Flooding and tornadoes have wreaked havoc across the Midwest and South. Heavy rainfall and record flooding have forced the evacuation of hundreds of people, claiming the lives of at least 24 people, threatening crops and livestock and putting scores of homes underwater after days of unusual winter weather.

own communities will be expanded by our long-standing network of support to assist those impacted. Together we will work to rebuild lives.

Please pray for all those affected by the tornadoes and flooding. Remember those who have lost everything and all those who are working to respond.

Gifts to Lutheran Disaster Response will be used to help meet unmet needs, providing long-term and effective support to communities. Your help is needed today to bring immediate relief and ongoing support to communities affected. Because of your generous offerings of prayer and financial support, the ELCA walks alongside disaster survivors on the long road to recovery. Thank you!
