

Evangelist

Evangelists are people who take the Good News to those who have never heard it. They are open to God's lead and ground their presentations and/or conversations in a strong belief in God's presence and activity throughout history. Evangelists are inspired to can talk freely about God's activity in their lives and invite others to do the same.

The following stories are designed to be dramatic presentations of people who have characterized the role of prophet. They include

- A whimsical 3-4 minute tribute to a person who is known to be a participant in the proclamation of God's story.
- Two questions about the content of the story
- Two questions to help participants interpret their place in the story
- Brief reference to an experiential activity
