

ELCA Endowment Fund Pooled Trust - Ministry Growth Fund¹

Fund Overview

Description

The ELCA Endowment Fund Pooled Trust (Ministry Growth Fund, or the Fund), was established to allow for the collective long-term investment of funds belonging to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), its congregations, synods, seminaries and other eligible affiliated entities. To the extent practicable, the Fund pursues investment objectives in line with the Economic Social Criteria Investment Screens approved by the ELCA Church Council. Incorporated into the Fund's accounting are unitization and quarterly endowment distributions. The ELCA Foundation administers the Fund.

Only ELCA-related institutions can be eligible to participate in this investment fund that is exempt from most security registration requirements in accordance with the Philanthropy Protection Act of 1995.

About Performance

The investment results depicted herein represent historical net performance after the deduction of investment manager and custodian fees and expenses including the administrative fee of 60 basis points (0.60%). Prior to July 2017, the total fee was 100 basis points (1.00%). Annual, cumulative and annualized total returns are calculated assuming reinvestment of dividends and income plus capital appreciation. Performance for periods greater than one year is annualized. Underlying returns were provided by the Fund's respective managers. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results.

The Modified Target Benchmark date of first use was January 1, 2021.

Capital Markets Commentary (as of December 31, 2021)

Capital Markets Overview

Global markets rebounded in December as concerns over the Omicron variant's impact on the economy faded. Strong earnings growth fueled equities higher and 2021 ended as the third consecutive year with strong positive returns. The Fed announced, in early December, that they now view inflation as being broader-based rather than transitory and signaled an earlier start of the tapering of their balance sheet and commencement of rate increases in 2022.

Domestic Equity Markets

The S&P 500 returned 4.5% in December. All of the S&P 500 sectors were positive led by Consumer Staples, Real Estate, and Utilities reporting 10.3%, 10.2%, and 9.6% respectively. Laggards for December included Telecom, Energy, and Financials which reported 2.5%, 3.1%, and 3.3%, respectively.

International Equity Markets

International equities were broadly mixed during the month of December. Developed international markets, as measured by the MSCI EAFE index, rose 5.1% for U.S. currency investors. The MSCI Europe index rose 6.6%. Japanese equities rose 1.9% per the MSCI Japan Index. Emerging market equity markets, as measured by the MSCI Emerging Markets index, lagged developed markets while posting a 1.9% gain.

Fixed Income Markets

Overall bond markets were mixed during December. The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond index decreased -0.3% over the period. The yield on the 10-year Treasury remained flat at 1.5%. Riskier parts of the bond market had positive returns for the month. The Bloomberg High Yield index rose 1.9% in December.
