 God's work. Our hands.

As a church, now is our time to encourage people of outstanding talent to answer God's call. In the next 10 years, the ELCA will need 4,000 new pastors just to fill vacancies.

But with an average cost of tuition to attend an ELCA seminary around $16,000 per year, many people feel hesitant to accept where they feel God is calling them.

The ELCA Fund for Leaders is transforming this challenge into an opportunity, providing tuition assistance for 235 students in the 2015-2016 academic year. Students like Leonard.

Leonard, a recent scholarship recipient says, "The ELCA Fund for Leaders is helping shape what it means to be church. It's a really important time in the life of the ELCA – a time when a lot of people think the church is dying. The ELCA Fund for Leaders means that we believe in a resurrection."

Our success to date hints at great possibilities, but there is more we can do. The ELCA Fund for Leaders is committed to supporting every qualified candidate attending an ELCA seminary – infusing our congregations and ministries with astute and creative leaders.

Invest in the future of the church with a gift to the ELCA Fund for Leaders. Together, we are ensuring that candidates like Leonard will have healthier financial realities and be able to go wherever God is calling them. Thank you!
