B. Ad Hoc Committee

Action items related to meetings of the Ad Hoc Committee are detailed below. Additional items or revised actions will be distributed following the committee's April 8, 2010, meeting.

1. Revisions of Ministry Policies

The 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly took action to allow service in rostered ministry by people who are in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships. The assembly directed that necessary changes in policy be made and that any additional guidelines be developed. It further directed that provision be made within this church to respect diverse, faith-based commitments on this matter.

ELCA Ministry Policies

The ELCA has four rosters for public ministry: pastors, associates in ministry, deaconesses, and diaconal ministers. The policies that guide preparation for public ministry are organized in the following official documents:

1. "Vision and Expectations" (for pastors): This document is a statement of expectations and hopes and an invitation for reflection and consideration of those who seek to serve in the ordained ministry of Word and Sacrament.
2. "Vision and Expectations" (for associates in ministry, deaconesses, diaconal ministers): This document is for those called to serve in an ELCA rostered ministry of Word and Service and serves as an invitation for reflection and consideration by those who seek to enter such service.
3. "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline": This document describes the grounds for which rostered ministers may be subject to discipline according to the practice of this church.
4. "Candidacy Manual": This manual contains the policies and procedures that guide the process of discerning and preparing for calls to public ministry and the steps by which this church moves toward approval of candidates for call.
5. "Manual of Policies and Procedures for Management of the Rosters": this manual is a selection of policy documents related to aspects of rostered ministry and includes the ecclesiastical endorsement of chaplains, military chaplaincy, reinstatement to the rosters, interim ministry, and retirement.

Summary of Churchwide Assembly actions related to ministry policies

The 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly considered the recommendations related to ministry policies during plenary sessions on Friday, August 21, 2009. At the beginning of Plenary Session Eight, voting members approved the following change to the Order of Business pertaining to the order in which the resolutions of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies would be considered (CA09.95.22): "To consider and vote on separately the four resolutions of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies in this order: Resolution 3, Resolution 1, Resolution 2, and Resolution 4."

The 2009 Churchwide Assembly voted on the former Resolution 3, as amended, of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies during Plenary Session Eight (CA09.05.23):

RESOLVED, that in the implementation of any resolutions on ministry policies, the ELCA commit itself to bear one another's burdens, love the neighbor, and respect the bound consciences of all.

In the same plenary session, the assembly also voted on the former Resolution 1 of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies (CA09.05.24):

RESOLVED, that the ELCA commit itself to finding ways to allow congregations that choose to do so to recognize, support, and hold publicly accountable lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships.

During Plenary Session Nine, the assembly approved the former Resolution 2 of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies (CA09.05.26):

RESOLVED, that the ELCA commit itself to finding a way for people in such publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships to serve as rostered leaders of this church.

Also in that session voting members of the 2009 Churchwide Assembly approved former Resolution 4 of the Recommendation on Ministry Policies, as amended (CA09.05.27):

WHEREAS, guided by the Holy Spirit, this church raises up, calls, supports, and maintains rosters of ordained ministers, associates in ministry, deaconesses, and diaconal ministers for public ministry in service of the mission of Christ and seeks faithfully to discern in each situation what will best serve that mission; and

WHEREAS, this church maintains these four rosters according to policies and procedures that are developed and applied according to the specifications of chapters 7 and 20 of its Constitution, Bylaws and Continuing Resolutions; and

WHEREAS, this church has a polity, processes, and procedures that trust designated individuals and bodies to use churchwide standards to make decisions about fitness for rostered ministry in general and for call to a specific ELCA ministry; and

WHEREAS, some members, congregations, candidacy committees, and synods of the ELCA have discerned gifts and skills for rostered ministry in some people who are or contemplate being in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships and have indicated their conviction that rostering and calling such people would serve the mission and ministry of this church; and

WHEREAS, other members, congregations, candidacy committees, and synods of the ELCA acknowledge those gifts and skills for ministry, but believe that this church must maintain an expectation of celibacy for any gay or lesbian person, whether or not that person is in a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationship, and thus believe that this church cannot call or roster people in such relationships; and

WHEREAS, the Church of Christ sometimes has been surprised by the actions of the Spirit, as is reported in the book of Acts when the inclusion of Gentiles was affirmed; and

WHEREAS, public accountability of rostered leaders in the ELCA is essential to nurturing the trust that is necessary for effective ministry; and

WHEREAS, although there is no generally recognized civil or ecclesial status that corresponds to heterosexual marriage for publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships, this assembly has committed itself to find ways to recognize, support, and hold publicly accountable lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships; and

WHEREAS, present ELCA policies prohibit the rostered service of any and all people in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships, but this assembly has committed itself to find a way for people in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships to serve as rostered leaders of this church; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America call upon its members to commit themselves to respect the bound consciences of those with whom they disagree regarding decisions on the call and rostering of individuals in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships, in this church and with churches ecumenically and globally; and be it further

RESOLVED, that this church, because of its commitment to respect the bound consciences of all, declare its intent to allow structured flexibility in decision-making regarding the approving or disapproving in candidacy and the extending or not extending of a call to rostered service of a person who is otherwise qualified and who is living or contemplates living in a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationship; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America make provision in its policies to eliminate the prohibition of rostered service by members who are in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America make provision in its policies to recognize the conviction of members who believe that this church should not call or roster people in a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationship; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the appropriate churchwide unit(s) be directed to develop, in consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council be directed to approve, appropriate guidelines for a process by which congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization could hold people publicly accountable in their relationships who are in or contemplate being in lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships and who seek to be on the rosters of this church; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Appeals be directed to develop, in consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council be directed to approve, appropriate amendments to “Definition and Guidelines for Discipline” and the Vocation and Education program unit be directed to draft, in consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council is directed to approve, appropriate amendments to the “Vision and Expectations” documents and the Candidacy Manual to accomplish the intent of this resolution; and be it further

RESOLVED, that additional policies be developed, as necessary, so that those whom this church holds responsible for making decisions about fitness for rostered ministry in general and for call to a particular specific ELCA ministry may discern, and have guidance in discerning, the fitness for ministry of a member living in a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationship; and be it finally

RESOLVED, that this church continue to trust its established processes and those to whom it has given the responsibility to discern who should and should not be rostered or called to public ministry in this church.

Process for fulfilling the CWA actions

The amendment process follows procedures mandated in the bylaws of this church, beginning with drafting by the appropriate churchwide units (Office of the Secretary and Vocation and Education) and by the Committee on Appeals, consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and consideration by the Church Council. The drafting and the consultation processes began following the 2009 Churchwide Assembly. Iterations of both “Vision and Expectations” and the “Candidacy Manual” were posted on the ELCA Website for public review and response. Suggestions were considered as part of the revision process.

Revised April 8, 2010

Work of the Ad Hoc Committee

At its November 2009 meeting, the Church Council approved a protocol to guide consideration by the ELCA Church Council of proposed revisions to ELCA ministry policies in response to action by the 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly. The protocol addresses factors including time line (October 2009-April 2010), participants, process, and documents and assigns overall responsibility to the collaboration of the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee and the Program and Services Committee.

The protocol provided in Exhibit R, Part 2 is based on the Ad Hoc Committee process that has guided consideration by churchwide assemblies of ELCA social statements. The report and recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee will be distributed following its meeting on April 8, 2010. In accordance with the protocol will receive, review, and recommend response to the amendments proposed by members of the Church Council to the four ministry policies documents by the deadline on March 29, 2010. The committee's report is provided in Exhibit Q, Part 1.

The Church Council's consideration of the documents will proceed in the following manner:

- The documents will be considered individually, page-by-page.
- Ad Hoc Committee recommendations will be considered first.
- Consideration of additional amendments that were not submitted by the deadline must be authorized by the body.
- When all amendments have been considered, a final vote will be taken.

1a. Revisions to "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline"

The Committee on Appeals is created by this church's constitution, specifically provision 20.64 which says:

The Committee on Appeals shall be comprised of six ordained ministers and six laypersons, elected by the Churchwide Assembly for a term of six years, without consecutive reelection.

The Committee's members, elected by the Churchwide Assembly, include retired bishops; rostered leaders from a variety of settings, including inner city, rural and campus ministry; lay members, including lawyers, a law professor, synodical officers, and a variety of lay members from ELCA congregations.

Among others tasks, the Committee on Appeals is charged by the ELCA Constitution, provision 20.70, with "establish[ing] definitions and guidelines, subject to approval by the Church Council, to enable clear and uniform application of the grounds for discipline"

The committee first established "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline" in 1989 and revised it in 1993. The three sections that together comprise Definitions and Guidelines address discipline of ordained ministers; discipline of associates in ministry, members of the deaconess community, and diaconal ministers; and finally, discipline of congregations. The 2009 Churchwide Assembly called on this committee to revise Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline to take into account the changes adopted regarding rostering of individuals in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous same-gender relationships. The Assembly resolution read as follows:

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Appeals be directed to develop, in consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council be directed to approve, appropriate amendments to "Definition and Guidelines for Discipline" and the Vocation and Education program unit be directed to draft, in consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council is directed to approve, appropriate amendments to the "Vision and Expectations" documents and the Candidacy Manual to accomplish the intent of this resolution; . . .

This Churchwide Assembly resolution required the Committee on Appeals to formulate amendments to the section of Definitions and Guidelines that addresses discipline of ordained ministers and the section that addresses discipline of associates in ministry, members of the deaconess community and diaconal ministers. At the same time, the committee adopted two additional amendments to the document. The first of these two amendments added a provision dealing with the topic of honesty and integrity. The second revised and updated the language dealing with the problems of substance abuse and other addictions.

The committee worked on the required revisions for many hours through conference calls, e-mail exchanges, and a face-to-face meeting. The committee members considered input from churchwide staff, the Conference of Bishops, and the Church Council. In making the revisions, they reviewed every word, checking the dictionary and constantly testing different language to be as clear and concise as possible. The committee sought to remain faithful to its charge and to the social statement and ministry policy recommendations adopted by the Churchwide Assembly. Words and phrases were tested repeatedly against this church's documents, including "Vision and Expectations" and other foundational documents of this church such as the catechism.

Among the multitude of documents, policies and statements adopted by the ELCA, "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline" is unique. Its purpose is to delineate, as succinctly and as clearly as possible, behaviors and actions that can result in the discipline of the rostered leaders of this church. Thus, it is not appropriate for this document to expound upon aspirations for rostered leaders or to delineate preferences among a variety of permitted behaviors. Those are purposes of other documents, such as social statements or "Vision and Expectations." The fact that "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline" treats violations of the requirements of chastity and abstinence outside of marriage and outside a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous same-gender relationship as grounds for discipline is not to be understood as somehow equating the two types of relationships, but rather as stating grounds for discipline in two different situations.

As required by the ELCA Constitution and the action of the Churchwide Assembly, the Committee on Appeals has adopted revisions to "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline" and presents the revised version of that document to the Church Council for approval in the form it appears in Exhibit Q, Part 2b .

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To authorize the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, in consultation with the Committee on Appeals, to prepare a final version of this document make any necessary editorial corrections.

1b. Revisions to “Vision and Expectations” (Clergy Roster)

“Vision and Expectations: Ordained Ministers in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America” was first adopted as a statement of this church by the ELCA Church Council at its October 1990 meeting.

The amendment process follows procedures mandated in the bylaws of this church, beginning with drafting by the appropriate churchwide units (Office of the Secretary and Vocation and Education) and by the Committee on Appeals, consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and consideration by the Church Council. The drafting and the consultation processes began following the 2009 Churchwide Assembly. Iterations of both “Vision and Expectations” and the “Candidacy Manual” were posted on the ELCA Website for public review and response. Suggestions were considered as part of the revision process.

The proposed revisions are provided in Exhibit Q, Part 3a.

To authorize the Vocation and Education unit, in consultation with the Office of the Secretary, to prepare a final version of “Vision and Expectations: Ordained Ministers in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America,” including corrections for clarity and accuracy make any necessary editorial corrections.

1c. Revisions to “Vision and Expectations” (Lay Rosters)

“Vision and Expectations: Commissioned Associates in Ministry in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America” was first adopted as a statement of this church by the ELCA Church Council at its December 1993 meeting. “Vision and Expectations: Associates in Ministry, Deaconesses, and Diaconal Ministers in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America” will replace this document when approved by the ELCA Church Council at its April 2010.

The amendment process follows procedures mandated in the bylaws of this church, beginning with drafting by the appropriate churchwide units (Office of the Secretary and Vocation and Education) and by the Committee on Appeals, consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and consideration by the Church Council. The drafting and the consultation processes began following the 2009 Churchwide Assembly. Iterations of both “Vision and Expectations” and the “Candidacy Manual” were posted on the ELCA Website for public review and response. Suggestions were considered as part of the revision process.

1d. Revisions to the Candidacy Manual

The Candidacy Manual was first adopted by the Church Council at its April 1988 meeting. Subsequent revisions have been made over the years that followed.

The amendment process follows procedures mandated in the bylaws of this church, beginning with drafting by the appropriate churchwide units (Office of the Secretary and Vocation and Education) and by the Committee on Appeals, consultation with the Conference of Bishops, and consideration by the Church Council. The drafting and the consultation processes began following the 2009 Churchwide Assembly. Iterations of both “Vision and Expectations” and the “Candidacy Manual” were posted on the ELCA Web site for public review and response. Suggestions were considered as part of the revision process.

The proposed revisions are provided in Exhibit Q, Part 5.

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To adopt the revised Candidacy Manual; and

To authorize the Vocation and Education unit, in consultation with the Office of the Secretary, to ~~prepare a final version of the Candidacy Manual, including~~ make any necessary corrections for clarity and accuracy.

D. Budget and Finance

Action items related to the April 9, 2010, meeting of the Budget and Finance Committee are detailed below. Additional items or revised actions will be distributed following the committee's meeting.

1. 2010 Income Estimate and Expenditure Authorization

Over the past month, the churchwide organization has been in the process of closing the books for the 2009 fiscal year, receiving adjusted mission support plans from synods for 2010, and adjusting our 2010 income budget to reflect both the 2009 financial results and the adjusted plans from synods. At the time of preparing the adjusted income estimates, 54 synods had adjusted their mission support plans for a net decrease of nearly $7.6 million from their prior plans. This level of revision is within the range estimated last fall when the initial 2010 spending authorization was prepared; therefore, no adjustment is anticipated at this time.

Other income adjustments have been identified. Vision for Mission, with a renewed focus and effort, is estimated to increase $200,000. Discussions with Thrivent Financial for Lutherans have allowed us to reinstate the amount previously reduced, $200,000. Improved market value of our endowment funds at the end of fiscal 2009 allows us to increase the estimated endowment distributions by $83,550. Decreases in Missionary Sponsorship support over the last few years result in lowering our estimate from this source by $100,000. As a result of the adjustments, the churchwide organization may increase its current fund spending plans by $277,200 to a new total of $69,300,000.

No change is anticipated in World Hunger Appeal 2010 budget of $18,700,000. But a shift between sources due to recent trends is anticipated, with gifts through direct giving from individuals and congregations increasing $700,000, endowment distributions increasing $100,000 and gifts from congregations through synods decreasing $800,000. Planned expenditures of World Hunger fund balances in excess of required reserves, resulting from positive variances in both 2009 income and expense, total $1,631,516, and bring total anticipated expenditures in fiscal 2010 to $20,331,516.

Exhibit F, Part 2a shows the revised 2010 income estimates and the identified adjustments. Exhibit F, Part 2b shows how the increased income estimate has been allocated and the revised authorization levels by units. Increases for depreciation expenses caused by major investment in computer systems and building improvements are the largest portion with other increases addressing increased insurance costs, and other needs identified since last fall. The adjustments were funded by a combination of the increased income estimate, reallocations from the Strategic Initiative Fund, and reduced cost estimates for the Churchwide Assembly.

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To approve a revised current fund spending authorization for fiscal year 2010 of $69,300,000;

To approve a revised total World Hunger spending authorization for fiscal year 2010 of $20,33,516.

2. Revisions to 2010 Synod Mission Support Plans

The report of the director for mission support is found in Exhibit F, Part 5a.

The ELCA Church Council has responsibility for reviewing and taking action on synod mission support plans as an interdependent partner with congregations and synods in implementing and strengthening the financial support for the work of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA Constitution, 8.15. And 10.71.). In light of the continued impact of the economic recession, together with the decisions of some congregations to reduce or withhold mission support, the Budget and Finance Committee makes the following recommendation for Church Council action. Exhibit F, Part 5b shows the actual mission support received from each synod for 2009 with plans and any revisions for the 2010 fiscal year.

Revisions in synod plans following the November 2009 meeting of the Church Council were received and reviewed by the Conference of Bishops at its March 2010 meeting. They forward the following recommendations for the changes as follows.

3. 2011 Synod Mission Support Plans

Given the continuing strain on congregational income flowing to synods, synods are in the process of adjusting their 2010 mission support plans and are working to create or revise their 2011 plans in anticipation of their synod assemblies. Therefore, we have not received 2011 plans from every synod. To date, we have received plans from only 31 synods.

CC ACTION

To acknowledge with sadness that circumstances in the following synods have led to decisions to seek a decrease from prior levels in the percentage of sharing of 2011 mission support contributions by congregations for synodical and churchwide ministries; to encourage each synod to continue to work to grow mission support in the synod; and to request that each synod develop a plan, in consultation with the churchwide organization, to restore or surpass the previous level of mission support sharing: Eastern Washington-Idaho; Montana; Grand Canyon; Central States; Arkansas-Oklahoma; Western Iowa; North/West Lower Michigan; Southwestern Pennsylvania; Lower Susquehanna; and Virginia synods;

F. Legal and Constitutional Review Committee

Action items related to the April 9, 2010, meeting of the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee are detailed below. Additional items or revised actions will be distributed following the committee's meeting.

1. Revisions to the ELCA Pension and Other Benefits Program

The 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly approved "Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust" and its implementing resolutions. Implementing Resolution 7 read,

To call upon the ELCA to amend the eligibility provisions of the ELCA Pension and Other Benefits Program, consistent with the policies of this church."

Following the Churchwide Assembly, staff of the Board of Pensions have been researching the implications of this resolution, fully aware that the Churchwide Assembly action requires "policies of this church" to be developed and approved by the ELCA Church Council. These specifically include "Vision and Expectations" and "Definition and Guidelines for Discipline." It is important that amendments to the ELCA Pension and Other Benefits Program be consistent with the policy changes.

Preliminary work on plan amendments began following the Assembly and included introductory discussions at the October/November 2009 Board of Trustees' meeting.

While it was challenging to draft plan amendments prior to the approval of policy changes by the ELCA Church Council, the Board of Pensions drafted provisional amendments for the February/March 2010 Board of Trustees' meeting, with the understanding that the time line preceded the spring 2010 Conference of Bishops and Church Council meetings. The Board of Pensions has worked closely with the Office of the Secretary and the Vocation and Education unit to be informed and updated with pertinent policy change recommendations as they have developed.

Plan amendments approved by the Board of Trustees in February/March 2010 will be viewed as preliminary and subject to further revisions as necessitated by actions of the 2010 Conference of Bishops and Church Council meetings.

According to the Digest of Board Actions (Exhibit J, Part 1a), the proposed amendments are designed to provide benefits to an eligible same gender partner the same as would be provided to a spouse, to the extent possible under each plan, and as permitted by federal law.

The specific revisions proposed in response to Implementing Resolution 7 of "Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust" are provided in Exhibit P, Parts 2a-2f. An informational appendix is provided in Exhibit P, Part 2g.

If approved by the ELCA Church Council, the Board of Trustees of the Board of Pensions will meet by teleconference to finalize the amendments.

1. Rite for Reception onto the Roster of Ordained Ministers

The Conference of Bishops of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) reached a consensus March 8, 2010, on a draft proposal that, following approval of a synodical candidacy committee, would bring onto this church's official clergy roster those pastors who were ordained by and are currently on the clergy roster of Extraordinary Lutheran Ministries (ELM).

"Reception to the Roster of Ordained Ministers" has gone through the internal and external review process described in the document, "Review of Liturgical Material," in the period since the March Conference of Bishops meeting. The following summary identifies principal issues that arose in the designated review of this rite. Strategies for response to the issues then are explained. These strategies are reflected in the final proposal, which will come to the Church Council for action at its April 2010 meeting.

The final revision of the rite presented here has been reviewed and recommended by the Office of the Presiding Bishop as well as the Conference of Bishops. Many of the liturgical texts and notes are drawn directly from the authorized Ordination rite, which received extensive review throughout this church prior to its publication in Evangelical Lutheran Worship: Occasional Services for the Assembly (2009). Some of these texts and rubrics have been adapted for the current context and purpose. These adaptations were the focus of this review.

The sole intent of the draft rite presented here for authorization of limited use is to allow the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to receive onto its roster of ordained ministers those Extraordinary Lutheran Ministries (ELM) candidates who have been entrusted with a ministry of word and sacrament in an ordination that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has not recognized. This rite would follow their approval by a candidacy committee. "Reception to the Roster of Ordained Ministers with Prayer and the Laying on of Hands" is intended to be a rite that reflects the deep desire of the presiding bishop and synodical bishops for reconciliation both in this church and in the Church catholic. The hope of the presiding bishop and the Conference of Bishops is for a means of reception that embraces this church's desire for reconciliation with the ELM pastors who are serving ELCA congregations and wish to be fully recognized as ordained ministers in this church. At the same time the rite must be recognizable by fellow members of the Lutheran World Federation and among the ELCA's full-communion partners as containing signs consistent with ordination into the whole Church, in accordance with Lutheran Confessions, history, and practice. The rite brings to liturgical expression the reconciliation of relationships specific to this church while also seeking to respect this church's ecumenical commitment to the ongoing reconciliation of ministry in the Church catholic.

In this rite words are used that echo the promises of ordination and frequently are, in fact, words from the ordination rite. It will be apparent to those who examine or ultimately use this rite that it draws whenever possible directly from authorized texts while affirming promises made when the candidate was first entrusted with the ministry of word and sacrament. Since this rite falls under the category of "ministry rites" in the current liturgical review policy, this final version of "Reception to the Roster of Ordained Ministers" must receive authorization by the Church Council as the appropriate form to be used in this church as presented. It is prepared and restricted for

"limited use," intended to be used only by synodical bishops receiving ELM candidates within a two-year time limit.

Specific Issues and Strategies for Response General Matters

1. Review

Some reviewers pointed out that the rite required work to bring language consistency within the rite, between the rite and the notes, and with other, similar rites of the church (such as ordination). The use of language that could be variously understood also was noted by some reviewers.

Strategy for Response

Generally, the post-review rite uses instructions and headings in a way parallel to the other ELCA entry rites. For example, the following were added to the rite:

- instructions for standing before the assembly, turning around, and other actions.;
- heading and hymn suggestions for the optional hymn of invocation;
- consistency of language in the rite and notes with regard to headings;
- consistent reference to "the one being received," using singular language rather than both singular and plural;
- including the greeting of peace at the end of the body of the rite.

Regarding ambiguity of language, the rite intentionally is broad enough to incorporate a range of understandings while being specific where clarity is essential. The review team made every effort to maintain and honor the nuances of the rite as drafted. For example, the post-review rite refers to the one being received as having been previously "entrusted with the ministry of word and sacrament."

Changes based on the review

1. Review: Presentation

Several reviewers questioned the use of the phrase "this church" in the Presentation on the grounds of lack of clarity; many in our assemblies would not necessarily understand that phrase to be synonymous with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, especially when used at the outset of the rite.

Strategy for Response

"This church" was changed to "Evangelical Lutheran Church in America" at the presentation for the sake of clarity.

2. Review: Address

It was widely noted in the review that the address seemed incomplete. Several reviewers noted that the address should include a succinct statement about the ministry of word and sacrament, some description of what is happening in this rite, and brief Scripture passages as part of the address to the one being received.

Revised April 1, 2010

Strategy for Response

Language was added to set the ministry of word and sacrament within the ministry of all the baptized and to make clear the purpose of this rite: that is, to affirm the call to word and sacrament of the one being received and to receive the person with joy and gratitude as an ordained minister in this church. The scriptural addresses as they appear in the ordination service were added as an option. The notes at the end of the rite include more suggestions for such scriptural address, including the selections from the Charge in the ordination rite. The possibility of inserting the date when the one being received was entrusted with the ministry has been added. The questions asked in the ordination rite are here recast as statements of what was previously declared by the one being received, followed by a single question and answer in which those promises are affirmed. However, the statement regarding scriptural and confessional adherence in the earlier draft of this rite has been brought into closer alignment with the language of the ordination rite, so as to maintain the clarity of the authority of Scripture over the Creeds and Confessions.

3. Review: Thanksgiving

Some full-communion partner consultants and other reviewers questioned the meaning of the ambiguous phrase "others may participate in the laying on of hands" in the instruction after the first paragraph of the Thanksgiving. Others questioned use of the phrase "onto the roster of this church" in the prayer of thanksgiving, finding it to be language more appropriate to polity than to prayer. It was suggested that language more appropriate to prayer might be found.

Strategy for Response

The instruction for the laying on of hands has been revised to be parallel to the ordination rite, wherein "ordained pastors" participate in the laying on of hands. The phrase "as we receive name onto the roster of this church" has been changed to "as we receive name into the ordained ministry in this church" to avoid infusing polity language into the Thanksgiving, which has broad ecumenical implications.

4. Review: Charge

A reviewer noted that it seemed redundant to move from the Thanksgiving directly to the Blessing ("The God of peace . . .").

Strategy for Response

The post-review rite includes a portion of the Charge found in the ordination rite, with a rubric noting that it is optional. The charge may speak powerfully to those who have relied on the support of their community to keep them through difficult times. It also includes a clear affirmation that God has called this one being received, whose labor has not been in vain.

5. Review: Acclamation

The instruction prior to the Acclamation in the draft submitted for review is intended to give the presiding minister opportunity to offer context for particular celebrations, but reviewers found the instruction to be confusing and unclear. It also was suggested that highlighting the acclamation portion of a previously enacted rite might create the sense that the acclamation carries more weight than is actually intended by the rite. Reviewers also found confusing the parenthetical inclusion of the phrase "in this church" in the last statement by the presiding minister. Clearer expression of the intent of this phrase was sought.

Revised April 9, 2010 6:00 p.m.

Strategy for Response

The instruction to the presiding minister was restored to parallel the words in the ordination rite. The insertion of the phrase, "echoing the voices of others and speaking for the whole church," was well-received by reviewers and is sufficient to acknowledge the context and what took place in a previous rite. The presentation is modified to remove the words "in this church" because they seem awkward and limiting. "Let it be recognized and acclaimed" is clearer about what is happening in this rite, both acknowledging ministry that has gone before and praising God for the gifts of ministry embodied in this person who is here received and affirmed.

The rite is printed in full in Exhibit I, Part 1.

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To authorize as the appropriate form for a period of two years, beginning April 12, 2010, and ending on April 11, 2012, the rite of "Reception to the Roster of Ordained Ministers," for use by synodical bishops in receiving onto the roster of the ordained ministers of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America those pastors on the roster of Extraordinary Lutheran Ministries who were not previously on the ELCA roster of ordained ministers or on the roster of a predecessor church body, who have been approved by a candidacy committee of a synod of the ELCA and who have received a call in this church;

To emphasize that no other use of this rite is authorized; and

To express gratitude for the thoughtful work of all those who contributed to the development of this rite.

2. Learning and Development Opportunities for Churchwide Staff

At its November 2009 meeting, the ELCA Church Council approved revisions to the ELCA Churchwide Personnel Policies, including the elimination of the continuing education plan (CEP) for budgetary reasons. The Church Council voted (CC09.11.72) "...to request that the Human Resources section of the Office of the Presiding bishop bring to the next meeting of the Church Council recommendations for continuing education policies for churchwide employees."

The report prepared by Else Thompson, executive for Human Resources, is provided in Exhibit I, Part 2.

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To receive with gratitude the report of the executive for Human Resources related to learning and development opportunities for ELCA churchwide staff as provided in Exhibit I, Part 2; and

To encourage use of the time, resources, and funding provided for staff to grow and develop in their areas of expertise of work on behalf of the churchwide organization.

3. Social Statement Development [See agenda page 13]

I. Office of the Presiding Bishop

1. Response to “Motion F” of the 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly

Significant questions and concerns exist within the ELCA around respect for people whose consciences are bound to different understandings of the meaning of Scripture and the Confessions (i.e., “bound conscience”), particularly with regard to lifelong same-gender relationships.

These questions and concerns require sustained attention as the ELCA deepens its conversations related to the idea of respect for consciences as used in Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust and in resolutions related to ministry policies as approved by the 2009 Churchwide Assembly.

Related actions underscore the need for sustained attention: a resolution at the Churchwide Assembly requested a “study of bound conscience” and a post-CWA letter from the Southwestern Pennsylvania Synod to the Church Council sought clarity about this concept. A portion of the Church Council’s response provides direction for the future:

To respond, therefore, to the request of Motion F of the 2009 Churchwide Assembly “to undertake a study of the concept of ‘bound conscience’” and “to disseminate widely through appropriate mechanisms the results of this study” with a commitment to a theological conversation on the foundations of this church’s decision-making, the results of that conversation to be disseminated to this church.

The Church Council requested that the Office of the Presiding Bishop develop a report in response to the actions. A working group will bring a proposal for this commitment to conversation for consideration by the ELCA Church Council in April 2010 based on two objectives:

1. Develop a proposal for review by the ELCA Church Council (April 2010) in response to “Motion F” of the 2009 Churchwide Assembly related to “respect for people whose consciences are bound to different understandings of Scripture” and “with a commitment to a theological conversation on the foundations of this church’s decision-making, the results of that conversation to be disseminated to this church”; and
2. Invite helpful and constructive engagement with the issue.

The report of the working group will be provided in Exhibit B, Part 2b, Appendix A.

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To receive with gratitude the report of the working group in response to Motion F of the 2009 Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church;

To acknowledge the objectives of its recommendations:

- Respect for people whose consciences are bound to different understandings of Scripture;
- Commitment to a theological conversation on the foundations of this church’s decision-making, the results of that conversation to be disseminated to this church;
- An invitation to helpful and constructive engagement with the issue of respect for people whose consciences are bound to different understandings of Scripture;

To anticipate deeper and broader sustained attention to these matters through:

- Conversation of key leadership groups throughout this church, including the Conference of Bishops, the Convocation of Teaching Theologians, the Convocation of Lutheran Ethicists, and the gathering of synodical vice presidents, as well as in gatherings of rostered people in synods and conferences, text studies, synod assemblies, campus ministries, congregational studies, and colleges and universities.
- Publications, such as the Journal of Lutheran Ethics, and possible resource books focused on presentations from the events cited above.
- A bibliography and/or resource listing on the ELCA Website, including documents written from a range of perspectives.
- Encouragement for helpful and constructive dialogue in a variety of settings (e.g., “sponsored conversations,” town hall forums, seminars, workshops, online conversations).

J. Office of the Secretary

1. Selection of Site for 2013 Churchwide Assembly

The Office of the Secretary is responsible to “arrange for and manage meetings of the Churchwide Assembly ...” (ELCA 13.41.02.) and presents its recommendations for Churchwide Assembly sites to the Church Council for approval.

Information about the site for the 2013 ELCA Churchwide Assembly is printed in Exhibit R, Part 1

CC ACTION

Recommended:

To designate [to be provided]—subject to the satisfactory completion of negotiations in the judgment of the secretary of this church—as the site for the Thirteenth Churchwide Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, August [to be provided], 2013.

IV. ITEMS FOR EN BLOC ACTION

The following en bloc resolution includes agenda items that will be considered on the last day of the Church Council meeting. Inclusion of these items in the en bloc action reflects a judgment that these items are relatively non-controversial in nature and may not require plenary discussion and a separate vote.

Each of the items is noted as [EN BLOC] on pages 27 - 32. On the first day of the Council meeting, the chair will provide an opportunity for members to indicate whether they wish to discuss separately any of the items any of the items listed in the en bloc resolution; any such item will be removed from the en bloc resolution and discussed at the appropriate point in the agenda.

The chair will not call for a discussion or separate vote on those items that are not removed from the en bloc resolution by the end of the first day of plenary sessions. The items remaining in the en bloc resolution normally will be considered as the last item of council business.

1. Audit Committee Membership

The Audit Committee shall consist of six members. A minimum of two members should be ELCA Church Council Budget and Finance Committee members.

Members of the committee shall be appointed by the Budget and Finance Committee and forwarded to the Church Council for approval. Budget and Finance Committee members should be appointed for a two-year term with the possibility of reappointment up to their Church Council term. Non-Church Council members should be appointed for a two-year term, renewable for two additional terms. Terms need to be staggered in recognition of the need for continuity of committee membership from year to year.

1. Church Council Summer WebEx Meeting [See agenda page 32]

D. Legal and Constitutional Review Committee

Action items recommended by the Legal and Constitutional Review Committee for en bloc approval will be distributed following the committee's April 9, 2010, meeting.

1. Request from the Lutheran Magazine

In a memo dated February 1, 2010, Daniel Lehmann, editor of The Lutheran magazine, wrote, "The Lutheran magazine requests permission to solicit those on the roster of the ELCA to seek contributions to offset the costs associated with providing complimentary copies of the magazine to rostered leaders. According to the Office of the Secretary, a best practice for such solicitation would be to gain the consent of the Church Council following consultation with the Conference of Bishops." The memorandum is printed in full in Exhibit G, Part 2.

The request is made in accordance with ELCA bylaw 11.41.06., "No churchwide appeal to congregations or individuals of this church for the raising of funds shall be conducted by this church or churchwide units without the consent of the Churchwide Assembly, following consultation with the Conference of Bishops. No appeal to selected congregations and individuals of this church for the raising of funds shall be conducted by this church or churchwide units without the consent of the Church Council, following consultation with either the Conference of Bishops or specific synods as appropriate. Proposals for such special appeals shall be presented to the Church Council through the appropriate council committee with recommendations by the Office of the Presiding Bishop."

2. Restated Bylaws of the Board of Pensions

The Board of Pensions has requested approval of amendments to its bylaws. The amendments are designed to incorporate the use of technology into the operation of the Board of Pensions and meetings of its Trustees. Additionally, the amendments update the bylaws to reflect actual practices with respect to notice of meetings.

The amendments to Article 5, relating to meetings of the Board of Trustees, makes it clear that notice of meetings can be given by electronic communications, in accordance with Minnesota statutes. Section 5.2 is being amended to require notice of all meetings, including

"other regular meetings," which always has been the practice of the Board of Pensions. The amendment to Section 5.7 clarifies that consent to written actions can be made by authenticated electronic communications. This amendment codifies the use of "Directors Desk" or similar means of communication.

The amendment to Section 7.4 clarifies that committee meetings and voting can take place by electronic communication. Section 7.5 allows a committee action to be taken by authenticated electronic communication.

In accordance with Section 9.2 of the Restated Bylaws of the Board of Pensions of the ELCA and Article XII of the Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Board of Pensions of the ELCA, these amendments must be forwarded to the Church Council or the Churchwide Assembly for approval prior to the amendments being finalized.

The resolution of the Board of Trustees reads:

WHEREAS, the bylaws need to be amended to incorporate the use of technology into the operation of the Board of Pensions and meetings of the Board of Trustees and to reflect the actual practices of the Board of Pensions with respect to notice of meetings; and

WHEREAS, the amendments to the bylaws are more fully explained in the memorandum from Robert H. Rydland to the Board of Trustees dated February 9, 2010 (a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof); and

2. Church Council Designated Funds

The established method for funding the mission plans of the churchwide organization is through the operating budget. The operating budget, developed after review of potential income sources, is used to establish expense-dollar guidelines for the various units of the churchwide organization as they provide programs or support outlined in the ELCA governing documents.

The Church Council is asked occasionally to establish designated funds for support of certain specific programs or events that may not be included in the "normal" yearly operations of the churchwide organization. Approved requests may be managed in two different ways.

The first way designated funds are managed is through investment in the ELCA Foundation as Church Council designated funds "functioning as endowment." They are reported annually to the Church Council in the spring through the Church Council Budget and Finance Committee. Exhibit F, Part 4a details those funds.

The second way designated funds are managed is through the ELCA treasury as a designated fund to be used for a specific activity within a given time frame. Exhibit F, Part 4b is a summary exhibit of all active Church Council designated funds, exclusive of those "functioning as endowments." Exhibit F, Parts 4c-f includes reports for each of the active Church Council designated funds.
