Bible citations (Contemporary English Version):

Unit 1 — Session one

- Ephesians 3:14-21: All beings in heaven and on earth receive their life from [God]. 14God is wonderful and glorious. I pray that [God's] Spirit will make you become strong followers 15and that Christ will live in your hearts because of your faith. Stand firm and be deeply rooted in [God's] love. 16I pray that you and all of God's people will understand what is called wide or long or high or deep. 17I want you to know all about Christ's love, although it is too wonderful to be measured. Then your lives will be filled with all that God is. 20-21I pray that Christ Jesus and the church will forever bring praise to God. [God's] power at work in us can do far more than we dare ask or imagine. Amen.

- Galatians 3:28: Faith in Christ Jesus is what makes each of you equal with each other, whether you are a Jew or a Greek, a slave or a free person, a man or a woman.

- Romans 8:38-39: I am sure that nothing can separate us from God's love — not life or death, not angels or spirits, not the present or the future, 39and not powers above or powers below. Nothing in all creation can separate us from God's love for us in Christ Jesus our Lord!

Unit 2 — Session one

- Psalm 104:1-34: I praise you, Lord God, with all my heart. You are glorious and majestic, dressed in royal robes ²and surrounded by light. You spread out the sky like a tent, ³and you built your home over the mighty ocean. The clouds are your chariot with the wind as its wings.

4The winds are your messengers, and flames of fire are your servants.

5You built foundations for the earth, and it will never be shaken.

6You covered the earth with the ocean that rose above the mountains.

7Then your voice thundered! And the water flowed

8down the mountains and through the valleys to the place you prepared.

9Now you have set boundaries, so that the water will never flood the earth again.

10You provide streams of water in the hills and valleys, so that the donkeys and other wild animals can satisfy their thirst.

11Birds build their nests nearby and sing in the trees.

12From your home above you send rain on the hills and water the earth.

13You let the earth produce grass for cattle, plants for our food,

14wine to cheer us up, olive oil for our skin, and grain for our health.

15Our Lord, your trees always have water, and so do the cedars you planted in Lebanon.

16Birds nest in those trees, and storks make their home in the fir trees.

17Wild goats find a home in the tall mountains, and small animals can hide between the rocks.

18You created the moon to tell us the seasons. The sun knows when to set,

19and you made the darkness, so the animals in the forest could come out at night.

20Lions roar as they hunt for the food you provide.

21But when morning comes, they return to their dens,

22then we go out to work until the end of day.

23Our Lord, by your wisdom you made so many things; the whole earth is covered with your living creatures.

24But what about the ocean so big and wide? It is alive with creatures, large and small.

25And there are the ships, as well as Leviathan, the monster you created to splash in the sea.

26All of these depend on you to provide them with food,

27and you feed each one with your own hand, until they are full.

28But when you turn away, they are terrified; when you end their life, they die and rot.

29You created all of them by your Spirit, and you give new life to the earth.

30Our Lord, we pray that your glory will last forever and that you will be pleased with what you have done.

31You look at the earth, and it trembles.
You touch the mountains, and smoke goes up.
33 As long as I live, I will sing and praise you, the Lord God.
34 I hope my thoughts will please you, because you are the one who makes me glad.

Unit 2 — Session two

- Ephesians 2:10 (NKJV): “For we are [God’s] workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.”

- Genesis 1:27-28: “So God created humans to be like [Godself; God] made men and women. God gave them a blessing and said: Have a lot of children! Fill the earth with people and bring it under your control. Rule over the fish in the ocean, the birds in the sky, and every animal on the earth.”

Unit 3 — Session one

- Luke 15:12-32: 12 The younger son said to his father, “Give me my share of the property.” So the father divided his property between his two sons. 13 Not long after that, the younger son packed up everything he owned and left for a foreign country, where he wasted all his money in wild living. 14 He had spent everything, when a bad famine spread through that whole land. Soon he had nothing to eat. 15 He went to work for a man in that country, and the man sent him out to take care of his pigs. 16 He would have been glad to eat what the pigs were eating, but no one gave him a thing. 17 Finally, he came to his senses and said, “My father’s workers have plenty to eat, and here I am, starving to death! 18 I will go to my father and say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against God in heaven and against you. I am no longer good enough to be called your son. Treat me like one of your workers.’” 19 The younger son got up and started back to his father. But when he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt sorry for him. He ran to his son and hugged and kissed him. 20 The older son had been out in the field. But when he came near the house, he heard the music and dancing. 21 So he called one of the servants over and asked, “What’s going on here?” 22 The servant answered, “Your brother has come home safe and sound, and your father ordered us to kill the best calf.” 23 The older brother got so angry that he would not even go into the house. His father came out and begged him to go in. 24 But he said to his father, “For years I have worked for you like a slave and have always obeyed you. But you have never even given me a little goat, so that I could give a dinner for my friends. 25 This other son of yours wasted your money on prostitutes. And now that he has come home, you ordered the best calf to be killed for a feast.” 26 His father replied, “My son, you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 27 But we should be glad and celebrate! Your brother was dead, but he is now alive. He was lost and has now been found.”

- Genesis 50:15-21: 15 After Jacob died, Joseph’s brothers said to each other, “What if Joseph still hates us and wants to get even with us for all the cruel things we did to him?” 16 So they sent this message to Joseph: 17 Before our father died, he told us, “You did some cruel and terrible things to Joseph, but you must ask him to forgive you.” 18 Now we ask you to please forgive the terrible things we did. After all, we serve the same God that your father worshiped. When Joseph heard this, he started crying. 19 The younger son got up and started back to his father. But when he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt sorry for him. He ran to his son and hugged and kissed him. 20 The son said, “Father, I have sinned against God in heaven and against you. I am no longer good enough to be called your son.” 21 But his father said to the servants, “Hurry and bring the best clothes and put them on him. Give him a ring for his finger and sandals[d] for his feet. 22 Get the best calf and prepare it, so we can eat and celebrate. 23 This son of mine was dead, but has now come back to life. He was lost and has now been found.” And they began to celebrate. 24 The older son had been out in the field. But when he came near the house, he heard the music and dancing. 25 So he called one of the servants over and asked, “What’s going on here?” 26 The servant answered, “Your brother has come home safe and sound, and your father ordered us to kill the best calf.” 27 The older brother got so angry that he would not even go into the house. His father came out and begged him to go in. 28 But he said to his father, “For years I have worked for you like a slave and have always obeyed you. But you have never even given me a little goat, so that I could give a dinner for my friends. 29 This other son of yours wasted your money on prostitutes. And now that he has come home, you ordered the best calf to be killed for a feast.” 30 His father replied, “My son, you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 31 But we should be glad and celebrate! Your brother was dead, but he is now alive. He was lost and has now been found.”

- Matthew 6:14-15: If you forgive others for the wrongs they do to you, your Father in heaven will forgive you. 15 But if you don’t forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

- Ephesians 4:31-32: Stop being bitter and angry and mad at others. Don’t yell at one another or curse each other or ever be rude. 32 Instead, be kind and merciful, and forgive others, just as God forgave you because of Christ.

- Acts 3:19: So turn to God! Give up your sins, and you will be forgiven.

- 2 Corinthians 5:17: Anyone who belongs to Christ is a new person. The past is forgotten, and everything is new.

Unit 3 — Session two

- Genesis 50:15-21: 15 After Jacob died, Joseph’s brothers said to each other, “What if Joseph still hates us and wants to get even with us for all the cruel things we did to him?” 16 So they sent this message to Joseph: 17 Before our father died, 18 He told us, “You did some cruel and terrible things to Joseph, but you must ask him to forgive you.” 19 Now we ask you to please forgive the terrible things we did. After all, we serve the same God that your father worshiped. When Joseph heard this, he started crying. 20 Right then, Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down to the ground in front of him and said, “We are your slaves.” 21 But Joseph told them, “Don’t be afraid! I have no right to change what God has decided. 22 You tried to harm me, but God made it turn out for the best, so that he could save all these people, as he is now doing. 23 Don’t be afraid! I will take care of you and your children.” After Joseph said this, his brothers felt much better.
Unit 4 — Session one

- Luke 1:26-38: One month later God sent the angel Gabriel to the town of Nazareth in Galilee with a message for a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to Joseph from the family of King David. The angel greeted Mary and said, “You are truly blessed! The Lord is with you.” Mary was confused by the angel’s words and wondered what they meant. Then the angel told Mary, “Don’t be afraid! God is pleased with you, and you will have a son. His name will be Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of God Most High. The Lord God will make him king, as his ancestor David was. He will rule the people of Israel forever, and his kingdom will never end.” Mary asked the angel, “How can this happen? I am not married!” The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come down to you, and God’s power will come over you. So your child will be called the holy Son of God. Your relative Elizabeth is also going to have a son, even though she is old. No one thought she could ever have a baby, but in three months she will have a son. Nothing is impossible for God!” Mary said, “I am the Lord’s servant! Let it happen as you have said.” And the angel left her.

- Luke 1:39-55: A short time later Mary hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea. She went into Zechariah’s home, where she greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, her baby moved within her. The Holy Spirit came upon Elizabeth. Then in a loud voice she said to Mary: God has blessed you more than any other woman! He has also blessed the child you will have. Why should the mother of my Lord come to me? As soon as I heard your greeting, my baby became happy and moved within me. The Lord has blessed you because you believed that he will keep his promise. Mary said: With all my heart I praise the Lord, and I am glad because of God my Savior. He cares for me, his humble servant. From now on, all people will say God has blessed me. God All-Powerful has done great things for me, and his name is holy. He always shows mercy to everyone who worships him. The Lord has used his powerful arm to scatter those who are proud. He drags strong rulers from their thrones and puts humble people in places of power. God gives the hungry good things to eat, and sends the rich away with nothing. He helps his servant Israel and is merciful to his people. The Lord made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his family forever!

Unit 4 — Session two

- Luke 10:1-11: Later the Lord chose seventy-two other followers and sent them out two by two to every town and village where he was about to go. He said to them: A large crop is in the fields, but there are only a few workers. Ask the Lord in charge of the harvest to send out workers to bring it in. Now go, but remember, I am sending you like lambs into a pack of wolves. Don’t take along a moneybag or a traveling bag or sandals. And don’t waste time greeting people on the road. As soon as you enter a home, say, “God bless this home with peace.” If the people living there are peace-loving, your prayer for peace will bless them. But if they are not peace-loving, your prayer will return to you. Stay with the same family, eating and drinking whatever they give you, because workers are worth what they earn. Don’t move around from house to house.

If the people of a town welcome you, eat whatever they offer. Heal their sick and say, “God’s kingdom will soon be here!” But if the people of a town refuse to welcome you, go out into the street and say, “We are shaking the dust from our feet as a warning to you. And you can be sure that God’s kingdom will soon be here!”

Unit 5 — Session one

- John 11:17-27: When Jesus got to Bethany, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Bethany was only about two miles from Jerusalem, and many people had come from the city to comfort Martha and Mary because their brother had died. When Martha heard that Jesus had arrived, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. Yet even now I know that God will do anything you ask.” Jesus told her, “Your brother will live again!” Martha answered, “I know that he will be raised to life on the last day, when all the dead are raised.” Jesus then said, “I am the one who raises the dead to life! Everyone who has faith in me will live, even if they die. And everyone who lives because of faith in me will never really die. Do you believe this?” Yes, Lord!” she replied. “I believe that you are Christ, the Son of God. You are the one we hoped would come into the world.”

Unit 5 — Session two

- John 11:17-27: When Jesus got to Bethany, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. When Martha heard that Jesus had arrived, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. Yet even now I know that God will do anything you ask.” Jesus told her, “Your brother will live again!” Martha answered, “I know that he will be raised to life on the last day, when all the dead are raised.” Jesus then said, “I am the one who raises the dead to life! Everyone who has faith in me will live, even if they die. 24 And everyone who lives because of faith in me will never really die. Do you believe this? 25 "Yes, Lord!" she replied. "I believe that you are Christ, the Son of God. You are the one we hoped would come into the world."

- Genesis 9:8-13: Again, God said to Noah and his sons: 9 I am going to make a solemn promise to you and to everyone who will live after you. 10 This includes the birds and the animals that came out of the boat. 11 I promise every living creature that the earth and those living on it will never again be destroyed by a flood. 12-13 The rainbow that I have put in the sky will be my sign to you and to every living creature on earth. It will remind you that I will keep this promise forever.

- Luke 23:39-43: 39 One of the criminals hanging there also insulted Jesus by saying, "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and save us!" 40 But the other criminal told the first one off, "Don't you fear God? Aren't you getting the same punishment as this man? 41 We got what was coming to us, but he didn't do anything wrong." 42 Then he said to Jesus, "Remember me when you come into power!" 43 Jesus replied, "I promise that today you will be with me in paradise."

- Genesis 17:1-13: Abram was ninety-nine years old when the Lord appeared to him again and said, "I am God All-Powerful. If you obey me and always do right, I will keep my solemn promise to you and give you more descendants than can be counted." 2 Abram bowed with his face to the ground, and God said: 4-5 I promise that you will be the father of many nations. That’s why I now change your name from Abram to Abraham. 6 I will give you a lot of descendants, and in the future they will become great nations. Some of them will even be kings. 7 I will always keep the promise I have made to you and your descendants, because I am your God and their God. 8 I will give you and them the land in which you are now a foreigner. I will give the whole land of Canaan to your family forever, and I will be their God. 9 Abraham, you and all future members of your family must promise to obey me. 10 As the sign that you are keeping this promise, you must circumcise every man and boy in your family. 11 From now on, your family must circumcise every baby boy when he is eight days old. You must even circumcise any man or boy you have as a slave, both those born in your homes and those you buy from foreigners. This will be a sign that my promise to you will last forever.

- Exodus 19:3-8: 3 Moses went up the mountain to meet with the Lord God, who told him to say to the people: 4 You saw what I did in Egypt, and you know how I brought you here to me, just as a mighty eagle carries its young. 5 Now if you will faithfully obey me, you will be my very own people. The whole world is mine, but you will be my holy nation and serve me as priests.

Moses, that is what you must tell the Israelites. 6 After Moses went back, he reported to the leaders what the Lord had said, 7 and they promised, “We will do everything the Lord has commanded.” So Moses told the Lord about this.

- Matthew 28:18-20: Jesus came to them and said: I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth! 18 Go to the people of all nations and make them my disciples. Baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, 19 and teach them to do everything I have told you. I will be with you always, even until the end of the world.

- Matthew 26:26-28: 26 During the meal Jesus took some bread in his hands. He blessed the bread and broke it. Then he gave it to his disciples and said, “Take this and eat it. This is my body.” 27 Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God. He then gave it to his disciples and said, “Take this and drink it. 28 This is my blood, and with it God makes his agreement with you. It will be poured out, so that many people will have their sins forgiven.
