

Pastor

Today we most commonly reserve this title for people who have had special training and blessings to preach the Gospel and administer the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion. But, the role, in Bible Times, identified a more general reference. They were people who expressed a willingness to care for the hearts and needs of others. They were also referred to as shepherds.

There are devoted to

- Welcoming and nurturing people of all ages
- Caring for the spiritual, emotional and or physical needs of others, wherever they may be
- Serving others in expert and everyday ways

The following stories are designed to be dramatic presentations of people who have characterized the role of prophet. They include:

- A whimsical 3-4 minute tribute to a person who is known to be a participant in the proclamation of God's story.
- Two questions about the content of the story
- Two questions to help participants interpret their place in the story
- Brief reference to an experiential activity

Featuring:

The Little Boy with the Lunch Coming Soon
"The Seven" Coming Soon

(Note: This is a work in progress. As additional offerings are submitted, they will be posted.)

You may wish to submit your own "faith proclaimin'" story. Click on the icon to go to a web page where you may email drawings, pictures and/or stories to recognize family members, church members and residents of your local or global community who have similar gifts and/or stories to share.

"I Want to Give a Shout Out to..." certificates are also available to recognize groups or individuals for similar roles they might play. Click on the icon to download the certificate.