, old story in new ways. Martin Luther, in 1522, translated the Bible into German because he thought it was important for people to hear the Word in their own vernacular. We need to change now so that we can access the cultural vernacular, which is not the same as what we are used to doing for the last 35 years in this church. There are various voices, various communities; it cannot simply be a voice of European descent doing this, because all of these people have always been a part of the Lutheran Church since the very beginning.

“They are not additions or add-ons; they are an integral part of our church whom God has sent as gifts for us to be strengthened that we might be more effective in reaching people so that they may know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love.

“Many thanks to the churchwide staff, thank you for your work. I also thank my brother and sister bishops, with whom I have been in conversation and who have helped me in the churchwide organization to understand what might be more effective in their territories. The secular world thought that when COVID-19 came and everything got locked down, the Church had closed, but the Church has never closed. It is God’s Church, and it will be God’s will that this church will continue to be a place where grace is known and experienced and God's love is known for all. Thank you.”

Report of the Secretary

Embody the Word. That is the theme around which this church will assemble when we gather in Columbus in August. Staff members of the Office of the Secretary have been embedded in words as we seek to prepare for that assembly. We share word of some of those words in this report.

Future Church/New Office of the Secretary

On Feb. 1, 2021, the churchwide organization ushered in Future Church. While the work and staff of the former Office of the Secretary continue, we are grateful for the new Office of the Secretary (OS) which now includes the areas of Synod Relations, Governance, and Research and Evaluation. We have appreciated new opportunities to work together and value the even closer collegial relationships that this new design allows.

Churchwide Assembly-related matters

Constitutional Revisions

Official notice was sent to synod bishops in January 2022 of constitutional revisions the Church Council is proposing for possible action at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. The constitutional changes, as well as rationale for these changes, are available for voting members to review in the Pre-Assembly Report.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee has been at work for the past two years to provide slates to the 2022 Churchwide Assembly for the Committee on Appeals, the Nominating Committee, the Committee on Discipline, and youth members of the Church Council, as well as nominations for the boards of separately incorporated ministries. Nominations from the floor may be submitted either electronically using the CWA Guide app or on paper forms to the Nominations Desk of the assembly prior to the deadline of Tuesday, Aug. 9, 11:45 A.M. The rules for nominations can be found in the Pre-Assembly Report. We are grateful to the entire committee for its work, and particularly thank Louis Moehlmann for his willingness to serve as chair.

Memorials Committee

The Memorials Committee met June 24–25, 2022, to review the 78 memorials submitted by synod assemblies during the past triennium and make appropriate recommendations for assembly action. The Report of the Memorials Committee is available as part of the Pre-Assembly Report. The Memorials Committee has asked the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to separately consider three memorials. The remaining memorials will be acted upon en bloc, that is, in one group. Voting members at the assembly have until Tuesday, Aug. 9, 11:45 a.m., to request that memorials contained in the original report be pulled out of en bloc or be amended, or that a substitute motion be considered. We are grateful to the entire committee for its work, and particularly thank Cheryl Chatman and Joe Nolte for their willingness to serve as co-chairs.
Churchwide Assembly hearings

The Churchwide Assembly Planning Team took the lead from synod assembly experiences and decided to host hearings online prior to the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. We hope this new online format provides more time for voting members to become sufficiently informed regarding legislative business and other important matters before the assembly. Hearings are non-legislative sessions designed to hear certain proposals scheduled for assembly action or information sessions at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. According to the “Rule for Hearings,” voting members, advisory members, resource members, and other categories approved by the Church Council may attend with voice. Others may watch the hearing through identified livestream options and shall not have voice.

The dates and times for the three scheduled hearings are:

- Aug. 2, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): 2023–2025 budget proposal.
- Aug. 3, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): General session on memorials.
- Aug. 4, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): Listening event for “government and civil engagement” social statement.

The presentation portion of the hearings will be recorded for viewing later. More information about registering for the Zoom webinar or watching the livestream will be posted at www.elca.org/churchwideassembly.

Vice president election

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly will be electing a vice president for a six-year term. In 2018, the following continuing resolution was adopted by the Church Council:

_In a year when the vice president or secretary shall be elected, the voting members elected to serve at the Churchwide Assembly shall be invited to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president or secretary. Names shall be submitted to the Office of the Secretary at least four months prior to the assembly. The Office of the Secretary shall contact those persons identified and request biographical information. At least 60 days prior to the Churchwide Assembly, the biographical information received from those persons open to consideration shall be distributed to the voting members._

In mid-February 2022, voting members of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly received a letter inviting them to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president; a follow-up reminder was sent in mid-March. The deadline for submitting names was April 1. Those identified were asked to return a biographical information form if they were interested in having their names considered. The names and biographical information of those who returned forms by May 1 are included in the Pre-Assembly Report. We did not report the number of times a person’s name was identified, nor did we share the names of those who did not return biographical forms. The biographical information will remain available until the assembly convenes on Aug. 9 and then will be removed from the online materials. The first ballot for vice president will be an ecclesiastical ballot where voting members can vote for any lay member of an ELCA congregation, whether pre-identified or not.

As we prepare to elect a new vice president, my thoughts turn to our beloved colleague, Bill Horne, who served in that role just shy of five years. I was grateful for the opportunity to attend Bill’s funeral in August 2021. As I walked into the worship space, I was struck that, in addition to countless photos of Bill shown on the screens, there were several of Bill’s quotes displayed. One struck a particularly poignant note for me: “But faith provides you with an understanding of how to reconcile death.”

As we all have struggled to reconcile ourselves to Bill’s sudden and unexpected death, Bill’s thought-filled and faith-filled words provide a comforting reminder of resurrection promise. It was a gift to be able to join with others in celebrating the wonderful ways in which Bill lived out his various senses of vocation. As Bishop Eaton so poignantly stated in her sermon at the funeral, while we in the ELCA thought he was our Bill, he was a man who was so highly respected and loved in so many contexts: the military, the city of Clearwater, the Florida-Bahamas Synod, his local congregation, and his family and friends. Thanks be to God for this man who enriched the lives of so many and embodied his faith so deeply in the many ways he lived out his call.

This church is deeply indebted to Carlos Peña for his gracious willingness to step into the role of interim vice president, having served as vice president from 2003–2016. While I had gotten to know Carlos from his previous service on the Church Council, it has been a gift to work with him more closely during these past several months. He brings such a sense of vocation to his work on behalf of this church and shares his wisdom and experience so generously and graciously!

Synod-related matters

Synod Assemblies/Electronic meetings

The World Health Organization (WHO) declared COVID-19 a global pandemic on March 11, 2020. On Friday, March 13, the Conference of Bishops received recommendations from the Office of the Presiding Bishop and the Office of the Secretary regarding postponing synod assemblies. I am grateful to former Secretary David Swartling for offering his wise legal and parliamentary counsel as we formulated that initial set of recommendations. Little did we know how many times we would need to amend those initial recommendations!

As congregations and synods wrestled with the complexities of holding meetings during a time of pandemic, the Office of the Secretary consulted frequently with bishops, synod attorneys, and others as questions arose. In addition, OS sponsored a series of question-and-answer sessions with bishops, synod officers, and synod staff to address the legal and constitutional issues posed by the need for remote meetings. These were summarized in a resource document that was made widely available to synods and congregations on ELCA.org to help them navigate the situation.

OS continues to urge synods and congregations to review their constitutions and consider amendments that will allow more flexibility regarding the timing of assemblies and regular meetings and the election and terms of officers and council members. Thankfully, where constitutions were rigid or vague, state codes often provided helpful guidance. The 12th edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, published in 2020, includes expanded information regarding electronic meetings.

The 2020 synod assembly season was extremely challenging, as synods needed to make decisions in the early days of the pandemic regarding bishop elections. With good cooperation and resourcing between the Office of the Secretary and the synods holding elections, and between the synods themselves, 10 synods were able to hold productive assemblies, electing nine new bishops:
Bishop Virginia S. Aebischer (South Carolina Synod)
Bishop Laura L. Barbins (Northeastern Ohio Synod)
Bishop Amy L. Current (Southeastern Iowa Synod)
Bishop Christopher deForest (Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod)
Bishop Anne C. Edison-Albright (East-Central Synod of Wisconsin)
Bishop Tessa R. Moon Leiseth (Eastern North Dakota Synod)
Bishop Joy F. Mortensen-Wiebe (South-Central Synod of Wisconsin)
Bishop Amy J. Odgren (Northeastern Minnesota Synod)
Bishop Craig A. Schweitzer (Western North Dakota Synod)

Seven new bishops were elected in 2021:

Bishop Brenda K. Bos (Southwest California Synod)
Bishop Kevin T. Jones (Northeastern Iowa Synod)
Bishop Felix J. Malpica (La Crosse Area Synod)
Bishop Lee M. Miller II (Upstate New York Synod)
Bishop Diane H. Pederson (Southwestern Minnesota Synod)
Former Bishop Megan M. Rohrer (Sierra Pacific Synod)
Bishop Paula J. Schmitt (Allegheny Synod)

Four new bishops were elected in 2022:

Bishop-elect Stacie R. Fidlar (Northern Illinois Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect Scott A. Johnson (Nebraska Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect Craig A. Miller (Upper Susquehanna Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect David C. Nagler (Pacifica Synod), term begins August 1, 2022

New Bishops Formation 2022, part one, was held at the Lutheran Center in Chicago June 27–30, 2022. Part two of the Formation will occur Sept. 25–26, prior to the fall gathering of the Conference of Bishops.
We are abundantly grateful to the 65 synod bishops who are part of the Conference of Bishops for their faith-filled service to their individual synods and to the whole church.

Synod vice presidents
The synod vice presidents met electronically the weekend of Oct. 8–9, 2021, welcoming newly elected vice presidents and providing an orientation and overview of the responsibilities and role of synod vice president. Several members of the Office of the Secretary presented information regarding constitutions, roster matters, legal concerns, and bishop elections. The synod vice presidents look forward to gathering in-person at the Churchwide Assembly and will continue to regularly meet online to receive information and updates regarding their role as vice president.

Synod secretaries
The Office of the Secretary held a webinar for synod secretaries in September 2021. Mindful that both new and ongoing secretaries would be in attendance, we provided a general overview of the role and responsibilities of the office. We intend to make this an annual event as we welcome those new to this role following synod assembly elections in the spring and learn from those who have held these roles for several years.
Priority work during the past triennium

Committee on Appeals/Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline

The Office of the Secretary convened the Committee on Appeals in early January 2020. This is one of the committees elected by the Churchwide Assembly, and its responsibilities are outlined in Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In short, they are tasked with receiving “appeals from disciplinary proceedings and petitions for the recall of an officer,” [20.20] and they “shall establish definitions and guidelines, subject to approval by the Church Council, to enable clear and uniform application of the grounds for discipline of officers, rostered ministers, congregations, and members of congregations.” [20.21] It is for the latter task that they were convened. The committee is constitutionally tasked with electing its own officers, and the following were elected: Mr. Murray Sagsveen, chair; the Rev. Fritz Fowler, vice chair; and the Rev. Cheryl Meinschein, secretary.

At the spring 2021 Church Council meeting the Committee on Appeals proposed revisions to Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline to address: (a) changes to the rosters and entrance rite adopted by the 2016 and 2019 Churchwide Assemblies; (b) changes to the law related to same-gender marriage; and (c) changes to the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA. Following the adoption of these revisions, the committee commenced a full, substantive review of Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline. The committee undertook a listening process that involved four townhall sessions, a detailed survey, nine regional consultations with bishops, and individual sessions with various constituencies such as ethnic ministry associations and the LBGTQIA+ community. They then began a year-long drafting process, meeting every two weeks. Careful attention was paid to the social statements and social messages of this church. At various points in the process the Conference of Bishops was updated and given opportunity for feedback. The result was an up-to-date document with clearer definitions and more attention to topics that research had indicated needed to be revised or addressed for the first time. The draft was given final approval by the Church Council in April 2021, with the committee then charged with adding a definition of “promiscuity” to the “Definitions” section of the document, which was provided in November 2021. In all, the process spanned two years.

After meeting for two years online (sometimes bi-monthly!), the Committee on Appeals finally gathered in-person in Chicago this past March. The committee approved editorial revisions to the “Rules Governing Discipline Proceedings against Rostered Ministers and Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America,” which were approved by the Church Council at its April 2022 meeting. We also had the opportunity to thank outgoing members/officers Murray Sagsveen, the Rev. Fritz Fowler, and the Rev. Cheryl Meinschein and enjoy a celebratory dinner as a sign of appreciation for the committee’s many hours of dedicated work revising Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline.

We share words of gratitude for the diligence so many congregations have demonstrated in submitting their annual Congregation Reports during a time of such disruption of the usual patterns.

Measuring average weekly worship attendance continues to be a challenge, with new complexity added as congregations have moved into hybrid in-person and online worship and have gone back and forth between varying combinations of the two. There is no single...
formula that can accurately reflect the realities of the many congregational contexts, unfortunately. We encourage congregations to do their best at providing appropriate information for their situations.

The Office of the Secretary is working on revisions of the annual Congregation Report forms, with a goal of improving online submission and simplifying the whole process. Improvements to the congregation trend report will also be unveiled this fall, with a simplified graphic dashboard-style reporting of the statistics for each congregation appearing alongside the more detailed trend report we are all used to.

We are making improvements to the congregation information that appears in the online ELCA Directory, including more detailed information about accessibility for persons with disabilities that will allow those seeking a congregation to search for congregations that can meet their needs. We are also working to make it easier for congregations to request updates to their directory information.

The pandemic has highlighted the need to look toward increased digitization of important documents such as roster files. The Office of the Secretary is in the early stages of developing a list of “best practices” for synods to consider when looking toward digitization of the files in their keeping. If your synod is already working on digitization of files, we would encourage synod staff to contact the Rev. Keith Fry in OS, because we would like to put together a small working group to develop guidelines and suggestions that would be helpful to other synods across this church.

No report of the secretary would be complete without words of appreciation for the dedicated staff of this office. Weekly meetings of my direct reports (Dana Adams, Deanna Brend, Tom Cunniff, Keith Fry, MaryAnn Schwabe, and Jodi Slattery) provide both good counsel for one another and good humor! This church is blessed by the faithful and skilled work performed by the whole staff of OS: Adam DeHoek, Dan Eppley, Aja Favors, Lauren Gioe, Jennifer Johnson, Marit Johnson, Cathy Lundeen, Rosa Perez, Christina Ptack, Joseph Schmidt, Rob Thoma, Joel Thoreson, and Natalie Young. And we are grateful for the ongoing support and wisdom of those who have served as secretaries of this church: the Rev. Lowell Almen, David Swartling, and the Rev. Chris Boerger.

These next days will be extraordinarily busy ones for the Office of the Secretary. I invite your prayers and your patience as we attempt to respond as quickly and helpfully as possible to the many communications we receive. As steeped as we will be in words during these coming days, may we also stay centered in the ways in which we embody the Word for this church and for the world.

Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, together with

- Mr. Dana Adams, director for meeting management
- Mr. Thomas Cunniff, general counsel for the ELCA
- The Rev. N. Keith Fry, executive for administration, Office of the Secretary
- Deacon MaryAnn Schwabe, executive for synod relations
- Ms. Jodi Slattery, executive for governance
Part Two: Churchwide Assembly Presentation

“Embody the Word. While those of us in the Office of the Secretary have been living with this theme for months as we prepared for this churchwide assembly, it has at times seemed more like we were embedded, enmeshed, and engulfed in words as we spent months preparing the constitutional amendments brought before you, reviewed the more than one thousand pages of materials for the Pre-Assembly Report, and drafted the numerous emails to voting members in anticipation of this gathering.

“For staff of the Office of the Secretary, with backgrounds in publishing, law, rhetoric, theology, communication, family systems theory, history, and research, words matter. But in our call to serve this church, the Word matters even more.

“When I lead workshops on the Model Constitution for Congregations, I like to point out that the required sections are part of every congregation’s governing documents because they speak to the ways, as Bishop Eaton would say, that we are Church, we are Lutheran, we are Church together, and we are Church for the sake of the world. That is true of the Constitution for Synods and the constitution of our whole church. And while these documents contain a lot of words, those words are informed by the Word, for, as we read in Chapter 2 of our church’s constitution, ‘The Confession of Faith:’

“The proclamation of God’s message to us as both law and gospel is the Word of God revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.

“Words and the Word—the governing documents of this church are shaped by both. Heidi Shreck in her Broadway play, What the Constitution Means to Me, begins her analysis by saying that the U.S. Constitution is a living document. The same could and should be said about the constitutions of this church. Every three years, this assembly has the opportunity to breathe new life into those documents as we take action on amendments that have been forwarded for our consideration. Yesterday’s action to establish a Commission for a Renewed Lutheran Church will be another way to live into making our constitutions living documents.

“Since the last churchwide assembly, the Office of the Secretary collected changes to the constitution, working with the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee of the Church Council to review and vet these suggestions before bringing them before the ELCA Church Council for action at November’s council meeting prior to the churchwide assembly. Those amendments were then shared, per our constitution, with the synods six months prior to the assembly so that they can be fully acted upon at this assembly and implemented following this assembly. This assembly will then act on those amendments during our plenary session tomorrow afternoon.

“Prior to yesterday’s deadline, the Reference and Counsel Committee received requests for additional amendments to those originally proposed and requests to remove certain amendments from en bloc. As we anticipate acting upon those requests, let me provide you with a very brief ‘Constitution 101,’ so you are familiar with the steps necessary to amend our constitution.

“The constitution of this whole church contains three types of provisions: constitutional provisions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions. Options for amending these three types of provisions are outlined in chapter 22 of our constitution:
“For amendments to constitutional provisions, which are indicated in bold face type, there are two tracks for amendment:

“Those amendments that have been proposed by the Church Council require a single, two-thirds vote of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly.

“Any amendments proposed on the floor of the assembly by 25 or more voting members require a two-thirds vote of this assembly, and then must be ratified three years from now by a second two-thirds vote of the 2025 Churchwide Assembly.

“Bylaws, which are printed in regular light face type in the constitution, can be amended with a single two-thirds vote of this assembly. Amendments can be proposed either by the church council or by 15 or more voting members.

“Continuing resolutions, which are printed in italics, require a simple majority for amendment with one vote by this assembly. The church council is also empowered to adopt continuing resolutions by a two-thirds vote.

“While the constitutional amendments are one of the major responsibilities of our office in preparation for each churchwide assembly, I want to highlight a few items from my written report during my time with you today.

“As stated in that report, we are grateful for the diligence of so many congregations in submitting their annual Congregation Reports during these extraordinary past few years. Measuring average weekly worship attendance continues to be a challenge, with new complexity added as congregations have moved into hybrid in-person and online worship and gone back and forth between varying combinations of the two. Unfortunately, there is no single formula that can accurately reflect the realities of these changing congregational contexts, and we encourage congregations to do their best in providing appropriate information for their situations.

“Since my written report was completed, Adam DeHoek, our OS staff member who oversees the collection of annual congregation report information, has had an opportunity to more fully analyze the data of the last three years and offers these very high level observations:

“The number of organized congregations declined from 2019 to 2021 at approximately one percent per year.

“The number of baptized members declined from 2019 to 2021 at between three and four percent per year.

“The general trend in baptized members received was, not surprisingly, a substantial decrease between 2019 and 2020, followed by an increase between 2020 and 2021.

“Between 2019 and 2021, the number of baptized members removed decreased in each passing year. The decline in the number of baptized members removed was steeper between 2019 and 2020 at 4.3 percent than it was between 2020 and 2021 at 1.5 percent.

“The number of baptized members who were confirmed decreased between 2019 and 2020 at 9.2 percent, but then was followed by an increase from 2020 to 2021 of 11.6 percent. The number of baptized members who were confirmed in 2021 was higher than in 2019.
“The number of active participants decreased 11.2 percent between 2019 and 2020, and between 2020 and 2021, the decline slowed to 7.4 percent.

“As we can see from this data, the pandemic has undoubtedly influenced everything from general participation to baptisms. The data from 2021 shows some signs for hope and stability, and we anticipate that the data for the next triennium will provide more accurate and helpful information related to participation levels in the life of our church as we move forward.

“Speaking of data, I am happy to announce that through a collaboration between the Office of the Secretary and the churchwide organization’s Information Technology team, we have now launched a new dashboard-style version of the congregation trend report. This means that when people seeking a congregation look at the trend report, they will find a more visually appealing, easily comprehensible representation of the data about the congregation. The traditional form is still available when you click the ‘printer-ready’ option. We have also enhanced information about accessibility options for those who are seeking a congregation that can meet their needs or the needs of family and friends. We give thanks to Bethlehem Evangelical Lutheran Church in Chicago for allowing us to use their information.

“Another part of my report I wish to highlight is the election process for vice president. In 2016, this church, for the first time, chose to use an identification process prior to the churchwide assembly to lift up the names of those eligible and willing to serve in this role. In 2018, the ELCA Church Council passed a continuing resolution which states:

“In a year when the vice president or secretary shall be elected, the voting members elected to serve at the churchwide assembly shall be invited to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president or secretary.

“This process was then used in electing a secretary in 2019, and as you as voting members are well aware, that identification process was once again used in preparation for electing a vice president at this assembly.

“As we sit in the midst of that process today, my thoughts turn to our beloved colleague who was lifted up and elected vice president in 2016, Bill Horne, who served in that role just shy of five years. I was grateful for the opportunity to attend Bill’s funeral in August 2021. As I walked into the worship space, I was struck that, in addition to the countless photos of Bill shown on the screens, there were several of Bill’s quotes displayed. One struck a particularly poignant note for me: ‘But faith provides you with an understanding of how to reconcile death.’ As we all have struggled to reconcile ourselves to Bill’s sudden and unexpected death, Bill’s thought-filled and faith-filled words provide a comforting reminder of resurrection promise.

“It was a gift to be able to join with others in celebrating the wonderful ways in which Bill lived out his various senses of vocation. As Bishop Eaton so poignantly stated in her funeral sermon, while we in the ELCA thought he was our Bill, he was a man who was so highly respected and loved in so many contexts: the military, the city of Clearwater, the Florida-Bahamas Synod, his local congregation, his family and friends. Thanks be to God for this man who enriched the lives of so many and embodied his faith so deeply in the many ways he lived out his call.

“We are deeply indebted to Carlos Peña for his gracious willingness to step into the role of interim vice president, having served as vice president from 2003 to 2016. While I had gotten to know Carlos from his previous service on the Church Council, it has been such a gift to work with him more closely during these past several months. He brings such a sense of vocation to his work on behalf of this church and shares his wisdom and experience so generously and graciously.

“When I think of others who embody such a sense of vocation and who have and continue to share their wisdom and their experience generously and graciously, I think of my predecessors in this role, the Rev. Lowell Almen, David Swartling, and the Rev. Chris Boerger. Would you please stand and receive the thanks of this assembly.

“It is my predecessors who often spoke of the Office of the Secretary as a service unit to the whole church. This is an apt description of the ways in which this office supports congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization. It has been my privilege to work with the Office of the Secretary Leadership Team and the entire staff of gifted and committed colleagues that serve this church and this assembly in so many and various ways, and I would like for them to stand and for this assembly to thank them for the many ways in which they have assisted the assembly both preparing and now.

“What a gift it is to serve with them, with the members of the administrative team, with the Church Council, with the Conference of Bishops, with this assembly, as together we care for the living words of this church and boldly embody and proclaim the living Word of God. Thank you.

2022 CHURCHWIDE ASSEMBLY MINUTES
Appendix C
Roster Statistics

The secretary is responsible for maintaining the official rosters of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. These include the rosters of congregations, ministers of Word and Service, and ministers of Word and Sacrament.

Roster of Congregations

The ELCA counted 8,894 congregations on December 31, 2020, including 71 congregations under development.

The record of those added to the roster of congregations is indicated in Table 1.

The record of removals from the roster of congregations by categories is shown in Table 2.

The process for withdrawal of a congregation is specified by constitutional provisions 9.62. and 9.71. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

“Merged” is defined as involving a congregation giving up its separate identity and uniting with an already existing congregation (i.e., being merged into an existing congregation).

“Consolidated” is defined as involving two or more congregations that join together to become a new entity with a new name and a new congregation identification number (i.e., the congregations are consolidated to become a new congregation).

The roster of congregations is published online in the ELCA digital directory, prepared by staff of the Office of the Secretary. Congregations that have been received into this church or that have been consolidated, merged, withdrawn, disbanded, or removed are listed online in the digital directory.

Roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament

As of December 31, 2021, the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church listed a total of 15,371 ministers of Word and Sacrament. Included in that number were 4,665 women, six who did not identify on the gender binary, and 785 persons of color or whose primary language is other than English.

Additions to the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament take place only in the ways defined by the constitution and bylaws of the ELCA. Those specific ways are:

1. Individuals who are ordained in accord with the constitution and bylaws of this church in effect at the time of their ordinations, after having been approved by a duly constituted synod candidacy committee and having received and accepted a regular, attested Letter of Call to be a pastor.

2. Individuals received:
   a. Individuals approved by a synod candidacy committee who previously were ordained in another Lutheran church body or another Christian church body, under bylaw 7.31.04., whose ordination is recognized by this church under the policy that addresses such recognition. Others would be ordained by this church under the policy of such reception.
   b. Individuals received, under bylaw 8.63.05.c., through the candidacy process for the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament who were ordained in a full-communion partner church body.

3. Individuals reinstated to the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament, under churchwide bylaw 7.31.05., who previously were ordained in this church or one of its predecessor church bodies.

Report of the Treasurer

Responsibilities

The treasurer of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) proposes policies, and within such policies provides for the implementation of the financial, accounting, audit, granting, banking, investment, property, and information technology systems of the churchwide organization. The governing description of the Office of the Treasurer appears in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, continuing resolutions 15.14.A20. and 15.14.B21.

Budget development and financial analysis

In the area of budgeting, the Office of the Treasurer estimates revenue, recommends spending authorization levels, and advises the Office of the Presiding Bishop regarding financial sustainability. Working closely with the Office of the Presiding Bishop, including the Development team, this office engages in collaborative efforts to monitor and align spending with anticipated income. The Budgeting team also oversees the capital expenditures and related budget of the churchwide organization. See Section V for more details on the FY23–25 budget.

Accounting services

The Financial Accounting and Reporting team is responsible for processing financial transactions, performing month-end closings, and reporting results of the churchwide organization, including the annual audit performed by external auditors. Financial statements are prepared both monthly and annually. Collaboration with internal programmatic home areas and offices is an important aspect of this team’s work as they manage projects, taking into account the resources available and the spending authorized by the Churchwide Assembly and/or the Church Council. Oversight of the financial statements also includes maintenance of a general ledger, accounting for both receipts and spending for unrestricted, restricted, and designated funds. The accounts receivable and accounts payable functions are also performed by the Financial Accounting team. This group provides various accounting services for the ELCA Foundation, Lutheran Men in Mission, and Women of the ELCA as well as services for special events including the Youth Gathering and the Churchwide Assembly.

Banking and investments

The Office of the Treasurer is responsible for safeguarding organizational assets and for recommending policies to the ELCA Church Council for managing cash balances and monitoring the activities of investment managers. Investment strategies are designed to meet the objectives and needs of the operating funds. Operational banking and investment relationships continued with BMO Harris Bank until December 2021, when BMO Harris sold their asset management business to Columbia Threadneedle Investments, the global asset management business of Ameriprise Financial, Inc. After interviews and review of capabilities, the churchwide organization and the Mission Investment Fund both elected to transition to Columbia Threadneedle Investments. The team for Columbia Threadneedle met with the Budget and Finance Committee of the Church Council for the first time in April 2022.

BMO Harris Bank continues to provide treasury management services for churchwide programs. Endowment assets and other deferred gift investments are managed by the ELCA Foundation.

Grants management

The grants management team transitioned to the Office of the Treasurer as part of the Future Church reorganization effective Feb. 1, 2021. Due to the financial significance of grants distributed annually by the churchwide organization, the goal was to create enhanced integration between the grants management system (Grantmaker) and the financial system. The Grants Management team supports, consults, and collaborates with program staff in the development of efficient and effective processes for all grant/scholarship distributions of the ELCA churchwide office. In fiscal year 2021, there was a total of 55 different active grant processes, distributing $42.7 million. The Grants Management team has created several resources for grantees, employees, and reviewers to assist with achieving the goal of more fluid and standardized processes, along with developing a variety of avenues for both external and internal reporting on all churchwide organization grants.

Audit

The Office of the Treasurer is responsible for designing the system of internal controls to safeguard the organization’s resources, including the coordination of internal audit services. In 2020, in conjunction with the Audit Committee of the Church Council, the Office of the Treasurer received proposals for outsourced internal audit services from three independent accounting firms and selected Forvis (formerly known as BKD) for a three-year contract to provide internal audit services.

Forvis’ work provides a third-party assessment of the churchwide organization’s risk matrix, financial controls, and best practices. The internal audit function reports directly to the ELCA Audit Committee. Forvis also performs internal audit services for the ELCA Foundation and the Mission Investment Fund of the ELCA.

Crowe LLP provides external audit services for the churchwide organization and meets with the ELCA Audit Committee twice a year. During the triennium, audit processes have resulted in unmodified opinions and no proposed adjustments or material weaknesses in internal controls. During the triennium, in addition to the audit of the churchwide organization financial statements, Crowe LLP also performed audit procedures and issued a report with respect to the Expenditure of Federal Awards. This was applicable because the ELCA (through Lutheran Disaster Response) was the recipient of federal grant money related to 2018 hurricane relief work from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). The audit reports for the churchwide organization are attached as an addendum to this report.

Information Technology

ELCA Information Technology (IT) creates impact and value through modern product solutions for organizational efficiency, automation, and continuous improvement. The churchwide organization IT team provides contemporary business software, hardware, and technology systems that enhance the effectiveness of how the ELCA carries out ministry through the churchwide organization and other expressions of this church. Our mission is to deliver and support purposeful technology solutions in a secure, user-friendly, consistent, impactful, and cost-effective manner and to assist people in accomplishing the shared purpose and vision of the ELCA.

2019–2021 was certainly filled with unprecedented times and changes. Yet through all these challenges, people were reminded that God provides for all our needs. We witnessed the faithfulness and resilience of the members of this church, congregations, and synods, and give thanks for each of you. In the Office of the Treasurer, staff increased their focus on the tools that support the ability to provide leadership with timely and accurate information to make sound financial decisions. Office of the Treasurer staff also provided IT solutions to simplify and enhance coordinated efforts in ministry across the ecology. Accomplishments include:

- Financial system replacement: The Finance team, in collaboration with IT and the ELCA Foundation, conducted a yearlong analysis on the changing people, process, and technology needed to provide a more modern, scalable, and reliable financial system that would streamline financial operations, allow expense reporting through mobile devices, and automate workflow by integrating with other enterprise systems. As a result of this analysis, the Office of the Treasurer migrated from a 24-year-old financial accounting system to Workday, effective July 2020. This new system facilitated the centralization of financial operations management and continues to drive the core church financial processes and reporting for both organizations.

- Enhanced budgeting, forecasting, and planning: There is a need to streamline, simplify the budgeting process, and add the ability to do financial forecasting across revenue, capital, workforce, balance sheet, and cash flow planning. Workday’s budgeting module will help develop models that will be planned monthly and/or yearly with granularity. The project will validate and deploy the technology and improved processes needed to optimize budgeting and forecasting as well as handling “what if” situations and scenarios. Staff are currently in the design process phase for the budgeting module of Workday and expect to begin using the tool as part of the detailed 2023 budget work across the organization.

- Resource Development Committee: At its November 2019 meeting, the Church Council voted to form a new subcommittee of the Budget and Finance Committee—the Resource Development Committee—to continue developing strategies related to growing funding for unrestricted revenue streams, including Mission Support, as well as future churchwide appeals. The Office of the Treasurer, along with the Development team in the Office of the Presiding Bishop, provides resource support to the committee. This committee meets quarterly.

- Paycheck Protection Program loan: As a result of the economic uncertainty stemming from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the churchwide organization applied for and received a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan from the United States Small Business Administration. The funds were shared with the separately incorporated ministries and organizations that fall under the personnel policies of the churchwide organization, including the ELCA Foundation, Mission Investment Fund of the ELCA, Women of the ELCA, and Lutheran Men in Mission. The loan proceeds were expended for the purposes outlined by the government and forgiveness of the loan was granted in 2021.

- Cost savings: Working with Portico Benefit Services, the churchwide organization shifted its standard health insurance benefits from the Gold+ plan to the higher-deductible Silver+ plan and developed a cost sharing program in which employees contribute to the cost of health insurance for spouses and dependents. Staff may also choose to “buy up” to the Gold+ plan. Financial incentives are provided for those employees who can transition coverage to a spouse’s plan. Even factoring in the cost of contributing to the Health Savings Accounts (HSA) of employees on the Silver+ plan, the churchwide organization has realized savings in health insurance costs.

- Open Doors: The Grants and Accounts Payable teams worked with the Innovation home area to quickly set up and process Open Doors grants for 135 congregations that submitted ideas for engaging new people as congregations transitioned into a time of re-gathering in physical spaces.

- Future Church remapping: In 2020, the strategic work around the Future Church reorganization was completed. One of the outcomes was that responsibility for certain work and the related personnel and spending was transitioned to different areas of the organization. Together, finance and IT led the organization in remapping the accounts, funds, and activities in Workday into the new structure.

- Sustainable fundraising model: In collaboration with the Development team, a model was put in place to allocate a percentage of gifts given to the churchwide organization to create a fund to ensure that funds are available to support fundraising initiatives in the future.

- Post-retirement medical benefits: The trust that covers payment of future medical benefits for members with service in predecessor church bodies was fully funded during the triennium.

- Modern collaboration tools: Key to the work of the church is being able to communicate and collaborate with the ELCA ecology. Cloud technology enabled the churchwide organization, bishops, synods, rostered ministers, council members, missionaries, and those external to the organization to meet, govern, document share, and continue ministry remotely at the start of the pandemic. During the pandemic, technology components were migrated to a new system to allow for worldwide collaboration and further support the “work from anywhere” model.

- Digital technology upgrades: The pandemic and remote work of the church demanded a shift in the way the churchwide organization provides ministry to its constituents. Digital technologies are essential to the churchwide organization being able to provide electronic and digital services for donations, grants, and resources to serve the needs of the church. During this triennium, multiple investments and upgrades were made to the digital ecosystem provided to congregations and constituents. These include implementing a single online identity and login to ELCA systems that enhances security and simplicity of use, upgrading the ELCA resource store for a better user experience, launching several new digital properties in conjunction with Strategic Communications and ministry partners, and enabling file digitization for numerous business processes to streamline work, reduce paper waste, and better enable work from anywhere. Finally, digital signature technology was integrated, enabling improved efficiency for timely approvals and reducing the need to exchange paper-based documentation.

- Churchwide Assembly Event Guide mobile application: A new vendor was selected to provide all the mobile features needed to support physical and virtual events across this church. This new technology is powering the ELCA Guide for the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. It was selected as the event-management solution for the Youth Gathering and will facilitate future synod and churchwide events as well.
COVID-19 response enablement: At the onset of COVID-19, IT helped the churchwide organization transition to remote work over a single weekend. This rapid transition was facilitated by previous investments and strategies enabled by the team. As strategic needs shifted due to the pandemic, new technologies were introduced to assist the organization in continuing to worship, support members, and respond to the pandemic. The IT team established dedicated toll-free call menus and routing, created a responsive chat bot to automate question assistance, enabled digital signatures for COVID-19-related grant approvals, launched a digital site to deliver current information to churchwide staff, and provided for the Here to Serve initiative.

Throughout the next triennium, IT will have opportunities across the expressions of this church to analyze, assess, and deliver improved technical solutions for mission growth. Some of these opportunities include:

- Affordable advanced ministry technology: Plans will continue to be focused on building partnered relationships to assist congregations and synods in using technology solutions to advance their ministries and reach new, young, and diverse people. Focus areas will include church management systems (e.g., membership, administration), finances, websites, and communication tools that are best-in-class at affordable prices for bishops, rostered ministers, congregations, and synods.

- Digital advancements: In partnership with Marketing and Strategic Communications and other parts of the churchwide organization, IT will deliver world-class, easy-to-use online and digital solutions for existing members that will aid in reaching new, young, and diverse individuals. These solutions will be intended to align with ways younger generations choose to worship and engage with functions of the church in an online, virtual setting. IT also plans to deliver new, modern email management and an online fundraising toolkit.

- Business process workflow automation and information management: Projects will be prioritized toward fostering improved information management by providing integration, determination of what needs to be managed, security, and accessibility to the vast amounts of information that the organization creates, retains, and deletes. Priority will be given to processes creating the most efficiency for interaction and management across this church and within the churchwide organization.

- Enterprise risk management and security: As part of the churchwide organization’s increasing prioritization of enterprise risk management, this office will implement additional prevention and mitigation strategies for risks identified as related to the operations of the Office of the Treasurer.

- Analytics and automation: Building upon capabilities of software systems implemented during 2019–2022, priority will be given to optimizing the user experience, automating processes, integrating technologies, leveraging single points of entry for constituent information, and enhancing data analytics to assist with engagement strategies for new, young, and diverse people.

- Enhanced budgeting, forecasting, and planning: There is a need to streamline and simplify budgeting processes and add an ability to do financial forecasting across revenue, capital, workforce, balance sheet, and cash flow planning. Workday’s budgeting module will help develop models that will be planned monthly and/or yearly with granularity. The project will validate and deploy technology, and improved processes are needed to optimize budgeting, forecasting, and handling of “what if” scenarios. Staff are currently in the design process phase for the budgeting module of Workday and expect to begin using the tool as part of the detailed 2023 budget work across the churchwide organization.
Part Two: 2019, 2020, and 2021 financial report

The audited financial statements of the ELCA churchwide organization for the fiscal years ended Jan. 31, 2020, Jan. 31, 2021, and Jan. 31, 2022, are attached as Appendices A–C of this report. These statements include the activities of all units and offices of the churchwide organization for each of the three years. Financial statements are prepared by management, audited by Crowe LLP, and reviewed by the Audit Committee of the ELCA.

Net operating results of the churchwide organization were positive (revenues exceeded expenses) in each of the three years of the triennium. Net revenue was $3.2 million, $1.9 million, and $6.0 million favorable for 2019, 2020, and 2021, respectively, prior to the transfer of excess bequest income to an endowment fund as per the endowment guidelines. In addition, the remaining excess in 2019 and 2020 was designated by the Church Council to offset budget deficits in future years. The 2021 excess was designated by the Church Council to establish a fund to be used to assess the feasibility of a fundraising campaign at a future date as well as to support losses incurred by the Youth Gathering related to the cancellation of the 2022 event and to provide startup funds for future events. The favorability of results in all three years was driven primarily by reduced expenditures with the spending ranging from 89% to 97%, as a percent of authorized spending. Generally speaking, these expenditure reductions related to “operating expenses” rather than grants and support for ministries.

Mission Support, which represents the share of income passed from congregations to synods to the churchwide organization, decreased from $42.6 million in 2019 to $40.7 million in 2020 to $40.6 million in 2021. This church was richly blessed by the continued generosity of members, congregations, and synods during this pandemic. Over the triennium, revenues related to fundraising efforts have increased, and the organization has also benefitted from strong investment returns.
ELCA World Hunger

As reflected in the graph below, total revenue for ELCA World Hunger during the triennium exceeded $70 million (over the three years 2019–2021), of which gifts from individuals, congregations, and synods accounted for $59.2 million. This church celebrates three giving milestones in the history of ELCA World Hunger which occurred during 2019–2021.

1) A $2 million bequest received in 2020 representing the single largest bequest received.
2) A record year of $20.762 million in direct gifts received in 2021.
3) Total revenues of $24.2 million in 2020.

This generosity allows the ELCA to support hunger initiatives including food security, health and housing, hunger education, agriculture and income generation, migration, and human rights in 66 countries. Over the same three-year period, approximately $34.5 million was received and $35.1 million distributed to provide relief in response to disasters in 47 countries and 17 states and territories.

COVID-19 Appeal

In April 2020, a fundraising appeal was launched to offer direct operational ministry support to congregations, synods, and local ministries. Over $1.8 million was received with $1.6 million distributed through 190 block grants to 63 synods, serving the needs of over 400,000 people and funding more than 830 ministries across the United States. In addition, over $3.1 million was distributed to international partners through Lutheran Disaster Response during 2020 and 2021.

Summary

Despite challenges presented by the pandemic, the financial position of the organization remains strong. James 1:17 says, “Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.” We are grateful for your financial support which funds the work of the churchwide organization; staff take very seriously our responsibility to faithfully steward these resources. We appreciate your prayers and continued support as we work toward our purpose “to activate each of us so more people know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love.”

Ms. Lori S. Fedyk, treasurer of the ELCA, together with
   Mr. Jonathan Beyer, executive for information technology & digital solutions

   Ms. Annette Roman, executive for financial controls and policy, finance director Part Three: Churchwide Assembly Presentation

“Wow! How awesome it is to be together. Good afternoon! My name is Lori Fedyk and it is my privilege to serve as the treasurer of the ELCA.

“I must admit that, as an accountant, I am sometime challenged by Philippians 4:19 which says, ‘And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.’ But today we can celebrate that even through the pandemic, God provided richly. I hope that all of you will share with your congregations our sincere gratitude for your steadfastness and generosity over the past 3 years. We were able to faithfully continue our work because of you. Thank you!

“To begin, I thought it might be helpful to share our sources of unrestricted revenue. As you will see on this graph, Mission Support continues to represent the largest component of our revenue stream. For those of you not familiar with that term, I will explain. Based on 2021 offerings, about 5½ cents of every dollar that you share with your congregation or worshipping community is passed along to your synod. The synod in turn keeps about 3 cents of every dollar to support their work and passes along about 2½ cents to the churchwide organization. That 2½ cents that comes to us from each of your gifts totaled over $40.6 million in 2021 and is what we call ‘Mission Support.’

“The next largest area of support for the current fund budget is direct giving, revenue that is stewarded by the development team in response to appeals, major gift work, congregational generosity, and designated gifts from synods. Gifts in support of ‘where needed most,’ ‘Young Adults in Global Mission,’ ‘missionaries,’ and other current fund activities are included in this category.
These are the revenues and expenses for 2019–2021 for unrestricted funds. These numbers are shown in thousands which means you need to add three zeroes to the end. So, the 2019 revenue is $69,567,000.

For the triennium, total revenues performance was 103% of budget. For the same period, expenditures were 93% of budget. The result is net revenues over expenses of $11.1 million. It is important to note that, as a nonprofit, our goal is to spend resources to further our mission. These savings were generated by open positions, reduced travel, and operational efficiencies, not reductions in the programmatic work. We reinvested those favorable variances into future spending by contributing to designated funds to support innovation, future budgets, the Youth Gathering, and much more.

As you think about the work of the churchwide organization, it is people who do the work and financial support through grants to synods, congregations, new starts, seminaries, international companions, and much more. This represents over 80% of our expenditures.

I’m excited to introduce Daniel Kirschbaum, program director for young adult ministries. Daniel is going to share a bit about one of his programs, Abide.
“Did you know that we have 240 missionaries in 40 countries? This work, like Daniel’s work, are beautiful examples of your gifts at work in the world.

“Rahel Williams, mission funding director, is here to tell you about two of our missionaries, Mark and Linda Jacobson.

“Rahel, thank you for sharing such an inspiring story. These are the stories that remind me of how generous people are and the importance of us all being in relationship.

“I’d like to turn your attention now to World Hunger. Total revenue for ELCA World Hunger during the triennium exceeded $70 million over the three years (2019–2021), of which gifts from individuals, congregations, and synods totaled $59.2 million. We celebrate three giving milestones in the 47-year history of ELCA World Hunger which occurred during 2019–2021. First, a $2 million bequest received in 2020, representing the single largest bequest; second, a record year of $20.762 million in direct gifts received in 2021; and, third, total revenues of $24.2 million in 2020. This generosity allows the ELCA to support hunger initiatives including food security, health and housing, hunger education, agriculture and income generation, migration, and human rights in 66 countries. Over the same three-year period, approximately $34.5 million was received and $35.1 million distributed to support a variety of disasters in 47 countries and 17 states and territories.

“Did you know this church has raised more than $10 million dollars to support relief for those impacted by the crisis in Eastern Europe? That amount climbs more every day, allowing the work of our Lutheran Disaster Response team to provide additional resources and support to our many partners in the region.

“Thank you does not seem like enough. Your gifts make our work possible and allow us as a church body to impact millions of lives. Thank you.

“Now I would like to introduce the 2023–2025 Budget Proposal found in the ‘Pre-assembly Recommendations of Church Council,’ Section 5e, and I invite the Rev. Louise Johnson, executive for administration, to begin.

[Pastor Johnson addressed the assembly, followed by applause.]
“Thank you, Louise. Our plans provide for a breakeven budget, where revenues equal expenses in each year. On this graph, the blue lines represent our core work while the white represents innovation.

“As Louise mentioned, our goal is to get to 30% over 3 years. In other words, in 2022, we are investing about $4.2 million in Innovation compared to $19 million in 2025. The spending authorization for 2023 includes a 2% increase over 2022.

The next slide illustrates the total projected revenue for 2023–2025. Key areas for discussion include:

“Mission Support is projected to decrease based on historical trends.

“Gifts are projected to increase each year by 4–11%, based on post-campaign performance and future plans.

“Rent is projected to decrease based on one tenant that has provided notice to vacate beginning during 2023. While we will aggressively pursue a new tenant, to be conservative, we reduced the rent revenue.
“Finally, you will notice a budget gap of 7–9% in 2024 and 2025. This means that our expenditures are projected to exceed the revenues. We recognize the need to balance the budget and expect to close this gap through additional sources of revenue or reduced expenses. Some donors have already expressed interest in supporting innovation.

(a) The 2022 spending authorization was increased to cover some 2021 grants which were delayed due to Covid, and to expand the ministry in 2022 as a result of significant bequest income received in 2020-2021.

“Let’s take a look at ELCA World Hunger. As you can see, we are planning for expenditures to equal revenues. Your continued generous support of World Hunger allows us to provide aid for 67 countries and 43 states and territories. 2021 was a record year in direct giving, and because of this, we are able to do even more programmatic work in 2022. Budgeted revenues show modest growth over the recent record years at over $22 million (excluding the special adjustment in 2022 for carryover 2021 support for delayed grants). I turn it back to Louise for a closing story.

[Pastor Johnson addressed the assembly, concluding the Report of the Treasurer, which was followed by applause.]

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

The Church Council
Churchwide Organization

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (the Church), which comprise the statements of financial position as of January 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of revenues and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of January 31, 2020 and 2019, and the changes in its net assets arising from operations in each of the two years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matters

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements being presented are only for the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and do not include the assets, liabilities and net assets, and the revenue and expenses of the entire Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that are recorded in the accounts of the other organizations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present the financial position of the entire Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of January 31, 2020 and 2019, or the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Church has adopted ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Topic 606 and ASU 2018-02, Not-for-Profit Entities: Topic 958, Clarifying the Scope and Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. Our opinion is not modified with respect to these matters.

NOTE 1—ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Included in accounts receivable at January 31, 2020 and 2019 were $4,607,534 and $4,191,781, respectively, relating to synods contributions for mission support, world hunger appeal, global church, and other programs that have been received subsequent to year end. Interest is not normally charged on receivables. Management reviews all of the receivables on an individual basis for collectibility and determines whether an allowance is necessary. No allowance for bad debts has been established because management considers all accounts receivable to be collectible.

The Church is a pass-through entity for investment income related to certain defined gift investments managed and distributed by an external financial institution. In relation to these investments, these reported gains or losses are $1,000 and $0, respectively, on marketable securities for the years ended January 31, 2020 and 2019 with offsetting decreases in certain liabilities reported.

Also, unrealized gains of approximately $294,000 and unrealized losses of $23,000 on these investments with offsetting changes in certain liabilities were reported for the years ended January 31, 2020 and 2019.
NOTE 3 - INVESTMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

The Church's investments which are reported at fair value are valued using the following inputs and valuation techniques:

Equity mutual funds: The fair values of equity mutual fund investments reflect quoted prices for recently traded securities (Level 1 inputs).

Fixed income securities: Fair values of U.S. government securities that are quoted in the active market in which the securities are traded (Level 1 inputs). Fair values of derivative instruments are determined based on quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and other market-comparable data, such as indices, yield curves and statistical pricing (Level 2 inputs — cash flow approach).

Term Investments: Certain accounts are estimated to approximate deposit-account balances. Term certificates are estimated to approximate principal and interest payments at the reporting date. The assumption for the future cash flows for the estimated yield to maturity is used to determine the fair value of the investment (Level 1 inputs).

Investments held in traded funds: The underlying investments within the ELCA Equities Fund and the Balanced Fund have observable market values and are valued at their fair values based on the underlying market prices of the securities in the trust. The Church has the ability to redeem their investments at any time subject to the current terms and conditions of the ELCA Equities Fund and the Balanced Fund at any time at the net asset value at NAV.

Beneficial interests in Trusts: The fair value of beneficial interests in trusts is determined based upon the Church's proportionate interest in the fair value of the underlying trust assets. The underlying trust assets are non-traded interests and their fair values which are determined by obtaining quoted market prices or active markets. This valuation method has been estimated to represent the present value of future distributed income. The liquidation of these assets is contingent upon circumstances that are out of the Church's control and cannot be liquidated on a periodic basis (Level 1 inputs).

Beneficial interests in irrevocable, split-interest agreements, held by ELCA Foundation: The beneficial interest in these agreements are measured at the present value of future cash flows considering the fair values of invested assets, the present value of contractual payment obligations under the agreements and the Church’s ownership interest in the underlying agreement (Level 3 inputs — income approach).

Concentration of Credit Risk: The loan portfolio consists of one senior and one class. ELCA's workforce lending activities are primarily conducted with companion churches. Notes receivable are generally not collateralized with non-accrue but are secured by the grants from the ELCA. As of January 31, 2020 and 2019, there was no amount past due due to a period greater than 1 year. The following is a summary of notes by region for five years ended January 31:

Charitable Gift Annuities: Charitable gift annuities are arrangements between a donor and the Church in which the donor contributes assets to the Church in exchange for a promise by the Church to pay a fixed amount for the life of the donor or other individuals designated by the donor. Due to state income regulations, the assets received are held as segregated assets. The annuity is the present value of future cash flows expected to be paid to the donor, or to the individuals designated by the donor. The annuity is recognized as income over the expected life of the annuitant. The 2013 IRS Tables are used to calculate the annuity payments. If the donor dies before the annuity payments begin, the annuity payments are made to the designated beneficiaries. The annuity payments are calculated using the 2013 IRS Tables.

Additions to the liability (to reflect assumptions of the discount and changes in actuarial assumptions) are recognized in the statements of activities as an increase in the value of split-interest agreements in net assets with donor restrictions.

NOTE 8 - RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The ELCA Churchwide Organizations are the beneficiaries of endowment, trust, and annuity accounts with a fair value of $465,143,270 and $463,842,543 as at January 31, 2020 and 2019. These are managed by the ELCA Foundation.

The Church has a net payable due to related organizations, in the amount of $1,544,535 at January 31, 2020 and a net receivable due from related organizations of $2,658,541 at January 31, 2019. The net payable represents amounts owed to the ELCA Foundation, related to the transfer to the Charitable Gifts Annuities, offset by expenses related to service level agreements between the Church and certain affiliated organizations for building space, accounting and management services performed on their behalf.
NOTE 9 - DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PENSION PLAN

Sustained all active employees of the Church are enrolled in the supplementary defined contribution pension plan administered by Portico Benefit Services. The employee contributions to the plan for the years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021 were $8,098,829 and $8,433,522, respectively. All contributions to the plan are funded on a current basis.

NOTE 10 - PENSION AND POST-RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFITS

Pension Benefits: The Church has established minimum pension levels, increased from previous church organizations, for certain clergy who retired prior to January 1, 1996. The Church provides funding for these minimum pension benefits to the extent that the reserves maintained by Portico Benefit Services are insufficient to fund the same. During the years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021, the Church made no payments to Portico Benefit Services to cover the cost of retiree pension benefits.

In November 2016 ELCA Church Council approved to terminate the ELCA Supplemental Retirement Benefits Trust ("Trust") and the ELCA Continuation of the ACL and CCA Miscellaneous and Non-Continuation Plan ("Inception Plan") including liabilities of the Pension Plan's liabilities. The liability payment occurred during 2017 and is in the amount of $368,272. The remainder of the excess of plan assets over actuarial liabilities was distributed in 2017 and early 2018.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefits: Members with service in a predecessor organization may be eligible to receive a post-retirement health contribution subsidy from Portico Benefit Services in some cases at monthly reimbursement of fixed and variable benefits. The subsidy is expressed as a percentage of the monthly cost for coverage paid by eligible retirees under the Church medical and dental benefits plan. Subsidies are based on age or a combination of age and service. Approximately 4,000 active or retired members and spouses are eligible for this subsidy.

These post-retirement medical subsidies are funded through trust funds set aside for that purpose. The first funds are held and reported by Portico; additional contributions are made by ELCA entities pursuant to a funding agreement with Portico and participating employees. The full actuarial valuation of the obligation is reported on the financial statements of Portico. Portico financial statements include the total asset of approximately $10,489,680 and $1,46,138,263, or an estimated total adjustment to the balance sheet obligation of $1,29,259,000 and $100,020,000 at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

The Church contributed $2,000,000 during the fiscal years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021 toward the funding of this post-retirement health plan. The expected return to the Church is $2,000,000 during the fiscal year ending January 31, 2023. During the fiscal years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021, other ELCA entities that sponsor employees in the ELCA Pension Plan or Benefits Program contributed 2.8% and 0.0%, respectively, of any excess amounts available after compensation, contributions received in this manner for the years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021, were approximately $2,000,000 and $700,000, respectively. The contributed rates, including the contributions for retiree support, are set annually by the Board of Trustees of Portico.
NOTE 14 - CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

The Church's primary sources of revenue are contributions from synods. The synod contributions are determined upon contributions from the membership of congregations of the Church. These are 5 regions comprising a total of 65 synods. The following is a summary of the contributions by synods in each of the regions during the years ended January 31:

NOTE 15 - ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Interpretation of Terms: The Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) mandates the laws governing a not-for-profit organization's investment and management of donor-restricted endowment funds. The Board of Trustees of the ELCA foundation serves as the body designated to manage the Church's endowments, but interprets UPMIFA as an attorney, but not requiring, the preservation of the historic dollar value of the original gift of a donor-restricted endowed fund, without applying donor stipulations to the fund. As a result of this interpretation, the Church has chosen to classify the endowment fund according to the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment. (b) the original value of subsequent gifts is the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment result from contributions toward the application of an endowed fund at the time the accumulation is made to the fund.

In accordance with accounting principles governing not-for-profit organizations, subject to an enacted version of UPMIFA, the portfolio of donor-restricted endowments are not classified as net asset with donor restrictions and are not considered as an asset with donor restrictions until appropriated for expenditure. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on all Church investments with donor restrictions are being recognized in net assets with donor restrictions, except for investments in real estate and in certain financial instruments that will provide proceeds upon default of the associated for a period in accordance with donor restrictions.

The Church classifies all net assets with donor restrictions at cost or at a donor-imposed endowment fund. The donor-imposed endowment fund reverence net assets for donor restrictions to the extent that the donor-imposed temporary restrictions are not applicable. The donor-imposed restriction is not considered as a reduction of net assets without donor restrictions.

There were no funds for which the fair value of the assets was less than the lower of cost or market as of January 31, 2020, and 2019. At January 31, 2020 and 2019, $57,000 and $2,470 were classified as net assets without donor restrictions. During the year, $4,544,420 and $2,229,160 has been released from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions.

Dividend, Investment, and Other Revenue: Dividend, investment, and other revenue are made currently at a rate established annually by the Trustees. The distribution rate reflects the Trustees' consideration of the anticipated return of the Trust and anticipated changes in the accounting period of the Trust. The rate established for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2020 and 2019 were 4% and 13%, respectively, and is normally paid as the anticipated net return of the Trust. The distribution unit value is equal to the average of the net assets on December 31 of the five preceding years multiplied by the annual distribution rate.

Earnings in excess of the distribution rate are allocated among the presentation accounts in proportion to the number of units assigned to each account as undistributed earnings. If the quarterly distribution exceeds the actual dividend income earned, net realized and unrealized gains are recognized as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions. If the actual dividend income exceeds the quarterly distribution, losses are recognized as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions.

In consideration of donor approvals, certain donor-restricted endowments are invested through investments held outside of the Trust. Investment income is distributed or accumulated according to the donor-imposed restrictions for the usage of endowment distributions.

NOTE 19 - CONTINGENCIES

The Church is a party to litigation in various matters arising in the ordinary course of operations. Typically, the Church’s insurance carriers are defending these matters. Pending litigation will be vigorously defended and, in the opinion of management, is likely to be resolved without any material adverse effect upon the financial statements of the Church.

NOTE 20 - FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES BY NATURE

NOTE 21 - LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Church's financial assets available within one year of the statement of financial position date for general expenditure are as follows:

As part of the Church's liquidity management, the Church invests a portion of its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures liabilities, and other obligations come due. The Church had $27,500,621 and $24,617,895 in bond designated investments without donor restriction at January 31, 2020, and 2019, when the Church does not have any intention of liquidating the bond designated investments, and they are not currently available for general expenditure. These funds could be made available with Church Council approval.

NOTE 22 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

A novel strain of coronavirus has surfaced and spread around the world, with resulting business and social disruption. The coronavirus has declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern by the World Health Organization on January 20, 2020. The operations and business results of the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America could be adversely affected. The impact to which the coronavirus or any other disease or epidemic may impact business activity will depend on future developments. These future developments are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of the coronavirus and the actions required to contain the spread of the virus, as well as others.

Management has performed an analysis of the activities and transactions subsequent to January 31, 2020, to determine if any adjustments to the audited financial statements within the audited financial statements for the year ended January 31, 2020. Management has performed their analysis through September 2, 2020, and the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Activities subsequent to this date have not been evaluated by management.
Appendix B: Audited Financial Statements of the ELCA Churchwide Organization for the Fiscal Year Ended January 31, 2021
INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT

The Church Council
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America,

Report on the Financial Statements:
We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (the Church), which comprise the statements of financial position as of January 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements:
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility:
Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

The valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of the investments are consistent with those used for the Churchwide Pension Trust (CPT) and other strategic investment programs. The valuations are performed by independent third-party valuation firms, and the results are reviewed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

NOTE 7 - SPLIT-INTEREST AGREEMENTS

Charitable gift annuities: Charitable gift annuities are arrangements between the donor and the Church in which the donor contributes assets to the Church in exchange for a promise by the Church to pay a fixed amount to the life of the donor or other individuals designated by the donor. Due to state insurance regulations, the assets received are held as segregated assets. The annual payment is a general obligation of the Church. Assumptions are recognized at the risk of the contract. The annuity payment liability is recognized for the present value of future cash flows expected to be paid to the donor or to the designated individual. The discount rate is the appropriate rate adjusted for the interest rate of the contract. The 2021 and 2020 tables are used to calculate the life expectancy of the annuity beneficiaries.

Sustained all active employees of the Church are enrolled in the company-sponsored defined-contribution pension plan administered by Portico Benefit Services. The employee contributions to the plan for the years ended January 31, 2021 and 2020 were $3,086,499 and $3,044,528, respectively. All contributions to the plan are funded on a current basis.

NOTE 10 - PENSION AND POST-RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFITS

Post-Employment Medical Benefits: Members with service in a predecessor organization may be eligible to receive a post-retirement medical supplement provided by Portico Benefit Services and is based on a monthly reimbursement of their 39% lifetime paid portion. These subsidies are in place until the age of 65. Subsidies are based on age at time of retirement and vary between 3% and 12% of the cost. These post-employment medical subsidies are funded through trust assets set aside for that purpose. The trust funds are held and invested by Portico Benefit Services and are used to ensure the financial stability of the program.

The full actuarial value of the obligation is reported on the financial statements of the Church. The investment returns are credited to the trust assets of approximately $174,550,300 as of December 31, 2020.

NOTE 11 - LEASES

Operating Leases: The Church leases certain office facilities and equipment under various operating leases. The minimum annual rental commitments under non-cancelable leases for the years ending January 31 are as follows:

Note: The above figures represent the net assets released from restrictions as of January 31, 2022, and 2021. The net assets were determined after considering the restrictions on the use of funds and the valuation of the assets at their fair market value.

In accordance with accounting principles governing not-for-profit organizations, investments in an endowment version of UPRFA, the portion of donor-restricted endowment not classified as net assets with donor restrictions are reported as net assets without donor restrictions until appropriate for expenditure. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on all Church endowments with donor restrictions are being recognized in net assets with donor restrictions, except for unrealized gains and losses on donations that will provide proceeds upon liquidation of the asset at fair value for a permanent endowment. The Church maintains all assets without donor restrictions as endowment investments and funds where donor stipulations allow for the release of such funds according to an ever-diminishing restriction. In the absence of donor stipulations, in the ordinary course, issuance of such a donor-restricted endowment fund would result in net assets with donor restrictions to the extent that the donor-imposed temporary restrictions on net appreciation of the fund were not based on a level of investment risk. Any remaining restrictions are recorded as a reduction in net assets without donor restrictions.

There were no funds for which the fair value of the assets held was less than the level required by donor stipulation or law as of January 31, 2021 and 2020. At January 31, 2021 and 2020, $30,685,737 and $35,809,621 were reported in net assets without donor restrictions. During the year, $4,114,405 and $4,613,626 have been released from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions.

Endowment Revenue Policies: Endowment pool distributions are made quarterly at a rate established annually by the Trustee. The distribution rate reflects the Trustee's consideration of anticipated returns of the Trust and anticipated expenses to the purchasing power of the Trust. The rate established for the year ended January 31, 2021 and 2020 were 4%, respectively, and is conservatively less than the anticipated inflation rate of the Trust. The distribution rate will be equal to the average of the unit values as of December 31 of the five preceding years multiplied by the annual distribution rate.

Incentives for the distribution rate are allocated among the endowment accounts in proportion to the number of units invested in each account as an unrestricted earnings. If the quarterly distribution exceeds the actual dividend, interest, and realized capital gains or losses in the quarter, the excess is distributed from accumulated undistributed earnings or participant capital. At January 31, 2021, 20 of the 105 accounts had accumulated undistributed earnings. At January 31, 2020, 25 of the 105 accounts had accumulated undistributed earnings.

Incentives to donor request or event, certain donor-restricted endowment are invested through investments held outside of the Trust. Incentive income is distributed or remitted according to the donor-imposed restrictions for the usage of endowment distributions.

NOTE 21 - LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

As part of the Church's liquidity management, the Church invests a portion of its financial assets in available for sale securities, in addition to other obligations not used. The Church held $50,438,922 and $22,318,617 in bonds designated as available for sale at December 31, 2021, and 2020. While the Church does not have any intention of liquidating the bonds designated as available for sale and they are not current assets for general expenditure, these funds could be made available with Church Council approval.

NOTE 22 - PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM LOAN (NOTES PAYABLE)

As a result of the economic disruption stemming from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, in April 2020, the Church received a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan in the principal amount of $7,156,390 from the United States Small Business Administration (SBA). The PPP loan has a stated interest rate of 1% per annum and requires equal monthly payments of principal commencing August 14, 2020 through the contractual maturity date of April 14, 2021. Under the terms of the Paycheck Protection Program, a PPP loan provides for conditional forgiveness if the Church utilizes the loan proceeds for eligible expenses, including payroll costs, rent, and utilities expenses, and meets certain other requirements for a specified period of time. Although the Church believes it is reasonably assured the PPP loan will be forgiven, ultimate forgiveness is conditioned upon the SBA concluding that the loan was not made in violation of any requirements that may be applicable.

The Church has a debt service account for its PPP loan in accordance with ABC 410 and ABC 460. Under ABC 410 and ABC 460, the PPP loan proceeds are capitalized as a financial liability and subsequently recognized as an expense upon repayment of the loan balance or upon the date of forgiveness. The amounts recognized as expense are included in the cost of services sold in the financial statements. As of December 31, 2021, the amounts recognized as an expense for the PPP loan were $7,156,390.

On July 27, 2021, the Church received notification that the United States Small Business Administration had reviewed the Church’s application for forgiveness of the PPP loan and forgave the loan and written accrued interest in full. The income from the loan forgiveness will be reclassified in the year ended January 31, 2022.

2022 CHURCHWIDE ASSEMBLY MINUTES

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

The Church Council
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

We have audited the financial statements of the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (the Church), which comprise the statements of financial position as of January 31, 2022, and 2021, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Church as of January 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are responsible for the conduct of the audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements being presented are only for the Churchwide Organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (the Church) and do not include the assets, liabilities and net assets, and the revenues and expenses of the entire Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that are accounted for in the accounts of the other organizations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present the financial position of the entire Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of January 31, 2022 and 2021, or the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

With churchwide revenues—net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that will be met either by action of the Church or the passage of time. Revenues in this net asset category are contributions, bequests, and investment income whose use is restricted specific purposes by the donors. These amounts are recorded as liabilities when such restrictions are met or when time restrictions have expired.

Also included are net assets that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions which require them to be maintained permanently by the Church. These are in this net asset category, because gifts are generally stipulated that the corpus be in perpetuity and only the income be available for purposes without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions (usually gifts for the endowment gifts and endowment gifts satisfied by the Church that will fund perpetual endowments).

Leases and Rent Expense—Leases and rent expenses include movements in capital and other capital movements of three months or less than the date of purchase. Cash and cash equivalents used by the Church in managing its investments are reported in investments. The Church maintains cash balances of insured financial institutions in excess of the insurance limits provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Beneficial interests in property—Beneficial interests held by the Church Foundation: The Church maintains beneficial interests in various investments that increase or decrease with the value of the investments. These agreements are administered by the Church Foundation on behalf of the Church and other beneficiaries. The Church records the fair value of the beneficial interests as receivable and as revenue when collection of the beneficial interest is received.

Debt and Total Capital—Debt and Total Capital—The debt and total capital of the Church are presented in the balance sheet. The debt includes short-term and long-term obligations. The total capital of the Church includes all net assets in the capital category. If the capital category is not a separate category, the net assets are presented as part of the capital category.

Savings and Loan Associations—Savings and loan associations are considered to be depository institutions. The Church maintains savings accounts and certificates of deposit with various savings and loan associations. The Church records the fair value of the savings and loan associations as receivable and as revenue when collection of the savings and loan associations is received.

Tangible and Intangible Assets—Tangible and intangible assets are considered to be depository institutions. The Church maintains savings accounts and certificates of deposit with various savings and loan associations. The Church records the fair value of the savings and loan associations as receivable and as revenue when collection of the savings and loan associations is received.

Repayment and Redemption—Repayment and redemption are considered to be depository institutions. The Church maintains savings accounts and certificates of deposit with various savings and loan associations. The Church records the fair value of the savings and loan associations as receivable and as revenue when collection of the savings and loan associations is received.

Income Taxes: The Church has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that it is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. There were no significant unreconciled business income activities during the years ended January 31, 2022 and 2021.

Accounts receivable, net of accounts written off, as of January 31, 2022 and 2021, were $5,800,125 and $5,845,566, respectively, relating to cash contributions for mission support, world hunger appeal, global church sponsorship and other programs that have been collected subsequent to year end. Revenue is generally realized on receivables issued on a basis that obtains revenue for the purpose for which the revenue was realized.

NOTE 3 - SHORT-TERM INVESTMENTS

The Church’s short-term investments consist of investments in money market accounts and certificates of deposit. The Church follows the cost or amortized cost method for initial recognition and the amortized cost method for subsequent measurement. The cost method is applied in situations in which the Church’s investment is intended to be held for an indefinite period or until realized. The amortized cost method is used in situations in which the Church’s investment is intended to be held for a specific period of time and the interest income earned is to be reinvested in the same type of investment.

NOTE 4 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events that occur after the date of the financial statements and before the issuance of the financial statements are considered to be outside the normal course of business. The Church evaluated subsequent events related to its financial statements and determined that no subsequent events had occurred that required disclosure in the financial statements.
NOTE 3: INVESTMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Investments are reported at fair value except for certain equity securities and invested income in real estate which are reported at cost. Investments carried at fair value consist primarily of corporate and government bond investments. Valuation issues and fair value determinations in the ELCA Investment Fund (Elk) are discussed in Note 3A.

Fair value is the price that would be received for an asset or paid for a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Investments that have readily determinable market values and are determined using market prices are classified as Level 1. Investments for which fair value is determined using a valuation methodology based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or unobservable inputs that are derived from observable market data (Level 2) are classified in the Level 2 category. Investments for which fair value is determined using a valuation methodology based on unobservable inputs that are not readily observable are determined based upon quoted market price for similar issuers, dealer quotes, appraisals, or pricing models utilizing market-observable inputs from comparable securities.

NOTE 3: INVESTMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

The fair value hierarchy is based on unobservable inputs and measuring unrealized gains when measuring fair value. Three levels of inputs may be used to measure fair value:

1. Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets. If the level 1 inputs are not available, other inputs that are observable in markets that are not active are used. Valuation inputs are not observable inputs.
2. Level 2: Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices. Such inputs are unobservable and are not derived from market data.
3. Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that reflect the market’s assumptions that the market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

In many cases, a valuation technique seeks a market fair value based on inputs from multiple levels of the fair value hierarchy. Investments are classified in their entirety based on the lowest fair value input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The Church’s investments, which are reported at fair value, are valued using the following inputs and valuation techniques:

- Equity investment fund: The fair value of equity investment fund investments reflects quoted prices of unregistered securities in exchange-traded funds.
- Cash and cash equivalents: Fair values of U.S. government obligations, federally insured deposits, and other investments are determined based on quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets. Quotes for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active are estimated using valuation techniques that reflect current economic conditions.
- Farm investments: Valuation techniques include the use of independent appraisals and valuations by the church. Valuations are based on the fair value of the farm as determined by independent appraisers.
- Real estate investments: The fair value of real estate investments is determined based on the sale of real estate properties, net of all expenses, and includes the cost of the property, improvements, real estate taxes, and other related expenses.
- Benefits and accrued liabilities: The fair value of benefits and accrued liabilities is determined based on actuarial computations and the fair value of the underlying assets.

NOTE 3: INVESTMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

The Church has the ability to readily respond to unforeseen circumstances at any time of the reporting period and net asset value (NAV).

Beneficial interests in trusts: The fair value of beneficial interests in trusts is determined based on the Church’s proportionate interest in the fair value of the underlying trust assets. The underlying trust assets are readily estimable and are fair values which are determined by eliminating quoted market prices in active markets. The valuation methodology has been estimated to represent the present value of future distributed income. The liquidation of these assets is contingent upon circumstances that are out of the Church’s control and cannot be liquidated as a periodic basis (Level 3 inputs).
NOTE 3 - INVESTMENTS AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

Beneficial interest in irrevocable, split-interest agreements, held by the Church: The beneficial interest in these agreements is measured at the present value of future cash flows considering the fair value of invested assets, the present value of contractual payment obligations under the agreement and the Church's ownership interest in the split-interest agreement (Level 3 equity-income approach).

ECPASD (Endowment Capital Policy Analysis and Standards Development)

The ECPASD is a collaborative, multi-faith effort of ELCICA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America), ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America), and ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) to develop a comprehensive, integrated approach to endowment management. The ECPASD provides guidance and resources to ELCA congregations, ELCA dioceses, and ELCA synods to help them make informed decisions about their endowment investments. The ECPASD also encourages collaboration among ELCA congregations, ELCA dioceses, and ELCA synods to share best practices and to work together to address common challenges.

The ECPASD is intended to be a dynamic, evolving resource that will continue to be updated and refined as new information becomes available. The ECPASD is available at https://www.elca.org/financialservices/epcasd.

Counterparty reinsurance in the EFTT are primary sources of estimate of participants' investment returns. The fair value of the EFTT net assets at the end of each quarter is used to determine the number of units attributable to participants' allocations placed in the EFTT, and the value is withdrawn from their accounts. Dividends from the fund are first reinvested into dividend and interest income and net realized gains. If distributions exceed the actual dividends, interest, and net realized gains, the excess is distributed first from accumulated undistributed earnings and gains, then from capital.

Quarterly distributions from the EFTT are made at a rate calculated by the Treasurer of the EFTT that reflects the "fair value consideration of anticipated returns of the EFTT" and anticipated changes in the purchasing power of the EFTT. The rate established for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 was 4%. It was applied each year to the average unit value of the assets in the EFTT at December 31 of the prior preceding year. The rate established for 2022 is 4%.

NOTE 7 - EQUITY INTEREST AGREEMENTS

Charitable Gift Agreements: Charitable gift agreements are arrangements between a donor and the Church in which the donor contributes assets to the Church in exchange for a promise by the Church to pay a fixed amount for the life of the donor or other individuals designated by the donor. Due to state insurance regulations, the assets received are held as segregated assets. The annuity liability is a general obligation of the Church. Assets are recognized at fair value on the date of the contribution. An annuity payment liability is recognized for the present value of future cash flows expected to be paid to the donor or to the designated individual. The discount rate is the appropriate risk adjusted rate on the date of the contract. The 2013 IBM Tables are used to calculate the life expectancy of the annuity beneficiaries. At the death of the donor or designated individual, the basic value of the contract is distributed to the Church or related organization either with or without donor residunity, when available, upon the donor's death.

Deductible Partnership and Income Contracts. Donors contribute assets to an investment pool and are assigned a specific number of units based on the proportion of the fair value of their contribution to the total fair market value of the pooled assets fund as the date of the donor’s death to the pooled fund. Upon the donor’s death, the donor or designated beneficiary is paid the actual ordinary income earned on the donor’s units. Realized gains or losses are added to each unit’s principal. At the donor’s death, the units in the trust are allocated to the Church or a related organization to be used as specified by the donor.

The contributed assets are recorded at fair value. A contribution is recorded at the fair value of the assets distributed for the estimated time period until the donor’s death. The appropriate rate is adjusted at the time of the contribution is used for the duration period, and the 2021 income Tax Code is used to calculate the pecuniary. The difference between the fair value of the assets received and the revenue recognized is recorded as unrealized revenue. The amounts are classified in the financial statements as follows:

The collections represent a weekly variety of offerings,pledges, subscriptions, special events, etc., designated as "church offering," "special gift," "sabbath school offering," "buildings fund," "pastor's support," and "missionary offering." The net collections are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset accounts and are reported as of the respective collection periods.

NOTE 18 - ENDO Durant Fulated Funds

The Church classes as net assets with donor restrictions all donor-restricted endorsement funds whose donor stipulations allow for the release of such funds according to an event or time restriction. In the absence of donor stipulations to the contrary, losses on the investment of such a donor-restricted endorsement fund reduce net assets with donor restrictions to the extent that the donor-imposed temporal restrictions and net appreciation of the fund have not been met before the required event expires. Any remaining loss is recorded as a reduction of net assets without donor restrictions.

There were no net released fair value of the excess that was less than the level required by donor stipulation at any time between January 31, 2022, and 2021. At January 31, 2022, and 2021, $33,555,244 and $33,675,572 were reported in net assets without donor restrictions. During the year, $4,178,884 and $4,114,907 were released from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions.

Investment Strategy

Endowment pool distributions are made quarterly at a rate established annually by the Trustees. The distribution rate reflects the Trustees' consideration of the anticipated returns of the Trust and anticipated capital gains in the portfolio. The rate established for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2022 and 2021 were 4%, respectively, and is designed to ensure that all anticipated capital gains are detracted from the principal and that the distribution unit value is equal to the average of the unit values on December 31 of the four preceding years multiplied by the annual distribution rate.

Net income in each distribution rate is allocated among the endowment accounts in proportion to the number of units assigned to each account and distributed earnings of the quarterly distribution.

Distribution of investments are made on a quarterly basis from accumulated undistributed earnings of the trust's capital. All distributions are made at the end of the quarter of the year earned.

Investment Income

In consideration of donor request in write, certain donor-restricted endowments are invested through institutional fixed-income securities, which invest in government, mortgage-backed, municipal, and corporate fixed-income securities.

Investment Performance

The Trust's investment objective is to provide a stable stream of investment income with long-term capital appreciation, while a reasonable level of investment risk. This objective is achieved through the allocation of assets across various asset classes, including equity and fixed-income securities.

Certain donor-restricted endowments that are held outside of the Trust are generally invested in long-term debt and equity securities. The implementation of this strategy is designed to provide a balanced approach to risk and return.

NOTE 19 - CONTINGENCIES

The Church is a party to litigation in various matters arising in the ordinary course of operations. Typically, the Church’s insurance carriers are defending these matters. Pending litigation will be expressly disclosed and, in the opinion of management, is likely to be resolved without any material adverse effect upon the financial statements of the Church.

As part of the Church’s liquidity management, the Church invests a portion of its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. The Church had $53,715,126 and $53,639,073 in demand designated investments without senior restriction at January 31, 2022 and 2021. While the Church does not have any intention of liquidating the board designated investments, and they are not currently available for general expenditures, these funds could be made available with Church Council approval.

NOTE 22 - PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM LOAN

As a result of the economic uncertainty stemming from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, in April 2020, the Church received a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan in the principal amount of $77,000,000 from the United States Small Business Administration (SBA).

The Church elected to account for its PPP loan in accordance with ASC 832 and ASC 430. Under ASC 832 and ASC 430, the PPP loan proceeds are initially recorded as a financial liability and subsequently recognized as an increase in income from operations that would otherwise occur. As of January 31, 2022, the Church had not repaid the loan balance and there had been no legal release of, and therefore, the loan proceeds were recorded as a financial liability in the statement of financial position.

On July 27, 2021, the Church received notification that the United States Small Business Administration had forgiven the Church's application for forgiveness of the PPP loan and forgiven the loan and related accrued interest in full. The income from this loan forgiveness was recognized in the year ended January 31, 2021. As a result of this loan forgiveness, the Company recorded a gain of $6,694,145 which reflects the forgiveness of debt in the amount of $77,000,000 less expenses of $3,305,366 for grants of the PPP loan to the Church.

NOTE 23 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has performed an analysis of the actuarial and transactions subsequent to January 31, 2022, to determine the need for any adjustments to certain balances within the audited financial statements for the year ended January 31, 2022. Management has performed their analysis through July 29, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Auditors subsequent to this date have not been evaluated by management.
The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, “See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way;
the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
‘Prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight,’”

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

Grace to you and peace from God our Creator and from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

We are finally back together!
[The assembly responded with applause.]

I think for many of us this is the largest group of people who have been singing together that we’ve seen in two and a half years. Well done, and thank you to the musicians for their very good work!
[The assembly responded with applause.]

When I received the lessons appointed for this evening, I was curious because there is a lot of talk about wilderness, and not a lot of it very comforting, if you think about it. We have the voice crying in the wilderness, and then we have John the Baptist appearing in the wilderness, and then the Spirit immediately drove Jesus out into the wilderness. And we know that Elijah himself went one day’s journey into the wilderness after escaping from Ahab and Jezebel.

I think in many ways we, along with the rest of the world, have been living in a kind of wilderness brought about by this pandemic. It has been a difficult time for all of us, disjointed, isolated, separated from one another, not knowing if there would be a vaccine, and not knowing if it would work, and not knowing if we would get sick, or someone in our family would get sick. So, with faith and—let's be clear—God's gift of science, we are able to gather here for this worship.

There are all kinds of wildernesses that we experience, and some of those were unmasked for many of us during the pandemic. There is the wilderness of racism, of inequitable health care, the wilderness of not being able to find a decent job, or send your kids to a decent school. That is a wilderness that is not created by the people who suffer from it but created by the wilderness of our own sinful systems in this church and in the country.

Wildernesses are not pleasant. They are a wasteland, they are desolate, they are dangerous, they are threatening, they are not at the center of society or security, but they are pushed out on the edge. Marginalized people in communities have also been pushed out and are on the edge and away from resources.

It struck me how people were labeled ‘essential workers.’ Of course, we are grateful for the medical professionals and our first responders, but think of those who were labeled ‘essential workers,’ who risked their lives to make sure our hospitals were clean, our trash was picked up, our groceries were bagged, etc. Often, those were ones who were not able to access affordable health care. We know that that is a truth, and that during this pandemic some folks found themselves even more in the wilderness that had been created for them, including, I would say, the community from Iglesia Luterana Santa María Peregrina, whom we have hurt and to whom I will, on your behalf, offer an apology tomorrow afternoon.

But there are other ways that we get marginalized, even those of us with power and privilege. We can be marginalized, and we find ourselves caught ever more tightly or deeply or ‘barrenly’ in the wilderness, when we make our own efforts to save ourselves, our families, our country, our church apart from God, apart from the direction of the Spirit. We get ourselves further into the wilderness apart from each other, past, present, and future.

I know we have a lot of important issues to deliberate on and also, hopefully, as the Spirit opens our ears and hearts, we will discern what the Spirit is doing with our church, and I expect there will be some spirited discussion and conversation in the next few days. That’s good, but all of us are the ELCA. I am not the ELCA; you are not the ELCA; they are not the ELCA. We, all of us together, are the ELCA, and this is not our church, it is Christ’s church.

The more we forge ahead in the confidence of our own power, the farther we go into the wilderness. In the gospel, we hear about one crying in the wilderness. It is a quote from Isaiah, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord,’ and this is yet another way that we twist what God has given to us as promises and assurance and hope. We twist them into demands and into ominous warnings to get it right before the Lord comes again. We hear, ‘Prepare,’ and what do you think about when you are hearing that in the beginning of Advent (besides the Christmas lists, Christmas cards, and all that sort of thing)? It is an ominous thing, that we had better get ourselves together. That is impossible, first, but second, this turns this into our work and not the fulfillment of God’s promise, and it gets to be really, really exhausting. I think I am not so unlike all of you when, several times during these last several years, I have felt that I just have no more answers. I cannot think anymore; I have no more to give; I just want to give up; I can't do this.

Our younger daughter, Susanna, did her science fair project one year on non-Newtonian fluids, and so we made green slime. What makes [a fluid] non-Newtonian [is that] the harder and faster you try to stir this fluid, the more stuck it gets, until finally it seize up completely. And I think maybe that’s where I am in some ways and the church is in some ways. I am done. I quit. Let’s give it to somebody else to do, except the whole world is affected and not just us. Our own attempts at salvation turn God’s word of promise into fruitless and exhausting attempts to save ourselves.

But wilderness is also a liminal place, what the Celts call a ‘thin’ place. The wilderness is a place where the difference, the veil between the other world, the divine and the human world, is porous and it is possible to pass between those things, this very thin place. We notice that the connection to the holy seems effortless because we can be in that thin place apart from our own efforts, invited into that liminal, shimmering wilderness God wants for us.

In fact, we know that Jesus started out his ministry in the wilderness and that the Lord had a word with Elijah in the wilderness. So here we are in this time where God, Jesus, in fact, ministers at the margins, to the people who are marginalized and even we, who assume that we’ve got it all together, are marginalized. We are strangers. When we were yet dead in sin, Jesus saved us. And so, we were stuck in all of that, but now we have a chance. This is something that is a gift to the Church, and as we live this out, can be a gift from this church to the rest of the world. This incredible mixing, or blending, or meeting of the eternal and of the mortal.

In a little bit, we are going to sing a hymn which is one of my favorites, and in the second verse it says, ‘Mary learned that she would carry both the mortal and divine, incarnation in a momentary meeting of eternity and time.’ Mary was a liminal space, and we know that our Lord Jesus is a liminal space—fully human, fully divine. And we know that being baptized into the body of Christ, into this liminal body, we too are encountering the divine, even in our brokenness, and our messiness, and our sinfulness. When we receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion, we are receiving the infinite and the mortal at the same time. Eternity and time come together [in] this liminal meal which we will share in a little bit. And that through baptism, and the Lord’s Supper, these sacraments and the Word make us a liminal people. Can we, will we, God willing, exist—that we are existing—as a witness that there is not a great divide between God and God’s creation, that, in fact, God is already here and present in everything, inanimate or animate, and that we, the people of God, are now part of this liminal experience and witness to a world who wants to say it is either this way or that way, is either material or you people are just fooling yourselves, you are in so much denial, and pie in the sky? How can you believe that there is a God who loves this creation when we see the horrible things that we do, that others do to us, and that happen all around us?

But, in fact, we are part of this liminal body, and when we find ourselves marginalized in our own wildernesses, or in the wildernesses other people have created, it is important for us to take a lesson from Elijah. Elijah was not happy. He was running for his life, literally running for his life, and he couldn’t hear God, and he didn’t feel that he was in a liminal place in the wilderness. It took God appearing to Elijah in a very specific, important, and particular way.

You know, I am not very good at silence. There are very few times in my life when I experience silence. There is the ever-present ambient noise of the city, or the office, or trains, or planes, or power mowers, or power tools, the intrusive alerts from our computers signaling new calls, or texts, or emails. When the world around me is mostly still, I notice I am not. There is a circus going on in my head. You know, grocery lists, and ‘Have I picked up that?’, and snatches of tunes, and all of those sorts of things.

I am not sure what drives this acoustic and mental busyness, but I know I am not the only one who so seldom experiences silence. Maybe we are just trying to get more stuff done; maybe it is a fear of missing out; maybe it is habit. I do know that this constant noise and stimulation can be exhausting and stressful. The more noise, the louder we become in order to be heard over the noise, which leads to more noise.

My spiritual director has suggested that I spend 20 minutes a day in silence. I am up to about five right now. During the past three years, during the past 400 years, during the past 500 years, we have been assaulted by all kinds of noise and dissent and dissonance (not with really vigorous conversation and debate on these matters that are so important), but we get lost in all of this.

Well, the prophet Elijah, who had run into the wilderness and had decided that he was completely done with this whole being a prophet thing, he had a profound experience of silence. He was fleeing for his life from the wrath of Jezebel, and I imagine he was generating a lot of internal noise. But the word of the Lord came to Elijah and said, ‘Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord.’ We read how there was a great wind so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks to pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind, an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. And after the earthquake, a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. After that, a sound of sheer silence. Wind and earthquakes and fire all seem reasonable when God is making an entrance, and there are many instances in Scripture where God is announced with these kinds of sound and pyrotechnics, but this story from 1 Kings has always caught my attention. The phrase in verse 12 is often translated ‘the sound of a still, small voice,’ but it was not the sound of a voice that indicated that God was present. It was the sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle. He was in the presence of the holy.

So, here we are. We will be doing a lot of talking, but I do hope we find some time just to sit in stillness and silence in God’s presence. And when we do that, we can discover that we are not only in a liminal place where God has come near, not only in a liminal place where human and God were joined in the person of Jesus Christ, but we are a liminal church and a liminal people who hear this silence, the presence and the activity of God, and hopefully, we are able in some small way as the ELCA to help the world see that God is not far off.

Now, back to Mark. In the gospel for today, we hear the quotation from Isaiah, chapter 40, “in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord.’” but before that in Isaiah, the first few verses in chapter 40, we hear God saying “Comfort, comfort, my people.” We hear prepare as a threat, or an assignment, or a warning. But this word ‘comfort’ in Hebrew is actually the plural imperative, and as God was sending this messenger before the Messiah, God was saying to God’s heavenly court, ‘You comfort the people.’ And then we hear the promise, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord,’ and sure enough, we do find that the Lord came.

The problem with our busyness, or our self-control, or our need to save ourselves is that we so often turn God’s promises somehow into threats or work to be done, but that’s really not true. There was another interesting piece to this in the gospel lesson, and it is only in Mark that we hear this sort of thing. Jesus in the presence of God, in the silence, Jesus’,self a liminal being bringing us closer to God and God closer to us, he is driven into the wilderness, which should be an unpleasant experience, and the other gospels give us a better detail of what was going on there. But we hear only in Mark that Satan tempted Jesus, that he stayed there for 40 days, that he was with the wild animals, and the angels tended to him. We never hear that Satan left, and it quite possibly may be that Satan never withdrew. It is kind of like the fiery serpents in the book of Numbers who troubled the people of Israel after they were worshiping a golden calf. We never hear that they leave either.

We know that, as baptized, forgiven, liminal people, the presence of God is closer than our own breath. We also know that to be in the body of Christ in the world today is also going to mean suffering, but it is not in vain, and it does not go unnoticed or unmarked by our loving God. We have—and we soon shall [again]—heard, and touched, and tasted the Lord. Taste and see that the Lord is good!

You notice God sent the angel one more time to Elijah to get him back on his feet, and the angel said to Elijah, “Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.” The journey is too much for us, for this church, apart from the dear presence of our Lord, apart from the nourishment that we receive in Word and sacrament, the journey is too much, but this God is ever near in this church that can be a witness to the liminal presence of God. We are fed, and we are watered, and we are washed, and we are sent.

We are a liminal, living church with a God who is never, ever far from us, and I pray that during our time here together we can be such a clear witness to each other and to ourselves that God is at work in us and through us in spite of all our messiness, and that God’s will will be done, and that the wholeness and abundance of life that God intends for every single person and for all of creation will be realized in our lives, and we will help other people to see that God realizes that in them. Amen.

INTRODUCTION

The Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America reflect the theology and polity of this church as it organizes itself to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, share the sacraments, reach out to the neighbor with good news, and share the love of God in the world. Each expression of this church — churchwide, synod, and congregation — is held together in a relationship of interdependence that encourages each to respond to its context. These documents also demonstrate our commitment to seeing ourselves with others as part of the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

These documents are the result of a process that saw the formation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in 1988. They are rooted in Scripture, the Lutheran Confessions, and the experiences of predecessor church bodies. Intentionally connected to this past, they also have been amended over the years to address the current context into which we have been called to serve. These are structures that do change to express the work of Christ’s church in the world as it is today. There is an underlying conviction that we are united by Christ for this work.

We, as members of this church, find ourselves consulting these documents frequently to guide, direct, and assist us in mission and ministry together. They remind us that this is not our church, but God’s church. As God’s people, living in relationship with God and with one another, we serve in God’s good world. “God’s work. Our hands.”

CONSTITUTION, BYLAWS, AND CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS
of the
EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA®
CODIFICATION EXPLANATION

The provisions of the Constitution, the Bylaws, and the Continuing Resolutions that pertain to the same matter have been placed together. This arrangement requires that the three types of material be identified by means other than physical separation.

The three types of provisions are identified by the following devices:

a. All constitutional provisions are printed in bold face type.

b. All bylaw provisions are printed in light face type.

c. All continuing resolutions are printed in italic type.

d. A numerical codification indicates general subject, constitutional provisions, bylaw provisions, and continuing resolutions.

Major sections are designated as chapters. The chapters are numbered 1 through 22. The chapter designation becomes the first number in the codification sequence and is followed by a period. Thus, provisions in "Chapter 14, Church Council" are preceded by "14:.

Subsections are numbered and designated by a number ending in zero. Thus, a subdivision of Chapter 12 that contains provisions regarding the Churchwide Assembly is codified and titled "12.20. Duties of the Churchwide Assembly." When subjects that are bylaw provisions only are titled, the same principles would apply within the third number sequence, e.g., 12.41.10. Voting Members.

Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers, the chapter number and a two-digit number preceding the second period in the codification. Thus, one constitutional provision related to the presiding bishop of this church is 13:21.

Bylaw provisions are codified with three sets of numbers: the chapter number, the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit bylaw number. Thus, one bylaw provision related to the secretary of this church is codified as 13:41:01.

Continuing resolutions are also codified with three sets of numbers except that the third set is preceded by a capital letter. Thus, a continuing resolution might be numbered 16:16.11 to designate the chapter, 16:11.1 to designate the subject matter within the chapter, and the third set might be numbered A16 in the codification 16:11 A16. to indicate by the "A" that it is the first continuing resolution regarding that subject and by the "16" that it was adopted in 1616.

When many related provisions are parts of a unit that are considered inseparable, they are normally numbered "a," "b," "c," etc. When related provisions are part of a unit but considered separable, such as a list of duties, they are normally numbered in sequence. If the related provisions cannot be clearly judged to be separable or inseparable, preference will be given to a number sequence.

If chapter numbers are considered the major sequence number, constitution numbers as a fraction of the chapter number, and bylaw numbers as a fraction of the constitution number, then the codification follows a progressive sequence. Thus, 8:21 will precede 8:22.02, and 9:21.01 will precede 9:22.

Provisions in the Constitution for Synods are prefixed with "S," and those in the Model Constitution for Congregations with "C."

In these governing documents, with the exception of the "Restated Articles of Incorporation," "Church" with a capital letter is used in references to the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. In references to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the words "church" and "this church" in lowercase letters are employed.

Chapter 2.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

2.01. This church confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

2.02. This church confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
   a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
   b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
   c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.

2.03. This church accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.

2.04. This church accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this church.

2.05. This church accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.

2.06. This church accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.

2.07. This church confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scripture and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.
Chapter 3.
NATURE OF THE CHURCH

3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this church are to be carried out under his rule and authority.

3.02. This church confesses the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church and is resolved to serve Christian unity throughout the world.

3.03. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. This church, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

3.04. This church, inspired and led by the Holy Spirit, participates in The Lutheran World Federation as a global communion of churches, engaging in faithful witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and in service for the sake of God’s mission in the world.

Chapter 5.
PRINCIPLES OF ORGANIZATION

5.01. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be one church. This church recognizes that all power and authority in the Church belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ, its head. Therefore, all actions of this church by congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization shall be carried out under his rule and authority in accordance with the following principles:

a. The congregations, synods, and churchwide organization shall act in accordance with the Confession of Faith set forth in Chapter 2 of this constitution and with the Statement of Purpose set forth in Chapter 4.

b. This church, in faithfulness to the Gospel, is committed to be an inclusive church in the midst of division in society. Therefore, in their organization and outreach, the congregations, synods, and churchwide units of this church shall seek to exhibit the inclusive unity that is God’s will for the Church.

c. The congregations, synods, and churchwide organization of this church are interdependent expressions sharing responsibly in God’s mission. In an interdependent relationship, primary responsibility for particular functions will vary among the expressions. Whenever possible, the entity most directly affected by a decision shall be the principal party responsible for decision and implementation, with the other entities facilitating and assisting. Each congregation, synod, and separately incorporated ministry, as well as the churchwide organization itself, is a separate legal entity and is responsible for exercising its powers and authorities.

d. Each congregation and synod in its governing documents shall include the Confession of Faith and Statement of Purpose and such components as are required in the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Beyond these common elements, congregations and synods shall be free to organize in such manner as each deems appropriate for its jurisdiction.

e. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution and bylaws, the appropriate office or unit of the churchwide organization, through the Church Council, shall establish processes that will ensure that at least 60 percent of the members of its assemblies, councils, committees, boards, and other organizational units shall be laypersons; that at least 45 percent of the lay members of these assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be women and at least 45 percent shall be men, and that, where possible, the representation of ministers of Word and Sacrament shall include both men and women. At least 10 percent of the members of these assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English. Processes shall be developed that will assure that in selecting staff there will be a balance of women and men, persons of color and persons whose primary language is other than English, laypersons, and persons on the rosters of this church. This balance is to be evident in the selection of staff consistent with the inclusive policy of this church.

f. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution and bylaws, synods, through synod councils, shall establish processes that will ensure that at least 60 percent of the members of their assemblies, councils, committees, boards, and other organizational units shall be laypersons; that at least 45 percent of the lay members of their assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units shall be women and at least 45 percent shall be men, and that, where possible, the representation of ministers of Word and Sacrament shall include both women and men. Each synod shall establish processes that will enable it to reach a minimum goal that 10 percent of the membership of its assemblies, councils, committees, boards, or other organizational units be persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English.

g. A layperson is a person who is not on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament or the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church.

h. Leaders in this church should demonstrate that they are servants by their words, lifestyle, and manner of leadership. Leaders in this church will recognize their accountability to the Triune God, to the whole Church, to each other, and to the organization of this church in which they have been asked to serve.

i. As a steward of the resources that God has provided, this church shall organize itself to make the most effective use of its resources to accomplish its mission.

j. Each assembly, council, committee, board, task force, or other body of the churchwide organization or any churchwide units shall be conclusively presumed to have been properly constituted, and neither the method of selection nor the composition of any such assembly, council, committee, board, task force, or other body may be challenged in a court of law by any person or be used as the basis of a challenge in a court of law to the validity or effect of any action taken or authorized by any such assembly, council, committee, board, task force, or other body.
5.01.A16. This church commits itself to ethnic and racial diversity. Each expression of this church shall annually assess its ethnic and racial diversity when compared to the demographic data of its community or territory. The churchwide organization will work with synods as they assist congregations to reach out to persons of color or whose primary language is other than English.

5.01.B19. Each synod shall submit its goals and strategies to the appropriate churchwide unit or office and shall annually submit a report on progress toward its goals to such unit or office.

5.01.C21. The term, “persons of color and/or persons whose primary language is other than English,” shall be understood to mean African American, African Descent, Black, Arab and Middle Eastern, Asian and Pacific Islander, Latino, American Indian, and Alaska Native people. This definition, however, shall not be understood as limiting this church’s commitment to inclusive participation in its life and work.

5.01.D16. The Churchwide Assembly shall receive reports from the presiding bishop and the secretary that monitor this church’s progress toward meeting the commitment expressed in 5.01.A16.

5.01.E19. The Church Council shall establish triennial percentage goals for this church to meet the commitment expressed in 5.01.A16. The minimum goal shall be that at least 10 percent of the members of this church shall be persons of color or whose primary language is other than English.

5.01.F19. It is the goal of this church that at least 10 percent of the voting members of the Churchwide Assembly, Church Council, and churchwide boards and committees be youth and young adults. The Church Council shall establish a plan for implementing this goal. For purposes of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA, the term “youth” means a voting member of a congregation who has not reached the age of 18 at the time of election or appointment for service. The term “young adult” means a voting member of a congregation between the ages of 18 and 30 at the time of election or appointment for service.

5.01.G19. To implement 5.01.e., those deacons elected as laypersons prior to the adoption of this provision may complete the term to which they were elected as a layperson. They would not be eligible for reelection as a layperson if such reelection were otherwise possible.

5.01.H21. For purposes of the representational principles set forth in 5.01.e. and f., the percentage of laypersons that is not allocated to women or men may be allocated to persons who identify as gender non-binary, gender fluid, women, men, or other genders.
Chapter 6.
MEMBERSHIP

6.01. The members of this church shall be the baptized members of its congregations.

6.02. Membership status and the obligations and rights of congregation members are determined by reference to Chapter 8 of the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

6.03. The synods of this church and the churchwide organization have no individual members except for those congregation members who serve as voting members of the synod corporations and churchwide corporation.

6.04. The voting members of the synods and churchwide organization shall be those congregation members serving as members of the synod assemblies and the Churchwide Assembly respectively. Membership in a congregation does not, in and of itself, confer voting rights in these corporations.
Chapter 7.

In its function and its structure this church commits itself to the equipping and supporting of all its members for their ministries in the world and in this church. Authorization for such service shall be reviewed annually and renewed only when a demonstrated need remains for its continuation.

No person who belongs to any organization such as a lodge or fraternal order which claims to possess in its teachings and ceremonies that which the Lord has given solely to the Church shall be called and received onto the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament or otherwise received into the ministry of this church, nor shall any person so called and received onto the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament or otherwise received by this church be retained in its ministry who subsequently joins or is discovered to be a member of such an organization.

7.40. Calls for Ministers of Word and Sacrament

7.41.01. Service under Call. A minister of Word and Sacrament of this church shall serve under a letter of call properly extended by a congregation, a Synod Council, a Synod Assembly, the Church Council, or the Churchwide Assembly.

a. Calls may be extended for stated periods of time and for shared-time ministry by the appropriate calling body under criteria recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council for service in a congregation, synod, or churchwide unit, in an institution or agency of this church, or in another setting in a category of work as provided by continuing resolution 7.44.A19.

b. A pastor serving under call to a congregation shall be a member of that congregation. In a parish of multiple congregations, a pastor shall be a member of one of the congregations being served.

c. Ministers of Word and Sacrament serving in interim ministry appointed by the synod bishop may serve under a letter of call, according to policies developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and approved by the Church Council. A call to interim ministry shall be a term call extended by the Synod Council upon recommendation of the synod bishop.

7.41.02. Initial Call to Congregational Service. Because the responsibilities of the office of the ministry of Word and Sacrament are most clearly focused in the congregational pastorate, experience in which is deemed by this church to be invaluable for all other ministry of Word and Sacrament, initial service of at least three years shall be in a congregation of this church or, with the approval of the synod bishop, a congregation of a church body with which a relationship of full communion exists. Exceptions to the three-year requirement may be granted under criteria and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

7.41.03. Calls to Non-Congregational Service. Calls to serve in institutions, agencies, and other entities inside and outside this church may be extended where there is an identifiable relationship of the work to the purpose of the ministry of Word and Sacrament. Such calls involve, for example, the care of the Word, the administration of the sacraments, pastoral care, and activities closely associated with those tasks including oversight in the church and in inter-Lutheran and inter-church agencies and institutions. Care is to be exercised so that positions in the church and in the world that can be filled adequately and appropriately by the laity not be filled by ministers of Word and Sacrament for their convenience or status. Synod councils and the Church Council may seek the advice of the Conference of Bishops in specific situations.

7.41.04. Non-Stipendiary Service Under Call. When it is deemed necessary for the mission needs of this church, a letter of call may be issued by the Synod Council—according to criteria, policies, and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council—to a minister of Word and Sacrament for non-stipendiary service after the Synod Council has sought and received approval by the Conference of Bishops. Care is to be exercised so that positions in the church and in the world that can be filled adequately and appropriately by the laity not be filled by ministers of Word and Sacrament for their convenience, status, or personal preference. A call to non-stipendiary service is to be reviewed at least annually by the Synod Council and continued only as warranted for the ministry needs of this church. Such a call may be terminated by the Synod Council when it is no longer serving the mission needs of this church.

7.41.05. Calls to Serve in Unusual Circumstances. When it is deemed to be in the interests of this church, in the care of the Gospel, ministers of Word and Sacrament may be called for a stated period of time, not to exceed three years, to minister on behalf of this church while employed in an occupation outside the traditional range of the ministry of Word and Sacrament. Such calls may be extended by a Synod Council or the Church Council upon recommendation by the Conference of Bishops according to criteria and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council. A call to serve in unusual circumstances is to be reviewed at least annually by the Synod Council or Church Council and continued only as warranted for the ministry needs of this church. Such a call may be terminated when it is no longer serving the mission needs of this church.

7.41.06. Calls in Predecessor Church Bodies. Calls extended in predecessor church bodies that have not terminated are to be treated as current calls issued by and responsible to the appropriate expression of this church. Accountability for specific calls to service extended in predecessor church bodies shall be exercised in compliance with the governing documents, policies, and procedures of this church.

7.41.07. Retirement. Ministers of Word and Sacrament may retire upon attainment of age 60, or after 30 years on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church or one of its predecessor bodies, and continue to be listed on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, by action of the Synod Council in the synod in which the minister of Word and Sacrament is listed on the roster.

a. The policies and procedures for granting retired status on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament shall be developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

b. If a minister of Word and Sacrament who has been granted retired status resides at too great a distance from any congregation of this church to be able to sustain an active relationship with that congregation, or if there are no congregations of this church in the vicinity, other than a congregation previously served, the bishop of the synod in which the minister of Word and Sacrament is listed on the roster may grant permission for the minister of Word and Sacrament to hold membership in a congregation of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

7.41.08. Disability. Ministers of Word and Sacrament may be granted disability status and continue to be listed on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, by action of the Synod Council in the synod in which the minister of Word and Sacrament is listed on the roster.

a. The policies and procedures for designation of disability on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament shall be developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

b. If a minister of Word and Sacrament who has been granted disability status resides at too great a distance from any congregation of this church to be able to sustain an active relationship with that congregation, or if there are no congregations of this church in the vicinity, other than a congregation previously served, the bishop of the synod in which the minister of Word and Sacrament is listed on the roster may grant permission for the minister of Word and Sacrament to hold membership in a congregation of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

7.41.09. Retention of Roster Records. When a minister of Word and Sacrament resigns or is removed from the roster of this church, the roster record shall be retained by the secretary of this church, and the synod bishop shall invite the person at the time of resignation or removal to provide, annually, appropriate current information for the roster record.

7.42. Each person on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church shall be related to that synod:

a. to which the congregation issuing the call to the minister of Word and Sacrament is related;

b. which issues a letter of call to the minister of Word and Sacrament;

34 / ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 7 (04-2022)
c. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament was listed at the time of the issuance of a letter of call from the Church Council;
d. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament, if a seminary teacher or administrator, was assigned by the seminary board, subject to approval by the synod bishop and Synod Council of each affected synod, to promote proportionate representation of faculty and administration in each synod of its region;
e. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament was listed at the time of the issuance of a call to federal chaplaincy or on the roster of the synod of current address, if approved by the synod bishop and received by the Synod Council;
f. in which the minister of Word and Sacrament, upon receiving a call from this church, serves as a deployed staff person or on the roster of one of the synods to which the minister of Word and Sacrament is deployed;
g. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament, if granted on-leave-from-call status, was listed when last called or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Sacrament for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church;
h. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament, if granted disability status, was listed when last called or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Sacrament for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church; or
i. on whose roster the minister of Word and Sacrament, if granted retired status, was listed when last called or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Sacrament for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.42.01. If the service of a minister of Word and Sacrament who receives and accepts a letter of call from this church, under 7.42 c., would be enhanced through transfer of roster status from the previous synod of roster to the synod of current address, such a transfer may be authorized upon mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.42.02. In certain circumstances for the sake of the ministry and mission needs of this church, the transfer of roster status of a minister of Word and Sacrament serving under call in the churchwide organization may be authorized, at the initiative of the presiding bishop of this church, upon mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved in such a transfer after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.43. A letter of call issued by a Synod Council or the Church Council to a minister of Word and Sacrament of this church shall be either coterminous with, or not longer than, the duration of the service or employment for which the call was issued. With the exception of persons designated as employees of a synod or the churchwide organization, such a call does not imply any employment relationship or contractual obligation in regard to employment on the part of the Synod Council or Church Council issuing the call. The recipient of such a call remains subject to this church’s standards and discipline for ministry of Word and Sacrament, as contained in this church’s constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions and in the policy and procedure documents of this church.

7.43.01. When the Synod Council or the Church Council, as the calling source, determines that the service or employment no longer fulfills the criteria under which a call was issued, the Synod Council or the Church Council shall vacate the call and direct that the individual be placed on leave from call or, if such leave status is not granted, the individual shall be removed from the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament.

7.43.02. Ministers of Word and Sacrament previously under call to the churchwide organization or to a synod shall respect the integrity of the ministry in which they no longer serve and shall not interfere with or exercise the functions of the office or position in which they no longer serve unless invited to do so by the presiding bishop or Church Council in the churchwide organization or, in the synods, by the bishop or the Synod Council.

7.44. Each synod shall maintain a roster containing the names of those ministers of Word and Sacrament who are related to it on the basis of 7.42. of this constitution. All additions, deletions, changes, and corrections to this roster shall be reported promptly to the Office of the Secretary.

7.44.A19. Sources of Calls for Ministers of Word and Sacrament

  a. Principles for Sources of Calls

  1) A “call” is an action by expressions of this church, as specified in the “Table of Sources of Calls for Ministers of Word and Sacrament,” through which a person is asked to serve in a specified ministry. Such an action is attested in a “letter of call.”

  2) Interdependence within the body of this church suggests that any action of one of its entities affects other entities. Therefore, interdependence is expressed in all calls extended within this church.

  3) A call expresses a relationship between this church and the person called involving mutual service, support, accountability, supervision, and discipline.
4) A letter of call is issued by that expression of this church authorized to do so which is most directly involved in accountability for the specified ministry.

5) Decisions on calls for ministries in unusual circumstances not otherwise provided for but deemed to be in the interests of this church’s care of the Gospel are referred to the Conference of Bishops for recommendation to the appropriate calling body.

7.45. In keeping with the historic discipline and practice of the Lutheran church and to be true to a sacred trust inherent in the nature of the pastoral office, no minister of Word and Sacrament of this church shall divulge any confidential disclosure received in the course of the care of souls or otherwise in a professional capacity, nor testify concerning conduct observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament while working in a pastoral capacity, except with the express permission of the person who has given confidential information to the minister of Word and Sacrament or who was observed by the minister of Word and Sacrament, or if the person intends great harm to self or others.

7.46. The provisions for termination of the mutual relationship between a minister of Word and Sacrament and a congregation shall be as follows:

a. The call of a congregation, when accepted by a pastor, shall constitute a continuing mutual relationship and commitment which shall be terminated only by the pastor’s death or, following consultation with the synod bishop, for the following reasons:

(04-2022) ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 7 / 39
1) mutual agreement to terminate the call or the completion of a call for a specific term;
2) resignation of the pastor, which shall become effective, unless otherwise agreed, no later than 30 days after the date on which it was submitted;
3) inability to conduct the pastoral office effectively in that congregation in view of local conditions;
4) physical disability or mental incapacity of the pastor;
5) suspension of the pastor through discipline for more than three months;
6) resignation or removal of the pastor from the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church;
7) termination of the relationship between this church and the congregation;
8) dissolution of the congregation or the termination of a parish arrangement; or
9) suspension of the congregation through discipline for more than six months.

b. When allegations of physical disability or mental incapacity of the pastor under paragraph a.4) above, or ineffective conduct of the pastoral office under paragraph a.3) above, have come to the attention of the bishop of this synod,
   1) the bishop in his or her sole discretion may investigate such conditions personally together with a committee of two rostered ministers and one layperson, or
   2) when such allegations have been brought to the synod’s attention by an official recital of allegations by the Congregation Council or by a petition signed by at least one-third of the voting members of the congregation, the bishop personally shall investigate such conditions together with a committee of two rostered ministers and one layperson.

c. In case of alleged physical disability or mental incapacity under paragraph a.4) above, the bishop’s committee shall obtain and document competent medical opinion concerning the pastor’s condition. When a disability or incapacity is evident to the committee, the bishop of this synod may declare the pastorate vacant. When the pastorate is declared vacant, the Synod Council shall list the pastor on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament with disability status. Upon removal of the disability and restoration of the pastor to health, the bishop shall take steps to enable the pastor to resume the ministry, either in the congregation last served or in another appropriate call.

d. In the case of alleged local difficulties that imperil the effective functioning of the congregation under paragraph a.3) above, the bishop’s committee shall endeavor to hear from all concerned persons, after which the bishop together with the committee shall present their recommendations first to the pastor and then to the congregation. The recommendations of the bishop's committee must address whether the pastor's call should come to an end and, if so, may suggest appropriate severance arrangements. The committee may also propose other actions that should be undertaken by the congregation and by the pastor, if appropriate. If the pastor and congregation agree to carry out such recommendations, no further action need be taken by the synod.

e. If either party fails to assent to the recommendations of the bishop's committee concerning the pastor's call, the congregation may dismiss the pastor only at a legally called meeting after consultation with the bishop, either (a) by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee did not recommend termination of the call, or (b) by a majority vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee recommended termination of the call.

f. If, in the course of proceedings described in paragraph c. or paragraph d. above, the bishop's committee concludes that there may be grounds for discipline, the committee shall make recommendations concerning disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of this church's constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions.

7.50. MINISTRY OF WORD AND SERVICE

7.51. This church calls and receives onto the roster qualified persons to provide a ministry of Word and Service, exemplifying the life of Christ-like service to all persons and creation: nurturing, healing, leading, advocating dignity and justice, and equipping the whole people of God for their life of witness and service within and beyond the congregation for the sake of God's mission in the world.

7.52. A minister of Word and Service of this church shall be a person whose commitment to Christ, soundness in the faith, aptness to serve, teach, and witness, and educational qualifications have been examined and approved in the manner prescribed in the documents of this church; who has been properly called and ordained; who accepts and adheres to the Confession of Faith of this church; who is diligent and faithful in the exercise of ministry; and whose life and conduct are above reproach. A minister of Word and Service shall comply with this church's constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions.

7.53. The standards for acceptance and continuance of ministers of Word and Service of this church shall be set forth in the bylaws.

7.54. The secretary of this church shall maintain a roster containing the names of ministers of Word and Service who qualify on the basis of constitutional provisions 7.52., 7.53., and 7.61., and related bylaws.
7.54.01. Ministers of Word and Service shall be known as deacons.

7.54.A16. Those persons previously rostered as associates in ministry, deaconesses, or diaconal ministers in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be retained as deacons of this church (except for removals in accord with the governing documents, criteria, policies, and procedures of this church). Accountability for specific calls shall be exercised according to the policies and procedures of this church.

7.55. Ministers of Word and Service of this church shall be subject to discipline as set forth in Chapter 20 of this constitution.

7.60. STANDARDS FOR MINISTERS OF WORD AND SERVICE

7.61. In accordance with the description stated in 7.52, ministers of Word and Service shall be governed by the following standards, policies, and procedures.

7.61.01. Basic Standards. Persons admitted to and continued in the ministry of Word and Service of this church shall satisfactorily meet and maintain the following, as defined by this church’s constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions and in policies developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council:
   a. commitment to Christ;
   b. acceptance of and adherence to the Confession of Faith of this church;
   c. willingness and ability to serve in response to the needs of this church;
   d. academic and practical qualifications for ministry, including leadership abilities and competence in interpersonal relationships;
   e. commitment to lead a life worthy of the Gospel of Christ and in so doing to be an example in faithful service and holy living;
   f. receipt and acceptance of a letter of call; and
   g. membership in a congregation of this church.

7.61.02. Responsibilities. Consistent with the faith and practice of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, every minister of Word and Service shall:
   a. be rooted in the Word of God, for proclamation and service;
   b. advocate a prophetic diaconia that commits itself to risk-taking and innovative service on the frontiers of the Church’s outreach, giving particular attention to the suffering places in God’s world;
   c. speak publicly to the world in solidarity with the poor and oppressed, calling for justice and proclaiming God’s love for the world, witnessing to the realm of God in the community, the nation, and abroad;
   d. equip the baptized for ministry in God’s world that affirms the gifts of all people;
   e. encourage mutual relationships that invite participation and accompaniment of others in God’s mission;

42 / ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 7 (04-2022)
f. practice stewardship that respects God's gift of time, talents, and resources;
g. be grounded in a gathered community for ongoing diaconal formation;
h. share knowledge of this church and its wider ministry of the gospel, and advocate for the work of all expressions of this church; and
i. identify and encourage qualified persons to prepare for ministry of the gospel.

7.61.03. Preparation and Approval. Except as provided in 7.61.04., a candidate who is to be called and received onto the roster as a minister of Word and Service shall have:

a. membership in a congregation of this church and registration, by its pastor and council, of the candidate with the candidacy committee;
b. been granted entrance to candidacy by and under the guidance and supervision of the appropriate committee for at least a year before being approved for call;
c. completed the academic and practical preparation according to criteria and procedures established by the appropriate churchwide unit, after consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council;
d. been examined and approved by the appropriate committee according to criteria, policies, and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, after consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council;
e. been recommended to a congregation or other entity by the bishop of the synod to which the candidate has been assigned for first call in accordance with the procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council; and
f. received and accepted a properly issued and attested letter of call.

7.61.04. Approval under Other Circumstances. A candidate may, for reasons of age or prior experience, be granted approval under criteria and procedures which permit certain equivalencies as defined by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

7.61.05. No person who belongs to any organization such as a lodge or fraternal order which claims to possess in its teachings and ceremonies that which the Lord has given solely to the Church shall be called and received onto the roster of Ministers of Word and Service or otherwise received into the ministry of this church, nor shall any person so called and received onto the roster of Ministers of Word and Service or otherwise received by this church be retained in its ministry who subsequently joins or is discovered to be a member of such an organization.

7.61.06. Roster status in more than one church body is precluded in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. As required by constitutional provision 7.52. and bylaw 7.61.01., ministers on the Word and Service roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America must accept and adhere to this church’s Confession of Faith, as well as abide by this church’s standards and policies for ministers of Word and Service.

7.61.07. Reinstatement. A person seeking reinstatement as a minister of Word and Service shall be registered by the pastor and council of the congregation of which such a person is a member with the candidacy committee of the synod in which the person was last rostered or, upon mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved, after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church, with the candidacy committee of the synod of current residence. The person then shall be interviewed, examined, and approved for reinstatement by the candidacy committee under criteria, policies, and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council. In this process, the committee shall review the circumstances related to the termination of earlier service together with subsequent developments. The person is reinstated after receiving and accepting a letter of call to serve as a minister of Word and Service in this church.

7.61.08. On Leave from Call. A minister of Word and Service of this church, serving under a regularly issued letter of call, who leaves the work of that ministry without accepting another regularly issued letter of call, may be retained on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, by action of the Synod Council in the synod of which the minister of Word and Service is a member, under policy developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

a. Normative Pattern: By annual action of the Synod Council in the synod of which a member, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, a minister of Word and Service who is without a current letter of call may be retained on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church for a maximum of three years, beginning at the completion of an active call.

b. Study Leave: By annual action of the Synod Council in the synod of which a member, with the approval of the synod bishop and in consultation with the appropriate churchwide unit a minister of Word and Service engaged in graduate study, in a field of study that will enhance service in the ministry of Word and Service in this church, may be retained on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church for a maximum of six years.

c. Family Leave: A minister of Word and Service may request leave for family responsibilities: By annual action of the Synod Council in the synod of which a member, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, such a minister of Word and Service who is without a current letter of call and who requests leave for the birth or care of a child or children of the minister of Word and Service or the care of an immediate family member (child, spouse, or parent) with a serious health condition may be retained on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church—under policy developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council—for a maximum of six years, beginning at the completion of an active call.

d. Exception to these limits for the purpose of serving the needs of this church may be granted in accordance with established policy of this church by the Synod Council in the synod of current roster after having received approval by the Conference of Bishops.

7.61.A16. Any person removed from the roster of Ministers of Word and Service that existed on December 31, 1987, as cited herein, who seeks to return to active roster status must apply for acceptance to a roster of this church under the standards, criteria, policies, and procedures that apply to the official roster of Ministers of Word and Service. This same requirement shall apply to those certified during the period of January 1, 1988, through September 1, 1993, as associates in ministry of this church.

7.61.B16. A person on the roster of a previous church body or a person on the roster of associates in ministry of this church, who was so certified during the period between January 1, 1988, and September 1, 1993, shall relinquish such a roster category upon being received and accepted on another roster of this church.

7.70. CALLS FOR MINISTERS OF WORD AND SERVICE

7.71. Letters of Call. Letters of call to ministers of Word and Service of this church or properly approved candidates for this church’s roster of Ministers of Word and Service shall be issued in keeping with this church’s constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions as well as policies regarding such calls developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and approved by the Church Council.

7.71.01. Service under Call. A minister of Word and Service of this church shall serve under a letter of call properly extended by a congregation, a synod council, a synod assembly, the Church Council, or the Churchwide Assembly.

a. Calls may be extended for stated periods of time and for shared-time ministry by the appropriate calling body under criteria recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council for service in a congregation, synod, or churchwide unit, in an institution or agency of this church, or in another setting in a category of work as provided by continuing resolution 7.74.A19.

b. A minister of Word and Service serving under call to a congregation shall be a member of that congregation. In a parish of multiple congregations, a minister of Word and Service shall be a member of one of the congregations being served.

7.71.02. Non-Stipendiary Service Under Call. When it is deemed necessary for the mission needs of this church, a letter of call may be issued by the Synod
Council—according to criteria, policies, and procedures recommended by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council—to a minister of Word and Service for non-stipendiary service after the Synod Council has sought and received approval by the Conference of Bishops. A call to non-stipendiary service is to be reviewed at least annually by the Synod Council and continued only as warranted for the ministry needs of this church. Such a call may be terminated by the Synod Council when it is no longer serving the mission needs of this church.

7.71.03. Calls in Predecessor Church Bodies. Calls extended in predecessor church bodies that have not terminated are to be treated as current calls issued by and responsible to the appropriate expression of this church. Accountability for specific calls to service extended in predecessor church bodies shall be exercised in compliance with the governing documents, policies, and procedures of this church.

7.71.04. Retirement. Ministers of Word and Service may retire upon attainment of age 60, or after 30 years on a roster of this church or one of its predecessor bodies, and continue to be listed on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, by action of the Synod Council in the synod in which the minister of Word and Service is listed on the roster.
   a. The policies and procedures for granting retired status on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service shall be developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.
   b. If a minister of Word and Service who has been granted retired status resides at too great a distance from any congregation of this church to be able to sustain an active relationship with that congregation, or if there are no congregations of this church in the vicinity, other than a congregation previously served, the bishop of the synod in which the minister of Word and Service is listed on the roster may grant permission for the minister of Word and Service to hold membership in a congregation or parish of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

7.71.05. Disability. Ministers of Word and Service may be granted disability status, and continue to be listed on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church, upon endorsement by the synod bishop, by action of the Synod Council in the synod in which the minister of Word and Service is listed on the roster.
   a. The policies and procedures for designation of disability on the official roster of Ministers of Word and Service shall be developed by the appropriate churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.
   b. If a minister of Word and Service who has been granted disability status resides at too great a distance from any congregation of this church to be able to sustain an active relationship with that congregation, or if there are no congregations of this church in the vicinity other than a congregation previously served, the bishop of the synod in which the minister of Word and Service is listed on the roster may grant permission for the minister of Word and Service to hold membership in a congregation of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

7.71.06. Retention of Roster Records. When a minister of Word and Service resigns or is removed from the roster of this church, the roster record shall be retained by the secretary of this church, and the synod bishop shall invite the person at the time of resignation or removal to provide, annually, appropriate current information for the roster record.

7.72. Each person on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church shall be related to that synod:

a. to which the congregation issuing the call to the minister of Word and Service is related;
b. which issues a letter of call to the minister of Word and Service;
c. on whose roster the minister of Word and Service was listed at the time of the issuance of a letter of call from the Church Council;
d. on whose roster the minister of Word and Service, if a seminary teacher or administrator, was assigned by the seminary board, subject to approval by the synod bishop and Synod Council of each affected synod, to promote proportionate representation of faculty and administration in each synod of its region;
e. in which the minister of Word and Service, upon receiving a call from this church, serves as a deployed staff person or on the roster of one of the synods to which the minister of Word and Service is deployed;
f. on whose roster the minister of Word and Service, if granted on-leave-from-call status, was listed when last called or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Sacrament for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church;
g. on whose roster the minister of Word and Service, if granted disability status, was listed when last called, or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Service for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church; or
h. on whose roster the minister of Word and Service, if granted retired status, was listed when last called, or the synod of current address, upon application by the minister of Word and Service for transfer and the mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.72.01. If the service of a minister of Word and Service who receives and accepts a letter of call from this church, under 7.72.c., would be enhanced through transfer of roster status from the previous synod of roster to the synod of current address, such a transfer may be authorized upon mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.72.02. In certain circumstances for the sake of the ministry and mission needs of this church, the transfer of roster status of a minister of Word and Service serving under call in the churchwide organization may be authorized, at the initiative of the presiding bishop of this church, upon mutual agreement of the synod bishops involved in such a transfer after consultation with and approval by the secretary of this church.

7.73. A letter of call issued by a Synod Council or the Church Council to a minister of Word and Service of this church shall be either coterminous with, or not longer than, the duration of the service or employment for which the call was issued. With the exception of persons designated as employees of a synod or the churchwide organization, such a call does not imply any employment relationship or contractual obligation in regard to employment on the part of the Synod Council or Church Council issuing the call. The recipient of such a call remains subject to this church’s standards and discipline for ministry of Word and Service, as contained in this church’s constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions and in the policy and procedure documents of this church.

7.73.01. When the Synod Council or the Church Council, as the calling source, determines that the service or employment no longer fulfills the criteria under which a call was issued, the Synod Council or the Church Council shall vacate the call and direct that the individual be placed on leave from call or, if such leave status is not granted, the individual shall be removed from the roster of Ministers of Word and Service.

7.73.02. Ministers of Word and Service previously under call to the churchwide organization or to a synod shall respect the integrity of the ministry in which they no longer serve and shall not interfere with or exercise the functions of the office or position in which they no longer serve unless invited to do so by the presiding bishop or Church Council in the churchwide organization or, in the synods, by the bishop or the Synod Council.

7.74. Each synod shall maintain a roster containing the names of those ministers of Word and Service who are related to it on the basis of 7.72. of this constitution. All additions, deletions, changes, and corrections to this roster shall be reported promptly to the Office of the Secretary.
7.74.A21. Sources of Calls for Ministers of Word and Service

a. Principles for Sources of Calls

1) A “call” is an action by expressions of this church, as specified in the “Table of Sources of Calls for Ministers of Word and Service,” through which a person is asked to serve in a specified ministry. Such an action is attested in a “letter of call.”

2) Interdependence within the body of this church suggests that any action of one of its entities affects other entities. Therefore, interdependence is expressed in all calls extended within this church.

3) A call expresses a relationship between this church and the person called involving mutual service, support, accountability, supervision, and discipline.

4) A letter of call is issued by that expression of this church authorized to do so which is most directly involved in accountability for the specified ministry.

5) Decisions on calls for ministries in unusual circumstances not otherwise provided for but deemed to be in the interests of this church’s care of the Gospel are referred to the Conference of Bishops for recommendation to the appropriate calling body.

7.75. The provisions for termination of the mutual relationship between a minister of Word and Service and a congregation shall be as follows:

a. The call of a congregation, when accepted by a minister of Word and Service, shall constitute a continuing mutual relationship and commitment which shall be terminated only by the deacon's death or following consultation with the synod bishop for the following reasons:

1) mutual agreement to terminate the call or the completion of a call for a specific term;
2) resignation of the minister of Word and Service, which shall become effective, unless otherwise agreed, no later than 30 days after the date on which it was submitted;
3) inability to conduct the office to which they have been called effectively in that congregation in view of local conditions;
4) physical disability or mental incapacity of the minister of Word and Service;
5) suspension of the minister of Word and Service through discipline for more than three months;
6) resignation or removal of the minister of Word and Service from the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church;
7) termination of the relationship between this church and the congregation;
8) dissolution of the congregation or the termination of a parish arrangement; or
9) suspension of the congregation through discipline for more than six months.

b. When allegations of physical disability or mental incapacity of the deacon under paragraph a.4) above, or ineffective conduct of the office under paragraph a.3) above, have come to the attention of the bishop of this synod,

1) the bishop in his or her sole discretion may investigate such conditions personally together with a committee of two rostered ministers and one non-rostered person, or

c. In case of alleged physical disability or mental incapacity under paragraph a.4) above, the bishop's committee shall obtain and document competent medical opinion concerning the minister of Word and Service's condition. When a disability or incapacity is evident to the committee, the bishop of this synod may declare the position vacant. When the position is declared vacant, the Synod Council shall list the deacon on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service with disability status. Upon removal of the disability and restoration of the minister of Word and Service to health, the bishop shall take steps to enable the minister of Word and Service to resume the ministry, either in the congregation last served or in another appropriate call.

d. In the case of alleged local difficulties that imperil the effective functioning of the congregation under paragraph a.3) above, the bishop's committee shall endeavor to hear from all concerned persons, after which the bishop together with the committee shall present their recommendations first to the minister of Word and Service and then to the congregation. The recommendations of the bishop's committee must address whether the minister of Word and Service's call should come to an end and, if so, may suggest appropriate severance arrangements. The committee may also propose other actions that should be undertaken by the congregation and by the minister of Word and Service, if appropriate. If the minister of Word and Service and congregation agree to carry out such recommendations, no further action need be taken by the synod.

e. If either party fails to assent to the recommendations of the bishop's committee concerning the minister of Word and Service's call, the congregation may dismiss the minister of Word and Service only at a legally called meeting after consultation with the bishop, either (a) by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee did not recommend termination of the call, or (b) by a majority vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee recommended termination of the call.

f. If, in the course of proceedings described in paragraph c. or paragraph d. above, the bishop's committee concludes that there may be grounds for discipline, the committee shall make recommendations concerning disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of this church's constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions.
Chapter 8.
RELATIONSHIPS

8.10. RELATIONSHIP OF CONGREGATIONS, SYNODS, THE CHURCHWIDE ORGANIZATION, AND THE LUTHERAN WORLD FEDERATION

8.11. This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent. Each part, while fully the church, recognizes that it is not the whole church and therefore lives in an interdependent relationship with the others.

8.12. The congregation shall include in its mission a life of worship and nurture for its members, and outreach in witness and service to its community.

8.13. The synod shall provide for pastoral care of the congregations, ministers of Word and Sacrament, and ministers of Word and Service within its boundaries. It shall plan for, facilitate, and nurture the life and mission of its people and shall enlarge the ministries and extend the outreach into society on behalf of and in connection with the congregations and the churchwide organization. Conferences, clusters, coalitions, other area subdivisions, or networks shall serve to assist the congregations and synods in exercising their mutual responsibilities.

8.14. The churchwide organization shall implement the extended mission of the Church, developing churchwide policies in consultation with the synods and congregations, entering into relationship with governmental, ecumenical, and societal agencies in accordance with accepted resolutions and/or in response to specific agreed-upon areas of responsibility.

8.15. The three expressions of this church—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—all share in the responsibility to develop, implement, and strengthen the financial support program of this church.

8.16. In faithful participation in the mission of God in and through this church, congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—as interdependent expressions of this church—shall be guided by the biblical and confessional commitments of this church. Each shall recognize that mission efforts must be shaped by both local needs and global awareness, by both individual witness and corporate endeavor, and by both distinctly Lutheran emphases and growing ecumenical cooperation.

8.17. References herein to the nature of the relationship between the three expressions of this church—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—as being interdependent or as being in a partnership relationship describe the mutual responsibility of these expressions in God's mission, and the fulfillment of the purposes of this church as described in Chapter 4, and do not imply or describe the creation of partnerships, co-ventures, agencies, or other legal relationships recognized in civil law.

8.18. This church shall not, in any manner, be responsible for the debts or liabilities of other religious or charitable organizations, institutions, or agencies, whether independent of or affiliated with this church, or whether denominated as Lutheran or related to any Lutheran church body.

8.19. This church affirms the relationship established through The Lutheran World Federation as a communion of churches that confess the triune God, agree in the proclamation of the Word of God, and are united in pulpit and altar fellowship.

8.19.01. The bylaws on ecumenical availability of ministers of Word and Sacrament under relationships of full communion shall apply to such service within this church of such ministers of other member churches of The Lutheran World Federation.

8.19.02. The bylaws on ecumenical availability of ministers of Word and Sacrament under relationships of full communion shall apply to such ministers of churches who have established a full communion relationship with a member church of The Lutheran World Federation provided that church is a member of a Christian World Communion that has a member church that is in full communion with this church.

8.20. RELATIONSHIP WITH INSTITUTIONS AND AGENCIES

8.21. Seminaries. This church shall sponsor, support, and provide for oversight of seminaries for the preparation of persons for rostered leadership and other ministries and for continuing study on the part of rostered ministers and laypersons.

8.21.01. Each seminary of this church shall be separately incorporated or, if unincorporated, shall be a school, department, or unit of a college or university of this church. Whether separately incorporated or not, seminaries of this church shall be governed consistent with policies established by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization. Seminaries may be organized into groupings, known as clusters, for the purposes of cooperation, interaction, and support.

8.21.02. Amendments to the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary and each seminary cluster shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval. Amendments to the governing documents of a college or university of this church that affect the authority or integrity of an unincorporated seminary of this church associated with that college or university shall be submitted, upon recommendation of the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization, to the Church Council for approval.

8.21.03. The board of directors of each separately incorporated seminary shall be nominated and elected to terms as specified in the governing documents of the respective seminaries, and shall consist of 12 to 30 members, as follows:

a. at least one-fifth nominated, in consultation with the seminaries, by the appropriate churchwide unit and elected by the Church Council;

b. two members elected by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number; and

c. the remaining members elected by the supporting synods, in consultation with the seminaries, with the number to be elected by each synod set forth in the governing documents of the seminary.

Elections shall be so arranged that the terms of all directors of any given seminary elected in any year shall commence simultaneously.

Each unincorporated seminary shall have an advisory council or governing board distinct from the board of directors of the college or university of which the seminary is a school, department, or unit. The seminary advisory council or governing board shall relate to the Church Council through the appropriate churchwide unit. The members of the unincorporated seminary’s advisory council or governing board shall be elected as specified in the governing documents of the related college or university, and shall consist of 12 to 30 members, as follows:

a. at least one-fifth nominated by the Church Council upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board;

b. two members nominated by the bishops of the supporting synods from among their number;

c. one member, who shall serve as chair of the advisory council or governing board and as a voting member of the board of directors of the college or university, nominated by the Church Council, upon recommendation of the appropriate churchwide unit after consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board; and

d. the remaining members to be from the supporting synods, nominated by the seminary’s advisory council or governing board in consultation with the supporting synods.

In accordance with the governing documents of each separately incorporated seminary, the board of directors shall elect the president of the seminary in consultation with the presiding bishop of this church and the appropriate churchwide unit. The board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the appointment of tenured faculty, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

Each unincorporated seminary shall have a chief administrative officer, such as an academic dean, seminary provost, or vice president, who is on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church. In the appointment or election of the chief administrative officer of the seminary, the college or university shall consult with the seminary advisory council or governing board, the presiding bishop of this church, and the appropriate churchwide unit. The college or university board shall exercise all other normal governance functions, including the appointment of tenured faculty, in consultation with the seminary’s advisory council or governing board, and shall have authority to recruit students throughout this church.

8.21.07. The seminaries shall receive churchwide and synod financial support. The amount of such support shall be determined through a consultation process involving seminaries, synods, and the appropriate churchwide unit. To implement financial support by this church, synods shall be assigned to specific seminaries in such manner as to attain equitable distribution of synods. Normally, all synods in a given region will be assigned to one seminary. Churchwide funds shall be distributed according to a formula developed by the appropriate churchwide unit and approved by the Church Council. Seminaries shall provide for their remaining financial requirements through tuition, fees, endowment income, and fundraising programs. Fundraising in the congregations of supporting synods, however, shall be conducted only upon approval of the synods.

8.21.08. Aid to students preparing for the ministries of this church shall be administered by the seminaries under guidelines developed by the appropriate churchwide units in consultation with the presidents of the seminaries.

8.22. Colleges and Universities. This church shall express its responsibility for higher education through its colleges and universities, the appropriate churchwide unit as determined by the Church Council, and its synods. While variation is possible in college or university relationships across this church, this church recognizes the desirability of some degree of uniformity of relationship for colleges and universities within the same region.

8.22.01. The relationship of this church to its colleges and universities shall be guided by policies fostering educational institutions dedicated to the Lutheran tradition wherein such institutions are an essential part of God’s mission in the world; faithful to the will of God as institutions providing quality instruction in religion and a lively ministry of worship, outreach, and service; diligent in their preparation of leaders committed to truth, excellence, and ethical values; and pledged to the well-being of students in the development of mind, body, and spirit.

8.22.02. Colleges and universities of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may relate to this church in various ways, including relationship with the Churchwide Assembly, the Church Council, a synod assembly, or a corporation whose voting members are, or have been elected by, synod assemblies, other organizational units (conferences, clusters, etc.), or congregations. Subject to approval by the appropriate synods, a college or university may be owned by a not-for-profit corporation (1) that has voting members, at least a majority of whom shall consist of members of the Churchwide Assembly or the Church Council, and (2) that shall hold the meeting of such a corporation in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly or the Church Council for the purpose of approving amendments to the articles of incorporation, and approving amendments to other governing documents which affect the relationship between the college or university and this church. A majority of the members of the governing board of a corporation that meets in conjunction with the Churchwide Assembly or Church Council shall be members of this church or of a church body with which this church is in a relationship of full communion, but under no circumstances shall fewer than forty (40) percent of the members of such board be members of this church.

8.22.03. Primary responsibility for recruiting members for its board belongs to each college or university of this church. This responsibility is best exercised when appropriate structures of this church are substantially involved. The college or university and the appropriate synods shall determine how many of the college or university board members are to be elected or ratified by the approved form of relationship as provided in 8.22.02.

8.22.04. The responsibility for initiating changes in constitutional documents rests with each college or university of this church. Each college or university will reach agreement with the appropriate structures of this church as identified in 8.22.02. regarding changes in constitutional documents. This church's participation may range from prior consultation to final approval.

8.22.05. Representation of members of this church on college or university boards, limitation of terms for board members, whether or not college or university presidents shall be members of this church, and representation of bishops of synods on college or university boards shall be determined by each institution and the appropriate synods.

8.22.06. In addition to and consistent with the above provision 8.22 and bylaws 8.22.01 through 8.22.05, colleges and universities of this church where a school, department, or unit of that institution is a seminary of this church must comply with all requirements, policies, procedures, and standards specified in provision 8.21 and bylaws 8.21.01 through 8.21.08.

8.23. Institutions and Agencies. This church shall seek to meet human needs through encouragement of its people to individual and corporate action, and through establishing, developing, recognizing, and supporting institutions and agencies that minister to people in their spiritual and temporal needs.

8.23.01. Social ministry organizations affiliate with this church through criteria and policies developed by the appropriate churchwide unit and through membership in Lutheran Services in America.

8.30. SPECIAL INTEREST CONFERENCES

8.31. This church cherishes the diversity of cultural and linguistic groups as they are brought together in the geographic synods, recognizing, however, that certain groups, for historical reasons, may be able to meet needs and share resources through special interest conferences, which for the present cannot occur in the regular life within the geographic synods.
8.31.01. Because of both official and informal international contacts with other churches, the Danish Special Interest Conference, Finnish (Suomi) Special Interest Conference, German Lutheran Conference in North America, and Hungarian Special Interest Conference shall relate to this church under the authority of the presiding bishop of this church through an executive or designated unit as determined by the presiding bishop. Official contacts and relationships of the special interest conferences with leaders and representatives of other churches shall be coordinated through the Office of the Presiding Bishop.

8.40. RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER LUTHERAN ORGANIZATIONS

8.41. This church may establish relationships with Lutheran organizations, institutions, or agencies whose purposes are compatible with its mission and ministry. Policies and procedures to create and implement these relationships shall be adopted by the Church Council.

8.50. RELATIONSHIP WITH INTERCHURCH AGENCIES, INSTITUTIONS, AND COUNCILS

8.51. The congregations, synods, social ministry institutions and agencies, and churchwide organization may establish or affiliate with interchurch agencies and councils in relationships that will reflect this church's objectives of sharing with other faith communities in study, dialogue, and common action, in accordance with adopted policies governing such associations.

8.51.01. Policies governing ecumenical, inter-Lutheran, and interfaith activities shall be recommended by the presiding bishop of this church to the Churchwide Assembly for its adoption.

8.51.02. Formal membership in interchurch agencies and/or councils shall be by action of the Churchwide Assembly in all relationships involving national or international involvement, by the Synod Assembly in its geographic area, and by congregations in community settings, with each affiliation by any congregation, synod, or churchwide organization to be in accordance with the policies of this church.

8.60. OFFICIAL CHURCH-TO-CHURCH RELATIONSHIPS

8.61. This church may establish official church-to-church relationships and agreements. Establishment of such official relationships and agreements shall require a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting in a Churchwide Assembly.

8.62. Policies and procedures to implement church-to-church relationships of full communion established by action of a Churchwide Assembly may be recommended by the appropriate officer or churchwide unit, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.
8.63. The provisions governing ecumenical availability and service of ministers of Word and Sacrament and ministers of Word and Service shall be set forth in the bylaws.

8.63.01. A minister of Word and Sacrament of this church or a minister of Word and Service, serving temporarily in a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by a Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, may be retained on the roster—upon endorsement by the synod bishop and by action of the Synod Council in the synod in which the minister is listed on the roster—under policies developed at the direction of the presiding bishop and secretary, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council.

a. A letter of call may be issued to a minister of Word and Sacrament of this church, serving temporarily in such a church body, by the Church Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or a Synod Council, in accord with the Table of Sources of Calls (7.44 A.19.b.).

b. A letter of call may be issued to a minister of Word and Service of this church, serving temporarily in such a church body, by the Church Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or a Synod Council, in accord with the Table of Sources of Calls (7.74 A.19.b.).

c. A letter of call issued by the Church Council of a Synod Council for service in a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been established by the Churchwide Assembly shall be governed by provision 7.43. and bylaw 7.43.01.

8.63.02. A minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by a Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may be authorized by the synod bishop to serve in a congregation or employing entity of this church. Such service shall be rendered under a contract between the congregation or employing entity and the minister of Word and Sacrament in a form proposed by the synod bishop and approved by the congregation or employing entity. Any such service shall be in accord with churchwide policies developed at the direction of the presiding bishop and secretary, reviewed by the Conference of Bishops, and adopted by the Church Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

8.63.03. Whenever a rostered minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is to serve or is serving in a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by the Churchwide Assembly, or whenever a minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been so declared and established is to serve or is serving in this church, a full sharing of relevant information concerning such rostered minister’s experience and fitness for ministry is expected between the synod bishop (or other appropriate office or entity) of this church and the appropriate person, office, or entity in the other church. Relevant information related to fitness for ministry shall include, but is not limited to, any information concerning disciplinary proceedings or allegations that could result, or could have resulted, in disciplinary proceedings.

8.63.04. A minister of Word and Sacrament from a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by a Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may be granted the privilege of both voice and vote in the Synod Assembly during the period of that minister’s service in a congregation of this church, in accord with bylaw 8.63.02.

8.63.05. The availability of a minister of Word and Sacrament from a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by a Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be understood normally in three categories: availability to serve in an occasional situation; availability to meet an extended need, including service in “yoked parish” settings; and availability for a transfer of roster status.

a. Occasional service: An occasional situation is defined as one in which a minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion exists may be asked to preach or administer the sacraments in a congregation of this church on an occasional basis with the authorization of the synod bishop.

b. Extended service: A minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion exists may be invited to serve as the pastor of a congregation of this church for an extended period of time, yet remain a minister of Word and Sacrament of his or her present church body. Such a person would be expected to preach, teach, and administer the sacraments in a congregation of this church in a manner that is consistent with the Confession of Faith of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and to live in a manner consistent with the ministerial policy of this church. Such service shall be rendered only as authorized by the synod bishop in order to serve the ministry and mission needs of this church in a given situation.

c. Transfer: A minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion exists who seeks to serve indefinitely within the ministry of Word and Sacrament of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may apply for admission to the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and be approved through the candidacy process for admission to the roster. Such a minister would then become a minister of Word and Sacrament of this church upon receipt and acceptance of a regular call and installation in a congregation or other setting in this church.

8.63.06. Rostered ministers of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, while serving in an ecumenical setting, remain subject to the standards, policies, and discipline of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. A minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which a relationship of full communion exists is understood by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as subject to the standards, policies, and discipline of the church body in which the minister is rostered or holds ministerial membership. Such a minister, while serving in a congregation or other ministry of this church, is expected to abide by the standards and policies of this church related to ministers of Word and Sacrament.

8.63.07. When a minister of Word and Sacrament from a church body with which a relationship of full communion has been declared and established by a Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America completes a contract for extended service, the synod file on that minister shall be sent to and retained by the Office of the Secretary.

8.64. This church, in accord with constitutional provision 2.05, acknowledges as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that accept the teaching of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession and understands that altar and pulpit fellowship with congregations and other entities of such churches may be locally practiced. Local practice of altar and pulpit fellowship, in accord with churchwide constitutional provision 2.05, is subject to the approval of the Synod Council, upon endorsement by the synod bishop. Notice of such approval is to be given to the presiding bishop as the chief ecumenical officer of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

8.64.01. The approval is granted initially for one year only and must be reviewed and approved annually by the Synod Council. Any time that the local practice of altar and pulpit fellowship no longer serves the mission and ministry needs of this church, the synod bishop may withdraw endorsement and the Synod Council may withdraw the approval.

8.64.02. A minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body not in full communion with this church, while serving in a ministry involving the local practice of altar and pulpit fellowship with a congregation of this church is understood to be subject to the standards, policies, and discipline of the church body in which the minister is rostered or holds ministerial membership. Such a minister, while serving a congregation or other ministry of this church, is expected to abide by the standards and policies of this church related to ministers of Word and Sacrament. A minister of Word and Sacrament of this church, while serving in a ministry involving the local practice of altar and pulpit fellowship with a non-ELCA congregation, remains subject to the standards, policies, and discipline of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

8.65. Synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and units of the churchwide organization are encouraged to engage in cooperative work, wherever possible, with churches that accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession. Units engaging in this work shall advise the presiding bishop of such developments.
Chapter 9.
CONGREGATIONS

9.10. DEFINITION

9.11. A congregation is a community of baptized persons whose existence depends on the proclamation of the Gospel and the administration of the sacraments and whose purpose is to worship God, to nurture its members, and to reach out in witness and service to the world. To this end it assembles regularly for worship and nurture, organizes and carries out ministry to its people and neighborhood, and cooperates with and supports the wider church to strive for the fulfillment of God's mission in the world.

9.20. CRITERIA FOR RECOGNITION AND RECEPTION

9.21. This church shall recognize, receive, and maintain on the roster those congregations which by their practice as well as their governing documents:
   a. preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God's mission;
   b. accept this church's Confession of Faith;
   c. agree to the Statement of Purpose of this church;
   d. agree to call pastoral leadership from the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church in accordance with the call procedures of this church, except in special circumstances as defined in the bylaws accompanying this provision, and with the approval of the synod bishop;
   e. agree to be responsible for their life as a Christian community;
   f. agree to support the life and work of this church; and
   g. adhere to the additional commitments expressed in this chapter of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

9.21.01. Approval of the synod bishop, as required in 9.21.d., involves the bishop's attesting that a candidate for the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church has been approved, in conformity with the governing documents and policies of this church, through the synod candidacy process for first call as a seminary graduate or for call in this church through approval for reception into this church from another Lutheran church body or another Christian church body. Consultation with the synod bishop in accordance with the call procedures and governing documents of this church and the synod is required for the calling of pastoral leadership from among persons on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church or persons who are approved as eligible candidates for the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church.

9.21.02. Under special circumstances, subject to the approval of the synod bishop and the concurrence of the congregation, a minister of Word and Sacrament of a church body with which the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America officially has established a relationship of full communion by action of a Churchwide Assembly may serve temporarily under contract as pastor of a congregation of this church.

9.22. In addition to this Chapter 9, all congregations of this church shall abide by the provisions of 6.01, 7.46, and 7.75, and bylaws 20.41.01 through 20.41.11.

9.23. In accord with constitutional provision 9.21.d. and bylaw 9.21.01. and without invoking the provisions of Chapter 20, a congregation that maintains as its pastor a minister of Word and Sacrament who has resigned or been removed from this church’s roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament or that calls as its pastor one who has not been approved for the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament may be removed from the roster of congregations of this church by the Synod Council upon recommendation of the synod bishop.

9.24. A recognized and received congregation that is part of this church shall, when legally possible, be incorporated and may:
   a. own property and be responsible for its care; and
   b. call or employ staff.

9.25. A congregation newly formed by this church and any congregation seeking recognition and reception by this church shall:
   a. Accept the criteria for recognition and reception as a congregation of this church, fulfill the functions of the congregation, and accept the governance provisions as provided in Chapter 9 of this constitution.
   b. Adopt governing documents that include fully and without alterations the Preamble, Chapter 1, where applicable, and all required provisions of Chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19 in the Model Constitution for Congregations consistent with requirements of this constitution and the Constitution for Synods of this church. Bylaws and continuing resolutions, appropriate for inclusion in these chapters and not in conflict with these required provisions in the Model Constitution for Congregations, the constitution of the synod, or the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, may be adopted as described in Chapters 17 and 18 of the Model Constitution for Congregations.
   c. Accept the commitments expected of all congregations of this church as stated in *C6.01., *C6.02., and *C6.03. of the Model Constitution for Congregations.

9.26. Recognition and reception into this church of transferring or independent congregations by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is based on the judgment of the synod and action by the synod through the Synod Council and Synod Assembly. The synod bishop shall provide for prompt reporting of such additions to the secretary of this church for addition to the roster of congregations.
a. If a congregation is a member of another church body, the leaders of the congregation first should consult with the appropriate authorities of that church body before taking action to leave its current church body. After such consultation, leaders of the congregation should contact the synod bishop or synod staff in this church where the congregation is located.

b. The synod bishop or synod staff where the transferring or independent congregation is located shall confer with the congregation to assure its understanding and acceptance of commitment to and affiliation with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

9.27. Each congregation, except those which are in partnership with the Slovak Zion Synod, shall establish a relationship with the synod in whose territory it is located.

9.30. RESERVATION OF AUTHORITY

9.52. The governing documents of congregations recognized at the establishment of this church shall continue to govern such congregations until amended. When such a congregation wishes to amend any provision of its governing documents, the governing documents of that congregation shall be so amended to conform to 9.25.b. The synod responsible for the review of such amendments may permit, for good cause, a congregation to retain particular unamended provisions in the congregation’s governing documents that were in force at the establishment of this church.

9.53. Each congregation shall have governing documents, no terms of which shall conflict with provision 9.21. Subject to the provisions of 9.52., these documents shall contain the elements listed in the bylaws. The judgment on whether a congregation meets the criteria listed in 9.21. shall be made by this church through the synod of this church to which the congregation relates.

9.53.01. The governing documents of congregations shall include:

Congregations are expected to resolve conflicts between their current governing documents and the Model Constitution for Congregations.

9.53.03. Each congregation shall provide a copy of its governing documents to the synod. All proposed changes in the constitution or incorporation documents of a congregation shall be referred to the synod with which the congregation is affiliated. The synod shall notify the congregation of its decision to approve or disapprove the proposed changes; the changes shall go into effect upon notification that the synod has approved them. The synod shall recognize that congregations may organize themselves in a manner which they deem most appropriate, consistent with this chapter.

9.53.04. Each congregation shall take the necessary steps to protect its members and this church from liability, including incorporation as indicated in 9.24, appropriate insurance coverage, and similar actions.

9.53.05. Congregations shall normally maintain a fiscal year of January 1 through December 31.

9.53.06. The approval of the Synod Council shall be received before any such action is effected.

9.62. A congregation may terminate its relationship with this church by the following procedure:

a. A resolution indicating the intent to terminate its relationship must be adopted at two legally called and conducted special meetings of the congregation by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at each meeting. The first such meeting may be held no sooner than 30 days after written notice of the meeting is received by the bishop of the synod, during which time the congregation shall consult with the bishop and the bishop's designees, if any. The times and manner of the consultation shall be determined by the bishop in consultation with the Congregation Council. Unless he or she is a voting member of the congregation, the bishop and the bishop's designees, if any, shall have voice but not vote at the meeting.

b. Within 10 days after the resolution has been voted upon, the secretary of the congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the bishop, attesting that the special meeting was legally called and conducted and certifying the outcome of the vote, and shall send copies of the resolution and certification to the voting members of the congregation.

If the resolutions was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at the meeting, the bishop of the synod and the congregation shall continue in consultation, as specified in paragraph a. above, during a period of at least 90 days after receipt by the bishop of the attestation and certification as specified in paragraph b. above.

d. If the congregation, after such consultation, is still considering termination of its relationship with this church, such action may be taken at a legally called and conducted special meeting by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present. Notice of the meeting shall be sent to all voting members and to the bishop at least 10 days in advance of the meeting. Unless he or she is a voting member of the congregation, the bishop and the bishop's designees, if any, shall have voice but not vote at the meeting.

e. Within 10 days after the resolution has been voted upon, the secretary of the congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the bishop, attesting that the second special meeting was legally called and conducted and certifying the outcome of the vote, and shall send copies of the resolution and certification to the voting members of the congregation. If the resolution was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at the meeting, the relationship between the congregation and this church shall be terminated, subject to Synod Council approval as required by paragraphs g., h., and i. below.

f. Unless this notification to the bishop also certifies that the congregation has voted to affiliate with another Lutheran denomination, the congregation shall be deemed an independent or non-Lutheran church, in which case 9.71.e. shall apply.

g. Congregations seeking to terminate their relationship with this church which fail or refuse to comply with each of the foregoing provisions in 9.62. shall be required to receive Synod Council approval before terminating their membership in this church.

9.70. Ownership of Property

Subject to the provisions of 9.52, the following shall govern the ownership of property by congregations of this church:

b. Title to the undisposed property of a congregation that ceases to exist shall pass to the synod of this church to which the congregation is related.

c. Title to the property of a congregation that is no longer recognized by this church as a result of discipline shall continue to reside in the congregation.

10.71.01. The percentage or amount determined by consultation shall be acted upon by the synod assembly as part of the adoption of the synod's budget. 10.71.02. The percentage or amount determined by consultation shall be reported to the Church Council.

The Conference of Bishops of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall provide opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal,

c. that precludes spoken floor nominations but allows nomination of persons not in attendance at the meeting;

d. in which those casting ballots have primary responsibility to nominate persons willing to serve if elected;

e. in which the first ballot is the nominating ballot if no election occurs on the first ballot;

f. in which the first ballot defines the total slate of nominees for possible election on a subsequent ballot, with no additional nominations;

g. in which each synod bishop will seek to inform nominees from that synod that they have been nominated and that they may withdraw if they do not seek election;

h. that allows, after the reporting of the first ballot, the persons nominated to withdraw their names prior to the casting of the second ballot;

i. in which any name appearing on the second ballot may not be subsequently withdrawn;
j. that does not preclude an assembly's adoption of rules that permit, at a defined point in the election process and for a defined period of time, speeches to the assembly by nominees or their representatives and/or a question-and-answer forum in which the nominees or their representatives participate; and

19.01.D21. Election Procedures Utilizing the Ecclesiastical Ballot

a. For each election by ecclesiastical or nominating ballot, the exact number of appropriate ballot sets equal to the number of voting members from each synod will be given to the bishop of each synod. Unless an electronic or computerized voting system is being utilized, the bishops, or their designees, will be responsible for distributing the ballot sets to each of the voting members from their synods. The Elections Committee will be responsible for distributing the ballot sets to each officer and member of the Church Council serving as an ex officio voting member of the assembly.

b. The chair will announce what type of voting system is to be used for the election. If ordered by the chair to use paper ballots, one of the numbered ballots from the appropriate ballot set is to be used on each ballot. The chair will announce the number of the ballot from the appropriate ballot set that is to be used for each ballot. Failure to use the correct numbered ballot will result in an illegal ballot.

c. On the first two ballots for each office being selected by ecclesiastical or nominating ballot, both the first and last names of a nominee should be used. Members should endeavor to use correct spelling and should provide, on the first ballot, any additional accurate information identifying the nominee, such as title, position, synod, congregation, or residence.

d. On the third and subsequent ballots conducted by written ballot, only the last name of the nominee need be used, provided there is no other nominee with the same or similar name.

e. A member may vote for only one nominee on each ballot.

f. Ballots should not be marked prior to the time the chair advises the voting members to do so.

g. Written ballots should not be folded.

h. Written ballots will be collected from the voting members in accordance with instructions from the Elections Committee or from the chair.

i. When the results of the first ballot are presented, the chair of the assembly will announce when and how persons nominated may withdraw their names prior to the casting of the second ballot.

j. When voting by electronic device, the first position on each ballot shall be given to the nominee who received the greatest number of votes on the immediately preceding ballot, with the remaining positions assigned to the other nominees in descending order of the number of votes received on the immediately preceding ballot. If two or more nominees were tied with the same vote on the immediately preceding ballot, their respective positions shall be determined by draw by the chair of the Elections Committee.

k. On each ticket for which balloting is conducted by electronic device, the polls will remain open for a reasonable time, as determined by the chair, to permit voting members to record their votes.

19.02. The members of the Church Council, except the chair of the Conference of Bishops and the treasurer of this church, shall be elected by the Churchwide Assembly. In preparation for the Churchwide Assembly, the Church Council shall determine how this church’s commitment to inclusive representation will affect the next election to the Church Council. For 32 of the council members, the Nominating Committee shall invite each eligible synod to submit suggested nominees and shall then nominate persons who fulfill the categories assigned by the Church Council. With respect to the other nominees, the Church Council shall review its size and composition and take into consideration the experience and expertise of existing members and synod nominees as well as the needs of the council in seeking to fulfill its duties and responsibilities. Based upon this analysis, the Church Council shall instruct the Nominating Committee to provide nominations in specific categories for the remaining positions up to 13. Excluding the churchwide officers and the chair of the Conference of Bishops, there shall not be more than two members of the Church Council from a synod. The Church Council shall have at least two members from each region. The terms of office of persons elected to regular terms on the Church Council by the Churchwide Assembly shall begin at the conclusion of the Churchwide Assembly at which such persons were elected.

19.02.A21. On behalf of the Nominating Committee, the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America—in the year preceding each regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly—shall solicit from eligible synods on a rotating basis the names of two persons in specified categories, in keeping with the representation principles of this church, for possible election to the Church Council. Upon their selection as nominees by the assemblies of the respective synods, the names of the two persons shall be presented to the Nominating Committee for submission to the Churchwide Assembly. In the event that any nominee withdraws or is disqualified from possible service, the Nominating Committee shall request that the nominee’s synod provide a replacement name. In the event that the vacancy occurs subsequent to the preparation of the report of the Nominating Committee to the Churchwide Assembly, a floor nomination shall be provided from the same synod as the original nominee. Except as provided herein, no floor nominations for positions on the Church Council shall be permitted at the Churchwide Assembly.
19.02.B19. The terms of office of persons elected to regular terms on the Nominating Committee of the Churchwide Assembly, the Committee on Discipline, and the Committee on Appeals shall begin at the conclusion of the Churchwide Assembly at which such persons were elected, except as may be specified in continuing resolutions with respect to particular pending discipline matters.

   a. Any member of the churchwide Committee on Discipline who has been appointed to serve on a discipline hearing committee for a particular pending case shall continue to serve to discharge that appointment notwithstanding that a successor has been subsequently elected at a Churchwide Assembly.
   b. Any member of the synod Committee on Discipline who is serving at the time that the Executive Committee of the Church Council appoints members from the churchwide Committee on Discipline to a discipline hearing committee shall continue as a member of that discipline hearing committee for the particular pending case, notwithstanding that a successor has been subsequently elected at a Synod Assembly.
   c. Any member of the Committee on Appeals who is serving at the time that an appeal is made shall continue to serve to decide that appeal, notwithstanding that a successor has been subsequently elected at a Churchwide Assembly.

19.04. Each nominee for an elected position in the churchwide organization and each nominee for a position on the board of a separately incorporated ministry elected by the Churchwide Assembly shall be a voting member of a congregation of this church, unless otherwise specified in the constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of this church.

19.04.01. Each voting member of the Church Council, board, or committee of the churchwide organization shall cease to be a member of the Church Council, board, or committee if no longer a voting member of a congregation of this church. 19.04.02. For purposes of nomination to and service on the Church Council or a board of a separately incorporated ministry, "synod membership" shall be defined as follows:
   a. A layperson shall be recorded in the synod that includes the congregation in which such a person holds membership, with the recognition that such a person shall reside within the territory of the synod or in an area immediately adjacent to the territory in the case of border areas.

secretary of this church. The decision to remove a director or trustee shall be reported to the Church Council by the secretary.

19.05. Further procedures for elections and qualifications for office may be set forth in the bylaws and continuing resolutions, provided that such provisions do not conflict with any other provisions in this constitution.

19.05.01. It shall be the responsibility of the Church Council to assure that this church maintains its commitment to inclusive representation.

19.05.02. In all elections by the Churchwide Assembly, other than for the presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary, a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot shall be necessary for election. If an election does not occur on the first ballot, the names of the two persons receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on the second ballot. On the second ballot, a majority of the legal votes cast shall be necessary for election.

19.05.03. Each triennium the Conference of Bishops shall select a bishop to serve as an advisory member of each board of a separately incorporated ministry and advisory committee of the churchwide organization. No synod bishop, with the exception of the chair of the Conference of Bishops, shall serve as a voting member of the Church Council.

19.05.05. No member of the Church Council, a committee of the Church Council, a board of a separately incorporated ministry, or committee of the churchwide organization shall receive emolument for such service. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the payment of salaries and benefits of the officers of this church, nor to prohibit the payment of the costs of insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a member of the Church Council, a committee of the Church Council, or committee against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the churchwide organization would have been required to indemnify such person against the liability under provisions of law or otherwise.

19.05.06. No employee of the churchwide organization of this church or its regions, nor any individual under contract to any unit of the churchwide organization or a region shall be eligible for nomination to or membership on the Church Council, an advisory committee, a board of a separately incorporated ministry, the Committee on Appeals, the Committee on Discipline, or the churchwide Nominating Committee during the period of employment or service under contract, except the full-time salaried officers as specified in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. (The phrase “under contract” shall not mean short-term contracts for specific, limited purposes, usually not to exceed six months.)

19.05.07. No person related to a staff member of the churchwide organization shall be eligible for nomination to or membership on the Church Council or a committee that advises the unit in which the person’s relative is employed. For this purpose, a related individual is one who, with respect to the churchwide employee, is a spouse, parent, son, daughter, sibling, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, grandparent, grandchild, including corresponding members of blended families and in-laws (parent, son, daughter, or sibling of a spouse, spouse of a sibling, or the parent or sibling of the spouse of a sibling).

19.06.A22. A former full-time or part-time employee shall not be eligible for three years subsequent to such employment for nomination or election to a board of the separately incorporated ministry or committee related to the churchwide unit or office in which the employee served.

19.11. There shall be a Nominating Committee.

19.11.01. The Nominating Committee shall consist of 12–18 members elected by the Churchwide Assembly. Each member shall be elected to one six-year term and shall serve until a successor is elected. Members of the Nominating Committee shall not be eligible for consecutive re-election. The Church Council shall place in nomination the names of two persons for each position. The committee shall consist of at least one member but no more than three members from any region. Nominations from the floor shall also be permitted, but each floor nomination shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Church Council and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Church Council shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor.

19.11.02. Except as otherwise provided, the Nominating Committee shall nominate two persons for each council, board, or committee position, according to the process described in continuing resolutions, for which an election will be held by the Churchwide Assembly. In the case of re-election, if authorized, or for nominees from church bodies with which this church is in a relationship of full communion, only one person need be nominated. Nominations from the floor, where permitted in the nomination process, shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Nominating Committee and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Nominating Committee shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor.

19.11.03. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at least one person for each position on the board of trustees of each of the separately incorporated ministries identified in Chapter 17 of this constitution, according to the process described in continuing resolutions, for which an election will be held by the Churchwide Assembly. Nominations from the floor, where permitted in the nomination process, shall be presented as an alternative to a specific category named by the Nominating Committee and shall therefore meet the same criteria as the persons against whom the nominee is nominated. In the materials provided in advance to each member of the assembly, the Nominating Committee shall set forth the criteria applicable to each category that must be met by persons nominated from the floor.

19.11.04. In each case in which there are floor nominations, there shall be a preliminary ballot that shall include the names of the nominees presented by the Nominating Committee or the Church Council, and the person or persons nominated from the floor, where permitted. The names of the two persons receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on the final ballot.

19.11.05. The Church Council shall endeavor to ensure that every synod has at least one person serving on the Church Council or churchwide boards, committees, task forces, or other groups. Among those persons elected by the assembly, excluding the officers, no more than two persons from any one synod shall serve on the Church Council or any one board, committee, task force, or other group.

19.11.06. The Nominating Committee shall strive to ensure that all persons nominated for any position, including the boards of separately incorporated ministries, possess the necessary competence and experience for the position. All persons elected to any position, whether nominated by the Nominating Committee or not, shall strive to represent this church and not just a particular geographic area.

19.11.A21. Churchwide Assembly Nominations Desk and Nominations Form
   a. Nominations from the floor at the Churchwide Assembly shall be made at the Nominations Desk, which shall be maintained under the supervision of the secretary of this church.
   b. A nomination from the floor shall be made by using the form provided by the secretary of this church. Nomination forms may be obtained from the Nominations Desk at times prescribed in the assembly's Rules of Organization and Procedure.
   c.    d. For purposes of nomination procedures, "synod membership" means:
      1) In the case of a layperson who is not on the roster of this church, the synod that includes the congregation in which such person holds membership; and
      2) In the case of a rostered minister, the synod on whose roster such minister's name is maintained.
   a. Floor nominations for the Church Council, the Nominating Committee, or other committee or board to be elected by the Churchwide Assembly require, in addition to the nominator, the documented support of at least 20 other voting members.
   b. A nomination from the floor for any position (other than presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary) shall be made by filing the completed nomination form with the Nominations Desk at times
   c. Nominations will be considered made in the order in which filed at the Nominations Desk.

19.11.C21. Restrictions on Churchwide Assembly Floor Nominations for Boards and Committees
   a. Nominations from the floor for positions on boards or committees shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Nominating Committee and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly.
   b. So long as the number of incumbent members from a given synod serving on a board or committee with terms not expiring plus the number of positions on the same board or committee to which individuals from the same synod already have been nominated (whether by the Nominating Committee or from the floor) total less than the maximum number of two individuals from the same synod who may serve on that board or committee, an individual from the same synod may be nominated for another position on that board or committee, provided other criteria and restrictions are met. Individuals from the same synod may be nominated for a position on a board or committee to which individuals from the same synod already have been nominated, provided other criteria and restrictions are met.

19.11.D21. Restrictions on Churchwide Assembly Floor Nominations for Church Council Nominations for positions on the Church Council shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Church Council and Nominating Committee and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly.

19.11.E21. Restrictions on Churchwide Assembly Floor Nominations for Nominating Committee
   a. Nominations from the floor for positions on the Nominating Committee shall comply with criteria and restrictions established by the Church Council and set forth in materials provided to each voting member of the assembly.
   b. So long as the number of incumbent members from a given region serving on the Nominating Committee with terms not expiring plus the number of Nominating Committee positions to which individuals from the same region have already been nominated (whether by the
      (©-2022) ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 19 / 141
Church Council or from the floor) total less than the maximum number of three individuals from the same region who may serve on the Nominating Committee, an individual from the same region may be nominated for another Nominating Committee position, provided other criteria and restrictions are met. Provided other criteria and restrictions are met, individuals may be nominated for a Nominating Committee position for which someone from the same region has already been nominated.

19.11.F21. Election Procedures Utilizing the Common Ballot

a. The common ballot is used in those elections when the ecclesiastical or nominating ballot is not used.

b. Unless an electronic or computerized voting system is being utilized, the exact number of ballot forms equal to the number of voting members from each synod will be given to the bishop of each synod. When instructed by the chair, the bishops, or their designees, will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each of the voting members from their synods. The vice president of this church will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each member of the Church Council serving as an ex officio voting member of the assembly. The Elections Committee will be responsible for distributing the ballot forms to each officer of this church.

c. Upon recommendation of the chair and with the consent of the assembly, the second common ballot may be conducted by electronic device. If the second common ballot is not conducted by electronic means, the distribution of ballot forms for the second common ballot will be in the same manner as the first common ballot.

d. Any discrepancy between the number of ballots given to a synod bishop and the number of voting members (including the synod bishop) from such synod must be reported by the synod bishop to the Elections Committee.

e. Each ticket for which an election is held will be considered a separate ballot.

f. A voting member may vote for only one nominee on each ticket.

g. Failure to vote for a nominee for every ticket does not invalidate a ballot for the tickets for which a nominee is marked.

h. Ballots must be marked in accordance with the instructions presented in plenary session.

i. If a paper common ballot is utilized, ballot forms should not be folded.

j. Completed paper ballots must be deposited at the designated Ballot Stations at certain exits of the hall in which plenary sessions are held.

k. If a paper ballot is damaged so that it cannot be scanned, a replacement ballot may be obtained at the Ballot Station upon surrender of the damaged ballot.
l. Unless otherwise ordered by the assembly, polls for the first common ballot close at the time designated in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure.

m. On each ticket for which balloting is conducted by electronic device, the polls will remain open for a reasonable time, as determined by the chair, to permit members to record their votes.

n. Unless the second ballot is conducted electronically, polls for the second common ballot close at the time designated in the assembly’s Rules of Organization and Procedure or as otherwise ordered by the assembly.

o. On the second ballot, whether by paper ballot or electronically, the first position on each ticket shall be given to the nominee who received the greatest number of votes on the first ballot. If two nominees are tied for the highest vote, the first position on the ticket shall be determined by draw by the chair of the Elections Committee.

a. On the ballot for the election of the presiding bishop, vice president, and secretary, when only two names appear, the marked ballot of the treasurer shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee and shall be counted only where necessary to break a tie that would otherwise exist.

b. On the first common ballot, the blank ballots of the treasurer and vice president shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee to be presented to the treasurer for vote only in those elections where a tie would otherwise exist, and to be presented to the vice president for vote only in those elections to break a tie remaining after the ballot of the treasurer has been counted.

c. On the second common ballot, the marked ballot of the treasurer shall be held by the chair of the Elections Committee and shall be counted only where necessary to break a tie that would otherwise exist.
Chapter 20.
CONSULTATION, DISCIPLINE, APPEALS, AND ADJUDICATION

20.10. CONSULTATION AND DISCIPLINE

There shall be set forth in the bylaws a process of discipline governing officers, ministers of Word and Sacrament, ministers of Word and Service, congregations, and members of congregations. Except as provided in 20.18 or 20.19, such process shall assure due process and due protection for the accused, other parties, and this church. Since synods have responsibility for admittance of persons into the rostered ministries of this church and have oversight of pastoral and congregational relationships, the disciplinary process shall be a responsibility of the synod on behalf of this church.

20.12. As used in this constitution and bylaws, due process means the right to be given specific written notice of the charges against any person or entity of this church, the right to testify in person or remain silent (at the election of the accused), the right to call witnesses and introduce documentary evidence concerning the pending charges, the right to confront and cross-examine all witnesses in support of such charges, the right to a hearing before a discipline hearing committee as provided in 20.13, the right to a written decision of the discipline hearing committee as provided in the bylaws, and the right to be treated with fundamental procedural fairness. Any violation of these rights shall be grounds for reversal of an unfavorable finding and the right to a new hearing.

20.12.01. "Fundamental procedural fairness" means and includes: avoidance by committee members of written communications to or from either the accused or accuser(s) without copy to the other; avoidance by committee members of oral communications with either the accused or accuser(s) outside the presence of the other; maintaining decorum during the hearing, allowing both the accuser(s) and the accused to present their cases without unnecessary interruptions, keeping a verbatim record of the hearing, made either by a stenographer or court reporter or by audio or video recording, allowing both the accuser(s) and the accused to be accompanied at the hearing by a representative (who may, but need not, be an attorney) who also may participate in the proceedings; impartiality of the committees that consider the charges; and the right to be treated in conformity with the governing documents of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

20.13. The accused shall be entitled to a hearing before a discipline hearing committee as described in the bylaws. If the accused is a congregation, the hearing shall be open to the public unless both the accuser and the accused agree to a hearing not open to the public. If the accused is an individual, the hearing shall not be open to the public unless both the accusers and the accused agree to a public hearing. At a hearing not open to the public, a limited number of concerned persons may attend as provided in the bylaws.
20.13.01. In a hearing not open to the public,
a. the accuser and the accused may each be represented by not more than two representatives who may present or assist in the presentation of the evidence; and
b. the discipline hearing committee may permit attendance by a limited number of persons, with the consent of both the accused and the accuser.

20.13.02. Irrespective of whether a hearing is or is not open to the public, the discipline hearing committee may decide that witnesses (other than the accused and the accuser) shall be permitted in the hearing only when testifying. A witness may be accompanied by a friend or advocate.

20.14. Once a charge against a person or entity has been considered by a discipline hearing committee, that person or entity shall not be required to answer that charge again except under the circumstances set forth in the bylaws.

20.14.01. The circumstances in which a person or entity shall be required to answer again charges before a discipline hearing committee shall be limited to the following:
a. The Committee on Appeals has ordered a rehearing as its disposition of a timely appeal to it.
b. The Committee on Appeals has ordered a further hearing after either an accuser or an accused has petitioned for a further hearing on the basis of newly discovered evidence or testimony that was not available at the time of the original hearing.

20.14.02. After a charge against a person or entity has been considered by a discipline hearing committee, evidence related to that charge may be introduced at a subsequent hearing before another discipline hearing committee on a different but related charge. Charges are “related” if they involve similar alleged conduct on the part of the accused.

20.15. The procedures for consultation and discipline set forth in the bylaws shall be the exclusive means of resolving all matters pertaining to the discipline of congregations of this church. Neither the churchwide organization nor a synod of this church shall institute legal proceedings in which conduct described in provision 20.31.01. is the basis of a request for relief consisting of suspension of that congregation from this church or removal of that congregation from the roll of congregations of this church. A congregation of this church shall not institute legal proceedings against the churchwide organization or a synod of this church seeking injunctive or other relief against the imposition or enforcement of any disciplinary action against that congregation.

20.16. It is the intent of this church that all matters of discipline should be resolved internally to the greatest extent possible. It is the policy of this church not to resort to the civil courts of this land until all internal procedures and appeals have been exhausted, except for 20.17. None of the provisions of this chapter is intended nor shall be construed to limit the authority of a Synod Council to determine roster status, under the bylaws of this church, of a minister who is without regular call, for any reason, even though such reason might also be the basis for disciplinary proceedings under this chapter.

20.18. The authority to administer private censure and admonition upon an individual or public censure and admonition upon a congregation is inherent in the office of bishop. Proceedings under this chapter or any other provision of the constitutions and bylaws of this church or of its synods are not required for the exercise of such authority.

20.19. Where the written notice of charges specifically requests that the discipline to be imposed shall consist of suspension for not more than three months (during which time requirements for evaluation, therapy, continuing education, or similar experience may be imposed), the due process and due protection provisions of this constitution shall apply only as specified in the bylaws.

20.20. There shall be a Committee on Appeals to which may be referred appeals from disciplinary proceedings and petitions for the recall of an officer. The Committee on Appeals shall be comprised of six rostered ministers, at least one of whom shall be a minister of Word and Service, and six laypersons, elected by the Churchwide Assembly for a term of six years, without consecutive re-election. The Committee on Appeals shall elect its own officers.

20.21. The Committee on Appeals shall establish definitions and guidelines, subject to approval by the Church Council, to enable clear and uniform application of the grounds for discipline of officers, rostered ministers, congregations, and members of congregations. The Church Council shall appoint three members from the Committee on Appeals who shall recommend rules of procedure for the performance of its duties. The rules shall become effective when ratified by the Church Council.

20.21.01. The churchwide Committee on Discipline shall consist of 24–36 members, half of whom should be rostered ministers (including at least two ministers of Word and Service) and half of whom should be laypersons, elected by the Churchwide Assembly for a term of six years. Each member will serve until a successor is elected, without consecutive re-election, and will serve as needed on a discipline hearing committee in any of the synods in this church.

20.21.02. The churchwide Committee of Hearing Officers shall consist of six to nine persons elected by the Church Council for a term of six years, each without consecutive re-election, to serve as needed on a discipline hearing committee in any of the synods of this church.
20.22. The disciplinary process for ministers of Word and Sacrament shall be set forth in the bylaws.

20.22.01. Ministers of Word and Sacrament shall be subject to discipline for:
   a. preaching and teaching in conflict with the faith confessed by this church;
   b. conduct incompatible with the character of the ministerial office;
   c. willfully disregarding or violating the functions and standards established by this church for the office of ministry of Word and Sacrament;
   d. willfully disregarding the provisions of the constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of this church; or
   e. willfully failing to comply with the requirements ordered by a discipline hearing committee under 20.24.08.

20.22.02. The disciplinary actions which may be imposed are:
   a. private censure and admonition by the bishop of the synod;
   b. suspension from the office and functions of the ministry of Word and Sacrament in this church for a designated period or until there is satisfactory evidence of repentance and amendment; or
   c. removal from the ministry of Word and Sacrament of this church.

20.22.03. Charges against a minister of Word and Sacrament which could lead to discipline must be specific and in writing, subscribed to by the accuser(s), and be made by one or more of the following:
   a. at least two-thirds of the members of the congregation’s council, submitted to the synod bishop;
   b. at least one-third of the voting members of the congregation, submitted to the synod bishop;
   c. at least two-thirds of the members of the governing body to which the minister of Word and Sacrament, if not a congregational pastor, is accountable, submitted to the synod bishop;
   d. at least 10 ministers of Word and Sacrament or ministers of Word and Service of the synod on whose roster the accused minister of Word and Sacrament is listed, submitted to the synod bishop;
   e. the synod bishop; or
   f. the presiding bishop of this church, but only with respect to an accused who is a synod bishop (or who was a synod bishop at any time during the 12 months preceding the filing of written charges), submitted to the secretary of this church.

20.22.04. When there are indications that a cause for discipline may exist and before charges are made, efforts shall be made by the bishop of the synod to resolve the situation by consultation; for assistance in these efforts, the bishop may utilize either a consultation panel or an advisory panel as herein provided:
   a. When requested by the synod bishop, a consultation panel consisting of five persons (three ministers of Word and Sacrament and two laypersons) appointed from the members of the Consultation Committee of the synod by the synod bishop, or, at the request of the synod bishop, by the Synod Council’s Executive Committee or other committee authorized to do so by the Synod Council, shall assist the synod bishop in efforts to resolve a situation by consultation.
b. When requested by the synod bishop, an advisory panel consisting of five persons (three ministers of Word and Sacrament and two laypersons) appointed by the synod bishop shall assist the synod bishop in efforts to resolve a situation by consultation.

20.22.05. If appointed, a consultation panel or advisory panel shall advise the synod bishop as to whether or not the bishop should bring charges or may make other recommendation for resolution of the controversy that would not involve proceedings before a discipline hearing committee. To these ends, the panel may meet with complaining witnesses as well as with the concerned minister of Word and Sacrament. If requested by the synod bishop, members of the panel also may assist, as representatives of the accuser, in the presentation of evidence and examination of witnesses before a discipline hearing committee.

20.22.06. When charges are brought other than by the synod bishop or the presiding bishop of this church, the synod bishop may refer such charges to a consultation panel as provided in 20.22.04.a.
a. If as a result of meeting with a consultation panel the charges are withdrawn by the accuser(s), no further proceedings shall be required.
b. Upon recommendation of the consultation panel that the charges be dismissed, the synod bishop may dismiss the charges, in which case no further proceedings shall be required.
c. Upon recommendation of the consultation panel that some of the allegations supporting the charges be stricken, the synod bishop may strike some or all of such allegations, and further proceedings shall be required on the remaining allegations.
d. In the ease of charges that do not anticipate disciplinary action, the consultation panel shall submit a report in writing to the synod bishop that sets forth the action or actions recommended by the consultation panel, and the synod bishop shall convey the recommendations to the parties. If either party does not accept the recommendations, that party may appeal to the Synod Council, whose decision shall be final.
e. In the case of charges that anticipate disciplinary action that have not been withdrawn or dismissed as a result of 20.22.06.a. or b. above, the charges shall be referred to a discipline hearing committee for a hearing.
f. The work of a consultation panel under this section shall be completed within 30 days from the time the panel was constituted.

20.22.07. When charges are brought by a synod bishop or the presiding bishop of this church, or when charges are brought other than by a synod bishop and have not been withdrawn or dismissed or otherwise disposed of as provided in 20.22.06., the synod bishop or the presiding bishop, as appropriate, shall deliver a copy of the charges to the accused and the secretary of this church.
A discipline hearing committee shall be convened to conduct a hearing. The voting members of this committee shall be composed of 12 persons of whom six shall be selected by the Synod Council’s Executive Committee from the Committee on Discipline of the synod and six shall be selected from the churchwide Committee on Discipline under the process described in 20.22.11. The rules authorized in 20.22.14. shall establish the method, based upon the remainder of the term, for determining which members of the synod committee shall serve as the voting members and which shall serve as alternates. A hearing officer selected from the churchwide Committee of Hearing Officers under the process described in 20.22.12. shall preside as the non-voting chair of the discipline hearing committee.

The accused shall have the privilege of selecting two persons (one rostered minister and one layperson) and their alternates of the six persons from the churchwide Committee on Discipline to serve on a discipline hearing committee. The remaining four persons (two rostered ministers and two laypersons) and their alternates, or six, if the accused does not exercise the privilege, and their alternates shall be selected by the Executive Committee of the Church Council.

The presiding bishop of this church shall select one member of the churchwide Committee of Hearing Officers to serve as the non-voting chair of a discipline hearing committee.

The presiding bishop of this church may appoint one or more persons as facilitators to make arrangements for, and to provide technical assurance to, a discipline hearing committee.

The Church Council shall appoint three members from the Committee on Appeals who shall recommend rules of procedure for the performance of the duties of hearing officers and discipline hearing committees. The rules shall become effective when ratified by the Church Council.

The discipline hearing committee shall, within 60 days after the secretary of this church has given notice of the selection by the Executive Committee of the Church Council of the members of the churchwide Committee on Discipline to serve on a discipline hearing committee, meet with the accused and the accuser(s) to hold a hearing. The committee shall render its written decision within 15 days after the committee concludes the hearing. The 60-day period may be extended one or more times to a specified date by a written stipulation signed by the accuser(s), the accused, and the hearing officer prior to the expiration of the original 60-day period prior to the extended specified date.

Written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing and a copy of the charges shall be delivered to the accused and to the accuser(s) at least 20 days prior to the date of the hearing.

At the hearing, the accuser(s) may present evidence in support of the charges and thereafter the accused shall be entitled to present evidence. The accused and the accuser(s), or other person acting on behalf of either of them, shall be entitled to question the other party or any of the

   a. Findings of Fact. In this part, the committee shall set forth what it has found to be the relevant facts, that is, what it believes to be the truth of the matter.
   b. Determination. In this part, the committee shall state whether, based upon the facts that it has found, it believes discipline should be imposed and, if so, what discipline it has chosen to impose.

20.22.22. The decision of the discipline hearing committee shall be made by a majority vote of its members who were present at the hearing. The decision of the discipline hearing committee shall be final on the date it is issued by the committee. Within 30 days, one of the parties may appeal to the Committee on Appeals and may request the Committee on Appeals to stay the effective date of the decision. A stay may be granted in whole or in part and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Committee on Appeals may require. The decisions of the Committee on Appeals shall be final.

20.22.23. If there are indications that a cause for discipline exists or if in the course of the proceedings it should become apparent to the bishop of the synod that the pastoral office cannot be conducted effectively in the congregation(s) being served by the minister of Word and Sacrament due to local conditions or that local conditions may be adversely affected by the continued service by the minister of Word and Sacrament, the bishop of the synod may temporarily suspend the pastor from service in the congregation(s) without prejudice and with pay provided through a joint synod and churchwide fund and with housing provided by the congregation(s).

20.22.24. If there are indications that a cause for discipline exists or if, in the course of proceedings, it becomes apparent to the bishop of the synod that the circumstances require, the bishop of the synod may temporarily suspend a minister of Word and Sacrament serving under letter of call issued other than by a congregation from the office and functions of the ministry of Word and Sacrament without prejudice and without affecting compensation and housing.

20.23. The disciplinary process for ministers of Word and Service shall be set forth in the bylaws.

   a. private censure and admonition by the bishop of the synod;
   b. suspension from the role and functions of a minister of Word and Service for a designated period or until there is satisfactory evidence of repentance and amendment, or
   c. removal from the roster of Ministers of Word and Service of this church.

20.23.03. Charges against a minister of Word and Service of this church that could lead to discipline must be specific and in writing, subscribed to by the accuser(s), and be made by one or more of the following:
   a. at least two-thirds of the members of the Congregation Council of the congregation in which the minister of Word and Service is serving, submitted to the synod bishop;

20.23.05. If those efforts fail, the procedures for discipline shall be the same as that set forth above for ministers of Word and Sacrament in 20.22.07. through 20.22.22.

20.23.06. If there are indications that a cause for discipline exists or if in the course of the proceedings it should become apparent to the bishop of the synod that the role and function of a minister of Word and Service cannot be conducted effectively in the congregation(s) being served by the minister of Word and Service due to local conditions or that local conditions may be adversely affected by the continued service by the minister of Word and Service, the bishop of the synod may temporarily suspend the minister of Word and Service from service in the congregation(s) without prejudice and with pay provided through a joint churchwide-synod-congregation fund.

20.24.01. Where the written charges specify that the accuser will not seek the rostered minister’s removal from the ministry of this church or suspension from the office/role and functions of the ministry of this church for a period not exceeding three months, 20.24.01. through 20.24.09. shall apply to the exclusion of 20.22.08. through 20.22.24. and 20.23.05. through 20.23.07.

20.24.02. The voting members of a discipline hearing committee convened to conduct a hearing on charges described in 20.24.01. shall be six members of the synod’s Committee on Discipline selected by the Executive Committee of the Synod Council. The rules become effective when adopted by the Church Council.

20.24.05. In each case for which a discipline hearing committee has been constituted, the committee shall, within 60 days after the secretary of this church has given notice of the selection of the hearing officer to serve on a discipline hearing committee, commence a meeting or series of meetings with the accused and the accuser(s) to receive testimony or other evidence offered by the accused or the accuser(s). The 60-day period may be extended one or more times to a specified date by a written stipulation signed by the accuser(s), the accused, and the hearing officer prior to the expiration of the original 60-day period or prior to the extended specified date.

20.24.06. Written notice of the date, time, and place of the first meeting of the discipline hearing committee at which testimony will be received, and a copy of the charges, shall be delivered to the accused and to the accuser(s) at least 20 days prior to the date of the meeting.

confront or cross-examine witnesses testifying on behalf of the accuser and to what extent the accuser shall be able to confront or cross-examine witnesses testifying on behalf of the accused. A verbatim record shall be made by a stenographer or court reporter or by audio or video recording of all meetings of the committee at which testimony is presented. The accused and the accuser may be accompanied at the meeting(s) by a friend or advisor. Such friend or advisor shall not participate in the proceedings before the committee.

20.24.08. The discipline hearing committee shall conclude its meeting(s) and render its decision in writing within 45 days of the commencement of the meeting for which written notice was given under 20.24.06. The written decision shall be in two parts:

a. Findings of Fact. In this part, the committee shall set forth what it has found to be the relevant facts, that is, what it believes to be the truth of the matter.

1) private censure and admonition by the synod bishop.
2) suspension for a period not exceeding three months from the office/role and functions of ministry in this church.
3) participation in such programs of evaluation, therapy, continuing education, or similar experience as the committee may direct.

20.24.09. The decision of the discipline hearing committee shall be made by a majority vote of its members who were present at the hearing. The decision of the discipline hearing committee shall be final on the date it is issued by the committee. Within 30 days of that date, one of the parties may appeal to the Committee on Appeals and may request the Committee on Appeals to stay the effective date of the decision. a. departing from the faith confessed by this church;

b. willfully disregarding or violating the criteria for recognition as congregations of this church; or

c. willfully disregarding or violating the provisions of the constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of this church.
20.31.02. The disciplinary actions which may be imposed are:
   a. censure and admonition by the bishop of the synod;
   b. suspension from this church for a designated period, the consequences of such suspension being the loss of voting rights of any member (including ministers of Word and Sacrament and ministers of Word and Service) of the congregation at synod or churchwide assemblies, the loss of the right to petition, and the forfeiture of eligibility by any member of the congregation to serve on any council, board, committee, or other group of this church, any of its synods, or any other subdivision thereof;
   c. suspension of the congregation from this church for a designated period (with the same consequences as in b.) during which the congregation shall be under the administration of the synod, provided that a congregation may refuse to accept such administration in which case it shall be removed from the roster of congregations of this church; or
   d. removal from the roster of congregations of this church.

20.31.03. Charges against a congregation which could lead to discipline must be specific and in writing, subscribed to by the accuser(s), and be made by one or more of the following:
   a. at least one-fifth of the voting members of the congregation, submitted to the synod bishop;
   b. at least three other congregations of the synod, submitted to the synod bishop;
   c. the Synod Council; or
   d. the synod bishop.

20.31.04. When there are indications that a cause for discipline exists, efforts shall be made by the bishop of the synod to resolve the situation by consultation in the same manner as set forth above for ministers of Word and Sacrament in 20.22.04. and 20.22.05.

20.31.05. If those efforts fail, the procedures for discipline shall be the same as that set forth above for ministers of Word and Sacrament in 20.22.07. through 20.22.22.

   a. persistent and public denial of the Christian faith;
   b. willful or criminal conduct grossly unbecoming a member of the Church of Christ;
   c. continual and intentional interference with the ministry of the congregation; or
   d. willful and repeated harassment or defamation of member(s) of the congregation.

154 / ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 20 (01-2022)
20.41.02. Discipline for an offense shall be administered consistent with the procedure which Christ instructed his disciples to follow (Matthew 18:15–17), proceeding through these successive steps, as necessary:

a. seeking repentance and reconciliation through private counsel and admonition by a pastor;

b. censure and admonition by a pastor in the presence of two or three members of the Congregation Council;

c. written referral of the matter by the Congregation Council to the vice president of the synod, who will refer it to a consultation panel, pursuant to bylaw 20.41.03; and

d. written referral of the matter pursuant to bylaw 20.41.04, by the consultation panel to the Committee on Discipline of the synod, which shall hold a hearing and render a final decision.

20.41.03. If for any reason a pastor of the congregation is unable to offer the counsel and administer the admonitions required by bylaw 20.41.02., those steps may be performed by another pastor chosen by the Executive Committee of the Congregation Council. No one shall serve as a member of the consultation panel or the discipline hearing panel if such individual (i) is the accused; (ii) is related to an accused; (iii) is a member, an employee, or a former member or employee of the congregation bringing the charges; or if the participation of an individual on either panel could give rise to the appearance of partiality even if the individual would in fact be impartial. For these purposes, a related individual is one who, with respect to the accused, is a spouse, parent, son, daughter, sibling, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, grandparent, grandchild, including corresponding members of blended families and in-laws (parent, son, daughter, or sibling of a spouse, spouse of a sibling, or the parent or sibling of the spouse of a sibling).

20.41.04. If the counseling, censure and admonitions pursuant to bylaw 20.41.02.a. and b. do not result in repentance and amendment of life, charges against the accused member(s) that are specific and in writing may be prepared by the Congregation Council, signed, and submitted to the vice president of the synod. The vice president shall select from the synod’s Consultation Committee a panel of five members (three laypersons and two ministers of Word and Sacrament). A copy of the written charges shall be provided to consultation panel and the accused member(s). The consultation panel, after requesting a written reply to the charges from the accused member(s), shall consider the matter and seek a resolution by means of investigation, consultation, mediation, or whatever other means may seem appropriate.

20.41.05. The goal of the consultation panel is to seek repentance, amendment of life, forgiveness, healing, and reconciliation. The consultation panel’s efforts to reach a mutually agreeable resolution shall continue for no more than 45 days after the matter is submitted to it. If the consultation panel fails to resolve the matter, the panel, upon the request of the Congregation Council, shall refer the case in writing, including the written charges and the accused member’s reply, to the Committee on Discipline of the synod for a hearing. A copy of the consultation panel’s written referral shall be commence a meeting or series of meetings to receive testimony or other evidence offered by the Congregation Council and the accused member(s).

Written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing shall be sent by the nonvoting chair to the Congregation Council and the accused member(s) 10 days in advance of the meeting. Until that first meeting is convened, the vice president of the synod shall, if necessary, appoint other members of the Committee on Discipline to fill vacancies so that the discipline hearing panel consists of six members plus the nonvoting chair.

20.41.08. The discipline hearing panel shall decide the time, manner, and written charges were first submitted, may attend the hearing and be witnesses;

d. only one Congregation Council member may participate in the proceedings as the council representative;

silent;
f. the council representative and the accused member(s) will be allowed to present their arguments and evidence without unnecessary interruption;
g. the accused member(s) may be accompanied by a spouse and one friend or advisor, but the spouse and friend or advisor may not participate in the proceedings, except as witnesses;
h. the panel may conduct some of its sessions outside the presence of the parties to the case;
i. rules of evidence and similar rules used in secular judicial proceedings shall not apply in these hearings; and
j. the parties to the case cannot be compelled to provide any information or documents to each other or to the panel.

20.41.09. Upon conclusion of the hearing, one of the following disciplinary sanctions can be imposed by the vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the discipline hearing panel who are present and voting:

156 / ELCA CONSTITUTION—CHAPTER 20 (01-2022)

c. termination of membership in the congregation; or
d. termination of membership in the congregation and exclusion from the church property and from all congregation activities.

20.41.10. The written decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be sent to the vice president of the synod, the accused member(s), and the Congregation Council in writing within 45 days of the convening of the first hearing for which written notice was given pursuant to 20.41.06. The decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be implemented by the Congregation Council and recorded in the minutes of the next council meeting.

The petition shall be filed with the chair of the Committee on Appeals and shall set forth the specific charge or charges.

20.51.03. Notice of a decision by the Committee on Appeals that the charges have been sustained shall be given to the accused person, the Church Council shall be notified of the entry of such judgment, and the office shall be vacated.

         church; and
      d) submit a written report of their findings to the other members of the Committee on Appeals.
   3) the members of the Committee on Appeals, other than those who committee and by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of those present and voting may adopt the findings and grant the petition.

c. The grounds and process for recall or dismissal of an officer are as described in Chapter 20 of this constitution.

d. In the case of alleged willful disregard or violation of the constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions or of alleged conduct as would subject the officer to disciplinary action, the following procedures shall apply:
   1) The petition shall be referred to the Committee on Appeals which shall function as the discipline hearing committee that shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the rules provided provisions of this continuing resolution; and

   2) the members of the Committee on Appeals, other than those who are disqualified, may grant the petition by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of those present and voting.

The request shall be forwarded to the Committee on Appeals, c/o ELCA Secretary, 8765 West Higgins Road, Chicago, Illinois 60631, with copy to the other party. The Committee on Appeals may grant the other party an opportunity to respond in writing. The Committee on Appeals may grant a stay for such period, and may renew the stay for such further periods, as it determines to be appropriate. The Committee on Appeals may make the grant of a stay subject to such conditions as it determines to be appropriate. Such determinations shall be final.

20.62. The circumstances for which the Committee on Appeals may reverse or set aside the decision of a discipline hearing committee and the consequences of such action shall be set forth in the bylaws.

20.62.01. The judgment of a discipline hearing committee must be sustained unless the Committee on Appeals finds that one of the following conditions exists:

a. The discipline hearing committee abused its discretion. The discipline hearing committee may not be found to have abused its discretion unless at least one of the following is true:

1) The discipline hearing committee’s Determination was not supported by any evidence in the record.

2) One or more of the discipline hearing committee’s Findings of Fact is clearly erroneous. A Finding of Fact is clearly erroneous when, although there is evidence to support it, the Committee on Appeals on the entire evidence is left with the definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed. The Committee on Appeals may not reverse a finding of the discipline hearing committee simply because the Committee on Appeals concludes that it would have found differently had it been the discipline hearing committee. The Committee on Appeals must give due regard to the opportunity of the discipline hearing committee to judge the credibility of the witnesses.
3) Although the Findings of Fact are not clearly erroneous, the discipline hearing committee’s Determination is nevertheless one with which no reasonable person, acting objectively, could agree. The committee’s Determination may not be reversed simply because the Committee on Appeals, had it been the discipline hearing committee, would have reached a different conclusion. The discipline hearing committee’s Determination must be sustained if reasonable people can disagree as to its propriety.

b. Due process has not been followed.
c. New evidence has been submitted by one of the parties, which evidence, in the judgment of the Committee on Appeals, should be considered.
d. The record of the proceedings before the discipline hearing committee is insufficient to permit the Committee on Appeals to determine whether the committee abused its discretion or followed due process.

20.62.02. When the Committee on Appeals has decided to reverse or set aside the decision of the discipline hearing committee, the Committee on Appeals shall proceed as follows:
a. If the Committee on Appeals has determined that one of the conditions listed in 20.62.01.a.1) or 20.62.01.a.2) exists, the Committee on Appeals may return the matter to the discipline hearing committee for further proceedings or render its own decision, which shall be final and unappealable.
b. If the Committee on Appeals has determined that the condition listed in 20.62.01.a.3) exists, it shall render its own decision, which shall be final and unappealable.
c. If the Committee on Appeals has determined that one of the conditions listed in 20.62.01.b., 20.62.01.c., or 20.62.01.d. exists, it shall return the matter to the discipline hearing committee for further proceedings.

20.63. Decisions of the Committee on Appeals shall be final; an affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of those present and voting shall be necessary to render a decision or opinion. Each decision or opinion shall be reported as soon as practical to the parties concerned, and a summary of action taken shall be reported to the Churchwide Assembly.

20.70. CONSULTATION AND ADJUDICATION

20.71. The presiding bishop and the Executive Committee of the Church Council shall be available to give guidance and counsel when disputes arise among the three expressions of this church.

20.72. When there is disagreement on a substantive issue between or among churchwide units and offices of the churchwide organization that cannot be resolved by the parties, the aggrieved party or parties may appeal to the presiding bishop, or his or her designee, for consultation.
If this consultation fails to resolve the issue, a petition may be addressed by the parties to the Church Council requesting a resolution of the matter.

20.73. When there is disagreement on a substantive issue between or among synods which cannot be resolved by the parties, the synod affected may address an appeal to the presiding bishop and the Executive Committee of the Church Council. In this case, the decision of the Executive Committee shall prevail, unless, upon the motion of a member of the Church Council, the decision is referred to the Church Council for final action.

20.74. When there is disagreement on a substantive issue between a synod or synods and the churchwide organization that cannot be resolved by the parties, any party may appeal to the Committee on Appeals for consultation. If this consultation fails to resolve the issue, a petition may be addressed by the parties to the Churchwide Assembly for a final decision.

20.75. When there is disagreement between or among congregations in the same synod on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, the council of an affected congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the other affected congregation(s) of its intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the bishop’s consultation fails to resolve the issue(s), the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee’s efforts fail to resolve the issue(s), the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the Council deems necessary. The Synod Council’s decision shall be final.

20.76. When there is disagreement between or among factions within a congregation on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, members of the congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the president of the Congregation Council of their intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the issue relates directly to the pastor, the bishop may begin the process in §14.18.d. In all other matters, if the bishop’s consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee’s efforts fail to resolve the dispute, the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the Council deems necessary. The Synod Council’s decision shall be final.
Chapter 21.

INDEMNIFICATION

21.01. Subject to the limitations and duties imposed by law, each person who is or was made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the present or former capacity of that person as a Church Council member, officer, employee, or committee member of the churchwide organization, or member of the Conference of Bishops, shall be indemnified against all costs and expenses incurred by that person in connection with the proceeding. Indemnification by the churchwide organization of any person by reason of that person's capacity as a director, officer, employee, or committee member of a separately incorporated ministry or of any other organization is subject to the provisions of section 21.02.

a. The term “proceeding” means a threatened, pending, or completed lawsuit, whether civil or criminal, an administrative or investigative matter, arbitration, mediation, alternative dispute resolution, or any other similar legal or governmental action. Except as otherwise required by law, the term “proceeding” does not include (a) any action by the churchwide organization or any unit thereof against the individual seeking indemnification, or (b) a disciplinary hearing or related process described in Chapter 20 of this constitution.

b. The term “indemnification” includes reimbursement and advances of costs and expenses for judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, excise taxes, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and similar required expenditures.

21.02. Where a person who, while a member of the Church Council, officer, employee, or committee member of the churchwide organization, or member of the Conference of Bishops, is or was serving at the request of the churchwide organization as (or whose duties in that position involve or involved service in the capacity of) a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization, is or was made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of such capacity, then such person shall be entitled to indemnification only if (a) the Church Council has established a process for determining whether a person serving in the capacity described in this section shall be entitled to indemnification in any specific case, and (b) that process has been applied in making a specific determination that such person is entitled to indemnification.

21.03. The churchwide organization may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of itself or any person entitled to indemnification pursuant to this chapter against any liability asserted against and incurred by this church or by such other person in or arising from a capacity described in section 21.01 or section 21.02.
Chapter 22.
AMENDMENTS, BYLAWS, AND CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

22.10. AMENDMENTS TO THIS CONSTITUTION

22.11. This constitution may be amended only through either of the following procedures:

a. The Church Council may propose an amendment, with an official notice to be sent to the synods at least six months prior to the next regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly. The adoption of such an amendment shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the next regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly present and voting.

b. An amendment may be proposed by 25 or more members of the Churchwide Assembly. The proposed amendment shall be referred to the Committee of Reference and Counsel for its recommendation, following which it shall come before the assembly. If such an amendment is approved by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting, such an amendment shall become effective only if adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at the next regular Churchwide Assembly.

22.20. BYLAWS

22.21. Bylaws not in conflict with this constitution may be adopted or amended at any regular meeting of the Churchwide Assembly when presented in writing by the Church Council or by at least 15 members of the assembly. An amendment proposed by members of the assembly shall immediately be submitted to the Committee of Reference and Counsel for its recommendation. In no event shall an amendment be placed before the assembly for action sooner than the day following its presentation to the assembly. A two-thirds vote of the members present and voting shall be necessary for adoption.

22.30. CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

22.31. Continuing resolutions not in conflict with the constitution or bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Churchwide Assembly or by a two-thirds vote of the Church Council. Such continuing resolutions become effective immediately upon adoption. Matters related to the administrative functions of the churchwide organization shall be set forth in the continuing resolutions.
CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS

INTRODUCTION to the Constitution for Synods

The Constitution for Synods, like the other governing documents of this church, reflects the theology and polity of this church as it organizes itself to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, share the sacraments, reach out to the neighbor with good news, and share the love of God in the world. Each expression of this church — churchwide, synod and congregation — is held together in a relationship of interdependence that encourages each to respond to its context. These documents also demonstrate our commitment to seeing ourselves with others as part of the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. As such, the Constitution for Synods is deeply rooted in Scripture, the Lutheran Confessions, and the history of this church and its predecessors.

The Constitution for Synods was adopted by the Constituting Convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, as required by the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. This current edition of the Constitution for Synods contains changes adopted by all churchwide assemblies, including the fifteenth Churchwide Assembly in 2019. It is consistent with the requirements of the governing documents of the ELCA’s churchwide organization, and it provides organizational flexibility to recognize local context.

Required provisions: Sections of the Constitution for Synods marked by a dagger [†] are required provisions. These sections, including constitutional provisions and bylaws, must be used without alteration or amendment of the text in any manner (i.e., neither additions nor deletions are permissible). In accordance with provision †§18.11, amendments to required provisions in the Constitution for Synods passed by the Churchwide Assembly are automatically incorporated into the constitutions of individual synods upon formal certification by the secretary of this church. Because the secretary has provided such certification following the 2019 Churchwide Assembly, required provisions marked by a dagger [††] have been incorporated into synod constitutions.

Codification explanation: The Constitution for Synods, like the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Model Constitution for Congregations, is organized into chapters by general subject matter and codified as (a) constitutional provisions, (b) bylaws, and (c) continuing resolutions. Each provision is preceded by a capital “S.” If a provision is mandatory, it will be preceded by a dagger, “†S.”

a. Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers, preceded by an “S”: the chapter number, followed by a period and a two-digit number. A period follows the two-digit number. Thus, one required constitutional provision related to “Conferences, Clusters, Coalitions, Area Subdivisions, and Networks” in Chapter 12 is codified as “†§12.01.” In accordance with Chapter 18, titled “Amendments, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions,” there are three types of constitutional provisions in each synod’s constitution:
   1. Required constitutional provisions adopted by the Churchwide Assembly are designated by a dagger “‡†”, as discussed above (†§18.11.);
   2. Recommended constitutional provisions adopted by the Churchwide Assembly may be adopted by majority vote at one meeting of the Synod Assembly (†§18.12.);

168 / (8-2019) CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS
3. Other constitutional provisions, including different versions of the recommended provisions referred to in the previous paragraph, may be initiated in and adopted by individual synods, but such provisions may not conflict with the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Such synod constitutional amendments are adopted and become effective in accordance with §18.13.

b. Bylaws follow constitutional provisions to which they apply. They are not intended to be organized in a separate document at the end of the constitutional provisions. Bylaws are codified with three sets of numbers: the chapter number (preceded by an “S”), the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit number. There are periods after the chapter number, after the reference to the constitutional provision, and after the bylaw number. Thus, a bylaw relating to synod networks would be codified as “S12.01.01.” Although the Constitution for Synods contains some required bylaws, there is not a model set of bylaws or continuing resolutions because bylaws and continuing resolutions normally relate to specific practices and details of each synod’s organization, operation, and life. Thus, each synod has discretion and may develop its own bylaws and continuing resolutions, including bylaws and continuing resolutions under required constitutional provisions, but no such bylaw or continuing resolution may conflict with constitutional provisions in the Constitution for Synods, mandatory synod bylaws, or with the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Bylaws are adopted and amended in accordance with Chapter 18. Newly adopted bylaws or amendments to bylaws shall be reported to the secretary of this church.

c. Continuing resolutions are intended to provide descriptions of operational patterns and practices or of the ongoing responsibilities of committees or other units within the organizational structure of the synod. They follow the relevant constitutional provision or bylaw to which they refer. Continuing resolutions also are codified with three sets of numbers, except that the third set is preceded by a capital letter. Thus, a continuing resolution describing the contents of a Synod Council report to the Synod Assembly in Chapter 10 might be numbered “S10.03.A19.” The initial numbers “S10.03” indicate that the continuing resolution relates to the designated constitutional provision, which in this case states that the functions of the Synod Council include providing a report to the regular meeting of the Synod Assembly. The final letter and numbers “A19” designate that this is the first continuing resolution “A” and the year that it was adopted, in this example 2019. Continuing resolutions are adopted and amended in accordance with Chapter 18. Unlike constitutional provisions and bylaws, continuing resolutions may be adopted either at a legally called and conducted meeting of the Synod Assembly (by a majority vote) or by the Synod Council (by a two-thirds vote). New continuing resolutions or amendments to existing continuing resolutions shall be reported to the secretary of this church.

▶ Missing numbers: You will notice that certain numbers are missing from the numbering sequence in some chapters. These omissions are intentional. For example, in some chapters the number "10." and multiples thereof have been reserved for possible use as section headings in future editions.

▶ Selection of options: Alternatives are provided in some places within the Constitution for Synods. Alternatives are noted by brackets or blank lines. For example, constitutional provision †§8.51. allows synods to choose the length of terms for the vice president, secretary, and treasurer. The appropriate number of years should be filled in by each synod. In addition, †§8.51.c. provides that the treasurer may be elected by the Synod Assembly or appointed by the Synod Council. Each synod should select one of those options.

▶ References to church: In the governing documents, “Church” with a capital letter refers to the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. The words “church” or “this church” in lower case letters refer to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

▶ Consultation and concluding comments: In order to assist synods, the Office of the Secretary is available for consultation, both about potential amendments to the Constitution for Synods and about the review process for congregational constitutions. The important task of amending a constitution is challenging. It is, however, an essential endeavor that merits thoughtful work. In addressing the synod’s constitutional responsibilities, may God grant you and your colleagues wisdom, discernment, and commitment to the unity of this church in faithful witness to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

(8-2019) CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS / 171
Chapter 4.
CONFESSION OF FAITH

†S4.01. This synod confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
†S4.02. This synod confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
   a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
   b. The proclamation of God’s message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
   c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God’s Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God’s revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God’s Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
†S4.03. This synod accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.

†S5.02. This church confesses the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church and is resolved to serve Christian unity throughout the world.

172 / CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS (8-2019)
†S5.03. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. This church, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

†S5.04. This church, inspired and led by the Holy Spirit, participates in The Lutheran World Federation as a global communion of churches, engaging in faithful witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and in service for the sake of God’s mission in the world.

†S6.06. References herein to the nature of the relationship between the three expressions of this church—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—as being interdependent or as being in a partnership relationship describe the mutual responsibility of these expressions in God’s mission and the fulfillment of the purposes of this church as described in this chapter, and do not imply or describe the creation of partnerships, co-ventures, agencies, or other legal relationships recognized in civil law.

Each congregation, except those certified as congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the uniting churches, prior to being listed in the roster of congregations of this synod, shall adopt the Model Constitution for Congregations or one acceptable to this synod that is not in contradiction to the constitution and bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

a. New congregations. A congregation newly formed by this church and any congregation seeking recognition and reception by this church shall:
   1) Accept the criteria for recognition and reception as a congregation of this church, fulfill the functions of the congregation, and accept the governance provisions as provided in Chapter 9 of the constitution and bylaws of this church.
   2) Adopt governing documents that include fully and without alterations the Preamble, Chapter 1, where applicable, and all required provisions of Chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19 in the Model Constitution for Congregations consistent with requirements of the constitutions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of this church. Bylaws and continuing resolutions, appropriate for inclusion in these chapters and not in conflict with these required provisions in the Model Constitution for Congregations, the constitution of this synod, or the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, may be adopted as described in Chapters 17 and 18 of the Model Constitution for Congregations.

3) Accept the commitments expected of all congregations of this church as stated in C6.01., C6.02., and C6.03. of the Model Constitution for Congregations.

b. Congregations from another church body. If a congregation is a member of another church body, the leadership of the congregation first should consult with the appropriate authorities of that church body before taking action to leave its current church body. After such consultation, leaders of the congregation should contact the ELCA synod bishop or staff where the congregation is located. The synod bishop or synod staff where the transferring or independent congregation is located shall confer with the congregation to assure its understanding and acceptance of commitment to and affiliation with this church.

c. Recognition and reception. Recognition and reception into this church of transferring or independent congregations by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is based on the judgment of the synod and action by the synod through the Synod Council and Synod Assembly. The synod bishop shall provide for prompt reporting of such additions to the secretary of this church for addition to the roster of congregations.

S13.02. It shall be the responsibility of each congregation of this synod to choose from among its voting members laypersons to serve as members of the Synod Assembly as well as persons to represent it at meetings of any conference, cluster, coalition, or other area subdivision of which it is a member. The number of persons to be elected by each congregation and other qualifications shall be as prescribed in guidelines established by this synod.

S13.11. When a rostered minister resigns, the Congregation Council shall receive the letter of resignation, report it to the congregation, and at once notify the bishop of this synod.

S13.12. A congregation under financial obligation to its former rostered minister shall make satisfactory settlement of the obligation before calling a successor.

S13.20. A congregation considering a relocation shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located and the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization before any steps are taken leading to such action. The approval of the Synod Council shall be received before any such action is effected.

S13.21. A congregation considering development of an additional site to be used regularly for worship shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located and the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization before any steps are taken leading to such action.

S13.22. Each congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America within the territory of this synod, except those which are in partnership with the Slovak Zion Synod, shall establish and maintain a relationship with this synod.

S13.23. Provision 9.71. of the constitution of this church shall govern the relationship of this synod and a congregation of this synod regarding the property of the congregation. This synod may transfer or convey property to a congregation of the synod, subject to restrictions accepted by the congregation, including provision that if the Synod Council, in its sole and exclusive discretion, determines (1) that the property is not being used to serve the mission and ministry needs of this church, or (2) that the congregation has transferred, encumbered, mortgaged, or in any way burdened or impaired any right, title, or interest in the property without the prior approval of the Synod Council, then title to the property shall revert to the synod, and the congregation, upon written demand, shall reconvey the property to the synod.

S13.24. The Synod Council, itself or through trustees appointed by it, may take charge and control of the property of a congregation of this synod to hold, manage, and convey the same on behalf of this synod, if any of the following apply:

a. The congregation has disbanded, ceased to worship, or otherwise ceased to exist as a congregation.

b. The congregation has abandoned its property.

c. The remaining members of the congregation decide that it is no longer possible to function as a congregation or that they are unable to provide required governance.

d. The Synod Council determines that the membership of a congregation has become so scattered or so diminished in numbers that it cannot provide required governance or that it has become impractical for the congregation to fulfill the purposes for which it was organized.

e. The Synod Council determines that it is necessary for this synod to protect and preserve the congregation’s property from waste and deterioration.

The congregation shall have the right to appeal any such decision to the next Synod Assembly.

S13.25. This synod may temporarily assume administration of a congregation upon its request or with its concurrence. Such synod administration shall continue only so long as necessary to complete the purposes for which it was requested by the congregation or until the congregation withdraws consent to continued administration.

S13.30. Discipline

a. Each congregation of this synod shall consult the bishop of this synod before taking any steps leading to the extending of a call to a prospective pastor.

c. In case of alleged physical disability or mental incapacity under paragraph a.4) above, the bishop’s committee shall obtain and document competent medical opinion concerning the pastor’s condition. When a disability or incapacity is evident to the committee, the bishop of this synod may declare the pastorate vacant. When the pastorate is declared vacant, the Synod Council shall list the pastor on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament with disability status. Upon removal of the disability and restoration of the pastor to health, the bishop shall take steps to enable the pastor to resume the ministry, either in the congregation last served or in another appropriate call.

(8-2019) CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS / 195
c. If either party fails to assent to the recommendations of the bishop’s committee concerning the pastor’s call, the congregation may dismiss the pastor only at a legally called meeting after consultation with the bishop, either (a) by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee did not recommend termination of the call, or (b) by a majority vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee recommended termination of the call.

d. Details of such calls shall be in writing setting forth the purpose and conditions involved. Prior to the completion of a term, the bishop of this synod or a representative of the bishop shall meet with the pastor and representatives of the congregation for a review of the call. Such call may also be terminated before its expiration in accordance with the provisions of §14.18.

c. Chapter 15.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

†S15.01. The fiscal year of this synod shall be February 1 through January 31.

†S15.11. Since the congregations, synods, and churchwide organization are interdependent expressions that share in God’s mission, all share in the responsibility to develop, implement, and strengthen the financial support of the whole church. The gifts and offerings of the members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America are given to support all parts of this church, the unity of this church should be evidenced in determining each part’s share of the gifts and offerings. Therefore:

a. The mission of this church beyond the congregation is to be supported by such a proportionate share of each congregation’s annual budget as each congregation determines. This synod shall develop guidelines for determining “proportionate share,” and shall consult with congregational leaders to assist each congregation in making its determination.
b. This synod shall receive the proportionate share of the mission support from its congregations, and shall transmit that percentage or amount of each congregation’s mission support as determined in consultation with the churchwide organization and approved by the Synod Assembly as part of its budget consideration.

c. Should the Synod Assembly not approve the proportionate share of mission support determined in consultation with the churchwide organization, a new consultation with the churchwide organization shall take place. The Synod Council is authorized to amend the budget adopted by the Synod Assembly to reflect the results of this consultation.

*S15.12. The annual budget of this synod shall reflect the entire range of its own activities and its commitment to supportive funding with other synods and the churchwide organization.

*S15.13. On the basis of estimated income, the Synod Council shall authorize expenditures within the budget for the fiscal year. Expenditure authorizations shall be subject to revision, in light of changing conditions, by the Synod Council.

*S15.14. Except when such procedure would jeopardize current operations, a reserve amounting to no more than 16 percent of the sum of the amounts scheduled in the next year’s budget for regular distribution to synod causes shall be carried forward annually for disbursement in the following year in the interest of making possible a more even flow of income to such causes. The exact number of dollars to be held in reserve shall be determined by the Synod Council.

*S15.21. No appeal to congregations of this or any other synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for the raising of funds shall be conducted by congregations or organizations related to or affiliated with this synod without the consent of the Synod Assembly or the Synod Council.

*S15.31. This synod shall arrange to have an annual audit of its financial records conducted by a certified public accountant firm recommended by the synod Audit Committee and approved by the Synod Council. The audited annual financial report shall be submitted by this synod to the churchwide Office of the Treasurer and to the congregations of this synod. The financial reports shall be in the format approved from time to time by the churchwide Office of the Treasurer.

*S15.32. This synod shall maintain adequate, continuous insurance coverage in accordance with standards recommended by the churchwide organization. Insurance programs offered or endorsed by the churchwide organization shall be deemed to fulfill this obligation.
Chapter 16.
INDEMNIFICATION

§16.01. Subject to the limitations and duties imposed by law, each person who is or was made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the present or former capacity of that person as a Synod Council member, officer, employee, or committee member of this synod shall be indemnified against all costs and expenses incurred by that person in connection with the proceeding. Indemnification of any person by reason of that person’s capacity as a director, officer, employee, or committee member of any other organization, regardless of its form or relationship to this synod, is subject to the provisions of section §16.02.

a. The term “proceeding” means a threatened, pending, or completed lawsuit, whether civil or criminal, an administrative or investigative matter, arbitration, mediation, alternative dispute resolution, or any other similar legal or governmental action. Except as otherwise required by law, the term “proceeding” does not include (a) any action by this synod against the individual seeking indemnification, or (b) subject to §16.04., a disciplinary hearing or related process described in Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

b. The term “indemnification” includes reimbursement and advances of costs and expenses for judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, excise taxes, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and similar required expenditures.

§16.02. Whenever a person who, while a Synod Council member, officer, committee member, or employee of this synod, is or was serving at the request of this synod as (or whose duties in that position involve or involved service in the capacity of) a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization, is or was made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of such capacity, then such person shall be entitled to indemnification only if (a) the Synod Council has established a process for determining whether a person serving in the capacity described in this section shall be entitled to indemnification in any specific case, and (b) that process has been applied in making a specific determination that such person is entitled to indemnification.

§16.03. This synod may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of itself or any person entitled to indemnification pursuant to this chapter against any liability asserted against and incurred by this synod or by such other person in or arising from a capacity described in section §16.01., or section §16.02.

§16.04. When written charges against a rostered minister of this church are made in disciplinary proceedings under Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the synod bishop or when written charges against a congregation are made in disciplinary proceedings by the Synod Council or the synod bishop, and the discipline hearing committee determines that no discipline shall be imposed, then if such determination is not reversed or set aside on appeal, indemnification shall be made by the synod to the accused for reasonable attorney’s fees and other reasonable expenses related to the defense of the charges. The determination of the reasonableness of such fees and expenses shall be decided by the Synod Council.

Chapter 17.
CONSULTATION AND ADJUDICATION

‡S17.01. The synod bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall be available to give counsel when disputes arise within this synod.

‡S17.02. The synod bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall receive expressions of concern from rostered ministers of this church, congregations, and organizations within this synod; provide a forum in which the parties concerned can seek to work out matters causing distress or conflict; and make appropriate recommendations for their resolution. When a concern relates directly to the synod bishop, the synod vice president will lead the Executive Committee’s efforts at resolving the matter. When the matter at issue cannot be resolved in this manner, applicable procedures for investigation, decision, appeal, and adjudication shall be followed. Allegations or charges that could lead to the discipline of a rostered minister of this church shall not be addressed by the Executive Committee but shall be resolved through the disciplinary process set forth in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

‡S17.03. When there is disagreement between or among congregations of this synod on a substantive issue that cannot be resolved by the parties, the council of an affected congregation may petition the synod bishop for a consultation after informing the other affected congregation(s) of its intent to do so. If this consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee’s efforts fail to resolve the issue(s), the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the council deems necessary. The decision of the Synod Council shall be final.

‡S17.04. When conferences, clusters, coalitions, or area subdivisions of this synod have a disagreement on a substantive issue that they cannot resolve, the aggrieved party or parties may petition the synod bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council requesting a consultation after informing the other affected parties of their intent to do so. In this case the decision of the Executive Committee shall prevail, except that, upon the motion of a member of the Synod Council, the decision shall be referred to the Synod Council for final action.

†S17.10. Adjudication in a Congregation
†S17.11. When there is disagreement between or among factions within a congregation on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, members of the congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the president of the Congregation Council of their intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the issue relates directly to the pastor, the bishop may begin the process in †S14.18.d. In all other matters, if the bishop’s consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee’s efforts fail to resolve the dispute, the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the council deems necessary. The Synod Council’s decision shall be final.

Chapter 18.
AMENDMENTS, BYLAWS, AND CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

†S18.10. Amendments to Constitution
†S18.11. Certain sections of this constitution incorporate and record therein required provisions of the constitution and bylaws of this church. If such provisions are amended by the Churchwide Assembly, corresponding amendments shall be introduced at once into this constitution by the secretary of this synod upon receipt of formal certification thereof from the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

†S18.12. Whenever the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America officially informs this synod that the Churchwide Assembly has amended the Constitution for Synods, this constitution may be amended to reflect any such amendment by a majority vote at any subsequent meeting of the Synod Assembly without presentation at a prior Synod Assembly. An amendment that is identical to a provision of the Constitution for Synods shall be deemed to have been ratified upon its adoption by this synod. The Church Council, through the secretary of this church, shall be given prompt notification of its adoption.

†S18.13. Other amendments to this constitution may be adopted by this synod through either of the following procedures:

a. Introduced with the support of at least ____ voting members and having been approved by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting at a regular meeting of the Synod Assembly, an amendment may be adopted unchanged by a two-thirds vote at the next regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.

b. The Synod Council may propose an amendment, with notice to be sent to the congregations of this synod at least six months prior to the next regular meeting of the Synod Assembly. Such an amendment shall require for adoption a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting at such a regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.
All such amendments shall become effective upon ratification by the Churchwide Assembly or by the Church Council.

§S18.20. Amendments to Bylaws
§S18.21. This synod may adopt bylaws not in conflict with this constitution or with the constitution and bylaws of the churchwide organization. This synod may amend its bylaws at any meeting of the Synod Assembly by a two-thirds vote of voting members of the assembly present and voting. Newly adopted continuing resolutions and amendments to existing continuing resolutions shall be reported to the secretary of this church.
MODEL CONSTITUTION

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN

CHURCH IN AMERICA®

2019
INTRODUCTION to the Model Constitution for Congregations

The Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, like the other governing documents of this church, reflects the theology and polity of this church as it organizes itself to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, share the sacraments, reach out to the neighbor with good news and share the love of God in the world. Each expression of this church — churchwide, synod, and congregation — is held together in a relationship of interdependence that encourages each to respond to its context. These documents also demonstrate our commitment to seeing ourselves with others as part of the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. As such, the Model Constitution for Congregations is deeply rooted in Scripture, the Lutheran Confessions, and the history of this church and its predecessors.

The Model Constitution for Congregations was adopted by the Constituting Convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, as required by the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. This current edition of the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America contains changes adopted by all churchwide assemblies, including the fifteenth Churchwide Assembly in 2019. It is consistent with the requirements of the governing documents of the ELCA’s churchwide organization and synods, and it provides organizational flexibility to recognize the context of local congregations.

➤ Required provisions: Sections of this constitution marked by an asterisk [] are required when a congregation amends its governing documents. These sections must be used without alteration or amendment of the text in any manner (i.e., neither additions nor deletions are permissible). This requirement is based on provision 9.52 in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. This provision requires that when a congregation of this church “wishes to amend any provision of its governing documents, the governing documents of that congregation shall be so amended to conform to 9.25.b.” in the churchwide constitution. Provisions in the Model Constitution for Congregations identified by an asterisk [] are those required under ELCA constitutional provision 9.25.b.

➤ Review by synod: Each congregation of this church is to provide a copy of its governing documents, and any amendments thereto, to its synod. In accordance with ELCA bylaw 9.53.03., amendments to a congregation constitution become effective only when approved by the synod. This bylaw provides:

All proposed changes in the constitution or incorporation documents of a congregation shall be referred to the synod with which the congregation is affiliated. The synod shall notify the congregation of its decision to approve or disapprove the proposed changes; the changes shall go into effect upon notification that the synod has approved them. The synod shall recognize that congregations may organize themselves in a manner which they deem most appropriate.

No governing document amendment will be approved by a synod if it conflicts with the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In order to meet constitutional requirements and to avoid potential problems, all proposed amendments to a congregation’s constitutional provisions, bylaws, and continuing resolutions should be submitted to the synod for review.
Amendment consistent with the Model Constitution for Congregations: A congregation that amends its constitution to be in conformity with the Model Constitution for Congregations will report these changes to its synod. The amendments become effective upon adoption by the congregation, C16.04. While synod approval is not required, it is wise to work with the synod in preparing to present these amendments to the congregational meeting.

Codification explanation: The Model Constitution for Congregations is organized into chapters by general subject matter and codified as (a) constitutional provisions, (b) bylaws, and (c) continuing resolutions. Each provision is preceded by a capital “C.” If a constitutional provision is mandatory, it will be preceded by an asterisk; “*C.”

a. Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers, preceded by a “C”: the chapter number, followed by a period, and a two-digit number. A period follows the two-digit number. Thus, one required constitutional provision related to “Membership” in Chapter 8 is codified as “C8.02.” A provision in Chapter 12 relating to a report by the Congregation Council to the congregation at an annual meeting is codified as “C12.09.” Constitutional provisions are adopted and amended in accordance with Chapter 16 titled “Amendments.”

b. Bylaw provisions follow constitutional provisions to which they apply. They are not intended to be organized in a separate document at the end of the constitutional provisions. Bylaws are codified with three sets of numbers: the chapter number (preceded by a “C”), the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit number. There are periods after the chapter number, after the reference to the constitutional provision, and after the bylaw number. Thus, a bylaw provision related to “Membership” would be codified as “C8.02.01.” A bylaw relating to the contents of an annual report by the Congregation Council to the congregation at an annual meeting would be codified as “C12.09.01.” Because bylaws and continuing resolutions normally relate to specific practices and details of each congregation’s organization, operation, and life, there is not a model set of bylaws or continuing resolutions. Thus, each congregation has discretion and may develop its own bylaws and continuing resolutions, including bylaws and continuing resolutions under required constitutional provisions, but no such bylaw or continuing resolution may conflict with constitutional provisions in the Model Constitution for Congregations, the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, or the constitution of the synod, as indicated in “C6.03.” Bylaws are adopted and amended in accordance with Chapters 16 and 17.

c. Continuing resolutions are intended to provide descriptions of operational patterns and practices or of the ongoing responsibilities of committees or other units within the organizational structure of the congregation. They follow the relevant constitutional provision or bylaw to which they refer. Continuing resolutions also are codified with three sets of numbers, except that the third set is preceded by a capital letter. There are periods after the chapter number, after the reference to the constitutional provision, and after the continuing resolution letter and number. Thus, a continuing resolution describing congregational committees in Chapter 13 might be numbered “C13.07.A19.” The initial numbers “C13.07,” indicate that the continuing resolution relates to the designated constitutional provision, which in this case provides that the duties of congregational committees may be specified in bylaws or continuing resolutions. The final letter and numbers “A19” designate that this is the first continuing resolution “A” and the year that it was adopted, in this example 2019. Continuing resolutions are adopted and amended in accordance with Chapter 18. Unlike constitutional provisions and bylaws which are adopted by the congregation at a legally called and conducted meeting, continuing resolutions may be adopted either by a congregational meeting or by the Congregation Council.

- Missing numbers: You will notice that certain numbers are missing from the numbering sequence in some chapters. These omissions are intentional. For example, in some chapters the number “10” and multiples thereof have been reserved for possible use as section headings in future editions.

- Selection of options: Alternatives are provided in some places within the Model Constitution for Congregations. Alternatives are noted by brackets or blank lines. For example, constitutional provision #59.01 offers the alternative of election of a call committee by the congregation or by the Congregation Council. Only one alternative should be chosen in each instance where brackets appear in the text. In other provisions, alternative provisions are provided. Thus, in Chapters 11 and 12, regarding “Officers” and “Congregation Council,” options are provided separated by the word “or.” Each congregation should select one of those options, subject to approval through the synod’s constitutional review process. Where a blank line appears, such as in C1.01 or C10.02, the appropriate word, phrase, or number determined by the individual congregation should be inserted.

- References to church: In the governing documents, “Church” with a capital letter refers to the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. The words “church” or “this church” in lowercase letters refer to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The specific congregation may be identified, as provided in C1.02, as “this congregation.”

- Guidelines: A list of guidelines for a congregation engaging in review and amendment of its constitution is available through each synod office and at ELCA.org.

- Consultation and concluding comments: Each synod has a process to review proposed amendments to congregational constitutions. The work of both congregations in amending their governing documents and the synod in reviewing proposed amendments is facilitated by consultation and cooperation before proposed amendments are acted upon by the congregation. In addition, each congregation should establish a process for periodic review of its governing documents. You are encouraged to contact your synod office to assist your congregation in its periodic review of governing document provisions and to assess whether problems may exist with respect to proposed amendments.

The important task of amending a constitution is challenging. It is, however, an essential endeavor that merits thoughtful work. In addressing your constitutional responsibilities, may God grant you and your colleagues wisdom, discernment, and commitment to the unity of this church in faithful witness to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

e. This congregation follows the procedures outlined in *C6.05.

*C6.05. This congregation may terminate its relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the following procedure:

a. A resolution indicating the intent to terminate its relationship must be adopted at two legally called and conducted special meetings of this congregation by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at each meeting. The first such meeting may be held no sooner than 30 days after written notice of the meeting is received by the bishop of the synod, during which time this congregation shall consult with the bishop and the bishop’s designees, if any. The times and manner of the consultation shall be determined by the bishop in consultation with the Congregational Council. Unless he or she is a voting member of this congregation, the bishop and the bishop’s designees, if any, shall have voice but not vote at the first meeting.

b. Within 10 days after the resolution has been voted upon at the first meeting, the secretary of this congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the bishop, attesting that the special meeting was legally called and conducted and certifying the outcome of the vote, and shall send copies of the resolution and certification to voting members of this congregation.

c. If the resolution was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at the first meeting, the bishop of the synod and this congregation shall continue in consultation, as specified in paragraph a. above, during a period of at least 90 days after receipt by the bishop of the attestation and certification as specified in paragraph b. above.

d. If this congregation, after such consultation, is still considering termination of its relationship with this church, such action may be taken at a legally called and conducted special meeting by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present. Notice of the second meeting shall be sent to all voting members and to the bishop at least 10 days in advance of the meeting. Unless he or she is a voting member of this congregation, the bishop and the bishop’s designee, if any, shall have voice but not vote at the second meeting.

e. Within 10 days after the resolution has been voted upon, the secretary of this congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the bishop, attesting that the special meeting was legally called and conducted and certifying the outcome of the vote, and shall send copies of the resolution and certification to the voting members of the congregation. If the resolution was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at the special meeting, the relationship between the congregation and this church shall be terminated subject to Synod Council approval as required by paragraphs f. and g. below.

f. Unless this notification to the bishop also certifies that this congregation has voted to affiliate with another Lutheran denomination, this congregation shall be deemed an independent or non-Lutheran church, in which case *C7.04. shall apply.

g. This congregation shall abide by these covenants by and among the three expressions of this church:

1) Congregations seeking to terminate their relationship with this church which fail to comply with each of the foregoing provisions in *C6.05. shall be required to receive Synod Council approval before terminating their membership in this church.

3) Congregations established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be required, in addition to complying with the foregoing provisions in *C6.05., to satisfy all financial obligations to this church and receive Synod Council approval before terminating their membership in this church.

h. If this congregation fails to achieve the required two-thirds vote of voting members present at this congregation’s first meeting as specified in paragraph a. above or fails to achieve the required two-thirds vote of voting members present at this congregation’s second meeting as specified in paragraph d. above, another attempt to consider termination of relationship with this church must follow all requirements of *C6.05, and may begin no sooner than six months after the meeting at which the two-thirds vote was not achieved.

*C6.06. If this congregation considers relocation, it shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located and the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization before any steps are taken leading to such action. The approval of the Synod Council shall be received before any such action is taken.

*C6.07. If this congregation considers developing an additional site to be used regularly for worship, it shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located and the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization before any steps are taken leading to such action.

Chapter 7.
PROPERTY OWNERSHIP

*C7.01. If this congregation ceases to exist, title to undisposed property shall pass to the [insert name of synod] of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

*C7.02. If this congregation is removed from membership in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America according to its procedure for discipline or pursuant to 9.23. of the constitution and bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, title to property shall continue to reside in this congregation.

*C7.03. If the voting members of this congregation present at a legally called and conducted special meeting of this congregation vote to transfer to another Lutheran church body, title to property shall continue to reside in this congregation, provided the process for termination of relationship in *C6.05. has been followed. Before this congregation takes action to transfer to another Lutheran church body, it shall consult with representatives of the [insert name of synod].

*C7.04. If the voting members of this congregation present at a legally called and conducted special meeting of this congregation vote to become independent or relate to a non-Lutheran church body and have followed the process for termination of relationship in *C6.05., title to property of this congregation shall continue to reside in this congregation only with the consent of the Synod Council. The Synod Council, after consultation with this congregation by the process established by the synod, may give approval to the request to become independent or to relate to a non-Lutheran church body, in which case title shall remain with the majority of this congregation. If the Synod Council fails to give such approval, title shall remain with those members who desire to continue as a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In neither case does title to this congregation’s property transfer to the synod.

*C7.05. Notwithstanding the provisions of *C7.02. and *C7.03. above, where this congregation has received property from the synod pursuant to a deed or other instrument containing restrictions under provision 9.71.a. of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, this congregation accepts such restrictions and:

a. Shall not transfer, encumber, mortgage, or in any way burden or impair any right, title, or interest in the property without prior approval of the Synod Council.

b. Shall—upon written demand by the Synod Council, pursuant to ¶13.23 of the constitution of the [insert name of synod]—reconvey and transfer all right, title, and interest in the property to the synod.

Chapter 8.

If the counseling, censure, and admonitions pursuant to *C15.01. do not result in repentance and amendment of life, charges against the accused member(s) that are specific and in writing may be prepared by the Congregation Council, signed, and submitted to the vice president of the synod. The vice president shall select from the synod’s Consultation Committee a panel of five members (three laypersons and two ministers of Word and Sacrament). A copy of the written charges shall be provided to the consultation panel and the accused member(s). The consultation panel, after requesting a written reply to the charges from the accused member(s), shall consider the matter and seek a resolution by means of investigation, consultation, mediation, or whatever other means may seem appropriate. The panel’s efforts to reach a mutually agreeable resolution shall continue for no more than 45 days after the matter is submitted to it.

*C15.03. If the consultation panel fails to resolve the matter, that panel shall refer the case in writing, including the written charges and the accused member’s reply, to the Committee on Discipline of the synod for a hearing. A copy of the panel’s written referral shall be delivered to the vice president of the synod, the Congregation Council, and the accused member(s) at the same time it is sent to the Committee on Discipline of the synod. The Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall then select six members from the Committee on Discipline to decide the case and shall appoint a member of the Synod Council to preside as nonvoting chair. Those six members, plus the nonvoting chair, comprise the discipline hearing panel for deciding the case. The Congregation Council and the accused member(s) are the parties to the case.

*C15.04. The discipline hearing panel shall commence and conduct the disciplinary hearing in accordance with the provisions governing discipline of congregation members prescribed in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

*C15.05. By the vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the discipline hearing panel who are present and voting, one of the following disciplinary sanctions can be imposed:

a. suspension from the privileges of congregation membership for a designated period of time;

b. suspension from the privileges of congregation membership until the pastor and Congregation Council receive evidence, satisfactory to them, of repentance and amendment of life;

c. termination of membership in this congregation; or

d. termination of membership in this congregation and exclusion from the church property and from all congregation activities.

*C15.06. The written decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be sent to the vice president of the synod, the accused member(s), and the Congregation Council as required by the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be implemented by the Congregation Council and recorded in the minutes of the next council meeting.

*C15.07. No member of this congregation shall be subject to discipline a second time for offenses that a discipline hearing panel has heard previously and decided pursuant to this chapter.

*C15.10. Adjudication

*C15.11. When there is disagreement between or among factions within this congregation on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, members of this congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the president of this congregation of their intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the issue relates directly to the pastor, the bishop may begin the process in * Translation. In all other matters, if the bishop’s consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee’s efforts fail to resolve the dispute, the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the Council deems necessary. The Synod Council’s decision shall be final.

Amendments may be proposed by at least two voting members or by the Congregation Council. Proposals must be filed in writing with the Congregation Council 60 days before formal consideration by this congregation at a regular or special Congregation Meeting called for that purpose. The Congregation Council shall notify this congregation’s members of the proposal together with the council’s recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the meeting. Notification may take place by mail or electronic means, as permitted by state law.

a. be approved at any legally called meeting of this congregation by a majority vote of those voting members present and voting;
b. be ratified without change at the next regular meeting of this congregation held pursuant to C10.01. by a two-thirds vote of those voting members present and voting; and
c. have the effective date included in the resolution and noted in the constitution.

*C16.03. Any amendments to this constitution that result from the processes provided in *C16.01. and *C16.02. shall be sent by the secretary of this congregation to the synod. The synod shall notify this congregation of its decision to approve or disapprove the proposed changes; the changes shall go into effect upon notification that the synod has approved them.

*C16.04. This constitution may be amended to bring any section into conformity with a section or sections, either required or not required, of the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as most recently amended by the Churchwide Assembly. Such amendments may be approved by a majority vote of those voting members present and voting at any legally called meeting of this congregation without presentation at a prior meeting of this congregation, provided that the Congregation Council has submitted by mail or electronic means, as permitted by state law, notice to this congregation of such an amendment or amendments, together with the council’s recommendations, at least 30 days prior to the meeting. Upon the request of at least two (2) voting members of this congregation, the Congregation Council shall submit such notice. Following the adoption of an amendment, the secretary of this congregation shall submit a copy thereof to the synod. Such provisions shall become effective immediately following a vote of approval.

2 Such an effective date must be stated in relation to the requirements of *C16.03. to allow time for the synod’s review of the amendment.

BYLAWS

*C17.01. This congregation may adopt bylaws. No bylaw may conflict with this constitution.

*C17.02. Bylaws may be adopted or amended at any legally called meeting of this congregation with a quorum present by a two-thirds vote of those voting members present and voting.

*C17.03. Changes to the bylaws may be proposed by any voting member, provided that such additions or amendments be submitted in writing to the Congregation Council at least 60 days before a regular or special Congregation Meeting called for that purpose. The Congregation Council shall notify this congregation’s members of the proposal with the council’s recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the Congregation Meeting. Notification may take place by mail or electronic means, as permitted by state law.

Chapter 18.
CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

*C18.01. This congregation in a legally called meeting or the Congregation Council may enact continuing resolutions. Such continuing resolutions may not conflict with the constitution or bylaws of this congregation.

*C18.02. Continuing resolutions shall be enacted or amended by a majority vote of a meeting of this congregation or a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Congregation Council.

INDEMNIFICATION

*C19.01. Consistent with the provisions of the laws under which this congregation is incorporated, this congregation may adopt provisions providing indemnification for each person who, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Congregation Council member, officer, employee, agent, or other member of any committee of this congregation, was or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding.
Chapter 20.
PARISH AUTHORIZATION
[* Required provisions when congregation is part of a parish]

*C20.01. This congregation may unite with one or more other congregations recognized by the synod named in *C6.01. to form a parish. Except as provided in *C20.02. and *C20.03., a written agreement, developed in consultation with the synod and approved by the voting members of each congregation participating in the parish, shall specify the powers and responsibilities that have been delegated to the Parish Council. The Parish Agreement shall identify which congregation of the parish issues calls on behalf of the member congregations or shall establish a process for identifying which congregation issues calls on behalf of the member congregations.

*C20.02. One congregation of a parish shall issue a call on behalf of the member congregations to a minister of Word and Sacrament or a candidate for the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament who has been recommended by the synod bishop to serve the congregations of the parish. Such a call shall be approved prior to issuance by a two-thirds vote at a congregational meeting of each congregation forming the parish. If any congregation of the parish should fail to approve the call, the other congregations of the parish shall have the right to terminate the parish agreement.

*C20.03. One congregation of a parish may issue a call on behalf of the member congregations to a minister of Word and Service or a candidate for the roster of Ministers of Word and Service who has been recommended by the synod bishop to serve the congregations of the parish. Such a call shall be approved prior to issuance by a two-thirds vote at a congregational meeting of each congregation forming the parish. If any congregation of the parish should fail to approve the call, the other congregations of the parish shall have the right to terminate the parish agreement.

*C20.04. Any one of the congregations of the parish may terminate their relationship with the pastor as provided in ¶14.18.d. of the synod constitution of the synod named in *C6.01. In such case, the other congregation(s) of the same parish shall have the right to terminate the parish agreement.

*C20.05. Any one of the congregations of the parish may terminate their relationship with a minister of Word and Service as provided in ¶14.43.d. of the synod constitution of the synod named in *C6.01. In such case, the other congregation(s) of the same parish shall have the right to terminate the parish agreement.

*C20.06. Whenever a parish agreement is terminated, the call of any rostered minister serving that parish is terminated. Should any congregation that was formerly part of the parish agreement desire to issue a new call to that rostered minister, it may do so in accordance with the call process of this church.
